

Circulation Over 5,600
Both sides

The Centre Democrat

Best Advertising Medium
In Centre County
Everybody Reads It

Circulation Over 5,600—Largest in Centre county.

BELLEFONTE, PA., THURSDAY, JULY 10th, 1913.

Vol. 36. No. 27.

THE FOURTH OF JULY FITTINGLY CELEBRATED

MANY VISITORS IN TOWN LAST WEEK.

LARGE PARADE WAS A SUCCESS

Most Successful Celebration Held in Bellefonte for Many Years—Managers of the Affair Highly Pleased—List of Prize Winners.

Beyond every doubt Bellefonte had one of the cleanest and most delightful celebrations of the nation's birth of independence on Friday, last, of any municipality in the state. From every point of view the day can be looked back to with pride by those who planned the affair and the many who contributed time and money to its success. From the first sound of the bugle in the morning at the band concert, until the end of the exercises at the High School building in the evening, not a hitch occurred to mar the pleasures of the day, except rain near the close which made it necessary to hold the speaking in the school building instead of on the commons.

Perhaps the greatest and most thoroughly enjoyed event of the day was the parade, which formed near the new school building and marched over the business streets of the town. The morning trains brought throngs of people to Bellefonte, and by the time the pageant was ready to move the route was lined by an eager and happy mob. Led by Marshals Dr. M. J. Locke and J. Will Conley the order of the parade was as follows: The famous Coleville band who never appeared to better advantage; Major R. A. Beck mounted on a charger, who led the Logan Fire Company with their engine and hook and ladder truck; the neat-appearing Undine Fire Company with engine; float contributed by the Loyal Order of Moose, on which appeared their degree team in regalia; pretty little girls carrying hoops and baskets, arranged by the Bellefonte Basket Shop; nummers representing various business houses of the town; vehicle with dainty advertisement of Aiken's store; vehicle from the John Meese store; float by Fuel and Supply Company; a unique exhibit by Krumrine's Pharmacy depicting the different results derived from celebrating the Fourth in a safe and sane manner, and in the old way; large float from Morris' coal yard containing a bevy of pretty girls; following this came gorgeous turnouts of Montgomery & Co., Brockerhoff House, Luderbach-Barber Co., O'Brien's store, Coadler's Bakery (especially neat), Haze's Grocery, Morris & Sheffer, Bush House Cigar store; "Our Boys Band," a splendid musical organization from Milesburg; girls of 1892; about ninety men, under the leadership of the Bellefonte Basket Shop, carrying a banner of "Votes for Women," followed by others in carriages; tribe of young "Indians"; Bellefonte hospital ambulance; W. C. T. U.

Prizes awarded to seventeen children competing for the best Uncle Sam, Columbia, cowboy, cowgirl, Indian, etc., consisting of one-half fare ticket to all the events of Chautauqua week.

A prize of $5.00 in gold was awarded Mrs. Edward Harper for the most beautifully decorated automobile. Philip Shoemaker received $5.00 in gold for being judged the best town nummer. Paul Sheffer as a clown won the $5.00 in gold in the bicycle class.

A prize of $5.00 in gold for the best organization float was awarded the Moose for their very handsomely gotten up float.

In the advertisement class, for beauty, originality, the greatest amount of effort and the best business advertisement, the Bellefonte Fuel & Supply Co. was unanimously given first honor; but because both partners of the company and the decorator and decorator of the float were actively interested in the management of the parade, first money was not accepted.

$5.00 in gold was awarded Krumrine's Drug Store for their excellent float advertisement. "The old Fourth and the new." The second prize, $5.00 was captured by the A. G. Morris coal yard float.

Following the parade all the children of the town were given a free automobile ride, the run being made to Zion and return, and very much enjoyed by the little folks.

In the afternoon a large crowd went out to Hughes Field to witness the ball game between the New Century Club of Tyrone and Bellefonte team. The local team decided to make themselves safe at the beginning, and before the visitors fairly realized what was going on Bellefonte had the score 3-0 in their favor, and kept in the lead until the end of the game; result, 7-4 in favor of Bellefonte.

