Another auto in town. Billy Solt is the victim this time. Who says a plumber don't get wealthy?

J. C. Smith has beautified his residence by dressing it with several coats of paint. John Resides and Geo. E. Haugh were the artists.

Marlin Ryan, of Snow Shoe Intersection, is the new 2nd trick townman of this place. Nice boy, he.

Hop scotch is a popular game with the kids now. We actually saw several married ladies indulge in the game.

Mrs. A. J. Hall, up the pike, courageously killed a whopper of a rattlesnake in her yard. It would not be safe for a burglar to attempt to enter her residence, unless he expected his remains to be carted to the bone yard in sections.

Mrs. Robert Adams, who several weeks ago went to the Lock Haven hospital where she underwent a very serious operation, by the noted Dr. Eail, has so far recovered as to be able to return home, much to the joy of her many friends.

The gentleman who will succeed in capturing Miss Sarah Cowher for a life partner, will indeed have cause to regret it. Just go down to the Pratt home and see the finest garden in town, the result of her skill as a gardener and you'll all agree with me.

The Free Methodist will hold a camp meeting in Buck's Pine grove across the creek commencing Thursday, 24th of July and ending Aug. 3rd. The junior choir at the M. E. church on last Sunday broke all former records by their beautiful singing. The solo by Boyd Irwin was exceptionally fine.

The venerable octogenarian, B. W. Shipley, had the courage to climb on his hay loft and "mow" back a big load of hay as the big, sturdy "Dodge" Harper pitched it up to him off his wagon.

Five families, employees of the P. R. R. Co. to wit: Chas. R. Eckenroth, C. W. Bauder, Albert Hazel, Perry Wollslagle and Leonard Watson joined the P. R. R. shops excursionist at this point on Tuesday, their destination being Milton where they picnicked for the day. Gee! you should have seen the baskets heaped up to the handles with "koodies," that our folks took with them.

Our base ball team, on last Saturday, went to Bellefonte and "done" the Bellefonte boys, "brown" to the tune of 9 to 5. It is thought that to the Rev. Victor L. Wagner belongs the credit on account of his excellent pitching.

Mr. Manning Resides is the owner of an automobile. The other day he got "stuck" on the little incline on the road east of Fisher's residence. After putting on about 100 candle power and all the horse-power it had she would not budge, so he got out and with at least one horse-power push, succeeded in getting it up the hill, after which she moved off on a vim. Those autos are sometimes too mobile, Manning.

The stork left a fine boy baby at the home of Sam Rumberger at Scottdale. Sam was formerly of Bellefonte where he is well known. Congratulations, Sam, for boy No. 2.

concluded to take a vacation and went to DuBois, where he visited his sister, Mrs. Holland. On Saturday he took suddenly ill and was taken to the hospital where he died at the time above stated. Deceased was born in Unionville, Feb. 5, 1855, being at the time of his death, aged 68 years, 5 months and 15 days. He leaves to survive him his aged mother, Mrs. Malissa Bing, who still occupies the old homestead in Unionville, and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. A. P. Holland, of DuBois; Mrs. Curt Senser, of Reynoldsville; Mrs. Mary McLean, of St. Davis, a suburb of Philadelphia; Mrs. Clyde Lever, of Philadelphia; Joseph, of Greensburg and Elsie, of Pittsburg, all of whom were present at the funeral which took place from the homestead on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Carson, pastor of the Presbyterian church assisted by the Rev. V. L. Wagner. Interment in upper cemetery. Deceased was the son of the late county commissioner, John Bing. He was never married—was born and reared in Unionville—was a painter by trade—served two terms as deputy post master during his father's incumbency. He left Unionville about 25 years ago and went to DuBois where he served four years as assistant post master under Cleveland's administration. He was a man of sterling qualities—genial and social to the highest degree—and a most dutiful son to his aged mother whose heart is almost broken by his sad death. May the Heavenly Father sustain her in her sad bereavement.

MOST ECONOMICAL TALCUM. The most economical talcum you can use is Rexall Violet Talcum Powder. This is because it is so palpably soft and fine, clings so to the skin, and is so richly perfumed with the choicest odors of the fresh-cut violets. A very little of it will give you greater comfort and pleasure than many times the quantity of an inferior talcum. Rexall Violet Talcum Powder contains the purest ingredients obtainable. Price, 25 cents. Sold in this community only at our store. The Rexall Store.

Set it at Green's The Rexall Store

PORT MATILDA. Rev. G. W. Rothermel, the U. B. minister of this place, will preach at Black Oak next Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The subject will be, "The Most Beautiful Bouquet," while the sermon will be particularly for the boys and girls, yet all are invited to be present.

Viper in Woman's Hair. Mrs. Rachel Gilmore, a Lima, O. matron, had a thrilling experience a few days ago with a viper that has since left her prostrated. Mrs. Gilmore was descending the cellar steps at her home when a viper which had lain coiled up on a ledge above the cellar-way, struck at her and lodged in her hair. The woman struggled for an hour in a desperate attempt to free herself from the four-foot reptile, and at last sank unconscious to the floor, where she was found by her husband, who dispatched the snake.

Use Derrick at Funeral. A derrick rigged by Andrew Anderson, a Perth Amboy N. J., contractor, and used for pianos, had to be employed in lowering the body of Mrs. Beza Michanski from the third story window of her home, Mrs. Michanski, wife of Andrew Michanski, a factory foreman, weighed more than 500 pounds. The casket which was made to order, was six feet three inches long, thirty-nine inches wide and twenty-six inches deep. The combined weight of corpse and casket was 925 pounds. The pallbearers carried the coffin into the church.

A new floor is being laid on the upstairs front porch at the Bush house.

Walter Rockey, of Lockton, was admitted to the Lock Haven hospital on Sunday as an operative patient.
