All Centre countians residing in and about Philadelphia are earnestly requested to affiliate themselves with the association. Ira D. Garman, V. Pres., John C. C. Beale, sec'y.

—Company L, Twelfth regiment, N. G. P., of this place, will leave for the annual encampment at Sellersburg, Pa., July 5, with a full complement of men. Last year's encampment was held at Gettysburg, but two years ago the third brigade held its manoeuvres on the site of this year's activities. The men will remain in camp for eight days.

—W. R. Brachbill, the up-to-date furniture dealer, now has one of the most spacious and residences and places of business in town. Painters have recently brightened up the exterior of Mr. Brachbill's properties on south Spring street in so tasteful a manner that they are highly commended.

—A round dozen of Lewistown Methodists, led by Rev. E. F. Brown, dropped into Bellefonte Sunday morning in time to attend the Methodist church here and listen to a sermon by their former pastor, Dr. E. H. Yocum, who for five years was pastor of their church at Lewistown. It was a pretty comment to Dr. Yocum and one that he no doubt highly appreciated. They returned home Sunday afternoon.

—Edmund Joseph, who has been visiting relatives in this place and attending the state college commencement, returned to his home in New York City, Saturday. Edmund completed a four year course at State College in three years and for the past year was a student at Columbia University. His trip back here was principally to get his diploma as a graduate of State, it being impossible to receive this under four years.

—It should be borne in mind that Bellefonte will have a phantasmagoria meeting in July, from the 17th, to the 23rd. The meetings and entertainments will be held in a large tent on the grounds at the new school building, and the entertainments to be provided will embrace some of the best lecturers and musical organizations before the public. A Chautauqua in Bellefonte will be something new, and a rare intellectual treat. Tickets are sold at a low price, admitting the holder to all the week's entertainments.

She was accompanied home by a classmate, Miss Margaret Scott, of Braddock, who will be her guest for a short time.

—Miss Sara Fullerton Hastings gave a house party over Sunday at her home in this place. The following guests were present from Harrisburg: Miss Frances Bailey, Miss Emily Bailey, Miss Eleanor Boyd, Jackson Boyd, Henry M. Gross, Warner Doran and Samuel W. Fleming, Jr. On Saturday evening Miss Hastings gave a dance in the town hall in their honor.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wells, a newly married couple from Niagara Falls, who have been visiting friends and relatives here for a week or more left for their home Monday afternoon. Before going to housekeeping in their new home in Niagara Falls, they expect to spend a week more in Lockport, Ontario, Canada. Mrs. Wells will be remembered as Miss Mary Fleck, formerly of this place.

—U. Harry Reamer, formerly of Bellefonte and for many years conductor on the passenger train between Lewisburg and Bellefonte, has accepted the management of the Buffalo Express, at Millersburg, Pa. The traveling public will find the popular knight of the ticket punch at the new stand to look after their personal comforts. Manager H. B. Young resigned and the directors of the corporation tendered the position to Mr. Reamer, who has been living in Williamsport since retiring from the railroad.

—On Saturday last the Ladies of the Bellefonte Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution held their annual Flag Day dinner at the Nittany Country Club. There were covers laid for thirty-eight, which included guests from State College and the husbands of several of the members. At the dinner short speeches were made by Dr. E. E. Sparks, of State College; Judge Ellis L. Orvis, Prof. James R. Hughes and Harry B. Young. They all returned on the night train having had a most delightful afternoon and evening.

—The curb market at Bellefonte has grown so large, as the Good Lord lets vegetables and fruits grow, that farmers get their spring work off their hands. Bellefonte offers special reasons now why this market should be fostered. Everybody boost this.

—Carl M. Gage, President, and general manager of the Huntingdon & Broad Top Railroad Co., Phila., with the following from the same city, were guests at the Brockerhoff: C. D. E. Barnes, F. C. Downes, S. G. B. Cook, William Burgess and T. Ben. Fraizler, all men of business prominence.

—Mrs. Calvin Huss arrived in Bellefonte on Friday from Troy, N. Y., to see her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Wyland, on east High street. She was accompanied to this place by Miss Jennie Hess, a relative of her husband, who will also be a guest at the Wyland home.

—G. A. Tate, a native of Centre county and a skilled workman in the steel plant of Carnegie at Duquesne, brought his daughter to visit a few weeks with his sister, Mrs. Frank Lee, at Pleasant Gap, and enjoy the scenes that revive memories of his boyhood days. He paid the Democrat a pleasant visit.

—The Hon. W. R. Bierly, who spent the past three weeks in Bellefonte on the editorial staff of The Centre Democrat, left his leave on Monday to continue in his work of soliciting for a legal publishing house. Mr. Bierly is a versatile writer and our readers enjoyed his pithy manner of stating things. We hope to enlist his services on the Democrat some later date.

