

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

Miss Vergie Robb, of this place, is visiting friends in Centre Hall. Mrs. Sara Gehart returned home on Saturday from a visit to friends in Gettysburg, Pa. Miss Emma Aikens left Tuesday for Sellersgrove where she will visit friends for a short time. Mrs. James Harris and children, of Reading, Pa., are visiting friends and relatives in this place. Sig. Sautelle's circus is billed to exhibit in Bellefonte August 28th. The first bill car will be here August 14th. Miss Brunard, one of the nurses in training at the Bellefonte hospital, is spending her vacation at her home in Salona. Mrs. Isenberg, of Altoona, spent Friday and Saturday in Bellefonte, at the home of Miss Ida Green, of South Water street. Miss Mary Underwood, of North Spring street, is spending this week with her brother, J. Irvin Underwood and family at Renovo. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Sloop are rejoicing over the birth of a sweet little baby girl which happy event occurred at the Bellefonte hospital on Tuesday morning. Mrs. Albert E. Blackburn and children left this week for Bedford, Pa., where they will remain for a few weeks prior to returning to their home in Philadelphia. Miss Daisy Brishen, an instructor in the Soldiers' Orphan School at Scotland, Pa., is visiting her uncle and aunt, Col. and Mrs. J. L. Spangler, of North Allegheny street. Elliott Hollabaugh, who holds a good position in Altoona with the Pennsylvania Railroad company, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hollabaugh, over Sunday. Mrs. J. Irvin Underwood and three children, of Renovo, were Bellefonte visitors from Tuesday until Saturday at the home of Isaac Underwood on North Spring street. Mrs. S. Kline Woodring gave a porch party Thursday afternoon of last week from 3 until 6 o'clock at her home on East Howard street. About fifteen of her lady friends were present. Christ Schrock, of Akron, Ohio, was the guest of Bellefonte friends over the Fourth of July. Mr. Schrock formerly resided here and conducted a blacksmith shop where the Undine building now stands. Mrs. Sabra Simpson and little daughter, who have been visiting friends in New York state, arrived in Bellefonte Tuesday and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Kisely, of South Thomas street. On Tuesday of last week a bouncing baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Baney at the Bellefonte hospital. Both mother and babe are doing well and Wilbur is the proudest man in Bellefonte today. Accept our congratulations. Robert Askew, of Snow Shoe, was in Bellefonte on Tuesday while on his way home from the Gettysburg camp. Mr. Askew attended the 25th annual re-union of his regiment the 5th Pennsylvania Reserves at Gettysburg last week. On Tuesday noon twelve men in charge of guards passed through Bellefonte on their way to the Western penitentiary at Allegheny to the new penitentiary at Peru. The men seemed to be glad to be out in God's fresh air once again. Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Gardner have returned home from Pittsburgh in their automobile, where they visited with their son, Harold, who graduated from Penn State this year, and who has a good position with the Jones & Laughlin Steel Company as a chemist. Lieutenant John Brishen, U. S. A., accompanied by Mrs. Brishen, are here from Fort Ogelthorpe, Dodge, Georgia, and are guests of their uncle and aunt, Col. and Mrs. J. L. Spangler and their sister, Mrs. J. H. Robb. They expect to remain about two weeks. Mrs. James Harris was taken ill while attending services in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning, June 29th, and was removed to her home on North Spring street. We are glad to say that her illness did not prove of a serious character and she is recovering nicely. Editor P. Gray Meek, of the Watchman, was taken seriously ill while out at his son George Meek's farm near Axemann Sunday evening, where he had driven with Mrs. Meek. He was removed to Bellefonte in Dr. Hayes' automobile and taken to his home. He remained quite ill all day Monday but on Tuesday was much better. Mrs. Edward H. Richards entertained all the children of East Linn street at a delightful party at her home on the Fourth of July from 12 o'clock noon to 3 p. m. In the evening at 7:30 o'clock the children were again the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richards to witness a very pretty display of fireworks. It proved a pleasant day for the children who enjoyed it immensely. Roy Brandon has resigned his position with the Potter-Hoy Hardware Company, owing to the fact that the work was too confining, and has accepted a position with the Oliver Typewriter Company at Altoona, Pa., leaving for that city this week. Mrs. Brandon will join him in Altoona about the 1st of September. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Brandon greatly regret their determination to leave Bellefonte as they have made many warm friends during their stay here. We are sorry to learn of the serious accident which befell Richard Winner, a well known glass worker, a few weeks ago at Mt. Jewett, Pa. Mr. Winner is a son-in-law of Mrs. Adam Waite, of this place, and resided in Bellefonte a number of years ago when the glass works were in operation. The accident referred to has cost Mr. Winner his right arm, by having had it crushed in a concrete machine. During the time the glass factory was closed down for the summer, Mr. Winner had been employed at concreting and at an unfortunate moment his arm was caught in the machinery, crushing the member so badly that amputation was found necessary shortly after his removal to the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Harrison Walker returned home Monday from an automobile trip to Titusville, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Miller, of Williamsport, are guests at the home of