Whiting, David Miller, J. K. Johnston, Thos. Hazel, Ed. R. Owens, Harry Eberhart, David Barlet, Lloyd Stover, Nevin Cole, Albert Thompson and Charles A. Schaefer. All report having enjoyed the trip immensely.
-On Wednesday afternoon of next week the base ball team from the Chinese University will be in Bellefonte and play the Bellefonte Academy team on Hughes' Field. This is an athletic event of unusual importance to Bellefonte. This team of Chinese ball players, who have been touring the country during the past few weeks, have won 32 out of 35 games played, a truly wonderful record. They play at State College, Tuesday, and through the efforts of Prof. Hughes they were persuaded to give Bellefonte a game Wednesday. It will certainly be interesting to see how the Chinese players acquit themselves at our national sport, and Prof. Hughes should be encouraged in his efforts to give Bellefonte the best there is in athletics by having a besting crowd at this game which will no doubt prove a hummer. Why not do the business places for the afternoon and give everyone a chance to see the fun?

-On Saturday morning about 8 o'clock, while Herbert Auman, Jr., aged about five years, was playing with some other boys at the corner of the Brockerhoff House, a dog which one of the boys was teasing jumped at the little Auman boy and bit him quite severely in the face, making an ugly wound. The little fellow was taken to Dr. Rogers' office where it was found necessary to put several stitches in the wound. He is now getting along nicely and in the meantime the dog has been penned up for a few days to see whether he shows any signs of the rabies and later will be killed.
-Charles Chandler, the young man who was injured in the auto accident several weeks ago, entered the Bellefonte hospital on Tuesday morning for treatment to his injured arm. Shortly after the accident a silver plate was inserted in the arm in order to aid nature in knitting together the broken bones. This plate was fastened to the bone with steel screws. Late in the flesh around these screws began to fester and one of the screws worked out of the plate. Mr. Chandler entered the hospital Tuesday had the plate removed and returned to his home in the evening. The bone is knitting together nicely and Mr. Chandler thinks he will soon be able to use his arm again.

Mr. Selbert whose home was at Orbisonia, died in Philadelphia and was buried Thursday, at Mt. Union. Mrs. Selbert before her marriage was Miss Gertrude Woodcock, of Altoona.
-Both the Brockerhoff and the Bush house are installing new telephone systems, to include telephones in the rooms in the offices. This will enable guests of these popular hosteries to call not only the office but anyone in town or elsewhere. The system will be installed by the Bell Telephone Co. of Pennsylvania and in addition to the local service there will also be long distance connections which will enable a guest at that hotel to talk from his room to any city in the country. The Bush house will equip twenty-five and the Brockerhoff thirty rooms to start with.
-Morris W. Cowdrick, of Niagara Falls, arrived in Bellefonte, last Thursday for a visit with friends and relatives. It has been his custom for years to come to Bellefonte on Memorial Day and look after his family lot in the Union cemetery. Although not as young as when he resided in Bellefonte he is yet enjoying better health now than he has been for several years. His only trouble now is with cataracts on the eyes.
