HOWARD.

"Meet thou thy issues and leave with God and the good thy record." In Our Churches Next Sabbath.

Reformed—Pastor E. H. Zechman will preach at Mt. Bethel at half past ten, and at Salona at half past seven. The Rev. W. Curtis, president of the Allentown College for Women, will preach at Jacksonville at half past two, and in Howard at half past seven.

Catholic—Rev. S. P. Caprio will conduct service in St. Bernard's church at ten o'clock.

Presbyterian—Pastor Walter Fay Carson will preach at Port Matilda at half past ten, and at Unionville at half past seven.

United Evangelical—Pastor M. J. Snyder will preach at Marion at half past ten, and at Curtin at half past seven. At seven o'clock in the evening of Saturday, July 12 he will preach at Snow Shoe Intersection.

Methodist Episcopal—Pastor James Edwin Dunning will preach at Beech Creek at half past ten, and at Hunter's Run at half past two. At half past seven a service with the hymns of Charles Wesley will be held in Howard.

"The Lights Are On."

That was the expression extended from one to another of our whole population in the evening of Tuesday, July first, as every one of the two score and ten electric lamps, of two hundred and fifty candle power each, the installation of which by the Centre Electric Company, had just been completed, almost simultaneously opened into lightness, and we found our good old town, for the first night of her existence, "clad in a flowing robe of mellow light." It is a credit to the management of the company that from the start until now there has been no hitch or halt, excepting on Saturday night when the great flood in the creek backwatered into the tall race and slackened the power, and the bright and comfortable public lighting of the town is a fixed fact. We have long prided ourselves that we have the best and most complete system of sidewalks and water works of any town of our size and lack of wealth in the state, and now that we have added this new and important utility, we can invite business men looking for locations to come and look us over, assured that they will find conditions decidedly inviting. Our council moved slowly and cautiously in the matter and are to be complimented upon having secured thoroughly good and effective lighting of the town at an annual cost not greater than we can bear, without any appreciable discomfort. There is no objection nor criticism to be offered, excepting, perhaps, that a few very slight changes in the distribution of the lamps, increasing the distances between them at some places where there seems to be a superabundance of light, would have extended the line on North Walnut street to a point nearer the borough limit at that place, at no additional cost, and thus lighted the railroad crossing more perfectly than it is under the present arrangements. This is desirable and can be readily carried into effect at some future time.

Council Meeting.

Council met as usual, all present excepting William N. Wet, absent at Reno. Street committee reported two car loads of stone received and placed on streets. The side walk of the Hayes Schenck property was reported and discussed—no action taken. William Weber, administrator, was notified to repair work on Keasickie property. Work done on streets during June reported, and committee was authorized to employ a power scraper to make and clean side ditches and to hire a heavy steam roller to roll and finish stone already placed and to be placed. Special committee reported an interview with borough council N. B. Spanier regarding the alleged dangerous condition of the northern approach to the Walnut street bridge over the railroad, and was instructed to further counsel with him as to the propriety and cost of bringing suit against the Pennsylvania Railroad and report at a special meeting of council to be called by the president when notified that the committee is ready to report. At the request of Mr. McDowell he was accorded the privilege of placing a tile conduit at the alley at or near his residence. Water committee reported reservoir cleaned. Nuisance committee reported the recent fire cracker nuisance. No action taken. Messrs. McDowell and Pletcher were appointed a committee to secure a proper box for safe keeping the borough's valuable papers. Hour of meeting was changed to eight o'clock. Bonds of water rent collector, E. A. Pletcher for $1960, and treasurer, Frederick Schenck for $2500, were approved. Bills amounting to $163.77, chiefly for street costs, were read, approved and ordered paid.

Y. M. C. A. Meeting.

Mr. E. E. Austin, representing the Centre County Y. M. C. A. Committee, was in town Monday in the interests of an organization in Howard. After conference with a number of our citizens, he called a meeting for half past seven o'clock in the evening of Tuesday next, July 15, at the school house. This meeting should be attended by all the men, young or old, of our town who are interested in the physical, moral and spiritual welfare of our young men. Remember the time and place, and listen for the ringing of the school house bell.

