Walter Rathmell and Harold Hoy, of Hubersburg, were seen in our burg on Sunday.

Misses Cordie Dorman, May Showers and Helen Rossman, of Lock Haven and Miss Lydia Long, of near Mt. Bethel, were all home over Sunday and attended the Sunday school picnic on Saturday at Hecla Park.

Art Young and family, of Potato Creek, are visiting their many friends around Spring Mills. Many friends are invited. Good music and speaking all day and night.

Ira Davis, who has been home for a couple of weeks on account of his father's illness, returned to his work at Pitcairn on Monday morning.

There are several parties about here who have been carrying on pretty high. An application of tar and feathers is what is needed to calm them.

Mrs. May Myers, of Philipsburg, is spending a few days visiting her father, Geo. W. Gill.

Preaching services in the U. B. church next Sunday morning at 10.30, by the pastor, Rev. Johnston.

Mrs. Aaron Myers was taken to the Philipsburg hospital on Sunday evening. It is hoped that something can be done for her to relieve her of her sufferings.

The venerable Huston Hosband, of Port Matilda, was a visitor in town on last Sunday.

Don't forget the festival on Friday and Saturday nights.

PLUM GROVE. Sunday school next Sunday at half past two; let us have a full turn out, as we have important business on hand to appoint a committee to make arrangement to have an old fashioned picnic and prepare a treat for the Sunday school children, as our Sunday school has been a success. We invite the parents of the children and neighbors to come and take part and help us along. D. W. McCloskey, Supt.

On last Sunday at three o'clock, Rev. Clark of Milesburg, preached a very able sermon at our school house that was appreciated by all that heard it.