The swimming pool at the Y. M. C. A. shared the other attractions in popularity, and a number of races were pulled off and prizes awarded.

In the evening a large audience gathered in the High School auditorium where a program of speaking and music had been arranged. Three fine addresses were delivered by Rev. Dr. Schmidt, Mr. Harry Keller and Mr. John Blanchard. A chorus under the direction of Miss Mary Bradley, rendered a number of patriotic songs.

The committee in charge feel exceedingly grateful to the many who contributed in any way to the success of the day. Money to the amount of $215 had been subscribed by the business men. From this sum $262.56 was paid out in expenses, leaving a balance in bank to credit of Safe and Sane Fourth Fund of $12.44, to be used on July 4th, 1914.

Mailing List Corrected.

The attention of all subscribers who made remittances to this office during the month of June, or who ordered change of address on their paper, is called to the fact that our mailing list was corrected last week, and should show the proper credits and changes. All errors in same should be promptly reported to this office.

FATAL QUARRY ACCIDENT.

Foreigner Meets Death in Cave-In—Narrow Escape for Others.

A fatal accident occurred in what is known as the Humes farm quarry, near Coleville, operated by the American Lime & Stone Company, on Saturday June 28th, caused by a cave-in of many tons of stone and earth. The accident occurred near the close of the afternoon, while eight men were at work in the quarry. All escaped from the path of the huge avalanche of stone except two Austrians, John Parrish and George Riggles, the former of whom was crushed so badly that he died shortly afterwards in the Bellefonte hospital. Riggles has a broken left leg and many severe bruises but will recover.

Many narrow escapes were made by some of the men who were working nearby the ledge that fell. Harry Lambert, of Milesburg, engineer of the quarry which hauls the cars from the quarry, made a thrilling get-away. Mr. Lambert was in his engine directly opposite the over hanging rock when it started to fall. He noted his peril and leaped from the engine, barely in time to escape instant death. The dinkey was completely buried in the high pile of rock.

The foreigner who lost his life was unmarried and was aged about 35 years. He leaves to survive his parents in the old country, to whom he is said to have been devoted, sending his wages to them at regular periods. He had planned to go home and buy a farm in a short time. The funeral was held from the Catholic church on Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

MOTOR PARTY INJURED.

Altoona Have Narrow Escape From Death Near Milesburg Station.

A party of Altoona autoists, consisting of one man and three women, had a narrow escape from death on Thursday morning of last week, when their touring car was side-swiped at Milesburg by the passenger train which was backing down from Bellefonte. The members of the party were Henry Doerr, a meat dealer, and owner of the car, who sustained three fractured ribs and a badly contused side; Mrs. Craig Rhoads, scalp lacerations and sprain lacerations; and Miss Grace Kephart, who suffered a number of bruises.

The auto party had started from Altoona about 7 A. M., intending to run to Howard and spend the day. The trip was safely made until they reached the public railroad crossing near the Milesburg station, at the time the morning train from Bellefonte was backing down from Bellefonte. Mr. Doerr was coming towards the crossing at a pretty swift pace and when he saw a collision was unavoidable, attempted to turn to the side of the road. He had almost swerved out of the way when the automobile, overturning into a gully.

The injured were brought to Bellefonte and given medical attention by Dr. Hayes, and were able to leave later in the day for their homes.

William Watson in Jail.

William Watson, son-in-law of Ira Roseman, of Coleville, came to Bellefonte with his wife and two children from their home in Williamsport on the morning of the Fourth to spend a few days with his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roseman. After seeing his wife and children safely to her home, Mr. Watson came to Bellefonte and meeting some old friends began to imbibe. In the afternoon he again started for Coleville and while in Garbrick's store broke a glass cheese case, which he claimed was done accidentally. On being asked to settle for the damage he went to his father-in-law's home to secure the money from his wife. Mrs. Watson refused to give him the amount asked for, and in the argument which followed Mr. Roseman ordered Watson off the premises for having called him a foul name. Roseman then went around the side of the house and secured a pitch fork. Watson followed him and they clinched, rolling on the ground with Roseman finally coming to the top of the pile. There was very little damage done, except that the younger man claimed to have been struck by the prongs of the fork, while Mr. Roseman swore to have used only the bald-headed end. Watson was arrested and given a hearing before Squire Musser on Monday evening, who asked bail to the amount of $300 for good behavior and not being able to furnish the amount at the time was taken back to jail. The prisoner will also have $13.50 costs to pay.

