BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

-Fred Rees, of Renovo, was an over Sunday visitor at his parents' home in this place.

-Mrs. Howard F. Gearhart, Coatesville, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Joseph Fox. of East Bishop St. -Miss Mabel Harmer, of Philadelphia, is spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. H. W. Tate, of this

-Miss M. G. Clayton, of Philadelphia, is stopping at the Brockerhoff as the guest of her friend, Mrs. Thomas Moore.

-George H. Wolf, of Altoona, a former resident of Bellefonte, spent the latter part of last week visiting old friends here. -If you want some genuine barin Gents' Furnishings, visit Willard's Store on High street. Sale continues for two weeks. -Miss Catherine Haines, of Ro-chester, Pa., is the guest of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. George Ingram, on East Lamb street. -Mrs. Henry C. Quigley and three children, Hugh, Henrietta and Mary, have gone to Westport, Conn., where they will spend July and August.

-Sidney Barlett, formerly of this place but now of Altoona, spent the past week, accompanied by his family with his wife's relatives at Linden

-Miss Helen Shellenberger. Philadelphia, is spending a few weeks of East Linn street. with her college friend, Miss Anna Keichline. She came here after a visit of two weeks in Washington, D. C.

-Twenty-five years ago last Saturday, July 12th, Bellefonte had a along fine. The little fellow weighed $40,000 fire. The Garman house, nine pounds and a half. fire. The Garman house, nine pounds and a half. Lutheran church, three fine dwellings and many small buildings were de-

-Mrs. James Lambert and daugh-Gap for the past few weeks, left on served his country faithfully. Monday for their home in Greensburg,

-Jas. Aull, of Philadelphia, a nephew of Mrs. E. H. Richard, is a guest of the latter at her home on East Linn street, having joined the party of entertaining.

-Miss Mary S. Thomas left Belle. fonte Thursday of last week for Harrisburg where she joined her sister, Mrs. James B. Lane and with her left; for Sweet Springs, Va., for an indefinite sojourn.

-Mr. and Mrs. F. Potts Green entertained the past week at their East Linn street home, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Snodgrass, Robert Snodgrass, Mrs. Merrill Barber and Mrs. Dimm, all of Mifflinburg.

-Mrs. B. C. Smith and little daughter, Louise, of Lodi, N. Y., were arrivals in Bellefonte on Saturday for week's visit with her father, J. C. Derr, and sisters, Mrs. John Bauer and Mrs. Luther Smith.

-Dr. Thomas C. VanTries has left

-Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McCarger, accompanied by their niece, Miss Maude Linderman, have joined a party representatives of the Equitable Life Assurance Association for their usual summer vacation trip which they are taking through Canada.

-Mrs. Henry Claybaugh, of Huntingdon, accompanied by her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Wilson, of Johnstown, spent a day and night in Bellefonte eek as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Hamilton, the latter being a daughter of Mrs. Claybaugh.

-Miss Helen Crissman left last week for Baldwinsville, N. Y., where she will visit her sister, Mrs. A. B. Cromer. Before returning home the fall she expects to take the St. Lawrence trip through the Thousand excursions to different points of in-

-Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Harvey and their two children, who spent a great part of the summer in Bellefonte with Mrs. Harvey's parents, Judge and Orvis, are arranging to make their home in Snow Shoe, where Mr. Harvey will have the management of the brick works in which Judge Or-

-Ralph Shaffer Robb, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Robb, of Altoona, and Alfred Piper, of that place, came through Bellefonte to Nittany last Wednesday on bicycles. The are 12 and 14 years of age and found the trip quite an experience. They returned to Altoona by train from Bellefonte, Friday.

