MANY SUMMONED TO THE GREAT BEYOND

moned and after diagnosing his illness as appendicitis he was removed to the hospital at Bloomsburg where his death occurred two hours later, before an operation could be attempted. Brinton Mongan was born at Bellefonte, January 23, 1830. He was unmarried and is survived by his parents and the following brothers and one sister: Merrill, William E. and Catherine at home; also these half-brothers and sister: Samuel Solt, of Williamsport; John Solt, of Altoona, and Mrs. J. R. Burley, of Williamsport. Interment was made in Odd Fellows' cemetery, at Danville, on Saturday at 12 o'clock. Services were in charge of the Methodist pastor of that place.

HARRY:—Serenes Harry, a resident of Smulton, died at his home in that place on the morning of July 5th, at about 8:15. Mr. Harry had left for Gettysburg, June 30th in company with other comrades to attend the 50th anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg, and returned on the evening of the 4th of July, very enthusiastic over his trip. He retired to bed about 9:30 and rose early next morning, following his usual morning routine; he ate a hearty breakfast chatted with a neighbor an hour or more, when he complained to his wife of a pain on his chest. Remedies were applied and he walked into another room where he sank to the floor and in a short time his spirit had taken its flight. Mr. Harry was a veteran of the Civil War, being a private of Captain Geo. B. F. Kitchen, Co. "A", 7th Regiment, Pa. Cavalry Volunteers. He enrolled on the 7th day of Oct. 1864, was honorably discharged at Macon, Ga., Aug. 23, 1865. He was born at Higgins, Schuylkill Co., Pa., Aug. 5th, 1839, making his age 73 years and 11 months. He was one of the charter members of Rebersburg Lodge I. O. O. F., having joined Jan. 29, 1892. He was elected and served as Noble Grand April 1, 1895 to Sept. 30, 1895. He leaves to mourn his death his widow and seven children. Three children have preceded him to the grave. The surviving are: Mrs. Harry Stover, Altoona; Mrs. Charles Eddy, Salona; Irwin H. Mill Hall; Edward, whereabouts not known; Margaret, State College; Ernest F. and Annie at home. While this biographical sketch seems lengthy the writer cannot refrain from saying that by this death, not only has the family lost a good husband and father, but we, as citizens, have lost a friend and good neighbor. His absence will be much missed in the community, the church, the lodge and in the ranks of the veterans of those who wore the blue, that the union should be preserved.

ATHERTON:—Mrs. Frances W. Atherton, widow of the late George W. Atherton, former president of Pennsylvania State College, died on Tuesday morning at her home in State College, after an extended illness. Deceased was born at Plympton, Mass., May 28, 1836. It was while a teacher in the schools in New Haven, Conn., that she met President Atherton, then a student at Yale University. They were married in 1863. Eight children blessed this union, three of whom survive, as follows: Charles M., of New York City; Mrs. Albert C. Buckhout, of South Hadley, Mass.; and Mrs. Charles E. Govier, of State College. Mrs. Atherton early united with the Congregational church and was constantly identified with religious work. Funeral services will be held at State College today at 4 o'clock conducted by her pastor, Rev. Samuel Martin, assisted by the college chaplain, Rev. Robert R. Reed. Interment will be made at Pine Hill cemetery.

THOMPSON:—Following an illness of three weeks with typhoid fever, Norman J. Thompson, eldest son of Claude and Carolyn Thompson, of Bellefonte, died in the local hospital on Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Deceased was a very popular young man and an employee of Bezer's garage. He was born at Snow Shoe, June 25th, 1889, and had thus reached the age of 24 years and 11 days at the date of his demise. October 28, 1908, he was united in marriage with Miss Irene May Hayes, who survives with one child, Virginia Rosemont. He also leaves to mourn his sad death, his parents, one sister, Hazel, and a brother, Robert. Funeral services were held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock from the Methodist church, of which deceased was a member. Rev. Ezra H. Yocum, the pastor, officiated, assisted by Rev. Hawes, of the Presbyterian church. Interment was made in Union cemetery.

JAMES:—Nathan James, an aged and life-long resident of Liberty township, died at his home on Marsh Creek, Thursday night after an illness of some duration of paralysis. He was one day past his 75th birthday, and is survived by his wife, who is in poor health, and the following children: David James, Mrs. Ellen Thomas of McKeesport; Mrs. Elizabeth Gaus, of Buffalo, N. Y., and Milton James, of Marsh Creek, and one sister, Mrs. Yarnell, of Lock Haven, also survive. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon, services being conducted at the house by Rev. S. S. Clark, pastor of the Baptist church. Interment was made in the Baptist cemetery.

McAULEY:—John Henry McAuley, a well known Nitany valley farmer, died at his home in Hublersburg, June 26th, at 5:20 p. m., from the effects of a paralytic stroke. He was aged 72 years, 6 months and 13 days. Mr. McAuley was the son of Jacob and Elizabeth McAuley, and was born in Millin county, December 13, 1841. For the past thirty years he has been a resident of Hublersburg, formerly residing at Jacksonville. June 22, 1866, he was married to Miss Anna Mothcrsbauh, at Lewisdown, and to this union these children survive: Harry, of Lamar; Ida Decker, of Pitcairn; Luther and Cleave of Hublersburg; one son, George, preceded the father to the grave. One brother, George W. McAuley, of California, also survives. Funeral services were held the following Sunday from the late home of deceased, conducted by Rev. W. M. Hoover.

