VACANCY EXISTS.

Democratic County Chairman A. B. Kimport left Bellefonte on Tuesday, with his family, to make his future home on a farm located in Frederick township, Montgomery county, Pa. He thereby loses his residence in Centre county, and his position as County Chairman becomes vacant. Mr. Kimport did not formally tender a written resignation, but to various persons verbally made the above statement.

In case of a vacancy of County Chairman, our rules provide that "the Secretary or Secretaries" of the 15, 1912, when she fractured her an-County Committee can convene that kle. Acting District Secretary.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT UNITED STATES CUSTOM SERVICE PORT OF PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Hon. Charles R. Kurtz, June 30th, 1913. Surveyor of Customs, Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sir

My attention has been called to certain statements appearing in the public press relating to appointments made by you at the time of your taking the oath of office before me, which are so entirely at variance with the truth that I feel it my duty to you and tol all con-cerned to give a correct version of the facts. It has been stated that assuming the duties of your office, your first act was to appoint two Republicans, Richard B. Williams and William R. Carson, as your deputies, which alleged action has been the subject of unfavorable comments and unjust criticism.

The fact is that you made no appointments whatever for the rea-son that there were no vacancies in the force of your office, and that all of your subordinates are protected by the Civil Service law, and not subject to removal except upon charges of misconduct or inefficiency.

Mr. Williams has been a deputy surveyor in charge of your Second Street office for a number of years. His position is in the classified service, and he has always performed his duties faithfully and ef-He retains his position on this account and needed no reappointment to continue in the service under your administration.

Captain Carson is a clerk in the classified service, and not a deputy surveyor. He was designated, however, as a special deputy by one of your predecessors and when I called your attention to the fact that it would be necessary, under the law, for you to immediately designate some one in your office to act in your place in case you were unavoidably absent, you simply continue his designation, for that purpose, this action of yours not changing his status in any manner whatever. Respectfully,

C. W. HILL. Collector.

(NOTE-William R. Carson's position, or official designation, in the Surveyor of Customs department is, and for 16 years has been, that of "CHIEF CLERK." He is a Republican, and was originally promoted to the best clerkship in that department, in preference to other deserving Democrats, by Surveyor P. Gray Meek, in July 1897. Then a few days later the same Surveyor Meek designated him as "SPECIAL Deputy"-that was an assignment only to perform cer-tain duties in that office as a clerk when the Surveyor is absent. It did not constitute an appointment nor did it increase his salary. Mr. Carson is the only one in that office who had performed the duties of "Special Deputy" from 1897 to this date.-C. R. K.)

TREASURY DEPARTMENT UNITED STATES CUSTOMS SERVICE PORT OF PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Hon. Charles R. Kurtz, June 24th, 1913. Surveyor of Customs, Sir:

The "Evening Buuetin" of the 9th instant, inadvertently stated that you had re-appointed me Deputy Surveyor: the said erroneous publication seemed to have been reproduced by many papers, with-out investigating its authenticity. There was not the slightest foundation for such a statement, which has placed you in a false position with your friends, and has given me much annoyance to explain, how I could be re-appointed to a position that was not vacant, and govern-ed entirely by the classified Civil Service Regulations.

Every intelligent newspaper man is aware of the fact, that all Deputies are in the classified service; and no appointment could be made, except to fill an existing vacancy, etc.

Respectfully, R. B. WILLIAMS,

Deputy Surveyor.

The above copies of official correspondence will satisfy anyone that Mr. Meek has been guilty of manufacturing and repeatedly publishing an untruth. Mr. Meek served in the same office, as Surveyor of Customs, for a period of four years, therefore he hardly could plead ignorance, or charge his mistake to a similar mistake made by a reporter of the "Evening Bulletin," who became confused in his account of my installation as Surveyor of Customs. Yet, feeling that a lapse of fifteen years might make Mr. Meek's memory defective and that his hatred and spite over my appointment might sway his memory and his judgment, I gave him, at first, the benefit of the doubt. In the above charges Mr. Meek called for my answer. I was in Philadelphia attending to the duties of my appointment at the time. While home, over a 4th of July vacation, I sent the ORIGINAL manuscript of the above letters by special messenger to the "Democratic Watchman" office, on Monday, July 7th, 1913, for their inspection. The same messenger also carried along a set of typewritten duplicate copies of the original which was tendered and accepted by the "Democratic Watchman." That contained the answer they demanded, and clamored for. As it clearly proved the "Democratic Watchman" guilty of manufacturing an untruth they did not have the common courtesy to open their columns for a correction due me. Instead, they suppressed these letters. There can be no plea of ignorance, no lapse of memory-the "Democratic Watchman" by suppressing these facts places itself in a most discreditable light. Fair play and an open forum are the foundations of decent journalism-The Democratic Watchman is devoid of these; it is a spite sheet that voices only the disgruntled feeling of its envious publisher, as shown in his repeated assaults upon the Democratic Party organization in Centre county, in Pennsylvania, and even upon most members of Congress and President Wilson and his cabinet. I glory, and so does every true Democrat, in the enmity of any such man who was disloyal to this Union, and now is a traitor to the party that nourished him all these years.

envy upon me, justly return to torture his conscience if, forsooth, there is a remnant left in him.