—A dozen and a half motor cyclists, members of an Altoona and Juniata motor club, invaded Bellefonte on Sunday and took dinner at the hotels. The boys enjoyed their run very much, which was made without mishap. The triangle in front of the First National Bank was pressed into service by the visitors to stack their "vehicles," and the scene presented a miniature cycle show.

—William Allen, a former citizen of Bellefonte, now employed at the moulding trade in Larimer, Pa., left last Saturday for his home after spending a brief time in Bellefonte with friends. In the days of the old Company B, Billy was third in command, serving as second lieutenant for a number of years, and it may truthfully be said was one of the most popular men in the company.

—There are not many old timers left who remember the fierce rivalry there used to be between Jerry Butts, who runs the Butts house here, Temple court now stands, and R. D. Cummings, who runs the Cummings house 50 years ago, now the Haag Hotel run by Ex-sheriff Kline. When one of those hardy pine knots of a half century ago, comes to Bellefonte, he naturally looks over the old battle grounds, for, it is said when a man couldn't pick a fist fight at Cummings' tavern, he could go down to Jerry and be accommodated. Oh those were stirring days!

—Christopher Lobingier, a sturdy, gray haired man, probably traveled further than any other person to attend the State College commencement. He came from the southern part of Georgia, about ten miles from where Jefferson Davis was captured after the close of the war. He is a native of Pennsylvania and was attending state college as a member of the class of '83 when the war broke out in 1861. With other students he enlisted and went to the front and this is the first time he has been back since. Thursday of last week he spent in Bellefonte and the only landmark he tried to locate was Jerry Butts' old tavern, where the students used to congregate in those days.

—Mrs. George Markle, of Jeannette, Pa., is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Eberhart, on Penn street.

—Miss Flo R. Duck, of St. Louis, Mo., is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. E. Burkholder, of North Thomas street.

—Miss Margaret Aull, of Philadelphia, and Miss Helen Chambers, of Kennet Square, Pa., the latter the daughter of Col. E. B. Chamberlaine, of Bellefonte, are enjoying the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Richards at their home on East Linn street. Miss Aull, who is a niece of Mrs. Richards, will likely spend the summer here.

—Mr. and Mrs. John S. Walker with their son, Robert, and Miss Anna Shillington, of the late Col. E. B. Chamberlaine, left Bellefonte at 2 o'clock Thursday last week in their Pierce Arrow car for a trip east. They will visit Philadelphia and will then tour through Delaware to visit Mr. Walker's relatives. They will likely return home today.

—An effort is being made to have a representation of the organizations of the town participate in the Fourth of July parade. A committee has been appointed for a Woman's Suffrage contingent and all those who would desire to march under the banners of "Votes for Women" will please send their names to Miss Elizabeth Blanchard, chairman.

—After seeing tonight's program at the Lyric you will not want to miss seeing Friday and Saturday night's pictures. The beautiful play, "Tempest and Sunshine," will be shown Friday night in two reels making four reels in all. Saturday night a big five reel show including the picturesque story of "Snow White," in three reels Orchestra every evening.

—Rev. Fitzgerald, a student at the Susquehanna University, preached two very interesting sermons in the Lutheran church last Sunday. On the coming Sunday Rev. William B. B. Glanding, D. D., of Syracuse, N. Y., will occupy the pulpit of the Lutheran church. He is said to be an eloquent speaker and it is hoped he may be greeted with a large audience.

—Scenic Patrons are greatly delighted with the many excellent feature films being shown nightly. Tonight will be shown a thrilling drama of the great northwest entitled "Into the North." Friday night's program will be the usual good one, following by a great show on Saturday night, including the two-reel feature, "The Still Voice." The Scenic never disappoints.

—By popular subscription several Bellefonte veterans raised sufficient money to procure a bench for the Court House park. The county commissioners granting permission to place on the walks and on the ledges on the bench seats forth. "It is for the use of old soldiers." Why not have more such benches placed at each side of the park as a place of rest for strangers coming to town?

—On the coming Saturday Benton D. Tate will make sale of his household furniture and will vacate the rooms he occupied with his mother in the Bishop's building on West Bishop street. He has secured a room with Mrs. S. A. Bell and Miss Alice Tate in the Curtin house on the corner of Allegheny and Howard streets, and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Love will move into the apartments over Sauer's jewelry store recently occupied by Dr. A. W. Hafer.

—Lieutenant Commander Roland I. Curtin and wife, with their two children, arrived in Bellefonte on Monday from Annapolis, Md., and are guests at the home of his mother, Mrs. John I. Curtin, on West Curtin street. Mrs. Curtin and the children will remain here for some time but Lieut. Commander Curtin will leave Friday for Santa Ana, California, where he will board the U. S. Ship "Denver" for the west coast of Mexico, where he will be assigned to command of the United States Cruiser "Pittsburg."