Gregg Wensel is recovering nicely from a badly sprained ankle.

Clayton and Mrs. Gardner are rejoicing in the arrival of a new boy.

Packer Thompson and B. P. Vonada were Bellefonte passengers last Friday.

Mrs. Arthur Yonides was a Bellefonte passenger on No. 51 Monday morning.

Miss Jennie Hartzog, of Easton, Pa., was a guest of Mrs. Fannie Leathers last week.

Mrs. Jordan enjoyed the Normal commencement week with friends in Lock Haven.

Miss Edna Reber, of Carlisle, is a vacation guest here, in the home of her childhood.

Miss Pearl Tyson is spending a fortnight with her uncle, Amos Tyson, at Greensburg.

Clayton Gardner and Mr. and Mrs.

Jacob Ritzman were Saturday visitors at the county capitol.

Mrs. Thomas Longree enjoyed a last week's visit from her daughter, Miss Maid, of Williamsburg.

Alvin Ackley, of Vineland, N. J., was a week-end guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Weber.

The Evangelical congregation has completed a substantial brick walk in front of its parsonage.

Miss M. Louise Hensyl, R. N., of New York, is the vacation guest of her sister, Mrs. W. J. Kurtz.

Miss Jennie Gramley, of Millheim, was an attractive guest of Miss Alice Loder, the last week in June.

Mrs. Jordan and Miss Yearick attended the funera I of Miss Beulah Speering, of Lock Haven, Monday.

The Misses Della and Laura Williams entertained their friend, Miss Florence Biggs, of Philadelphia, last week.

Miss Jennie Davis, of Glenlyon, Luzerne Co., Pa., was the guest last week of the Misses Lulu and Gladys Holter.

Jason Snyder with his friends, the Misses Hulda Johnson and Dorothy Weber, autoed to Lock Haven last Sunday.

Mrs. O. W. Good and son, of Williamsport, were the elements of a week end party at the home of C. E. Yearick.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Johnson, of State College, spent the week end of June 28-30 with the Leathers families here.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Thompson, accompanied by their sons, George and Chester, came in from Orviston to help celebrate.

Mrs. Clarence Johnson and her niece, Miss Myrtle Pletcher, were visitors at the Lock Haven hospital last Thursday.

Roy Decker, now one of the students of agriculture at The Pennsylvania State College, was a home visitor last week.

Alfred Lucas with his two bright little daughters, of Tyrone, were guests of his sister, Miss Martha Lucas for the "fourth."

Claude R. Moore has accepted a profitable situation in his trade of jeweler with the largest establishment of the kind in Wilkesbarre.

Mr. Joseph Schenck has greatly improved his property and that portion of the town, by his fine new concrete walk, and the grading of his lawn.

N. M. Bitner, whose health has been quite frail recently, was removed to the home of his son in Nittany last week, and is reported as improving.

E. Weber Thomas, of Philadelphia, with his little daughter, was a home guest for a day or two last week, to greet his brother, P. Edwin and bride.

Eugene Pletcher, a business man of Philadelphia, and his brother, George, a student at Dickinson Seminary Williamsport, were home visitors during the holiday week.

Miss E. Mae Leininger of Mohnton, Berks Co., on her way from the summer resort Eaglesmere to Loganton, stopped over here to visit her friends the Misses Margaret and Ruth Kane.

Captain H. C. Holter, Mrs. Rudolph Pletcher and Mrs. Wilbur F. Hall were in Bellefonte Wednesday of last week in attendance upon the funeral of their relative, Mrs. John D. Hall, of York.

Mr. and Mrs. David Welsh and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Green constituted an auto party which journeyed to Lock Haven Wednesday, to be present at the graduation of Ronald Welsh from the State Normal.

The Misses Olive Gardner, Martha Potts and Tillie Kunes, all of Blanchard, came on No. 55 one evening of last week to call upon some friends, and just for the fun of the thing, dined home in the cool of the evening.

The street authorities have, during the past two weeks, improved Main street by covering portions of it with a car of fine crushed limestone, opening some of the side ditches and placing a new crossing at the west end.