MILLER:—John Harrison Miller, a well known colored man who has resided in Bellefonte nearly all his life, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Mary Delige, east Logan street, Monday evening about 6 o'clock. Deceased, who was familiarly known as "Son" Miller, was friendly to everybody, and was uniformly well liked. He was aged about 42 years, and his death was caused by tuberculosis. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Miller, and was born at Boalsburg. About nineteen years ago he was married to Miss Mary Gowans, who survives him. He also leaves the following brothers and sisters: Lincoln and Frank, of Williamsport; Mrs. Mary Selge and W. E. Green, of Bellefonte. Funeral services will be held from Mrs. Delige's home on Logan street this afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. D. R. Robinson, pastor of the A. M. E. church.

GARIS:—Mrs. Margaret Garis, widow of the late Henry Garis, died on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Bellefonte poor house, of which institution she had been an inmate for the past seven years. Mrs. Garis was aged about 85 years and was born in Centre county, her maiden name having been Margaret Quirk. She is survived by two daughters, Amelia Garis and Mrs. Jennie Weaver, both residing in Lock Haven; also a step-son, William Garis, of Philadelphia, a former police officer of Bellefonte. Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock conducted by Rev. Dr. Schmidt, of the Reformed church.

BUDINGER:—William Budinger, an aged and well known resident of Snow Shoe, died at the home of his son, T. B. Budinger, in that place on Sunday, July 6th. Deceased had reached the ripe age of 93 years. He is survived by three sons: T. B. of Snow Shoe, and Philip and William, Jr., of California. He also leaves 29 grandchildren and 28 great-grandchildren. The remains were taken to Williamsport on Tuesday for interment.

HARVEY:—Harry Harvey, a young man about 23 years of age, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin M. Harvey, of State College, died at the home of his parents Tuesday. The young man was injured a year or more ago by being thrown from a conveyance, since which time he had been ill, which resulted in his death as above stated. The funeral will be held at State College on Friday.

CENTRE COUNTIANS PICNIC.

Held at Belmont Mansion, Philadelphia, June 28th.

The tenth annual gathering of the Centre County Association of Philadelphia was held at Belmont Mansion, Philadelphia, on Saturday, June 28th. It was a basket picnic and it is needless to say that the loyal sons and daughters of old Centre had a jolly good time. There were speeches by the president and others and then the representatives of the Keystone county swapped stories, became reminiscent of the old days back among the mountains and listened to the music. Centre county has produced five governors for Pennsylvania, as well as two United States senators. Those presiding at the picnic were Dr. S. Gray Mattern, Ira D. Garman and Dr. J. C. C. Beale.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Ira D. Garman, President; Warner Underwood, 1st Vice President; William S. Furst, Esq., 2nd Vice President; J. C. C. Beale, D. D., S. Secretary; S. Gray Mattern, M. D., Treasurer.

Board of Directors: Gen. B. F. Fisher, Thomas Foster, Rev. W. K. Foster, Robert Harkinson, D. D., Herman Haupt, Chas. R. Kurtz, Max Liveright, Thos. J. Loughrey, Chas. A. McClure, Esq., Forrest N. Magee, William A. Magee, L. Olin Meek, Prof. William T. Meyer, E. H. Miller, Isaac S. Miller, Rev. James A. Prue, John I. Rankin, George P. Rishel, M. D., Stuart C. Runkle, M. D., B. Frank Schaeffer, W. B. Schaeffer, Amos Sternberg.

Ladies' committee—Miss Mary Butts, Mrs. Ella H. Cooke, Mrs. Albert W. Ford, Mrs. Robert W. Ford, Mrs. D. S. Keller, Mrs. Mary Magee, Mrs. S. Gray Mattern, Miss Eva Rich, Mrs. Geo. Rishel, Mrs. S. C. Runkle.

During the afternoon the following resolutions relative to the death of the late Roland G. Curtin were read: Whereas, God in His wisdom and dominion has called to Himself one of our number in the person of D. Roland G. Curtin.

Resolved, That as an Association we bow submissively to the will of Him who doeth all things well and extend to the family our sincere sympathy, commending them to the sustaining Grace of our Heavenly Father.

Resolved, That we hereby express our sense of the great loss we have sustained in the death of one who served the association so faithfully, as its chief executive from its organization.

Resolved, That we voice our appreciation of the deep interest he took in this unique method of pro-

Venerable George Gray injured. George S. Gray, of Stormstown, who is said to be in his 82nd year, was seriously injured last Saturday by being knocked down by an automobile. The report of the accident says that Mr. Gray was walking along the road on his way to a neighbor's when a car approaching him from the rear, and driven by a young man, ran into a hog, causing the driver to lose control of the machine and swerve to the side of the road. The injured man was knocked down and his hip broken, beside other serious injuries inflicted.

Lewis-Lorrah. A quiet but pretty home wedding was celebrated at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Lorrah, at Snow Shoe, on the evening of July 5th, at 8 o'clock. The contracting parties were William C. Lewis of South Bethlehem, Pa., and Miss Anna L. Lorrah, the very pretty and attractive daughter of Mr. Lorrah. Only the immediate family and a few friends were present when Rev. R. F. Rush, the Methodist pastor at Snow Shoe, pronounced them man and wife. After the wedding tour Mr. and Mrs. Lewis will reside at South Bethlehem where the groom holds an excellent position.
