YARNELL.

Mrs. Amelia Shawley and daughter, Edna, spent Sunday at Fairview with Mrs. Wm. Cox.

Miss Anna Shank, who is employed in Lock Haven as bookkeeper re-turned to her work on Monday, atter spending her week vacation with parents at this place.

Edward Confer returned home last Friday from accompanying his daughter, Trixie, to Elmira, N. Y., where she will visit for sometime. She ex-pects to visit friends in Williamsport, Lock Haven and Jersey Shore, before returning home.

Misses Samantha and Almeda Pownell and Nancy Kelly are attending the six-week course for teachers at State College. Mr. Wm. Fetzer, the new mail carrier, reports his work very pleasant. Mr. and Mrs. Clay Shope, of Miles-burg, spent several days last week at the home of the latter's parents at this place.

John Shawley, of this place, erecting a new house on his lot. The building is nearing completion and from all appearances he will soon have a neat comfortable home. A number of people from here spent the Fourth very pleasantly in Bellefonte. George Walker purchased a fine was so unfortunate as to lose some Miss Bessie Shank is spending a few weeks at St. Louis, Missouri, at sanitarium in which she received treatment for nearly two years.

J. Ed. Confer and daughter, Trixie, visited friends and relatives in Elmira, Y. Mr. Confer has returned but Miss Trixie will remain a few weeks. Jno. Shawley's new house is progressing nicely, Mack Hall and James Shope being the carpenters in charge

STORMSTOWN.

Hello! How does everybody feel over the Fourth?

Ray Stine, Lester Stephens, Thompson Harris and Chas. Gummo visited at F. B. Harris's on Sunday afternoon. Those who spent the Fourth of July at A. L. Johnson's are as follows: Cyrus Johnson, wife and chil-dren, from Pine Hall: Ralph Stover and John Hampton, of State College; Rev. Johnson, wife and two children, from Paradise; Mr. and Mrs. White and Mr. Steele, of Axemann, and Chas. Snyder, wife and child. All enjoyed a very good time and dinner. They all went to the picnic at Scotia in the afternoon.

Wm. Gates is all smiles since he Bruce Wasson, wife and children, from Pittsburg, are visiting friends in this place.

The King of All Laxatives. For constipation, headaches, indigestion and dyspepsia, use Dr. King's New Life Pills. Paul Mathulka, of Buffalo, N. Y., says they are the "King of all laxatives. They are a blessing to all my family and I always keep a box at home." Get a box and get well. Price 25c. Recommended by C. M. Parrish, Bellefonte, Pa.—Adv.

Ridicule is a keen weapon. You and Mrs. H. W. Houtz and daughters can hurt most people more laughing and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Packer are at them than by shooting at them.

Edward Bodle and son, Daniel, of Jersey Shore, spent several days with his mother, Mrs. John Bodle. James Woods, of Osceola, spent fire works in Bellefonte on the 4th.

Saturday and Sunday at the home of

Perry Parsons. Mrs. Sarah Cover, of Johnstown, Pa., is spending a week at the home of Mrs. J. F. Tallhelm. Mr. Kurtz, wife and family, of Manheim, Pa., also Elmer Myers and wife, of Lagrande, Oregon, are visit-ing at the home of Mrs. A. B. Myers. The Children's Day services given in the M. E. church on last Sunday evening was largely attended. The church was nicely decorated. Singing was fine and the children all acted their parts well, which is a great credit to the ladies that had the service in charge. Morris Miller and Fred Salsburry, wo telegraph operators of Beech Creek, spent the 4th in town. Mrs. W. G. Tallhelm spent Sunday vith her sister, Miss Ella Alexander, of Bellefonte.

Next Sunday morning at 10:30 'clock there will be preaching in the B. church by the pastor, Rev. Johnston.

The heavy rain and wind storm that struck our town last Saturday afternoon about 4 o'clock, was the worst we have had since the flood of 89. The persons that lost the most were Thadeous Yothers, Michael Murphy, Jerry Hanscom, Sylvester Williams, washing their gardens and corn fields completely out. J. C. Nason lost about from $300 to $500 in lumber at his saw mill. The R. R. Co. lost their large bridge at the depot and track washed out for about 100 horse last week, which he expects to yards, causing a delay to all trains take the place of the one which he for about 4 hours. It took about 150 men and two work trains to open up the tracks for traffic. Mrs. W. E. Fink has opened up an ice cream parlor where you can be served with ices every Saturday evening. Give her a call.

The money that was raised by Mr. W. E. Fink for roofing the U. B. church has been placed to that purpose. The roof is on and is a splendid job. There are some other repairs to the interior of the church that should be done, but so far no effort has been made to raise the noney. Great credit should be given Mr. Fink for the raising of this money had he not taken this in hands the roofing would not have been done.

The old soldiers who visited the re union at Gettysburg from here are as follows: Oliver Irvin, George W. Gill, William Sanderson, William H. Gill, ger and wife. Thomas Quick and Daniel Wellers.

Arthur Irvin, freight agent at Biger, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. J. H. Turner. He left on Sunday evyield of both wheat and rye, the oats ening for Buffalo and Niagara Falls. where he will spend a few days visiting his brothers.

HEALTH DEPENDS ON NERVES.

If your nerves are not right, you do not need a stimulant-you a nerve food tonic. Trying to overcome ner-vousness by using stimulants has exactly an opposite effect to the one desired. The only sensible thing to do is to seek a cure for the diseased condition of the nerves-and the quicker you do it, the better off you will be. The best treatment we know of for nervous ailments of all kinds, whether teemporary or chronic, is Rexall Mrs. Charles Sellers spent several Nerve Tablets.