Having been room mate with Ronald Welsh at the Lock Haven Normal for three years, E. L. Black, of Three Springs, Huntingdon county, spent a few days immediately after commencement with him at his home here.

Mrs. Edward Green arrived at a birthday anniversary Saturday and her husband, keeping his own counsel about it, invited a score or two of their friends in to remind her of which they succeeded in doing.

Michael Gladis, manager of the stables of A. L. Anderson & Bros. is the proudest man in the town because the parcel post brought him a fine boy last week. If it had been a very little heavier it would have been above the limit of eleven pounds.

Mrs. Charles McMurtre, our former efficient landlady at Hotel Howard, now of Tyrone, was a guest in town last Thursday. Mrs. McMurtre and husband are building a new dwelling for themselves, and several smaller houses to rent in Tyrone.

Rev. R. S. Taylor, the last former pastor of our M. E. church, appears straighter and taller than ever just now, because the arrival of a fine new boy in the family of his oldest son, Edward, elevates him to the dignity of "grandpa." Our hat's off, Domine!

W. H. Neff and Son lost one of the fine black team they have for several years driven to their hearse, and the household is in genuine mourning for her, as she was a family pet. Dr. Wetzel, of Lock Haven, was in attendance but medical skill was unavailing.

Having served long and faithfully as the dean of the corps of telephone operators here, Miss Carrye Butler left Wednesday, (yesterday) for a well-earned vacation. Miss Butler will visit with friends in Pittsburgh, Chicago and other prominent westward points.

The presence of a large number of our young people who are at home during this vacation season from their schools or their work, makes a very pleasing addition to the throngs on our streets these bright summer evenings. Their happy faces and cheery voices are inspiring.

Having become entirely blind and in a feeble state of general health, Mrs. A. W. Gardner last week sold her home on Maine street to W. H. Thompson for the consideration of $1025, and will make her future home with some of her relatives of a younger generation, who will be glad to care for her.

Miss Mary M. Allison, a bright and handsome Howard girl not many years ago, and now the only furniture salesman in Pittsburgh, (a valued employee of the great Kauffman store) spent a portion of her vacation in town as the guest of her cousins, Miss Allison and sister, another Miss Mary Allison.

Miss Hershey, field manager of "The Chautauqua Association" of Philadelphia, was in town for a few hours last week, in an endeavor to awaken interest in the Chautauqua to begin in Bellefonte next week, July 17-23. Why should we not arrange a few auto parties to attend the evening sessions at least?

New officers of our local camp, P. O. S. of A. are President, Fredrick Pletcher; Vice P., Irvin Schenck; Master of Forms, Harry Bechel; Conductor, Charles Schenck; Guard, T. J. Moore; Inspector, Wilbur Miller; Delegate to State Convention, Shuman Williams; Alternate Delegate, Charles E. Pletcher.

Wm. Thomas, of Charlotte, Mich., who was a member of the 104th N. Y. Inf., came east to bear hand in the Gettysburg jollification. His brother, George P. Thomas, who recently moved here to the Antes Confer farm, and who was his best mate during the three years' service, went to Gettysburg also, where they met, and William came home with him for a short visit.

At its regular meeting Monday evening, the school board elected the following corps of teachers for the coming session of our schools: Principal, Prof. Milford M. Pletcher; grammar school, Miss Lauretta Webber; second grade, Miss Annie Flatland; primary, Miss Lulu Schenck. The only change from last year is that Miss Weber takes the place of Miss Johnson.

The Mrs. Harry Williams who was injured in the collision between the auto car in which she was riding and train No. 50, as it was coming out of Bellefonte one morning last week, was a daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Williams here and this was their destination at the time of the misfortune. Mrs. Williams is very well known here and her friends rejoice in her narrow escape.

Miss Ethel Boggs, eldest daughter of Mrs. and Rev. George H. Boggs, a former pastor of our M. E. church, has finished a course of nurses training at the Williamsport Hospital, graduating last week with first honors. This carries with it a complete nurses outfit offered as a prize by the hospital authorities. In her earlier girlhood here Miss Boggs made many friends, who are gratified to know of her success.

