J. for three months. —The Ladies' Aid Society of the United Brethren church will hold a bake sale, bread, rolls, pies, cakes and ice cream, Saturday afternoon and evening in the room adjoining the church. —Mr. and Mrs. John McCoy, of West Curtin street, are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a baby boy which the stock left at their home last Thursday. The little fellow tipped the scales at 8 1/2 pounds. —The Dale re-union will be held at Oak Hall on Saturday, August 2nd, 1913. A cordial invitation is extended to the members of the clan and their friends to be present. A hearty welcome and a good time is assured. —Mrs. Keithley and little son, of Scottsdale, Pa., are visiting friends in this place. Mrs. Keithley was a former resident of Bellefonte and will be remembered by her friends as Miss Ada Dehan. She is a guest at Mrs. Tanner's. —Mr. and Mrs. Washington Rees, their daughter-in-law, Mrs. William Rees, of Patton, with her little daughter, Margaret, are among the friends who took in the Atlantic City excursion which left here last Thursday morning. They will spend a part of the time with Mrs. Rees' sister at Lancaster. —A new advertiser in the columns of The Centre Democrat is J. Finklestein of the Bush Arcade Stationery and novelty store. It is impossible to tell in a brief item anything approximating the stock he carries, but if you want something in the stationery or novelty line, visit his store and you will find it there. —Mrs. Fred Billet, of Coleville, and Mrs. George Tibbens, who resides on Brockerhoff farm below town, have both been admitted to the Bellefonte Hospital for treatment. The former was admitted Saturday evening. Mrs. Fern Minnemyer, of Coleville, who has been a patient, was discharged Sunday afternoon. —Orrie Ishler took advantage of a brief respite from his responsible employment in Philadelphia, and with Mrs. Ishler came to Bellefonte on Friday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ishler, on Bishop street. His duties compelled Orrie to return to Philadelphia on Sunday while his wife remained until Wednesday, at which time she left for a visit with relatives at her former home in Pittsburg. —Arthur B. Kimpfort, former Prothonotary of Centre county, has decided to leave Bellefonte and next Monday will move his family to Montgomery county, where he will go to farming. He has purchased a farm of 103 acres located in Frederick township, about four miles from Squeensville, the home of former Governor Pennypacker, and about thirty miles from Philadelphia. The many friends of Mr. Kimpfort will sincerely regret his determination to leave Centre county but will wish for him and his family abundant success and happiness in their new home. —A cow that persisted in becoming too neighborly caused a slight disturbance among some of the foreign families residing on "Rabbit Hill" near Coleville, recently. The bovine in question is said to have acquired an appetite for the neighbors' flowers, and a few days ago went so far as to eat up a table cloth that hung temptingly upon a line. This was too much for the foreigner who claimed ownership to the table cloth, and his vengeance might have prompted him to slay "Sulky" for the butcher's block, had he not been persuaded to seek an amicable settlement of the damages in Squire Musser's court of justice. This was accomplished on Tuesday morning and all parties are satisfied that "twere better thus than to resort to bloodshed.