-The Bellefonte Giants, an organization of colored baseball players, to have the primary department of the have arranged for a game with the Sunday school use the basement, thus Crescent Club of Cumberland Md., tomorrow afternoon on Hughes Field. The local boys are selling tickets of admission at 25 cents to cover the expense of bringing the Crescent Club to Bellefonte. The game promises to exciting and interesting and should draw a good crowd. Game starts at daughters, Carrie and Ellen, who have been visiting for the past five weeks at the home of Mrs. McClellen's par-Coleville, left Sunday for their home in Columbus, Ohio. Miss Carrie Mc-Clellen had been operated on for appendicitis prior to coming here, and during her stay in this vicinity gaineight pounds. This speaks well not for our healthy climate but also the good living she got at Grandfather

-A union meeting of the Men's Bible Class and the adult Ladies' Bible Class of the United Brethren church: was held in the Sunday school room of the church last Friday ev-Coleville and violin solos by Samuel doing the concrete work. The Luth-Waite, accompanied by Mrs. Winey eran congregation has long needed a organist. Addresses were made by Rev. Winey and Rev. Clark, the lating of the two classes, refreshments were served in the Ladies' Aid room about eighty-five persons who were present. The next meeting of the Men's Bible Class will be held on the second Friday in August.

-Gotlieb Haag, who is working in Renovo, spent Sunday at his parent's home in this place.

-Mrs. W. S. Mallalieu and two children returned home Sunday from a two weeks' visit at Mrs. Mallalieu's Tuesday for a brief stay in the lumold home in Williamsport.

-Edward Crossmyer and his father, Adam Crossmyer, of Cleveland, Ohio, attended the funeral of the late Samuel Bryan at Milesburg last week. They were gone about two weeks. -Mrs. George R. Meek, with her son Peter Gray Meek, 2nd, left Wednesday for a visit of two or three weeks with her aunts at Downing-

-Misses Caroline and Valentine have gone to New England, where they joined a class in sketching, expecting to remain until the first of September.

-Mrs. William Rees and little daughter, Margaret, of Patton, Pa., are making an extended visit at the -lsadore Baum, who is located at Kansas City, Mo., and who travels through Oklahoma for a large wholesale house, is spending a two weeks' vacation at his former home in this place.

-Miss Margaret Gilmore, who is a student at a business college in Cincinnatti, Ohio, has arrived home to spend the summer with her par-Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gilmore,

-On Saturday morning at 6 o'clock a son was born to Col. and Mrs. H. S. Taylor at the Bellefonte hospital. Both mother and babe are getting

-Henry E. Weirick, of Stockton, Ill., was a pleasant caller at this ofwhile in Bellefonte on his return fourth was drowned. trip home from Gettysburg where he ter, Hattie, who have been visiting attended the encampment. Mr. Weirelatives in Bellefonte and Pleasant rick enlisted from Centre county and

-Mrs. Joseph Baker, of Watsonown, who has been visiting for the past two weeks with her aunt, Mrs. Geo. F. Harris of east Linn street, left for her home on Sunday. Mrs. Baker was formerly Miss Jennie Breeze young people whom Mrs. Richard is and is quite well known in Bellefonte. -Mrs. E. P. Moore, and daughter, Katherine, of Tyrone, are with Mrs. Moore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac —We have not heard of an old sol-Miller, at the toll gate. Mrs. Moore dier from here who was any the worse will spend the summer in this place while Mr. Moore will join his wife and daughter as frequently as his work

> -Mr. and Mrs. Wade Cruse and children, of Harrisburg, have been visiting friends and relatives at Bellefonte and Salona for the past two Sunday afternoon Mr. Cruse left for Harrisburg, but Mrs. Cruse and the children will remain for an indefinite stay.

-Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Spencer left for their home in Corning, N. Y., [Saturday after a ten-day visit in this place. Mrs. Spencer was formerly Miss Bellefonte for a trip to the Pacific Carrie Switzer, daughter of Mr. and > Mrs. Pearl Hawn, Philip H. Hurd, A. H. Lieb, Mrs. Wm. E. Musser, Mrs. Emma Showers, Swengle Smith. Foreiga: Juro Horinoe.-H. C. Valentine, postmaster.

> -The citizens of Milesburg have been much excited during the past week by the fact that two deer have been frquently seen in close proximity to the boro limits. Several parties have had glimpses of a doe and buck on the Greer farm and on Saturday Willis Campbell, of McKeesport, who s visiting his old home at Milesburg saw a three pronged buck on Sand hill opposite the town.

-The following order of services will be observed next Sunday at St. Islands in addition to other summer John's Lutheran church: Sabbath school at 9:30 a .m.; worship and sermon at 10:45 a. m. On account of the Chautauqua there will be no Chris-Endeavor or vesper services. Catechetical instructions every Thursday, 7:30 p. m. Prayer meeting every Wednesday evening at 7:30. You are cordially invited to these services. R. Fitzgerald, supply pastor.