The Ladies Social Club held their annual picnic July 6th, on Butler's Beach, and invited their husbands and their guests. They (the ladies) have achieved a reputation as "jolly good fellows" and fully live up to it. Two invited guests from abroad, Miss Annie Fisher, of Lock Haven, and Miss M. Louise Hensyl, who have husbands in the "everybody lassie" has her lady," added largely to the enjoyment of the occasion.

Tuesday of last week, Mr. A. P. Spencer, of Charloral, accompanied by Miss Lillian Heisel, of Carnegie, brought a new Buick car from Pittsburgh for Mr. A. Fitzpatrick of Hotel Howard, making the trip between seven in the morning and seven thirty in the evening. Miss Heisel came to visit her sister, Mrs. Fitzpatrick.

Mrs. Baney and Mrs. Frank Moore, of Flemington, were last week's guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ira C. Johnson.

John and Edmund Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Gramly and child, of Spring Hill, constituted an auto party that called on the house of Squire Hayes Schenck, whose wife was Miss Clara Smith, a cousin of the party, on Sunday. After dinner they drove out to the old Jacob Smith property, now owned by Mr. Samuel Diehl, and the home of Mrs. Schenck and reminisced concerning the good times they were wont to have there when they were all younger.

In a dispute over the value of a college education, July 3, at Chicago, Henry A. Edman, declared it useless, while Edward Shaw defended higher education. Shaw knocked Edman down, who suffered a fractured skull, and later died. These are the facts, so far as ascertainable, from a newspaper Chicago dispatch. Mr. Edman was known here, having visited his sister, Mrs. C. C. Lucas, Mrs. Lucas is prostrated at the calamity, and Mr. Lucas left for Chicago Saturday noon.

The ladies of the St. Bernard congregation, (Catholic) will hold a festival in the evening of next Saturday, July 12, in the school house yard. Coffee, lunch, ice cream and all sorts of delicacies will be on sale, and a variety of amusements and diversions have been arranged for. The Milesburg band, familiarly known as "Our Boys," or "The Infants" has been secured and will furnish the music for the occasion. In case of rain the festival will be held under shelter.

The Ladies Aid society of the U. Evangelical church, of which Mrs. J. Z. Loder is a member, joined in giving her a most pleasing entertainment in the afternoon of July 2, the fifty-sixth anniversary of her birth. Those present were the Messdames J. A. Holter, J. L. Holter, John Boone and daughter, J. M. Loder and son, M. J. Snyder, Hayes Schenck, James Kane, Ray Allison and children, F. S. Dunham, T. E. Thomas, S. E. Reber, William Holt and the Misses Minnie Holter and Mabel Loder.

Following is a list of the veterans from this vicinity who took part in the great Gettysburg jubilee, and of the regiments to which they belonged, so far as can be ascertained: John B. Holter, Barney Coder, Charles Heikel, and Henry J. Pletcher, 51st Pa. Inf.; Reuben Lucas, 76th Pa. Inf.; Michael P. Holter, 149th Pa. Inf.; William J. Wilson, 1st Pa. Cav.; Joshua Pleasant, H. C. Holter, 45th Pa. Inf.; David W. Pletcher, 46th Pa. Militia; John McKean, 6th Pa. Reserve; Geo. P. Thomas, 104th N. Y. Inf.

One of the really enjoyable picnics with which our "Fourth" was sanely enjoyed was that of the third grade school, at "The Willows," on the creek side of Mr. A. M. Butler's farm, and chaperoned by Miss Mabel Loder. The youngsters present were: B. Hazel, Helen and Catherine Pletcher, Margaret Wyble, Ruth Kane, Florence and Esther Gardner, Luella Snyder, Marie Confer, Hilda Walzer, Mary Regal, Esther Krydler, Lorena and Adeline Williams, Kline Wolf, Mark and Albert Robb, Harold and Irvin Pletcher, Walter Weber, and Wensel Gilbert Neff and Harry Johnson.

