

Correspondence

(CONTINUED.)

HOWARD.

"Trample not under foot the little pleasures which a gracious Providence scatters in the daily path, and which, in eager search after some great and exciting joy, we are apt to overlook."

In Our Churches Next Sabbath.

Methodist Episcopal—Pastor James Edwin Dunning will preach at Beech Creek at half past ten, at Hunter's Run at half past two, and in Howard at half past seven.

Presbyterian—Children's Day will be observed at Port Matilda at half past ten; and pastor Walter Fay Carson will preach at Unionville at half past seven.

Reformed—At half past nine pastor E. H. Zechman will hold preparatory service at Marsh Creek, and at ten o'clock Communion will be observed. At half past two the pastor will preach at Jacksonville, and at half past seven Children's Day service will be held in Howard.

United Evangelical—Pastor M. J. Snyder will preach at Marion at half past ten, at Snow Shoe Intersection at half past two, and at Curtin at seven. The annual Children's Day programme will be carried out in Howard at half past seven.

Mrs. Louisa Dietz Dead.

After a brief illness, Mrs. Louisa Dietz died of paralysis, last Friday, having passed her eighty-first birthday, Monday, June 2nd. Mrs. Dietz was born in Germany, coming with her parents to this country while quite young, and growing to womanhood in Indianapolis. There she married a Mr. Nagle, who left her a widow with five children. Her second husband was Philip Dietz, with whom she came to Howard township about years ago. By him she had five children, when she was again widowed, and has made her home in the township since Mrs. Dietz was a quiet, kindly-disposed woman, with all times a bright smile and a pleasant word for her acquaintances and friends whenever she might meet them. Her second husband was a soldier of the Civil war and her widow's pension, backed by the kindness of her children, maintained her in comfort after his death. The funeral service was held in the Reformed church, conducted by Rev. E. H. Zechman, assisted by Rev. M. J. Snyder, Monday forenoon, and interment was made in the M. E. churchyard. The five children who survive are: Fred Nagle, of Indianapolis; Sophia Nagle, wife of George Dietz; Philip Dietz, Christine Dietz Sayer, all of Howard township, and Mary Dietz Lohr, of Bellefonte. A sister, Catharina Waterman, of Indiana, also survives her.

Monday, June 9.

"Did you see the frost this morning?" "Frost! Frost! Why it was a regular February freeze!"

Miss Nettie Swartz is spending this week in Tyrone.

Prof. M. L. Pletcher's normal school closed Friday afternoon.

Miss Anna Muffy entertained her friend, Mrs. W. E. Gilliland, last week.

Estella Bulky spent a happy ten days with some of her friends in Bellefonte.

Mrs. H. M. Confer and daughter, Miss Annie, made a business trip to Lock Haven, Thursday.

Mrs. Rebecca Lucas, with her guest Mrs. Moore, spent Wednesday with John Meese, in Bellefonte.

Mrs. Jno. B. Holter and her guest, Mrs. Williams, of Philadelphia, spent Wednesday at State College.

Miss Maud Thomas is a guest in one of the fraternity houses at the Pennsylvania State College this week.

Harry Masden, employed in the section gang, had his foot badly bruised last week by the fall of a rail upon it.

Mrs. L. C. Thompson and Mrs. Page, of Orviston, spent a portion of last week at the home of Capt. H. C. Holter.

Mrs. Elizabeth Lucas and Mrs. W. H. Gardner, with her little daughter, Sarah, were Bellefonte visitors, Friday.

Mrs. W. L. Harvey, Mrs. W. L. Cook, Miss Rosetta Coo and Mrs. William Wilson were Lock Haven passengers, Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Packer, of Yarnell, were over-night visitors with Mr. and Mrs. John Baney, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Geo. D. Johnson and daughter, Miss Lulu, were in attendance upon the commencement of the Bellefonte High School, Wednesday.

Miss Hilda Wagner entertained her friends, the Misses Verne Rowe, of Boalsburg, last week.

Mrs. Gordon with her little daughter, Mary Elizabeth, were week end visitors at the home of Mrs. Mabel Boalich, at Mill Hill.

Uncomfortable and disabling though not serious illness prevented Rev. M. J. Snyder from filling any of the appointments last Sabbath.

Rev. and Mrs. W. P. Carson, of this Presbyterian charge, have their home brightened by the presence of Mrs. Carson's mother, Mrs. L. R. White, of Philadelphia.

