HOWARD.

"It is not what we accomplish at any particular time or times, but what we earnestly endeavor to accomplish, makes the road easier and should make all effort even a joy."

In Our Churches Next Sabbath.

Reformed—Pastor absent on vacation.
Catholic—Pastor S. P. Caprio will conduct service at St. Bernard's church at ten o'clock.
Presbyterian—Pastor absent on vacation.

Methodist Episcopal—Pastor James Edwin Dunning will preach and celebrate the sacrament of the Lord's Supper at Beech Creek at half past ten, and at Hunter's Run at half past two. He will preach at Howard at half past seven.

United Evangelical—Pastor M. J. Snyder will preach at Marion at half past ten, and at Curtin at half past seven.

Council Meeting.

All members present excepting W. N. Neff, who is out of town. Minutes read and approved without amendment. Chairman's street committee made an extended verbal report, first of work done by way of placing and rolling crushed limestone on Main street, and of work now in progress on Rothrock and Speering streets; and second of repairs and changes needed in streets and sidewalks in many parts of the town. This led to other suggestions from all members of the council and a lengthy and very general discussion of street matters. A few of the more important suggestions only can be made for want of time and are these: "Dutch Gap Canal" follows cleaning, and the pavement at the Kesike property, which has been damaged by its unsightly and inefficient piece of engineering, needs repairs; Robert Cook's pavement at the residence of Mrs. Bannison should be relaid; alley crossing near the Christian Chapel should be improved; Maple, Grove, Black and East Main streets need systematic improvements; the condition of the pavements of Hayes Schenck and H. A. Moore is becoming chronic; walk in front of C. C. Lucas's house needs attention, and so on. The result of the meeting was that another car of limestone was ordered, and the secretary directed to notify Mr. Cooke to repair the Bannison pavement. Neither water nor nuisance committee had a report, and the special committee on Walnut street bridge followed suit. Street committee was authorized to purchase a brush scythe with which the street commissioner will be instructed to mow the weeds along the sides of some of the streets. Bills amounting to $172.33 were approved and ordered paid. The larger portion was for street repairs during July; and $47.32 was the bill for lighting the town for the same month, deduction having been made for partial absence of light one night, on account of flood in creek and for two lamps which were broken for a portion of the month.

Y. M. C. A. Camp.

Under the auspices of the County association and in the immediate charge of H. R. Austin, County Secretary, a number of boys who are connected with the local association at Lemont, and perhaps other towns, are in camp on Butler's Beach and having a royal good time. On Tuesday they were visited by County Chairman Prof. Thomas I. Mairs of State College, who takes a live interest in the affairs of the association. Their names are as follows: Charles Daugherty, Max Daugherty, Jesse Guy Klingler, Glenn Wasson, Joseph Weaver, Bennie Weaver, Card Bradford, George Roan, Harold Bortoff, Charles Myers, Daniel Welland, and Ray Lucas.

Mrs. C. C. Lucas was a Lock Haven visitor Friday.

Mrs. Joshua Potter, of Centre Hall, is the guest of Mrs. F. H. Bannison.

Mrs. John Loder visited a sick sister at Flemington Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Carl McKinley spent Friday with relatives and friends at Milesburg.

Mr. Alfred Thompson came down from his Snow Shoe home on No. 52 Thursday.

John DeHaas, of Milton, is a visitor with his sister-in-law, Mrs. J. L. DeHaas.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Yearick spent the week end with friends at Centre Hall.

Miss Ruth Kerstetter, of Centre Hall, is the guest of her friend, Miss Hilda Wagner.

Perceval Kling, of Altoona, paid an over Sunday visit to his venerable father, Mr. Joel Kling.

Miss Turner and brother John are entertaining their niece, Miss Martha Turner, of Altoona.

Dr. Kurtz enjoyed a visit from his venerable father, an old time resident of Williamsport, Pa.