-Owing to the steady growth of the school the congregation has been forced to adopt some method for providing more room for this department, and have hit upon the plan of enlarged and fitted up for this pur-pose. Last week Rhoads & Knisely began the excavation work and as soon as this is finished the floor and sides of the room will be cemented. It is the plan of the church officials Sunday school use the basement, thus relieving the congestion now being experienced. It will also make a convenient place for holding festivals and suppers.

visiting his mother, Mrs. Alice Showers, of this place. Mr. Showers, who was fast loosing his hearing, left Bellefonte a year ago last May and -Mrs. Eva McClellen and two entered the West Philadelphia Hospital, where he was operated on by Dr. McKensie, assisted by Dr. Reers, two famous ear specialists of that city Mr. and Mrs. George Robb at His hearing has improved wonderfully as a result of this operation and he believes that he will eventually be entirely cured. He is now holding an excellent position in the shipping department of the Victor Talking chine Company at Camden. Fred is looking fine and the Quaker City evidently agrees with him. He will return to Philadelphia Sunday.

the church on Linn street. Isaac Miller has the contract for putting up the building which will be constructed ening. Rev. Winey, pastor of the the building which will be constructed church presided. Vocal solos were of brick at a cost of not less than rendered by Miss Thelma Tate, of $4,000. Milton Johnson and crew are parsonage, and their aim is to have a cozy and substantial one, in keepter of the Baptist church at Miles-burg. After a brief business meet- church property at present is entireing with their pretty church. Their closing prayer was made by Rev. church property at present is entired by free from debt and the chances are favorable for raising the amount A. Ertle, of Nittany Valley charge, Wilkesbarre.

-Mrs. Mary Gault, of Curtin street. both live in Altoona.

-Miss Ethel Gettig left last Thursday for Reading where she will spend held in the Reformed church, Belleome time visiting friends.

-Miss Rose Clayton, of Philadel-phia, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. J. Kilpatrick, of East Curtin street. -Mrs. S. H. Williams and Mrs. Sarah Satterfield went to Williamsport

-Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Shuey returned home on Tuesday from their annual fishing trip through Canada.

-Mr. R. Brandman, of the Lyric, departed Sunday for the bedside of his brother, who has been seriously ill for some time past at his home in her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Say-Philadelphia.

-Mrs. Margaret Hutchinson and daughter, Miss Fannie Hutchinson, returned home Tuesday from a lightful visit with relatives in Kane and Erie, Pa.

-"Dick" Jodon, who was knocked down and injured by M. R. Johnson's automobile on the evening of June 21, home of Mr. Rees' parents, Mr. and was discharged from the Bellefonte Mrs. G. W. Rees, of Reynolds Avenue. hospital on Monday, fully recovered. hospital on Monday, fully recovered.

-Mrs. Mary W. Chambers, of Kennett Square, Pa., widow of the late home of Assistant Postmaster William S. Chambers of East Curtin street.

-Contractor R. B. Taylor is walkng around on crutches on his state road job at Claysville, owing to in- ley, whose illness continues to be a juries received when his driving horse ran away ten days or two weeks ago. -Mrs. Elizabeth Donley, of Ridley Park, Pa., arrived in Bellefonte on the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edmund Blanchard, of East Linn street. -During the recent National Guard encampment at Selinsgrove there were four deaths. Two were from Model G. Franklyn car, and the latter natural causes while the third was purchasing a Ford car from H. D. killed in an auto accident and the

-Miss Lillian Walker, who has establishment at West Chester, Pa., Mrs. W. Miles Walker.

-Miss Emma Aikens, who has been visiting at Selinsgrove for the past ied by Claude Aikens in the latter's automobile for Rochester, N. Y., to place to meet Mrs. Eisenhuth who visit her sister, Mrs. George Johnson. was returning from a visit with They stopped over night at Elmira. friends in the western part of the

-We have not heard of an old solfor his hot week at Gettysburg and all of them are unanimous in saying they would not have missed it for the few remaining years of their lives, that it was most inspiring and will do more ever.