George D. Johnson, John Schenck and Frederic Schenck, three retired farmers, took advantage of the opportunity to look over the facilities for helping farmers at the college last Thursday.

Assistant pastor M. C. Piper very acceptably filled the Methodist pulpit here last Sabbath morning, preaching a sound gospel sermon from II Cor. 5, 17—"If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature."

Dr. Kurtz left for Philadelphia, Thursday morning, intending to stop at Williamstown between trains, and see so much as he could of the ceremonious dedication of the magnificent new Masonic Home at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Yearick brought their fine new boy, whom they have named Ocean Wave, over from their Nittany valley home to show him to their relatives here, spending the day with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Yearick.

Bright little Clara, daughter of Harry E. and Mrs. Butler, visiting with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Butler, was taken suddenly ill early Sunday morning, and the doctors diagnose the trouble as appendicitis.

Thomas A. Lucas, who passed through here a week or two ago on his way south to accept a flattering position as Professor of Commercial Law and Business Correspondence in one of the important institutions there, suffered a relapse of his illness and returned to his home. He is now with his brother William at Orviston, hoping that the fine air and water of the woods on Beech Creek may aid in restoring him to sound health.

Mrs. Lucinda Morrison Alters, of Phillipsburg, was a guest of her old time friend, Mrs. W. L. Harvey, Wednesday night. Mrs. Alters is well remembered as one of a family named Morrison who lived here something like twenty-five years ago.

Mrs. James Kane, with her daughter, Miss Ruth, departed for Meyers-town, Lebanon county, on Saturday, where they will enjoy seeing the older daughter, Miss Jennie, receive her graduating diploma from the Albright College, at the commencement this week.

Improvement of the roads is the order of the day, and Mr. William H. Austin, who has immediate charge of the section beginning at Milesburg and continuing eastward to McCalmont's crossing of the N. Y. C. railroad east of Beech Creek, on Route two hundred and nineteen of the State Highway, is contributing his full share. Last week he devoted his attention to the short bit between Howard borough and the east end of the new highway built by the Pennsylvania Railroad company.

County Superintendent Ethers held his examination for teachers last week, and had a goodly number of them to care for. At the close of the work he gave a little talk containing useful suggestions and good counsel. The twenty-three prospective teachers who submitted to the ordeal are named below: Zelma Sullenburg, Helen Wal, Cora E. Confer, Ellen Woomer, Catherine Hoy, Isabelle Way, Lulu Pifer, Arvilla Gardner, Mabel E. Leuder, Ethel Bitner, Beulah Holter, Ruth Gardner, Charles E. Robb, Mary Richner, H. Yeager, I. Homer Yearick, Russell Wagner, Michael Pletcher, Luther Mogel and Frederic Pletcher.

SPRING MILLS.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Rossman, of Stuttgart, Ark., have come east to spend their vacation during the summer months with their parents. Mr. Rossman is a son of H. F. Rossman, and has been principal of the Stuttgart schools for a number of years.

W. S. Rossman, of Trevoise, spent several days with his parents last week.

Henry Brown, who at present is working for the P. R. R. Co. at Sunbury, was home over Sunday.

Frank Allison, a student of Mercersburg College, is home on his summer vacation.

J. C. Lee, the agent in P. R. station, sold sixty excursion tickets to Washington, D. C., last Sunday.

Miss Orpha Gramley and Ruth McCool, as delegates from the Missionary Society, and Eugene Gramley, as delegate from the Mission Band, are attending a convention this week which is being held at Salona.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McElliott are rejoicing over the arrival of a young daughter.

Ben. Donachy has returned to Lewisburg after spending several weeks with his mother.

Robison Bros.' show will be in our town to-night (Thursday.)

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Duck and Mrs. William Hettinger are attending the commencement at Gettysburg this week; before returning home they will also visit Philadelphia and New York City.

Mrs. Wilbur Burkholder, of Bellefonte, spent a few days last week in our town.

J. Russell Gephart is ably handling the State highway, here. B. F. Kennelly supervises the distribution of crushed stone and John Graden is quarry boss.

C. P. Long has engaged some men in ditching along the highway.

JACKSONVILLE, No. 1.

Miss Verma McClintock has returned home from Juniata.

J. S. Condo, employed at Hayes Run, spent Sunday at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Heltman, of Mackeyville, spent Sunday with her parents, here.

John Frazier, of Williamsport, visited his sister, Mrs. Lewis Beightol, at the Evangelical Children's Day service, Sunday, were very successful, with a nice offering.