Beech Creek Lady Injured.

Mrs. Willis P. Bullock, a well known Beech Creek lady, was painfully injured on Tuesday morning of last week by falling from the rear seat of a spring wagon backwards onto the roadside near the home of George Peters in Beech Creek township. Mrs. Bullock, in company with Mrs. Charles Lindsey and little daughter, Mrs. C. E. Bullock, Miss Thelma Bullock and Robert W. Bullock, were on their way to the home of Mrs. William Lindsey to attend the latter's birthday celebration. Mrs. Lindsey and daughter, who occupied the rear seat with Mrs. Bullock, were also thrown out but received little injury. Mrs. Bullock sustained a bruised back and shoulders and had a deep gash cut in her head which required five stitches to close. She is now at her home recovering from her unpleasant experience.

Snow Shoe Young Man in Jail.

Clair Watson, a 19-year-old youth of Snow Shoe, was brought to Bellefonte this week and placed in jail, following a hearing before the Squire in that borough, where the young man was charged with stealing a cow and selling it. It is said that Watson drove the cow to Clarence where he tried to dispose of it for $20, stating that his father requested him to ask that sum. The purchaser of the cow, who had no knowledge of the animal having been stolen, refused to give more than $18, which was accepted by Watson, and he departed for Snow Shoe. He was later arrested and taken before a justice of the peace, who committed him to jail.

148TH REGIMENT MET ON OLD BATTLE GROUND

SURVIVING MEMBERS REUNE AT GETTYSBURG.

COL. BEAVER SENDS LETTER

Comrades Write Back Words of Greeting to Their Beloved Colonel Who Was Unable to Be Present—Impressions of One Who Was There.

The following is an account of the meeting of the 148th Regiment, Penna. Vols., at the recent encampment at Gettysburg, written by a comrade who was there:

On the evening of July 1st, 1913, the surviving members of this famous Regiment, met in the Corporal Skelly Post Room, No. 2 G. A. R., at 8 o'clock. A half hour before the meeting a large number of comrades met on the little lawn in front of the Post room, and had a most enjoyable time in meeting and greeting each other, and talking over incidents of fifty years ago. The evening was extremely hot, and the comrades were loathe to go inside, but at the appointed hour, they gathered within the Post room, and were called to order by the chairman of the committee appointed to arrange for this gathering. After some remarks and greetings by Mr. Fortney, the chairman, the comrades opened their meeting by singing the long meter doxology, "Praise God from whom all Blessings flow," followed by a prayer by Rev. Emory M. Stevens, a son of the Regimental chaplain. Capt. J. J. Patterson of Company G was chosen to preside over the meeting, and Honorable C. A. Ramsey and Rev. Wm. Gemmill were chosen secretaries. The report of the Treas. W. A. Ishler was then read and adopted. After this a communication from the Colonel of the Regiment, James A. Beaver, was read by Comrade Fortney, and a committee appointed to prepare an answer to the Colonel's letter, which was adopted, directed to be signed by all the comrades of the Regiment present, and transmitted to the Colonel. Owing to the very great heat, after this letter was signed by the officers of the meeting, a resolution was passed authorizing the Secretary to sign each comrade's name to the letter, which was accordingly done. At this point in the proceedings, Mrs. Ada Armor, a daughter of I. J. Grenoble, late of Company "I", now deceased, came to the Post room, and invited the comrades to a treat of delicious ice cream and excellent cake, which she had prepared especially for the survivors.