-Harry Fisher, son of Baggage place, who recently entered the navy, looking sailor boy and is highly pleased with his position on the flagship "Wyoming." Life on the bounding Bellefonte postoffice for the week United Brethren church on Sunday, ending July 12th, 1913: Miss Ella Rev. Harper, of the First United Confer, Peter S. Duncan, Geo. Hall, Brethren church of Altoona delivered the sermon to the class in the evening. which was listened to by a large and appreciative congregation. At close of the service a handsome travel-ing bag was presented Rev. Winey, the Tuesday from Jacksonville, Florida, teaching the class.

-Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yearick, of Altoona, spent last week as the guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Yearick, near town, departing on Monday for a ten days' trip to Niagara Falls and Canada. They also expect to spend a few days with Mrs. Yearick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Woomer, in Williamsport, before returning to Altoona where Mr. Year-congenial party and going to lck for a number of years past has woods near Pleasant Gap for a been a trusted employe of the Aaron outing, returning home in the evendepartment store.

-Mr. Geo. T. Bush has accepted the ture. agency of the famous Clark tours to then down around through the Panahas been over two hundred booked ham, already, having paid the small fee for first choice of rooms, and the trip promises to be a great success, as Mr. having the basement of the church Bush vouches for the completeness of every detail.

-The new improvements and additions to the Bellefonte Academy are being pushed along at a rapid rate. Robb gave a tea in honor of her sis-The stone walls were finished Mon-day and the roof is being put on. Twenty carpenters have been engaged Irvin entertained at her home on and the finishing will go on rapidly. The grading will take a long time but it certainly will make a fine improvement, to that end of our pretty town. Additional retaining walls are being -Fred Showers, of Philadelphia, is built around the rear end and when graded and soded will make the rear of the academy grounds have a very nice appearance also. It is expected that the work will be completely finished by the middle of September when the school opens. There will be accommodations for one hundred faculty of eleven instructors.

> -The funeral service for Mrs. A. F. Weaver, wife of Rev. A. F. Weaver, which was held in the Evangelical church last Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, was attended by a large number of visiting clergymen of Central Pennsylvania. Dr. H. A. Benfer, Presiding Elder of this district, from of Lock Haven, made the opening prayer. Rev. J. F. Bingman, of Brush Valley charge, read a poem. Addresses were made by Rev. W. J. Dice, of Millheim; Rev. J. A. Holla-baugh, Presiding Elder of the Williamsport district; Rev. E. Crumbling, of Lock Haven, and Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt, of this place, who represented the Bellefonte Ministerium.

-Miss Margaret Potter, of East -Patsy Bathurst and family have Linn street, is visiting friends in moved from Penn street to Halfmoon Hill.

-Miss Mary Mott returned home s visiting with her daughters, who on Tuesday afternoon from a visit to friends in Williamsport.

-There will be no evening services fonte, until further notice. -Miss Clair Entwisle, of Philadelphia, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russel Blair, of North Spring street.

-The annual meeting ofthe Nittany Country Club will be held on Saturday, July 19th, 1913, at 4 p. m. at the club house. -The front of the Bush House block is being beautified by a fresh coat of paint. E. J. Eckenroth's men are doing the work. -Mr. and Mrs. Julius Fobel, of Tv. rone, are visiting for a few days with lor, of North Allegheny street. -Mr. Harry Baum, who is conduct ing special sales for dry goods and clothing stores in different parts of the state, arrived home on Tuesday. -Mrs. William McMullen and two hildren, of Johnstown, returned ome on Sunday after a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry laag, of this city.

-St. John's Episcopal Sunday chool held their annual picnic at Hecla Park last Friday. The day was Col. E. R. Chambers, is a guest at the an ideal one and all present enjoyed it fully at this popular resort.

-Mrs. Josephine Foust, of Altoona. is spending a few days in this place with her sister, Mrs. Katherine Farmatter of concern to her friends. -Mrs. W. H. Taylor left Tuesday for a two weeks' visit to friends and relatives in Wilkinsburg, Pittsburg Tuesday and is being entertained at and Butler, Pa. At the latter place she will be the guest of her sister. -Milton Kerns and Frank P. Blair, this week succumbed to the automobile fever, the former buying Olewine's siege of enforced idleness due to a been employed in a large millinery fractured arm sustained while in discharge of his duties as chauffeur at summer with her parents, Mr. and sume his position at the latter place this week.