—Homer Barnes was a business visitor in Altoona Monday. —Miss Della Cross, of this place, visited Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Replage at their home in Tyrone over Sunday. —Ex-commissioner Philip H. She will return to her home today. —The house occupied by policeman Harry Dukeman on Lamb street is being improved by a new front porch replacing the old one. A. W. Stine is doing the work. —Dr. R. G. H. Hayes left for Pittsburgh Tuesday evening where he transacted business in connection with the estate of "Uncle" brother, a druggist who died there recently. —The members of the borough council were either all too busy or the attractions of the Chautauque were too great on Monday evening for securing a quorum at the semi-monthly meeting. —R. E. Treese, of Ebensburg, Pa., is in Bellefonte this week in the interest of the community organization known as the Knights of the Modern Maccabees, of which there are a number of members in this place. —Plenty of huckleberries in market on Tuesday at 10 cents per quart. They were not all sold, however, which advances the belief that the crop of the luscious "whortleberry" in this community will wait until the price drops a little. —J. O. O'Brien, traveling passenger agent of the Denver & B. Grand railroad; Robert H. Fleming, of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul and P. G. Stahl, of the Southern Pacific, all of Pittsburgh, were business visitors in Bellefonte, Tuesday. —Mrs. S. A. Donachy departed on Monday for a brief visit with relatives in Tyrone, leaving there on Tuesday for a more extended trip that will include a visit with her sisters, who reside in Philadelphia and White Plains, N. Y., respectively. —Ralph W. Illingworth, general secretary of the Young Men's Christian association, at Tyrone, preached on Sunday at Centre Hall, Millheim and Spring Mills. When Mr. Illingworth was in the ministry the above towns were on the circuit which he covered. —A letter received from James Bayard, who surprised his friends a few weeks ago by entering the matrimonial fold, announces that he and his bride are now comfortably located in apartments at 174 D street, Johnson, Pa. Here's long life to Mr. and Mrs. Bayard. —Henry Miller caught a large trout Wednesday morning while fishing from the falls near the High street bridge. It measured 22 inches in length and weighed 4 1/2 pounds. He used a small for bait. Henry, who is employed at the scenic theatre, is very proud of his skill as a fisherman. —Talmadge Hafer, who is now a resident of Tyrone, is visiting friends in this place for a few days. Talmadge was a student last year at Perkiomen Seminary but this fall expects to enter State College. Besides being a good student he made quite a record for himself as a pitcher for the Perkiomen ball team. —Among the many beautiful floral tributes in the memory of the late Sidney Keefe was a handsome floral basket from the employees of the Armor Gas quarries of the American Lime & Stone company. It was a fitting mark of respect to the man under whom they worked for a number of years and who enjoyed their complete confidence and respect. —Hon. C. L. Gramley, of Rebersburg, who as county superintendent of schools and as an ardent Sunday school worker has always been interested in the welfare of the boy, was in Bellefonte on Tuesday and remained for the evening lecture at the Chautauque to hear Judge Lindsey's recent address on experience with the unfortunate "Mickey." —The Misses Elizabeth and Mary Blanchard left Wednesday for Philadelphia, from where they will start on their annual summer trip in the interest of the Basket Shop. They expect to visit many of the larger summer resorts in the White Mountains and to spend ten days in the larger cities in New England. They will not return to Bellefonte until September. —Mr. and Mrs. Alvin H. Stover, of Altoona, former residents of this place, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Helen S. Stover, to Mr. Howard Edwin Stewart, which event took place at the Second Lutheran parish church in this city, on Tuesday afternoon. The bride is a very charming young lady whose many friends in Bellefonte will rejoice in her happiness. Mrs. Stewart was the guest of friends in this place a short time ago. —Sheriff Lee, Paul Portney, Homer Barnes, Chester Barnes, Ben Tate, Harry Gerberich, R. S. Brouse and Sam, Gulsewite made up a jolly party who camped for ten days on Fishing Creek returning home the latter part of last week. Owing to the bad weather there was not a large catch of fish and the only exciting episode of the week outside of the storm, happened on a good friend, Ben Tate. On Monday Ben was fishing on Cherry Run, four miles from camp, when suddenly a doe and a fawn sprang out of the brush near him closely pursued by two dogs. The doe crossed the stream to the opposite side, but the fawn stopped near Ben and the dogs were about to pounce upon it when Ben grabbing a club rushed to its assistance. One of the dogs turned on Ben, who clubbed it until it was dead, and the other dog became frightened and ran away. The doe returned to her fawn and the two made their escape, no doubt grateful that Ben's assistance. Ben says there was a collar on the dog and he is only sorry now that he did not find out who the animal belonged to so that the owner might be punished for allowing such dogs at large. —Elmer E. Davis departed on Monday on a business trip to Milwaukee, Wisconsin. —Jacob and Recca Garbrick, of Moore county, Ohio, visited last week at the