EDITORIAL.

The new game law prohibits turkey hunting for a period of two years. About the only amusement left for the fellow who heretofore took delight in tiring himself tramping the mountains will be to take up turkey trotting.

We believe there will be little grieving among the voters of Pennsylvania over the passing of party conventions, which the state-wide primary bill has abolished. The powers of nomination have been taken from the bosses and placed in the hands of the people. Button-holding of delegates will be a lost art, because the delegate has ceased to exist. In short, the political boss will hereafter have the stuporous task of button-holding the people instead of one or two puppets if he desires to exert his influence upon nominations.

STATE-WIDE PRIMARY IS NOW A LAW

state-at-large, or for delegate or alternate-at-large in national convention, 100 in each of at least five counties. For congress, for district national delegate and for all judges, except supreme and superior court judges, and for state senators, 200 in the district in which the candidate is standing.

For state representative, for state committeeman, or for any county or city office, 100 in the county or district.

For inspectors of election, 5 in the division.

For all other party offices, 10 in the district.

Validity of Petitions.

Concerning the validity of nomination papers the act provides: That petitions can be set aside only for material errors or for errors of affidavit.

That a petition may be declared invalid for material alterations made after signing without the consent of the signers, or for the want of a sufficient number of signers; but the invalidity of one sheet shall not affect the validity of the whole petition, provided the other sheets contain a sufficient number of valid signers.

Last day for filing objections to petitions shall be five days after the filing of the petitions. This year, August 25, 1913. Next year, April 27, 1914.

Candidates for all party offices must be qualified electors of the party.

Each candidate for a state, county or city office must file an affidavit, giving his residence, the office he seeks, a statement of his eligibility and that he has not violated any election laws.

Candidates in all cases shall be chosen by plurality vote and in case of a tie, lots shall be drawn.

Each candidate is entitled to two watchers.

Withdrawal Dates Under New Law.

Withdrawals must be made before 4 p. m. on the Friday next succeeding the last day for filing nomination petitions.

Last day for withdrawals this year, before the secretary of the commonwealth, August 22, 1913. Last day next year, April 24, 1914.

Last day for withdrawals before the county commissioners: This year, August 29, 1913; next year, May 1, 1914.

The primary election officers shall receive the same compensation as they receive at the general election.

On the ballot the county in which the candidate resides must be printed after his name, where he is standing in a district where there is more than one county. Where a candidate is to be voted for within a county his ward number must be printed after his name.

Primary ballots shall be open from 7 a. m. until 7 p. m. Saloons must be closed from 6 a. m. until 8 p. m.

Cannot Throw Out Ballots.

A ballot must not be rejected by the election officers unless it is absolutely impossible to determine the choice of the voters. A whole ballot must not be thrown out because of a mistake upon one office, but only the particular office where the mistake is made shall be rejected.

Five electors, upon sworn petition to the court of common pleas, may obtain a recount.

New penalties provided by the act are: A fine of $100 for presenting false names on nomination papers; a fine of $500 and one year's imprisonment for violation of the provision forbidding a policeman, sixth in uniform or not, going within 100 feet of the polling place, except to vote or to quell disturbance.

Assistance to voters shall be given only on affidavit that the voters cannot read or has physical disability which would prevent him making the ballot.

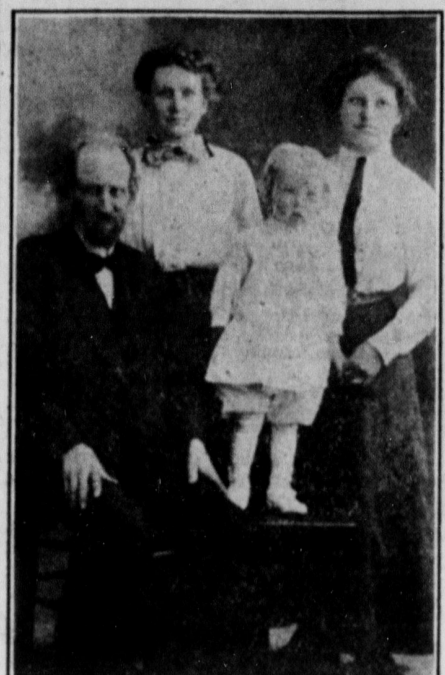

A voter when challenged must swear that he voted at the last election for a majority of the candidates of the party for whose ballot he asks.

In this respect the new law makes an important change, namely: That the group of presidential electors shall count only as two in computing

FOUR GENERATIONS.

The above group represent four generations whose ages range from 77 to 2 years. From left to right they are: Robert Blair, of Winger; his daughter, Mrs. Wm Bottorf, of Benore; his granddaughter, Mrs. Edw. Markley, of Benore, and the latter's son, Master William Markley. The picture was taken while the four were on a recent trip to Bellefonte. Mr. Blair is about 77 years of age and served his country faithfully during the Civil war. He takes great delight in looking after the junior member of the group, whose age now totals two years.

Explanation—"Do you mean to say such a physical wreck as he gave you that black eye?" asked the magistrate. "Sure, your honor, he wasn't a physical wreck till after he gave me the black eye," replied the complaining wife.