Lindermuth at Unionville. -Charles Chandler, after his long

-Thos. H. Eisenhuth, of Weikert, spent a day in Bellefonte last week week, left there Saturday accompan- as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Witmyer. Mr. Eisenbuth came as far as this was returning from a visit with state.

-Mrs. Albert Thompson, wife Liveryman Thompson, of this place, who has been quite ill at her home on Logan street for the past ten days with a threatened attack of appendicitis, is reported to be much improved. good than anything else to cement the This will be good news to her many North and South in better bonds than friends who were grieved to know of her illness.

-Mrs. George VanDyke departed Master and Mrs. John Fisher, of this for Philipsburg Monday where on Tuesday evening she instituted a loarrived home last week for a visit with his parents. Harry makes a typicalern Star. This order is composed of the wives and daughters of Masons and is growing rapidly every year. Mrs. VanDyke is the District Deputy

Mrs. William Jodon. The prompt action of a physician was probably all health. that saved the child's life. -Michael Cooney, after being ab-

Tuesday from Jacksonville, Florida, a fruit farm. He says he likes the south very much. He is visiting his brother. Martin Cooney and his sister, Mrs. Joseph Fox of this place. -Mr. and Mrs. John Bullock and made traveling very bad. family, Arthur Harper and family and a number of other young took advantage of Tuesday's delightful weather and the advantages offered by the auto bus by forming a woods near Pleasant Gap for a day's ing thoroughly delighted with the ven-

-Mrs. Marcia A. Cleaver the Orient and in particular the daughter, Miss Anna, left for their the result as above stated.
"Around The World Tour," booked to home in Philadelphia this week, afleave New York on Jan. 14, 1915, sail- ter a pleasant visit with relatives in ing east, touching the principal ports, this place. Miss Cleaver at one time to San Francisco for the Exposition. was a very competent compositor in the office of the Bellefonte Republican ma Canal to New York. The trip and looked after the mechanical make-Owing to the steady growth of the will take nearly four months arriving up of the "Fountain," a weekly paper Bellefonte United Brethren Sunday home in New York, May 19th. There published by the late Col. D. S. Dun-

-Among the social events of the past week was the party given on Monday evening by Mrs. C. M. Parrish in honor of her sister, Mrs Howard Gearhart, of Coatesville, at which four tables of bridge were played. Tuesday afternoon Mrs. J. H. ter, Mrs. John Brisben, of Dodge, Ga. On Wednesday evening Miss Jennie North Spring street.

-The Merchants' Association have thoroughly billed the fence rails in the surrounding country for ten miles out with yellow paper slogans for the people to do their buying in Belle-The people are beginning to realize that it is better to deal with your neighbors and fellow taxpayers than to send the money away, espec ially, when so often they are fooled in the quality and the side costs. which makes it more in the long run boarding pupils and there will be a than they would have to pay at home for the same grade of goods. It is always best to try at home first, to see if you can't get the same articles for the same money, than to buy the su-gar bait headed lot of goods, which makes you take so much high priced stuff you do not want nor need.

-George Heintzelman, of Nora residing Elder of this district, from Springs, Iowa, a veteran of the civil ewisburg, had charge of the services. war, who attended the 50th annivers--Work was commenced last week on the new Lutheran parsonage to be on the new Lutheran parsonage to be of Lock Haven, made the opening Jacob Bottorf, for several days and dian. William Doak, the blind, deaf fore leaving for his western home street when he was met by Ambrose Monday. Mr. Heintzelman, who is 78 Ray, who is also afflicted with deafyears of age but does not look a day ness and poor eyesight. Neither knew over 60; was a member of the famous the other was approaching and the 8th Illinois Cavalry, who fired the first shot in the battle of Gettysburg. He shot in the battle of Gettysburg. He fancied that some one had dropped was born and raised about Linden a coin in his tin cup, and began hunt-Hail in this county, but about sixty ing for it. Mr. Ray, not being able years ago located in Illinois and about thirty years ago moved to his present home in Iowa. All his life, he has been a tiller of the soil and has met and started forward again, going favorable for raising the amount necessary for the new building without any difficulty. It is expected to have the parsonage ready for occupancy some time in September.