home of Amos Garbrick at Coleville. —Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Reynolds, of Lancaster, with their family, are visiting Col. and Mrs. W. Fred Reynolds, of this place. —The Eagle block on North Allegheny street is being repainted this week which adds greatly to the attractiveness of its appearance. —R. L. Jeffrey with his wife and son autoed to Bellefonte last Friday from their home in Scranton and remained until Monday as the guests of W. M. Bottorf and other friends in this place. —Miss Ethel Flack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Flack, of this place, left Tuesday evening for Punxsutawney to assist for the next two weeks the office force in the wholesale grocery firm of Lauderbach Barber Co. —What is to prevent beginning the delightful band concerts, now that the attractions of the Chautauque have passed away. We have the time, the place and the band—all that is needed is the initiative effort of some one to give it a boost. Let the band play. —The Ladies' Aid Society of the Lutheran church will hold a sale in the vacant room adjoining the Y. M. C. A. building, on Saturday of next week. In addition to a fine array of pies, cakes and bread, the ladies will also display a variety of fancy articles for sale. The proceeds will be turned over to the building fund of the new parsonage. —William Sager, who has been working in Niagara Falls, was called home Monday by the serious illness of his 14-month-old son. The little fellow is suffering from blood poisoning, the disease having started from a pimple on the right knee. In creeping about the floor it is supposed the knee became infected. For awhile the child's life was despaired of, but on Wednesday it was reported to be out of danger. —The many friends of Margaret E. Corl, of Chicago, will be glad to learn that she is recovering nicely from a very critical operation to which she submitted at The Robert Burns hospital, in that city, on Friday, July 19th. Margaret is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Corl, the former of whom was commissioner of Centre county for a term, but is now holding a good position in the "Windy City." —Girard Altenderfer, a Bellefonte boy, who is employed on the Meadowood farms at Cazanovia, N. Y., because of his thorough knowledge of poultry husbandry, writes us from that place as follows: "Crops, on the whole, are looking very good throughout central New York, but we are in need of rain very much. This will be a good year for apples, too, in this section." Mr. Altenderfer is a son of Mr. M. L. Altenderfer, of east Howard street. —A large auto truck belonging to the State Highway Department has been in Bellefonte and vicinity this week. It is loaded with iron sign posts which are being placed at the intersection of all state roads giving the correct directions and distances to the different towns along the route. It will not be long until the state is covered with these sign posts and travelers will be spared the necessity of having to inquire the way to different points they wish to reach. —Jas. C. Derr, the auctioneer, will leave on Friday for Coatesville, Pa., to conduct a sale of unclaimed packages held at the Adams Express Company, held at that place on Saturday. This is an event that never fails to draw an immense crowd of bidders who are attracted by the possible bargains which the many packages sometimes contain. No purchaser knows the contents of a package until after it is sold and opened, and many surprises are encountered. Mr. Derr has conducted these sales annually for a number of years past. —The Salvation Army will hold a free outing for mothers and children, in Fanning's woods, Benner township, Friday, August 1st. The army proposes to furnish transportation to and from the woods and will also supply the cream and lemonade. Any who are unable to bring a lunch will be furnished the same free. The day will be spent in playing games, and in the afternoon a children's service will be conducted by Capt. and Mrs. Reese, of Tyrone. Those wishing to go can buy tickets from Capt. Bowie. A good time will be given to all who attend. —Miss Nora Stover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Fall Stover, of this place, underwent a delicate operation in the University hospital, Philadelphia, on Tuesday of last week, which has since left her in a very weakened condition, although showing a slight improvement. Miss Stover has been in reduced health for some time past which has affected her nervous system, and this complication may tend to make her convalescence a little slower than her many friends would desire. Her father, Mr. J. Fall Stover, returned home on Monday from her bedside in the hospital. —William J. Sauer, a former well known resident of this place, who about a year ago left for parts unknown to some of his friends, was brought to Bellefonte this week upon a warrant sworn out by his wife, who resides on east Highstreet, charging him with desertion. Mr. Sauer had been living at Highspire, a small town near Harrisburg, and he is said to have assumed the name of William J. Graham. The arrest was made by Officer Kneisley, who went to that place and accompanied his man to Bellefonte. Mr. Sauer was taken before Squire Brown on Tuesday for a hearing, at which time he furnished $400 bail for his appearance at the next term of court. Mr. Sauer's defense was that his wife wished him to leave and had told him so. He stated that he had a right to take the name of Graham as that was the name of his father.