This like this has ever occurred in this war, and it is a great joy to see the men of the United States. Here was a Government that one army fought heroically and sacrificed much to maintain and perpetuate, while the other fought just as heroically and sacrificed just as much to maintain the supremacy of the states over the general government.

It was interesting beyond measure to see the old comrades walk over the battle field and hear the Johnny say at one place, "From this point we gave you hell," and to hear the Union soldiers say, "Yes, and from such and such a point, "we gave you more hell than you wanted"; and then they would laugh over what they said. Sometimes you would see the tears roll down the cheeks of each of the men engaged in the conversation. The Johnnies would every once in a while ask us whether it was true that Pennsylvania had given transportation to all the Confederate soldiers within her borders who wished to go to Gettysburg, and when assured that she gave exactly the same opportunities for the Confederates to reach Gettysburg that she did the boys that wore the blue, they would say, "God bless Pennsylvania," and fairly about over the idea that our great State had been so magnanimous towards the Confederates. There were men who served in the army, at the encampment from every State in the Union. The writer of this spoke to men and women for that matter, from Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Texas, and many other states, and from the North his recollection is that he spoke to men from every state. It was certainly a great reunion, and it is believed that much good feeling toward our government, especially on the part of the Confederate soldiers, was made manifest, and from everything these men said, it was clear that so far as within them section is that the government was endangered again, they and their people were ready to follow the dear old flag, and sacrifice everything to preserve the government under which they now live. Much as this great encampment and reunion of the soldiers of both armies on one of the great battle fields of the world has cost, it will be more than paid for in the good that shall come to all people of our Union.

Finced for Dogs Chasing Deer.

William and Edward Rhoads, of near Port Matilda, paid a fine recently of $25 and costs amounting to $22.65 to Squire W. H. Musser of Bellefonte for having been the owners of two dogs that had been caught in the act of running and attacking a deer. The charges were brought by Game Warden Hummelsbaugh, of Clearfield, and were based on information of parties residing at Port Matilda who witnessed the act of the dogs in running a deer off the mountains to within two miles of the town on Saturday, May 8th. The witnesses claimed that the deer would have been torn to pieces if the dogs had not been driven away. Mr. Hummelsbaugh came to Centre county, killed the dogs and caused the arrest of the owners.

The act of assembly is very plain regarding dogs running at large in deer season. It is August 15 to January 1, when they may be trained, and game wardens throughout the state are instructed to kill all dogs running deer and they are doing so as fast as they can get the facts.

is the staying qualities which helped to make the Regiment famous as a fighting Regiment.

We, at all times, realized that you were ready to fight. We think, from the hearty, whole-souled, earnest manner in which you went into a fight that you really relished a good fight, of which we had many. These elements largely dominant in him who commanded the Regiment, naturally created staying qualities in the men.

We assure you that we appreciate the heroism displayed by the men, we fifty years ago called our enemies, but with whom we now meet as friends, and all of whom assure us that so far as in them and their people lies, are ready to die for the flag we followed and the defence of the government you so heroically led us to defend.

There is a number of the Regiment which you wrought into a titanic war bolt, in attendance on this celebration, we are enjoying it, and it is great, only one thing greater, and that was the tremendous conflict which is the occasion of this gathering. The only regret we have, and it is manifest in the soul of every member of the Regiment present is the absence of our dearly loved Colonel. Just as it was when we were in active service, when you were absent, we felt that a great part of the Regiment was gone. So now our joy is greatly marred by your absence. We desire now to acknowledge that whatever we may have thought or said at the time, the influence you exercised over the Regiment was for the betterment in conduct, morals, sobriety, and service of every man in it.

We are gratified that you are well, and that in your home and community you are able to enjoy and appreciate the comforts of life.

Considering what you have been through and what you have endured, how bravely you served, the number of times you were wounded, and the physical suffering these must have caused, we greatly rejoice that you are living, and we all join in an appeal to the Throne of Grace, being led by our chaplain, that the Dear Lord, who has been so merciful to us all will restore your health, grant unto you many years of happy, peaceful and healthful life.