H. Fleekenstine, of Avis, and Rev. D. home in lows. All his life he has an explanation. Both backed away been a tiller of the soil and has met and started forward again, going with great success. He enjoyed the through the same performance three would not have missed it under any neither had anything to do in compancy some time in September.

-The United Brethren Sunday school of this place are picnicking at Hecla Park today.

-Miss Mary Greist, of Unionville, of North Spring street.

-Mrs. Emily Warfield and daughter, Mary Warfield, returned home on friends in Chicago, Ill.

-A. G. Morris, Jr., who succeeded E. K. Rhoads in the coal business, 1s having the sign over his office building artistically repainted by John Mc-

-Miss Margaret L. Yeager, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Yeager, departed last Thursday for Baltimore, Md., where she will spend the summer with her aunt.

-A visit to the Lyric will bring you more enjoyment than any other amusement you can think of. High class plays every night this week, with the orchestra present.

-Dr. Lee B. Woodcock, of Scranton, and Rev. J. R. Woodcock, of Bellwood, were guests of their mother, Mrs. Woodcock of North Spring street, during the past week.

-Guy E. Swartz, a former well known machinist of this place, who left here several years ago to locate in Detroit, Mich., in company wife is visiting friends in Clintondale.

-Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Sloteman and three children, of Lock Haven, are visiting relatives at Pleasant Gap and Linden Hall. Mr. Sloteman is a former Commissioner's clerk but now traveling for the Hayes Run Brick Company,

-We are glad to say that Henry Wetzel, who was seriously ill with uraemic poisoning, having been stricken Tuesday of last week, is rapidly recovering and will soon be able to be out again, attending to his duties as Boro Engineer.

-Robert L. Tressler, a young theological student of Dickinson Seminary, who is spending his summer vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Tressler, of Reynolds Avenue, delivered a thoughtful sermon to the evening congregation at the Methodist church on Sunday,

-Tuesday was St. Swithin's day and if we accept the time-honored bearrived home this week to spend the Keichline's garage, was able to re- lief concerning the visit of His Saintship, we shall receive 40 days of dry weather. It has been the belief of several centuries that whatever kind of weather happens on St. Swithin's day will continue daily for 40 days without fail.

-Arthur Dickinson, who has been visiting his parents in this place, left Wednesday for East Brady, Michi-gan, where he will visit his brother, Henry Dickinson, who is in the jewelry business, and later will go Detroit, Mich., where he is employed by a large electrical company as a meter inspector. -Walter McClellen, a son of and Mrs. Charles McClellen, of this place, is ill with typhoid fever in the hospital at McKeesport. We are glad to say that his physician feels that he has the disease under control and that Walter can be removed to his home in this place in about two weeks Walter was holding a good position in the large railroad shops at Pitcairn.

-Mr. and Mrs. Francis Musser, of Altoona, who have been visiting rela-Bellefonte for a trip to the Pacific Coast. Among the places he will visit are Denver, Col., Salt Lake City and Los Angeles, Cal. His stay is an indefinite one depending on how are independent of the two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rhoads, of Mrs. Bert Meek, of Waddle. Wanter the way are in this vicinity left on wears and the now looks with disdain on all land —Louise, the two-year-old daughter of Mr. All the now looks with disdain on all land
—Louise, the two-year-old daughter of Mrs. Pa., where they will vis
—Louise the two-year-old daughter of Mrs. Pa., where they will vis be a contraction of the two-year-old daughter of Mrs. Pa., where they will vis ing fluid, at the home of her aunt, company at Altoona, has been compelled to take a vacation owing to ill

> -The Olewine's have replaced their old Franklyn car with a new sent from Bellefonte for a period of model Cadilac Touring car. On Sunday Mrs. Olewine and son, Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Will Bottorf made a pastor, in appreciation of his efforts in where he and his nephew are running trip to Lock Haven in the car and unfortunately were caught in the heavy rain storm which passed over that section Sunday afternoon. The roads were washed out and muddy which

-Gilbert Morgan, the ten-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Morgan, of north Spring street, is nursing a painfully sprained ankle the result of slipping from the seat of one of Tay. lor's ice wagons a few days ago. Gilbert had accompanied William Rhinesmith, the driver, to Roopsburg on the day of the accident, and while the wagon was descending a hill he slid from the seat, and fell out with

-Rev. M. B. Glanding, D. D. L. L. D., of Syracuse, N. Y., was given a unanimous call to become pastor of of the Bellefonte Lutheran church at a congregational meeting held immediately after the services last Sunday. Dr. Glanding preached in Bellefonte about six weeks ago and our Lutheran brethren were much pleased with him. It is believed he will accept the call as he is desirous of leaving Syracuse as the climate there does not seem to agree with him. He was much impressed with Bellefonte as a place of residence and although the salary paid here is not as large as he is receiving, yet he would prefer this place to Syracuse. He is said to be a very able minister.

