HOWARD.

August.
 Rejoice! ye fields, rejoice; and wave with old,
 When August round her precious gifts is fringed;
 Lo! the crushing wain is slowly homeward rolled;
 The sunburnt reapers jocund lays are singing.

Ruskin.

In Our Churches Next Sabbath.
 United Evangelical—Pastor M. J. Snyder will be present and conduct the services as usual at Fairview at half past ten, at Jacksonville at half past seven. He will be accompanied by Rev. Sawtell, of Altoona, a temperance lecturer of wide reputation, who will speak at each place.

Reformed—Rev. Dr. Lewis Robb, pastor of the Reformed church at Wilkensburg, Pa., will preach at Marsh Creek at ten o'clock in the forenoon, and in Howard at half past seven. The Marsh Creek service will be one of more than usual interest, as it will be in the nature of a re-opening of the building after making repairs of importance—plastering, papering, repainting and the like—the cost of which was largely paid by the late Peter Raab, who was one of its elders, and the father of the officiating minister.

Presbyterian—Pastor absent on vacation.
 Methodist Episcopal—Pastor James Edwin Dunning will preach and celebrate the sacrament of the Lord's Supper in Howard at half past ten; and at Kennedy at half past two. He will preach at Beech Creek at half past seven. Rev. M. C. Piper will preach and administer the Holy Communion at Curtin at half past ten.

A Musical Feast.
 Tuesday evening, January 20, 1914, is a good long reach ahead to look for a fine concert, but we want everybody within reach of Howard to know that that date is pre-empted for that purpose, and that, by the kind courtesy of the pastor and board of trustees it is to be held in the Methodist church. This was chosen because it is the largest audience room in town, and there is no question that all the room will be needed when it is known just what may be expected; all who were present at the Christian Chapel in the evening of April 10, 1912, and waited with such patience and good humor for the arrival of the quartette of young ladies who were delayed by belated trains until near midnight, will remember how well they were repaid by the high class concert which followed their arrival. They will also recall specially the readings interspersed between music numbers, by Miss Wilbur. It is enough at this time to say that Miss Wilbur was in town last Thursday afternoon, and completed arrangements for another concert of similar character, to be given by another quartette of young ladies, under the same auspices, at the time and place above mentioned. This means one evening of refined and keen pleasure in store for us.

Snake Bitten.
 While gathering huckleberries, early Friday morning, in a field near his home on the ridge, Mr. Henry Thompson, one of the best known citizens of this locality, was struck on the first finger of his right hand by a copperhead which was coiled up under the bush. Mr. Thompson first killed the snake, then took a string from his pocket and had his daughter, who was with him tie it tightly above the wound. Going quickly to the house he poured whiskey on the wound and bound it up, and swallowed a big drink of the universal antidote while his horse was being put to the buggy and hurried in to Dr. O. W. McEntire's office, bringing the snake with him. The doctor quickly cauterized the wound, and applied the proper dressings. With a much swollen hand Mr. Thompson went home to await results. At this writing, Monday morning, Mr. Thompson is in town, going about his business as usual, and with no visible ill effects from the sting.

Alfred Confer, of Niagara, is at home for a vacation trip.
 Harry Wetzel, of Lock Haven, visited his mother the last of the week.
 Miss Ada Hess, of Lancaster, is a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hagen.
 Mrs. Fessie Leathers handsomely entertained the Ladies' Social Club Thursday evening.
 Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lucas were business visitors in the Clinton county capital last Thursday.
 Harry Wolf, of Wilkensburg, was the guest of his cousin, Mrs. Claude R. Moore, over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Schenck, of Bellwood, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Schenck.
 Mrs. George Grimm, of Punxsutawney, was a last week guest of her friend, Mrs. W. J. Kurutz.

Mrs. Augustus Johnson is spending this week with her friends in the contracting forces at Emporium.
 Mr. and Mrs. William Quay enjoyed a brief visit from their son, Alva, now a citizen of Elmira, N. Y., last week.

Lloyd Daughenbaugh and "Cam," Holter, two of our boys who help make Altoona a busy town, were at home over Sunday.

Mrs. J. S. Holter and Mrs. N. G. Fletcher attended the funeral of their brother, Herbert Miller, at Punxsutawney, last Wednesday.
 Mrs. Elsie Bechdel Fry, of State College, drove her own horse and buggy down to spend the week-end with her mother and sister.

Former sheriff John P. Condo, looking as well and talking as much democracy as ever, was a one-day guest of his brother "Yoney" last week.

