The recent rains helped to boost the crops and clarify the atmosphere but it was the concensus of opinion that it could be warmer without discomfort or harm to the crops.

There will likely be some corn in this valley if the farmers can beat the ground squirrels, chipmunks, crows and late spring and early fall frosts

We are informed that some of the people have not got their corn in yet. If it keeps on raining they will have to harvest their potatoes before they plant their corn.

After the decoration ceremonies Friday the Citizens' band of Aaronsburg rendered the following selections in front of the Rebersburg Hotel:
March, "National Reform," Baritone
solo, "Ambrosia," waltze, "American Beauty." This band which is composed of eighteen pieces, is a welldrilled association and reflects great credit on its leader. The baritone solo, "Ambrosia," was remarkably well rendered and the soloist, Lloyd Stover, certainly displayed advanced technique and artistic interpretation. A. S. Stover is the leader of the band and he can well be proud of its attainments.