-William Etters, a brother of County Superintendent David O. Etters, formerly of Burnside township, but who has been living in Oregon for the past twenty-five years, was town Tuesday. He served in the 5th Pennsylvania Reserves during the rebellion and attended the recent 50th anniversary of the Battle of Gettys-burg, in which battle he took an active part. He is the only survivor out of the six brothers who served in the civil war, two of whom died in southern prisons, one was killed in battle, and the other two have died since the war. He expects to remain in Centre county until next October visiting friends and relatives. Although past seventy-five years of age he is still hale and hearty.

-Far be it from us that we should have fun at the expense of others' misfortunes, but an incident occurred street when he was met by Ambrose

-Miss Frances Swope, of Lock Haven, is visiting Bellefonte friends.

-Robert Brake, of St. Thomas, Pa., is visiting his sister, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Kelly, Brake, a nurse at the Bellefonte bospital.

-Allen Cruse, aged about fifteen, a son of Mrs. Rebie Cruse, was admit-Monday evening from a visit to ted to the hospital this week suffering from pneumonia.

> -The Arcade pool room has installed a fine new electric piano which is attracting considerble attention by the sweet music it discourses.

> -George T. Bush will leave today for DuBois where he will attend a special meeting of Jaffa Temple of Shriners to be held in that city Friday.

> -Frank Huston and son, Franklyn, returned Wednesday to their home in Norristown after a week's visit with his aunt, Mrs. Evelyn Rogers, of North Allegheny street.

> -James Harris, of Reading, was an arrival in town Saturday visit with his mother, Mrs. Henry Harris, of Howard street. Mrs. Harris and the children have been in town for several weeks at her mother's, Mrs. Charles Smith, of East Bishop Marriage Licenses.

Isaac Maud			-		Ple	ası		Gap
James Edith				:	Sp	rin	g	Mills
Andy Annie		-		٠.		-	-	Cato
John Rebece			-	:		fav		Run

Penny a Word Adv.

Any subscriber can insert a want advertisment in this column one issue free, if it does not exceed 25 words; charges to others, one cent a word, first issue, no advertisement less than 25 cents; two issues 40 cents; three issues 60 cents. No advertisements will be answered from this office.

ARCHITECT:- Anna W. Keichline, Bellefonte

WANTED:-2 girls. write City Hotel Tyrone, HOUSES:-For sale and rent. J. M. Keichline. Bellefonte, Pa. FOR RENT:—Five room house, $6.75 per month. Inquire at Jacob Mark's 24-1.f.

FOR RENT OR SALE:—A desirable home in Zion. Address Cyrus F. Hoy, Zion, Pa. CLERK WANTED:—(Male) in general store; no groceries. Address P. O. 247. Bellefonte. FOR SALE: Hammond typewriter in good con-dition. Price $15, at Centre Democrat office. LOAN:-Money to loan $1000, $1500, $2000, $2000, $8000, on good security. J.M. Keichline, Bellefonte. FOR SALE:—Dwelling house, 11 rooms good location. Apply W. G. Runkle Atty at law, Bellefonte, Pa. x30 FOR SALE: -50 Chesterwhite shoats.

old: reasonable price. Call on H. Laird Curtin Curtin, Pa. WANTED:-Middle aged woman in family of three adults, good home and good wages. A. B. C. Centre Democrat. x21

FOR SALE:—Good 3 inch wide tread Weber wagon with box and seat complete; Good as new. Grenoble & Wert. Spring Mills, Pa. FOR SALE:-Full blooded Rhode Island Red chickens from State College. Eggs 50 cts. setting. George W. Zerby. Tusseyville 12 24 FOR SALE:-A two story 30x30 foot plank frame building; can be remodeled for house or other outbuildings. Noah W. Eby. Woodward. FARMS:—Large and small, limestone soil, in Blair, Centre and Huntingdon counties. Send for catalogue. G. C. Waite, P. O. Box 202, Ty-