Winfield Love in this city. Miss Ann Garman, daughter of C. M. Garman, of New York City is a guest at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Joseph Ceader. Mrs. Bruce Burlingame, of Syracuse, N. Y., who was formerly Miss Margaret Burns of this place, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Valentine, of West Curtin street. Rev. William E. Curtis, President of Allentown College for Women, will speak on "Higher Education of Woman," in St. John's Reformed church, next Sunday morning at 10:30. Mrs. Hawes, wife of Rev. G. E. Hawes, gave a reception Monday evening in honor of her guests, Mrs. Wilson C. Packer, of Wilkesburg, at the Presbyterian Manse on Spring street. The residence of Thomas A. Shoemaker has been quarantined owing to the illness of one of the children with measles. While the quarantine is on Mr. Shoemaker is a guest at the Bush house. We wish to call the attention of our readers to the new advertisement full line of office writing materials and book-keeping accessories are advertised this week. Stanley Valentine, who holds a good position with the Armstrong Cork Company at Pittsburgh, is spending his vacation with his parents, Postmaster H. C. Valentine and wife, of West Curtin street. James Callahan, wife and five children, of Gregg Station, the former a brother of Mrs. John Raymond of this place, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond south Potter St. for several days last week. Mrs. Rena Merritts, formerly Mrs. R. Bresham, of Altoona, stopped off in Bellefonte for a few hours on Wednesday while on her way to Renovo, where she will visit at the home of Hiram Lutz and Dr. P. S. Fisher. Clair Robb, who has been employed at his trade as a pattern maker in Media, Pa., has resigned his position there and accepted one in Erie, Pa. Prior to leaving for the latter place he is visiting his old home in Bellefonte. The graduation sermon of the Teachers' training class, United Brethren church, will be preached in the church on Sunday evening, July 13, at 7:30 by Rev. Harper, of the First United Brethren church, Altoona. On Saturday evening June 28th, a surprise party was given at the home of George Hazel on Willowbank street in honor of Mrs. Hazel's birthday. It was all arranged by her little daughter, Thelma. About thirty-two guests were present and everyone enjoyed it immensely. Miss Jessie Kerstetter, who graduated as a nurse from the Bellefonte Hospital, and since then has been located in Illinois, was taken sick recently and compelled to return to her home in Millheim. This week she was brought to the Bellefonte hospital for treatment. Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Cassidy, of Canton, Ohio, were arrivals in Bellefonte on Saturday from Gettysburg, where Mr. Cassidy is participating in the great week's encampment of Civil War veterans. While here they are the guests of their son, W. C. Cassidy. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Beaver moved out to their farm on the 4th of July and now live in their comfortable home which had been remodeled and repaired ready for their occupancy. They are also entertaining Mrs. Beaver's mother, Mrs. William W. Prince, of Crafton, Pa. Another successful Bellefonte fisherman is Frank Smith, who on Monday evening landed an 18-inch trout just below the falls. This is but one of many big trout which Frank has caught this season, he having only recently pulled one from local waters that measured 2 1/2 inches. In spite of the fact that many strangers were in Bellefonte over the Fourth, and the Hotel bars on all day, there was very little drunkenness noticeable upon the streets. A fight in one of the barrooms, which threatened to become a free-for-all, was the only serious trouble the police had. Harry L. Garber, who for the past year has been employed at the Bezer garage in this place, has resigned his position here to accept a much better one with R. B. Taylor at Clayville, Washington county. Mr. Garber will have charge of the motor truck now used by Mr. Taylor on his contract. He left Tuesday to assume his new duties. Don't forget that the Womans' Exchange will be open on Wednesday and Saturday of each week from 9 until 4 o'clock in the room in Adams block formerly occupied by Finklestine, where there will be on sale all kinds of cakes, pies, bread, rolls, jellies and other delicacies. Also fancy articles of all descriptions. Send in your order early. Squire W. H. Musser, of Bellefonte, in his official capacity as tax collector for Milesburg borough, this week established a record for himself that would be justly proper for other tax collectors to sit up and notice. Mr. Musser on Wednesday settled up his 1912 duplicate in full with the county officials, and now enjoys the distinction of being the first of the many collectors to do so. Frank Bailey, of Galva, Ill., was a guest the past week at the home of his brother-in-law, William B. Rankin, East Curtin street. Mr. Bailey is a printer by trade and years ago resided in Bellefonte and with his father and brother, Newton S. Bailey, conducted the Centre Herald, a paper that advocated the Greenback principles. This paper was later sold to the late S. D. Shuster, who made a democratic paper out of it and called it the Centre Democrat. David Finklestine, who for the past nine weeks had represented the Metropolitan Insurance Company in this place, recently resigned his position to take up the agency for the Continental Casualty Company at a nine advance in salary. He will remain practically the same territory as heretofore, which means that he will remain in Bellefonte. During the nine weeks of Mr. Finklestine's connection with the Metropolitan company, he made the remarkable record of writing $1,500 worth of line insurance, which speaks volumes for his ability as a solicitor. Mr. Finklestine's courteous manner has won for him many friends since coming to Bellefonte.