We are, dear Colonel and Comrade, ever your comrades.

This letter was signed by all the members of the Regiment present and transmitted to the Colonel.

Impressions of the Encampment.

A person not present at Gettysburg during the last week can have no idea of the great crowd of people and the immense preparations made by the Government for the comfort and entertainment of the old soldiers that were in the army from 1861 to 1865.

This like this has ever occurred in this war, and it is a great joy to see the men of the United States. Here was a Government that one army fought heroically and sacrificed much to maintain and perpetuate, while the other fought just as heroically and sacrificed just as much to maintain the supremacy of the states over the general government.

It was interesting beyond measure to see the old comrades walk over the battle field and hear the Johnny say at one place, "From this point we gave you hell," and to hear the Union soldiers say, "Yes, and from such and such a point, "we gave you more hell than you wanted"; and then they would laugh over what they said. Sometimes you would see the tears roll down the cheeks of each of the men engaged in the conversation. The Johnnies would every once in a while ask us whether it was true that Pennsylvania had given transportation to all the Confederate soldiers within her borders who wished to go to Gettysburg, and when assured that she gave exactly the same opportunities for the Confederates to reach Gettysburg that she did the boys that wore the blue, they would say, "God bless Pennsylvania," and fairly about over the idea that our great State had been so magnanimous towards the Confederates. There were men who served in the army, at the encampment from every State in the Union. The writer of this spoke to men and women for that matter, from Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Texas, and many other states, and from the North his recollection is that he spoke to men from every state. It was certainly a great reunion, and it is believed that much good feeling toward our government, especially on the part of the Confederate soldiers, was made manifest, and from everything these men said, it was clear that so far as within them section is that the government was endangered again, they and their people were ready to follow the dear old flag, and sacrifice everything to preserve the government under which they now live. Much as this great encampment and reunion of the soldiers of both armies on one of the great battle fields of the world has cost, it will be more than paid for in the good that shall come to all people of our Union.

MANY SUMMONED TO THE GREAT BEYOND

DEATH ANGEL BUSY DURING PAST TWO WEEKS.

MANY HOMES MADE SORROWFUL

Short Obituaries of Those Who Have Passed Away—Young and Aged Succumb to the Ravage of Disease.

MUNSON:—In the death of Lorenzo T. Munson, which event occurred on June 28th at 11:15 a. m., at his home on North Allegheny street, our town and county lost one of its best known and most highly respected citizens. He had been in failing health for the past six months, and his death was due to cancer of the stomach. The deceased was born in Clearfield, Pa., January 31st, 1848 and was 65 years of age. He was the son of Levi W. and Margaret Adams Munson. His early life was spent in Phillipsburg where his father, a former Sheriff of Centre county, died many years ago. He came to Bellefonte when a young man to become deputy sheriff under his father and also served in the same capacity under Sheriff Schaeffer. He then became Secretary and Treasurer of the Bellefonte glass works, later resigning that position to accept a similar position in the Bellefonte mill works. In 1892 he was a member of the Pennsylvania committee in charge of the Pennsylvania exhibit at the Columbian Exposition at Chicago. For a number of years he was connected with the Bellefonte and Nittany furnaces as general manager and at the time of his death was local agent for the Central Railroad of Penna. In politics Mr. Munson was a life long Democrat and religiously a member of St. John's Episcopal church of this place. He also stood high in the Masonic order, being a 32nd degree mason, a member of the Moshannon Elks Lodge and of the Constant Commandery, No. 23, Knights Templar and of the Altoona Temple of Shriner. Socially he belonged to the Nittany Country Club and the Bellefonte Club. He is survived by his wife, whose maiden name was Miss Sallie Eliza Gephart, a daughter of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Bollinger, of J. P. Gephart, to whom he was married July 19, 1882, and one son, John Munson, of Parkville, Tenn. He was one of a family of thirteen children of the late Sheriff Munson and the following brothers and sisters survive him: Charles, of Kane; Harry, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Julia Boll