I care not a whit for what P. Gray Meek, or his retainers, may charge against me. I sought no personal vindication in this extended article. The purpose only is to again illustrate the crooked public and political career of P. Gray Meek, and the unreliability and untruthfulness of the "Democratic Watchman" which he and others edit.

In Conclusion :

For withholding my answer I brand the "Democratic Watchman" of cowardice; when it or anyone else utters an untruth and then wilfully supresses the facts, the act can only be classed as the work of a cowardly, malicious liar.

This is the man who has denounced the Democracy of Pennsylvania and all connected with it. He has denounced Secretary of State Bryan, Secretary of Labor Wm. B. Wilson, National Committeeman A. Mitchell Palmer, Embassador to Japan Geo. W. Guthrie, 4th Assistant Post Master General James I. Blakeslee, Democratic State Chairman Hon. Roland Morris of Philadelphia and other eminent citizens; for several years he has openly fought the Democratic county organization, and only last fall participated in the defeat of part of our Democratic county ticket; he fought Hon. Wm. A. Wallace. Senator Mackey, the late Gov. Curtin, and other party nominees. he has violently opposed, through petty jealousy, the promotion or success of any Democratic citizen of this county lest the lustre of a Meek might be dimmed.

For years this same man brazenly dignified and upheld Jim Guffy, Jim Hall, Judge Garman, "Billy" Brennen, "Charley" Donnelly and their kind, men who in the past bartered and sold the Democracy, and made the organization repulsive in the eyes of the respectable citizenship of Pennsylvania.

CHAS. R. KURTZ.

N. B.—For a good description of the type of Democracy represent-ed by P. Gray Meek and the "Democratic Watchman," you are urged to read in another part of this issue an editorial from the "Public Ledger" which is known as Philadelphia's most reliable paper.

What the questions refered to was simply accusing them of apparent negligence. It can be successfully gain-said that our streets are in a bad condition on account of the heavy rains, washing soil off the streets and pavements. Mrs Hogan's pavement was one of the best state walks in town but those heavy rains washed great guillies in it where as if the water had been kept in the main road the pavement would not have suffered. Same can be said of the Earton corner. Besides some of the streets and allies are covered with a luxurious groth of weeds, where one luxurious growth of weeds, where one luxurious growth of weeds, where one he was after you. Meek Guilty of his own Malicious Charge :

In conclusion, let me briefly show the inborn dishonesty of P. Gray Meek. What was his record when Surveyor of Customs of Philadelphia? The record he made stands there and can not be effaced:

FIRST-In a letter addressed to the Treasury Department, at Washington, D. C., dated July 29, 1897, P. Gray Meek, then the Surveyor of Customs at Philadelphia "recommend for appointment as Chief Clerk in this office W. R. Carson at * * * annual salary $1,800." Mr. Carson was then, as now, of the same political stripe, a Penrose-Republican; and Meek then, as now, trained with the Donnelly-Penrose Democratic combination in Philadelphia, and in this act no doubt carried out Penrose's orders, by promoting W. R. Carson.

SECOND-In another letter addressed to the Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., dated, August 5th, 1897, the same P. Gray Meek, then Surveyor of Customs, at Philadelphia, made a request upon the department "to recommend the appointment of W. R. Carson, Clerk No. 1, Class 4, as Special Deputy Surveyor" stating that it was his "desire to have Mr. Carson qualify as Special Deputy" and Mr. Carson, was forthwith originally made Special Deputy Surveyor upon the recommendation of the same P. Gray Meek; thereby again conferred a favor upon the Penrose-Guffey-Donnelly bi-partizan, Democratic-Repubilcan machine of Philadelphia.

I challenge P. Gray Meek to deny these two acts. I defy him to make a satisfactory explanation of this treachery to the Democratic Party in 1897 as Surveyor of Customs.

Further I am prepared to furnish copies of Meek's two letters, referred to, if he or anyone questions their existence.

With this record of his official conduct before him, and now generally known to all in the Philadelphia Customs House, his brazen duplicity and malicious falsehoods, directed by spite and Colored Folks to Hold Bush Meeting. A great bush meeting has been announced to take place in Thompson's Grove at Port Matilda on Sunday, August 10th, under the direction of the Philipsburg A. M. E. church. Rev.