Mrs. N. Kling and mother are visiting Mrs. Frank Walte at the old home. Dwight Stover's new barn is being raised on the Long place, by N. H. Yearick, superintendent.

Jack Frost left black tracks here. Our supervisors are busy crushing stones for road repairs.

W. L. Walliser bought a three-year-old mare from his brother and is breaking her in, cultivating corn.

CENTRE MILLS.

Mrs. Joe Corman visited relatives in Penns valley.

Ray Heid feasted at Spring Mills, Saturday.

Paul and Mary Shaffer visited their brother at State College, Sunday.

J. A. Kline entertained an auto party from Centre Hall, consisting of Messdames Kramer and Godshall, the latter children and Miss Helen Bartholomew and Gertrude Spangler.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cummings and family visited friends at Tusseyville over Sunday.

William Bair and family, of Nittany, visited their former home, here.

David Weaver spent Sunday at the Mountain.

Mr. Vonada, of Madisonburg, visited his daughter, Mrs. Harry Miller.

BOALSBURG.

W. H. Stuart and family spent Sunday in Shingletown.

Miss Maud Houtz visited friends in Bellefonte several days the past week.

Samuel Kaup and daughter, of Altoona, are visiting the former's parents, here.

Do not forget the festival on Saturday evening in Boal hall.

Miss Mae Kooney, of Bellefonte, spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. Jesse Nevel.

Samuel Burris, wife and daughter, of the Branch, spent Sunday with friends in town.

Chester Johnson, of State College, spent Sunday evening with his friend, Elsie Rishel.

PINE GROVE MILLS.

Fred Tate returned from the University at Sellersburg.

Miss Helen Duff and sister, Edna, spent Monday at the St. Elmo.

Mrs. Jacob Keller is visiting her sons in Pittsburg.

J. W. Sunday is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Seger, in Mifflin county.

Rev. Wm. Dale, of Pittsburg, spent a few days with his father.

Mrs. John Hess returned from a long and pleasant sojourn at Medina, Ohio.

Roy S. Gass is back from Warren.

Fred Randolph Sundayed at Manor Hill and Saalsburg.

The mal-odorous legislature of 1913 will adjourn Thursday two weeks from to-day.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

The only Baking Powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar

Makes delicious home-baked foods of maximum quality at minimum cost. Makes home baking pleasant and profitable

UNIONVILLE.

"On the Wing."

Mrs. Willie Bing Senger and daughter, Mollie, of Reynoldsville, and Mr. and Mrs. Holland, of DuBois, came over for a Sunday visit with the former's mother.

Mrs. Mary Hall of Clifton Springs, Va., and Aunt Ann Moore, of Gramplan, two happy little girls in the octogenarian class, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Margaret Brugger.

John P. Brugger, of Johnstown, was home over Sunday.

Miss Sallie McGarvey is spending her vacation in Philadelphia.

Miss Kate Buck, now domiciled with her sister, Mrs. Baird, in Lock Haven, is a welcome visitor among friends.

Mrs. George Calhoun, daughter Marie and son Paul, of McKeesport, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Eckenroth, and other near relatives.

Mrs. John C. Stere, after spending several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Rev. Victor L. Wagner, at South Danville, returned home on Monday evening highly elated with her outing.

Rock Griest, of Colver, a new coal town of 400 homes, where he is boss of the big company store, is visiting here.

Sam. Furl, who is so anxious to take an aerial ride with me, can be accommodated.

On Sunday morning another wreck occurred on the railroad, tearing up the track opposite the station; but it was cleaned up in time for the passenger train to slide by.

William Wolf and his son, Joseph, are brick veneering John Stere's mansion.

On last Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, Unionville Lodge of Odd Fellows met in their hall and repaired to the upper cemetery for the purpose of decorating the graves of their deceased brothers. Fifteen members have passed away since the organization of this lodge some 25 years ago; 13 were beneficiaries and two non-beneficiaries at the time of their demise.

A large number of the good citizens turned out, some in conveyances, so that all could be hauled. The ceremony was ritualistic and was very pretty and impressive. It was our initial Decoration Day and we expect it to be an annual event. J. Kennedy Johnston, Esq., of Bellefonte, was the orator of the day and his excellent and inspiring address was the crowning event of the day.

On next Sunday morning at 10:30 there will be Children's Day exercises at the M. E. church. Do not miss those beautiful and impressive services.