Miss Thelma Yeager, of Jersey Shore, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Dora Rhine, on south Thomas street. Mr. and Mrs. M. A. McDowell, of State College, are rejoicing over the birth of a baby girl at the Bellefonte hospital on Tuesday evening. N. B. Spangler, Esq., appeared before the United States Court at Harrisburg Monday in a case in which he was interested as an attorney. Miss Fannie Elmore, who has been teaching in the schools of Pittsburgh, is visiting at the home of W. B. Rankin, of East Curtin street. Later she will spend the summer with her mother. An automobile party from Houtzdale and Briston, Pa., spent Sunday in Bellefonte at the home of W. R. Houser, on Water street. The members of the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Craig, Raymond and Albert Sundindinger, and Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Houser. The Misses Vivian and Marian E. Lutz, of this place, and Margaret Bierly, of Jacksonville, left on Sunday for Altoona, where in company with Mr. Snyder of that city in his large touring car, they will make a tour of the west, expecting to be gone for some time. Ivan Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Walker, returned home on Tuesday from a week's stay in Philadelphia where, with a hundred or more young law students, appeared before the State Board of Examiners. He will not know to what degree of success his examination until about September 1st. On Saturday morning Company L, 12th Regiment with Captain William H. Brown and Lieutenants E. R. Taylor and Linn Blackford in charge left for the annual encampment which is located this year between Rolling Green and Sellersgrove. The boys are in excellent shape and expect to make a good showing. They will return home from their week of camp duty on Saturday. Jas. L. McClure of this place recently came to this office and showed us a photograph which we were surprised to learn was a likeness of his son, Rev. Samuel McClure, who has been doing missionary work in China for a number of years past. The picture shows Samuel to be in good health, but his friends would not readily recognize him, as his face is covered by a heavy beard.

BELLEFONTE CHAUTAUQUA.

Why You Should Buy Your Season Tickets Now The Chautauqua comes to Bellefonte on the 17th of July. On that date the Bellefonte Committee has to turn over to them Fourteen Hundred ($1,400) Dollars, the price of Seven Hundred (700) Season Tickets. The gate receipts go to the Chautauqua Association, and do not help in raising the guarantee which Thirty (30) tickets of Bellefonte have put up in order to bring this weeks entertainment to the town. The ticket selling committee urges the people who are expecting to attend The Chautauqua to buy their Season Tickets now, for two reasons. 1st.-That the guarantors may meet their financial obligation the day it falls due. 2nd.-That the work of the ticket selling committee may be lightened which is always hard, and in the heat of last week was doubly arduous. A Young Tyrone Man in Trouble. On the evening of July 4th J. R. Huss, a young man from Tyrone, was arrested by Officer Harry Dukeman, charged with the larceny of $192.00 from the Adams Express office at Tyrone. It seems that on Thursday evening Huss was in the Express office about supper time, and asked permission of the agent, Edward Rine, to write a letter at his desk. The permission was granted and Mr. Rine went to his supper, leaving the office in charge of a clerk. It is supposed that when the clerk's attention was engaged, Huss went through Mr. Rine's desk. When the latter returned, Huss was gone and with him a large sum of money. Mr. Rine at once suspected Huss and learning on the 4th, that he had left for Bellefonte with the train, telephoned to Dukeman to keep his eye on the young man. Huss was very flush with money and exhibited a one hundred bill to one of his friends. After the game, Officer Dukeman saw him in front of the Express office, and calling him into the office, charged him with the crime. The result, that Huss was given a clean breast of it, and turned over $168 to the officer. Huss was lodged in jail over night, and Saturday morning, Officer Dukeman took him to Milesburg and turned him over to Officer Giles, who took him to Tyrone, where the young man was given a hearing and released on bail.

Beech Creek Man Killed by Train.

Henry P. Rupert, a young man living at Beech Creek, was found along the railroad in that place on Saturday evening, June 28th, dead from having been struck by a train. It is presumed that the unfortunate young man was walking along the track and was struck and killed by the Bald Eagle valley train which leaves Bellefonte at 8:30. Rupert is known to have left the passenger station at Beech Creek and started to walk up the track. This was the last seen of him alive. His skull was crushed and his body mangled.

Centre Hall Has a Sensation.

The otherwise quiet little town of Centre Hall has been furnishing food for sensational rumors during the past two weeks by reason of the visit to that place recently of a United States Postoffice detective, accompanied by a Marshall. There is very little of an authentic nature to be learned of the result of the officials' visit to Centre county, but it reports are correct a Centre Hall man has been placed under bonds for his appearance at the United States Court.