One of the most important of the picnics planned for the Fourth was that of the Sewing Circle, but for various good and sufficient reasons it was postponed until Saturday, and from that to Monday afternoon and evening. It was finally anchored on "Butler's Beach" last Monday when a particularly enjoyable function gladdened the young ladies who form the club and their escorts, who are easily obtained upon such pleasing occasions. If I had been young and popular enough to have been one of those enviable escorts I might have been able to give a more detailed account of the gladsome festivities.

The grass plot in front of one of our otherwise neat and tidy churches has been "ripe to the harvest" for many weeks, and some of the ladies of the congregation have frequently called the attention of their men to the untidy spectacle with no effect. Wednesday, July 3, one of these same ladies, who believes that when anything should be done somebody should do it, brought her own lawn mower to the grass patch and made a clean job of it, as an object lesson to the shame-faced men. I do not have permission to mention the plucky woman's name, but she is the sister of one of our prominent veterans, now dead, and the widow of one of the best men the congregation ever had, and the probabilities are that she will not have to administer the same sort of rebuke to the brethren of the congregation again.

The marriage is announced of Miss Alice Craven, of New Brighton, Pa., to Mr. P. Edwin Thomas, a former Howard boy, but now district manager of the Armstrong Cork Company, of Cincinnati, Ohio. The ceremony took place at the home in New Brighton, of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Craven, on Saturday, June the twenty-eighth, and the happy couple at once left for an extended bridal trip. After August first, they will be at home, Brookline Apartments, Clifton, Cincinnati. Mr. Thomas was one of the bright and popular boys of our town until he arrived at manhood, and his hosts of home friends wish for him and his bride the best, here and hereafter. The happy couple stopped here for a few days while on their trip and in the evening of July, fourth, a handsome reception was tendered them at the fine home on Main street of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Thomas.

The game of ball, July 4th, between the State College team and our home team, resulted in a score of 13 to 5 in favor of Unionville. In the evening the boys realized $31 from the sale of ice cream and cake, at their first held in Grange Hall at which Miss Ruth Parsons won 1st prize in a cake walk.

On the 4th of July, Mrs. W. B. Parsons set the dinner table in her yard "in the shade of the old apple tree" and had for her guests Mrs. Lillie Kizer Davidson and Mrs. Edward Iddings.

Prof. Jake Fox is beautifying the Friends' church with two coats of paint.

W. Hughes Barton celebrated the 4th of July by building a fine stable.

Boyd Irwin is visiting friends in Philadelphia.

Bert Donaldson, of Pittsburgh, was a fourth of July visitor in our town. It was Bert's first visit in this town and he gave the assurance, that he was very favorably impressed with the town and its people, especially the ladies. He was the special guest of George W. Brugger.

You should see the happy transformation that Mrs. Amanda Moran made of the Union township election house; instead of it being a filthy "pigs nest" it is now a neat, tidy ice cream parlor. Ice cream every Saturday evening. Don't forget to remember it.

Our new fire company realized $32 at their festival on the 4th of July evening.

A base ball team of Bellefonte boys came up on Saturday to play our boys, but the game was interrupted after the 3rd inning by the heavy torrent of rain which lasted more than an hour. The score stood 4 to 1 in favor of Bellefonte, and would certainly have been reversed if Mrs. Sardinie Emerick had been here to coach our boys.

Four persons representing DuBois, Pittsburg, Cannonsburg and Unionville, were taken by Frank Peter in his handsome car to Penn Cave on Saturday and all were delighted with the trip.

Mrs. Hannah Holter Thompson, of Orviston, was a pleasant visitor at the home of her uncle, D. C. Hall on Sunday.

George Parsons, of Williamsport, Sundayed with his brother Billy, the railroad magnate.

Mrs. Russell has a well preserved music book, entitled "The Church Harmony," the notes being the old "fa, sol la" style and must be nearly 100 years old.

Mrs. A. J. St. Clair and her daughter, Mrs. Anna Bullock, went to Curwinstown, on Sunday, to attend the funeral of the former's brother, Zachariah Bailey. Mr. Bailey was a veteran of the civil war having been a member of Co. K of the original Buck Tail regiment.