A majority of the candidates of a party.

Primary Act to Be Printed. Copies of the direct primary act will be printed at once at the state printery and sent broadcast over the state. The commissioners of every county will receive copies and the state committees of the various party organizations have already arranged to send out digests of the law so that by the time September comes around the voters will be fully informed.

It is expected that within a few days the party enrollment and non-partisan bills will be acted upon and then the election law changes will be completed. The election reforms contemplated by these bills are the most sweeping that have been made in Pennsylvania in a generation, being more widespread than even those of 1906. They will have the effect of sending every candidate before the voters and a host of aspirants for nominations will crop up in every county.

The primary this year will be held on September 16, so that there are sixty days in which to get ready.

Under the democratic party rules the state committee will reorganize on July 23 and as practically all of its state committeemen are elected by county committees this year, the complexion of the state committee will not be affected. Under the law, all parties must elect their state committeemen next year and biennially thereafter. This will work a change in the democratic organization next year.

RECENT DEATHS.

VONADA:—Harvey Vonada died at the home of Warren Hosterman, north of Woodward, at 7:30 o'clock, Tuesday evening of last week, from a complication of ailments with which he had long been a sufferer. Deceased was unmarried and was aged 59 years, 8 months and 23 days. One sister survives. Funeral services were conducted on Saturday morning by Rev. Dice, of the United Evangelical church, and Rev. Fox, of the M. E. church at Millburg. Interment was made at Woodward.

ZIMMERMAN:—Mrs. Mary Ellen Zimmerman, wife of Harry Zimmerman, died on Saturday morning last at her home in Spokane, Wash., of appendicitis. Deceased was a daughter of Samuel and Emma Cowher, and was born at Hannah Furnace, December 30, 1837. When quite young she moved with her parents to Tyrone and resided there until she went to Spokane last August and became the wife of Harry Zimmerman. She is survived by her husband, father and mother, her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John McMonkag, of Port Matilda, and a brother and sister, Harry Cowher and Mrs. Frank Foust, both of Tyrone. The body will be brought to Tyrone for interment.

HOUSER:—Daniel P. Houser, a venerable Potter township citizen, died at the home of his son-in-law, Robert Bloom, near Centre Hall, on Tuesday, the result of a paralytic stroke. Deceased was aged 80 years, 4 months and 15 days. He was the son of Daniel Houser and was born at Houserville. His wife, formerly Mary Corl, preceded him to the grave about two years ago. Two daughters survive, namely: Mrs. Annie Krebs, of Salt Lake City, Utah, and Mrs. Alida Bloom, of near Centre Hall. He also leaves these brothers and one sister: John, of Centre Hall; David, of Houserville; William, of Grand Island, Neb., and Mrs. Susan Glenn, of Kansas. Mr. Houser followed farming as an occupation until a few years ago, which compelled his retirement from active duties. He was a member of the Lutheran church of Centre Hall, and the pastor, Rev. Fred W. Barry, will have charge of the funeral service to be held this morning at 9:30 o'clock, at the residence of Robert Bloom.

ROBB:—Peter Robb, Sr., one of the oldest and best known citizens of Howard township, died at the home of his son, Jacob Robb, on Tuesday night about 12:30, at the age of 84 years, 2 months and 29 days. Mr. Robb was born in Germany and came to this country when a young man. He chose as his helpmate Miss Mary, a native of his Fatherland, and shortly after marriage they came to Centre county and settled in Howard township, where Mr. Robb became a thrifty tiller of the soil. As the years rolled on their family grew to the number of five—four sons and a daughter, all of whom except the daughter, Mrs. Ira Packer, (who has preceded her father to the tomb) now occupy prominent places in their respective spheres in life. They are: Jacob, living on the homestead farm in Howard township; Peter Robb, of Romola; Rev. Lewis Robb, of Wilkesburg, and Prof. Geo. Robb, of Altoona. He also leaves to feel her keen loss, his aged wife, Mr. Robb's last illness was due practically to a gradual wearing away of the vital forces occasioned by the touch of Father Time. About three weeks ago he took to his bed and remained until the summons came. All his life Mr. Robb has been a devout member of the Reformed church, and enjoyed the confidence and esteem of all who knew him. Funeral services have been announced to take place on Friday morning at 10 o'clock, with Rev. Vechman officiating. Interment will be made at Romola.

MANY SOAPS FAIL HERE. Particular people realize that a true toilet soap must combine anti-septic and germicidal with its cleansing qualities—otherwise it is not a true toilet soap. This is why Rexall Blemish Soap has been adopted for general toilet use by many people who have discarded other brands as giving insufficient service. Not only is Rexall Blemish Soap an ideal, highly-perfumed, toilet soap—well used as freely as if it did not have medication—but it is a medical and surgical cleansing soap as well. Rexall Blemish Soap is useful for washing wounds, for removing disease germs from the skin, for relieving roughness of the skin, pimples, blackheads, tan, sunburn and freckles. It is intended to help beautify the skin and preserve its health and is especially good for the tender skin of infants. Price, 25 cents a cake. Sold in this community only at our store, The Rexall Store.