Abram Thomas, of Painterville, Mifflin county, accompanied by his wife, paid a visit to his brother, Ambrose Thomas and wife last week.

William Quay, carrier on R. R. D. No. 2, is now taking his annual vacation of two weeks, and the route is driven by substitute Ward E. Confer.
 Mathias McCloskey, formerly of Curtin township, and now of Lock Haven, visited his friends in this neighborhood last Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Herbert Miller and Mrs. G. A. Ward, of Bellefonte, came down from Bellefonte Saturday for a between trains and dinner visit with Mrs. Charles E. Yearick.

Mr. James Hayes and granddaughter were guests of Mrs. A. A. Fletcher, Saturday.

D. W. Holter, our efficient assistant station agent, is off at Niagara for a few days of rest and vacation.

The Misses Mabel and Paulin Stahl of Lock Haven, were week-end guests of Miss Martha Turner and brother John.

Comer and Gilbert Shope left Thursday morning for Cameron, where they will work for the Anderson Brothers Contracting Co.

James F. Fletcher, ticket agent for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company at Clearfield, was at home for a day or two of last week with his family.

Mrs. Carl S. Noll, and her son Thos. of Pitsclair, Pa., arrived in Howard last Saturday and will spend a week or two with her father Squire A. A. Fletcher.

Miss Jennie Davis has returned to her home in Glen Lynn, Luzerne county, after a pleasant visit with her college chum, Miss Lulu Holter, in this place.

Mrs. Georgiana Dale, of Lemont, and her daughter, Mrs. Edward Lingie, of Pitsclair, were Saturday guests of Mrs. Dale's cousins, Mrs. Abraham Weber and H. A. Moore.

S. D. Antes, station agent for the P. R. R. Company at Smoke Run, Clearfield county, spent a portion of his vacation at home last week, accompanied by Mrs. Antes.

Charles Lucas, our former successful restaurateur, and now even more successfully engaged in the same business in Gallitzen, was a last week visitor with the family here.

J. Sumner Wolf enjoyed an all day visit from his brother and cousin, Charles Wolf and Frank Keister with their families, of Aaronsburg, who drove over in their own car Sunday morning.

Miss Lulu Stover, of Mill Hall, a former popular teacher of our primary grade, was the guest of Miss Nellie Weber last week and dispersed her smiles with the utmost impartiality among her many admirers.

President McCurdy, of your First National Bank in Bellefonte, was seen in an auto car passing, at a properly moderate and dignified pace, through our streets last week, on his way to and from a little camping and fishing outing.

Rev. M. J. Snyder's family is visiting at and in the vicinity of Port Trevorton, and the reverend gentleman is himself in attendance upon the sessions of the annual Bible Conference at Central Oak Heights, Milton, Pa.

Mrs. Weber Thomas, on Walnut street, and Mr. Christian Fletcher on Main street, are contributing their part to beautifying our town by putting down excellent cement walks in front of their residences. W. J. Mayes is the contractor.

The Hon. Charles A. Schaffer, representing Columbia county in the General Assembly, was a business visitor in our town Thursday and Friday, and incidentally stepped around to see some of his personal friends, regardless of political color or previous condition of servitude.

His seventy-first birthday anniversary, which occurred Friday 23th, was the occasion of the assembling of many of his children and grandchildren at his home to congratulate him upon his remarkably good health and fine state of preservation. It is to be regretted that none of his four great-grandchildren could be present. Continued health and long life to the patriarch!

The heavy rains of Thursday last caused great disappointment to the Sunday school folks of the Christian Chapel congregation, which was quite forgotten in the beautiful weather of Saturday, when their elaborate plans were carried out. The occasion is spoken of by those who participated—and they were not less than one hundred and fifty in number—as one of the finest ever. The people were carried to and fro in wagons, carriages, buggies and automobiles, the only unpleasant feature of which was the danger of W. L. Cooke, Esq., our popular ticket agent, being "pinched" by our ever watchful officials for the extremely rapid rate at which he drives his fine new car (!) Reduced speed and great care should always be used when children are carried in large numbers. The sumptuous character and great abundance of the feast provided is spoken of with much enthusiasm, and more than one headache in consequence, kept its victim from Sunday school the following day.

A Series of Recitals.
 Miss Mary Glass will give a recital in Stormstown M. E. church on August 2nd, at 8 p. m. She will also give a recital at Waddie M. E. church, on August 5th, and at Fillmore, August 6th. At all places the recital will begin at 8 p. m. Admission 15 and 20 cents. The public is invited to attend and enjoy a rich treat.