The venerable Fred Senser and D. C. Hall were guests of Thomas Ingram, the famous huckleberry picker, on Sunday.

Fisher's horticulturist, A. T. Rowan estimates their apple crop at from 4000 to 5000 bushels this fall.

Misses Minnie and Allie Senser invited about a dozen friends and neighbors to assist them in celebrating their venerable father, Frederick Senser's 88th birthday on Saturday, June 28th. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Berger, of Reading, were recent visitors at the home of Ed. Spicer on Dix Run. Mrs. Berger is a daughter of the late Archie Stiver and was raised in this vicinity. She is an ardent admirer of the Centre Democrat and she says, the first thing she looks for is the Unionville Home.

James M. Stere, one of P. J. McDonnell's faithful track hands, packed his grip and with his family, bled himself away to Coudersport to spend his 4th of July vacation.

Mrs. Geo. F. Rumberger and children, of DuBois, are pleasant visitors at the Domingo home this fall.

Master Wm. H. Rumberger, a DuBois boy, who is quite an expert violinist, played accompaniment to the organ which was greatly appreciated by the large audience in the Methodist church Sunday.

Bayard—Bronael. An interesting item of news to the many friends of James Bayard, an old Bellefonte printer, and Miss Minnie Bronael, of Milesburg, was the announcement this week of their marriage, which took place in Johnstown on Saturday morning. Rev. Father Codori officiating. The Democrat extends its heartiest congratulations.

ORVISTON. Mr. and Mrs. John Favel spent the 4th at Clearfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Yeager, are visiting friends at Erie.

Mrs. L. C. Thompson spent the latter part of the week with her parents at Howard.

Charles Confer, wife and son spent last week at her home at Howard.

John Heverly and wife boarded the train for Clearfield Thursday to spend a few days with relatives there.

Gladys Daugherty is visiting her sister, Mrs. George High.

Paul Shaffer, wife and family went to Clearfield to spend a few weeks with the latter's parents.

Mrs. Wm. Heverly and sons, Lloyd and Alton, did shopping at Beech Creek Thursday.

The stork made a visit at the home of Bruce Lomison and left a fine baby girl.

Ed. Murray was at Lock Haven on Monday.

ZION. The following are late arrivals at the "Centennial House" during the last week: Dr. Kilpatrick, Dr. Rodgers, Joe Carpeneto, of Bellefonte; Lulu Dunkle, Mary Deitrick, Hecla Park; Nellie Stine, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Kane, Henry Leeb, Harry Rockey, C. C. Ramsey, Clara Eby, Helen Eby, Mrs. Abbie Rockey, Claude Showers, Newt. Hockman, Fred Yarnell, Helen Rockey, Rush Yarnell, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Showers, Robert Cole, Horace Robinson and two sons, Austin and Edward, C. T. Fryberger, Philadelphia; C. N. Fisher, State College; Jacob Stine, Mrs. Henry Garbrick, Mrs. Geo. Garbrick.

Pleasant Event at Paradise. The United Brethren Sabbath School of Paradise was given a strawberry treat, at the home of their generous president, Mr. J. E. Clark, last Saturday evening. About seventy-five persons feasted upon strawberries, sugar and cream, sandwiches, cake and everything one could wish for was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Snyder, of Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Jones, of Winber, were present as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clark, both ladies having been former members of the Sabbath school.

Several recitations were given, but the most enjoyable feature of the evening was the auto rides, which not only the young people enjoyed, but the married ladies as well.

Kirk—Cole. On Thursday of last week at 12 o'clock noon Miss Minnie Cole, sister of Mrs. E. C. Tuten, of this place, and Mr. Harold Kirk, eldest son of Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Kirk, also of Bellefonte, were united in holy bonds of wedlock at North Tonawanda, N. Y., by the Presbyterian minister in that city.

The bride is a bright and intelligent young lady and has been employed for several years at the Republican office. The groom is holding an excellent position in a large furnace at North Tonawanda and they will make their future home in that city. We extend our congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Kirk and wish for them a happy and prosperous voyage on the sea of matrimony.

When in need of any Job Printing call on the Centre Democrat, prices are right and work guaranteed.