POSITION WANTED:-By young lady as stenographer, book keeper or clerk, small com-censation of start. Address "M" care Centre

WANTED -- Man to learn the milling trade, or ith some experience. Recommendation mpany application. Knecht Milling Co. 22tf FARMER WANTED:-Young man, married or single, to do general farm work, study em ment. Call or address G. Edward Haupt, phone. Bellefonte, Pa. FLATS FOR RENT:—Two very convencent 5 room flats on North Thomas St. Reasonable rent, modern convenience. Call or address G. Edward Haupt, Bell phone, Bellefonte. x29

STOCK - Eggs and yearling stock - single comb brown and white Leghorn, White Wyan-dottes. Barred Rocks, Pekin Ducks, and Pearl Guineas, H. K. Mattern, Locust Hill Poultry Farm, Julian, Pa. X22-14 GOOD INVESTMENT:—Invest your money in South Dakota land where land has put many a man on easy street. Where land can yet be bought from $15 up, write to box 34 Canning S. Dakota.

BUY LACE BY MAIL:—We can save you money and give you the best assortment of all the finest laces. Samples free. Write today to Clayton Brown, Blandsburg, Cambria Co. Pa.

FOR SALE:—Complete stock of general merchandise with a No. 1 fixtures will sell at a bargain, building can be leased or bought, doing a nice business good reasons for selling. Address M. care of this office. SALESMEN WANTED:-For the help a phone;

almost every telephone user buys one to three sells for $3.00; earn $108 a week; send for a com-plete set of instructions in salesmenship free The J. W. Weidenseul Co. Reedsville. Pa x28 FOR SALE:—At private sale on my farm, 1 mile south west of Yarnell, bay mare, 7 yrs old, weight 1350; bay horse, 12 yrs, old, weight 1500; set of new tug harness, new Conklin wag on 2% inch truss arle, narrow track. 3% inch Conklin wagon, narrow track. Terms to suit the buyer. Chas M. Brown, Yarnell.

Chas M. Brown, Yarnell.

FOR SALE:—1912 Model, Motor Cycles and Motor Boats at bargain prices, all makes, brand new machines, on easy monthly payment plan. Get our proposition before buying or you will regret it, also bargains in used Motor Cycles. Write us today. Enclose Stamp for reply. Address Lock Box 11 Trenton, Mich.

Tenantal Communication

Tenantal C FARM—For sale or exchange; situated about 5 miles west of Bellefonte containing 100 acres, about 50 being cleared, balance in timber; good house, bank barn and other outbuildings; fruit and well on farm. Will sell cheap on easy terms, or exchange for property that will bring in monthly rent. Address A. I. Garbrick. Bellefonte. Route 1.

FOR SALE:—A general store in a town of nine thousand population. Stock consists of dry goods, notions, shoes, queensware, drugs and groceries. Will invoice about five thousand, dollars. Yearly sale $20,000 to $35,000. Store room 22x60 ft; ware room and large cellar for rent. Located on a good business corner on a nice street. Could reduce the stock. Address W., care of Centre Democrat.

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE:—Farm
112 acres, near Millheim Boro, on road to Coburn, frame house, bank farm, all necessary outbuilding, never failing spring, running water in house and barn. Terms; one half cash, balance first mortgage, in Millheim Boro, Large 12 room brick dwelling house; water in house and barn, acetylene light. Address Anna M. Kreamer, Millheim, Pa. W. H. Klepper, Lock Haven, Pa.

28 tf

Sewing Machines Repaired I Repair all makes of Sewing Machines and have Supplies for same-Sewing Machines from $5 up to $35. Key blanks for all makes of Locks. G. S. CLEMENTS,
W. Bishop St., - Bellefone, Pa.
Bell phone, No. 275-R. x-28.

MARKET QUOTATIONS. Bellefonte Produce.

Butter 18e Eggs 22e Bellefonts—Grain.
The following prices are paid by C. T.
Wagner for grain.
Wheat, Red. $1.00
Wheat, White. 95c
Rye 60c
Corn 55c