—List of unclaimed letters remaining in the Bellefonte postoffice for the week ending June 14: Acklen Furniture Co., Frank Beck, O. E. Bennett, Box Q, Mrs. D. W. Burke, Raysh M. Cuthbertson, Holden D. Dyer, Fred Fravel, Mrs. Clarence Faust, Mrs. Katherine Glazy, Elsie Gras, C. E. Harper, Mrs. A. W. Harris, H. Hitchler, J. A. Horrell, Mrs. Louise Keller, Marshall Mayhew, K. N. Marshall, W. R. Roberts, Jacob Royer, Dr. F. W. Sunday, George M. Topper; Foreign—Marin Bernardino. H. C. Valentine, postmaster.

—Frank Bartley's evil jinx has surely been following him the past few days. On Monday while coming up south Allegheny street in his Ford car a rear wheel slipped from the bearing, just for enough to cause a scare but do no damage. The car was towed to Sebring's garage for repairs. This compelled Frank to go back to the old mare for transportation facilities and although she didn't lose a wheel, she decided to add to Frank's misfortunes by running off '43 when the store rooms of which he is a tenant, were being broken up and attached to an open buggy, made a backneck run up Reservoir Hill, turned into east Logan and came down Bishop street to the Brant House where it was caught, without having to locate the vehicle. Frank's friends are fearful of what might happen should he resort to aviation.

—William Lucas, of Moshannon, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Barlett, Sr., over Sunday.

—Former Register A. G. Archey, of Pine Grove Mills, was in Bellefonte on Wednesday attending to business.

Among those who have purchased cars out of this assignment are Robert Roan, of Bellefonte; William Noll, of Peru; John Garbrick, of Zion; Emanuel Corvan, and Epley Gentzel of Spring township.

—Twenty-one members of the senior class, 1914, of the Pennsylvania State College, spent from Friday until Wednesday in the mountains nearby town, acquiring practical geological knowledge under the direction of three instructors of the institution. They proceeded for the benefit of the new pyramids each morning. They left for their respective homes on Wednesday.

—On Tuesday evening the Ladies' Bible Class of the Lutheran church held a musical at the residence of Mr. A. F. Showers, on East Curtin St. A very excellent musical program was rendered by local talent and some delightful refreshments served. The proceeds are for the benefit of the new parsonage, which our Lutheran brethren expect to erect this summer on their lot on Linn street adjoining the church.

—The Mens' Organized Bible Class of the United Brethren church held its monthly meeting in the Ladies Aid room last Friday evening. Rev. M. K. Reilly, pastor of the M. E. church at the College, made the principal address, which was well received and William Lucas, of Moshannon, also spoke. After the addresses refreshments were served. It is expected that the next meeting which will be held in July will be a reunion meeting of the Ladies and Mens' Bible Class, which teams Rev. Clark, of the Milesburg Baptist church, will speak.

—Two weeks from tomorrow the Glorious Fourth will be celebrated in various ways throughout our broad land. Bellefonte citizens are going to enjoy a clean and sane day thanks to the efforts of those who have the welfare of children at heart. The public is earnestly requested to hang out flags and bunting at their residences and places of business to aid in making the same Fourth a gala day. All children wishing to enjoy a free ride in the automobiles, immediately after the parade, will form in orderly line, extending from R. A. Beck's barber shop across the store rooms of which are occupied by the Potter-Hoy Hardware Co. and Shuey's grocery, respectively, the passerby is greeted with the bright flare of a pleasing shade of red paint which adorns the front of the building. Across the street a new veranda is replacing the old one that had become worn with age, on the Bush block, adjoining the eastern end of the Arcade. Last but not least, within the same radius before mentioned, is the new cement pavement being laid on the eastern and southern frontage of the Centre county bank building. These steps forward in beautifying High street—where strangers get their first impression of our tidiness when entering the town—should be an example for others to follow.

—The spirit of improvement has struck with considerable force that portion of west High street lying between the Centre county bank and the bridge. Beginning with the Harris block, the store rooms of which are occupied by the Potter-Hoy Hardware Co. and Shuey's grocery, respectively, the passerby is greeted with the bright flare of a pleasing shade of red paint which adorns the front of the building. Last but not least, within the same radius before mentioned, is the new cement pavement being laid on the eastern and southern frontage of the Centre county bank building. These steps forward in beautifying High street—where strangers get their first impression of our tidiness when entering the town—should be an example for others to follow.

—The spirit of improvement has struck with considerable force that portion of west High street lying between the Centre county bank and the bridge. Beginning with the Harris block, the store rooms of which are occupied by the Potter-Hoy Hardware Co. and Shuey's grocery, respectively, the passerby is greeted with the bright flare of a pleasing shade of red paint which adorns the front of the building. Across the street a new veranda is replacing the old one that had become worn with age, on the Bush block, adjoining the eastern end of the Arcade.