F. McDonnell, train dispatcher, has just returned from his annual vacation trip. John is one of our Unionville boys who has "made good."

Forty-two men of various nationalities are at work putting in a new siding at this place.

RICHARDS.—Mrs. Elmira Richards, of Julian, after an illness of many months, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mills Alexander, at State College, on last Thursday, June 5th, of a complication of diseases incident to her advanced age, and on Saturday morning her remains were taken to Jersey Shore for interment. She leaves, to survive her, the following children: Mrs. Josephine Alexander, of State College; Mrs. Nettie Rodkey, of McKeesport; Mrs. Julia Parsons, of Unionville; Rolland R. Morgan and Milton Bing Richards, all of Jersey Shore, and one sister, Mrs. Frances Sheffer, of Bellefonte. Deceased was born at Pleasant Gap, December 20, 1838, and was, at the time of her death, aged 74 years, 5 months and 15 days, and was the daughter of Thomas and Ruth Harrison. She was married to Reuben Richards, who preceded her to the grave a number of years ago. She was, for many years, a consistent member of the Baptist church, and her faith in the all-redeeming power of Christ was so strong that she often expressed a desire to go to him that she might be relieved from pain and suffering. She was one of those mild, kind, affectionate women, beloved and respected by all who knew her.

MOSHANNON.

Clyde Fye and Charles Smith, a friend from Renovo, are visiting here.

Mary Palmer, of Cooper, is a sprightly employe of her brother, Fred.

Frank Palmer and son, of Cooper, visited Fred Palmer, a son of Frank.

Virgie Walker spent a few days visiting her cousin, Carrie Holt, at Snow Shoe.

Roxie Leeder was seen angling for trout in a neighboring stream. Oh you Roxie!

Kelley Rown, of Clarence, was a visitor here. Some special magnet, perhaps.

The tenth annual reunion of the Yearick and Hoy families will be held at Hecla Park, on Thursday, June 13, 1913. Rev. J. Ledy Yearick will deliver the address. A large number of the friends and relatives of these families are expected to be in attendance. Usually from two to three hundred are present.

DEMONSTRATION

American Beauty Corsets

One Week Only

Monday, June 16 until Saturday, June 21

You are given a very cordial invitation to attend this demonstration at our store and we are extremely anxious that every lady in our city and vicinity attend some time during the week.

Miss Whittier, the expert in charge, will show you;—How to properly fit and lace a corset; The right selection of the correct corset for your figure; The corset that should be worn by the large, stout figure or the slight or medium figure; How to avoid corset troubles—AND AT NO COST TO YOU.

American Beauty and Madame Grace Corsets

Will be fitted without charge during this demonstration—To be fitted right means YOUTHFUL FIGURE, COMFORT, STYLE and ECONOMY OF CORSET WEAR.

Every well dressed woman should give careful attention to the selection of her corset.

To the young woman just entering womanhood, particular attention should be given to the choice of a corset. See our demonstrator and get the benefit of her advice and let her select a corset that will be right.

American Beauty $1.00 and Upwards, Madame Grace $3.00 and Above.

THE BEST CORSETS MADE

KATZ & COMPANY

Getting The Most For Your Money

IN CLOTHING

Spending, $10, $15, $20, $25, for a suit of clothes is easy, if you have the money to spend. But buying Clothing to get the best returns for your cash, that's not such an easy matter as many men have found out to their sorrow. You go into a store and see a suit of clothes marked $15 or $20, it's a good suit, it looks well on you and you like the pattern and color, you buy it, you pay out fifteen or twenty dollars, hard earned money, without inquiring into the matter sufficiently to satisfy yourself that you are getting value received. The chances are five to four you are not because for that same money you can buy better clothes here, or the same clothes for less money. This is not idle talk, either. These two stores by special trade prices are placing before you the greatest clothes values ever seen. A little investigation and this will be apparent to you. Whatever your position in life, whatever your special requirements may be—as regards clothes—you'll find in this new first goods we are showing a suit exactly fitted to your special needs.

The sharpest critic; the most exacting style mentor can be suited from this immense stock and we guarantee a saving on these prices that makes it worth your while to investigate. Suits in all cuts $10, 12.50, 15, 18, 20, 22.50 25 and 30.

Sim The Clothier,

Bellefonte, Penna. State College, Penna.

WE PAY

65c per bushel for POTATOES.
20c per dozen for EGGS.
14c per pound for LARD.

Gillen, the Grocer,