Miss Della Bowers, of Lock Haven came up to spend Sunday with her father and sister, Miss Ada.

Miss Josephine Muffley is enjoying the company of one of her Clearfield friends, Miss Maud Pletcher.

Mr. J. Will Mayes suffered the loss of one of his fine young farm horses by heat prostration last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Green, accompanied by their friend, Mr. Leitch, visited over Sunday in Bellefonte.

Harry Martin, of Pittsburg, is spending a portion of his vacation with Mr. and Mrs. J. Will Mayes.

Miss Adaline Anderson, of Bellefonte, was the guest of her young friend, Miss Esther Strunk last week.

Mrs. and Prof. Joseph C. Weirick, who is the chosen head of the Lock Haven schools, are at home for a few days.

Mrs. Musser, John Dunkle and Charles Houseman, of Millheim, Sunday over with Mr. and Mrs. John Boney.

Mrs. Melvin Schenck, of Clearfield, with her daughter, Miss Dorothy, spent last week among their many relatives here.

Mrs. S. H. Bannison and daughter, Miss Helen, enjoyed a week end visit with another daughter, Mrs. Worrick, at Mackeyville.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Kelsey, of Lock Haven, and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Harvey, of Orviston, on their way to a camping party Saturday afternoon, stopped for the afternoon as guests of Mrs. Anna Lucas, Harvey.

Miss Adaline Williams is spending the week with her aunt, Mrs. John Haberstraw in Lock Haven.

Mrs. L. Henderson Smith, now of Centre Hall, is at home to spend some weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Henderson.

Mr. A. L. Johnson, head of the contracting firm who built our new low grade road passed through town Thursday afternoon, on No. 52.

William J. Quay, driver of R. F. D. No. 2, with his daughter, Miss Jennie, left last Thursday for Corning, N. Y., to spend a part of his vacation with his son.

Mrs. John Shay, with little one-legged Walter, and the two sturdy bodied boys, spent last week with relatives in the region of Blanchard and Beeche Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Holt, who are lumberjacks on the P. C. tract, went to their Unionville home Monday on account of the illness of Mrs. Holt's mother.

Russell S. Wagner has been chosen to teach the Oak Grove district school by the directors of Spring township. Another compliment to our fine young people in Howard.

Kilne and Wolf have torn away the old and insufficient store room connected with their store on the street. The new place will build a much larger one, two stories in height.

Miss Hilda Wagner and her friend, Claire Leathers, enjoyed a driving tour by way of Penn's Cave, Centre Hall, Boalsburg and Bellefonte, the latter part of last week.

Mrs. S. O. Knoll left on No. 50, Sunday, for a visit with her three daughters, the Misses Margaret, Bertha and Nannie in Philadelphia, and incidentally, a few days at Atlantic City.

The Trainer Business College, of Perth Amboy, N. J., has secured the services of Prof. T. A. Lucas, as instructor in shorthand, English and commercial law. On the way to his post he stopped a day or two with his family.

During the past week the council has done excellent work on the streets, applying crushed limestone of good quality, thoroughly wetting it, and rolling it down with the big ten ton roller of the contractors, who very kindly loaned it for the purpose.

Mr. J. Duke Gledhill, a former operator in the tower here occupies a chair in the dispatchers' office at Tyrone in the second story of the corner which last Wednesday's wreck at that place knocked the underpinning out from under. If the wreck had occurred about forty minutes later, he would have been on duty, and probably mixed up with the victims.

Messrs. Harry and Al. Williams, Mace Johnson and John B. Miller, of Blanchard were callers, Sunday afternoon by the auto route, at the homes of W. E. Confer and William J. Wilson. They were accompanied by Rev. M. S. Blair, a Disciple minister, who was at one time in charge of the several congregations in this vicinity, and now is preaching at Perryopolis, Fayette Co., Pa.

Some years ago, when as a boy he often visited here with his mother, Mrs. D. B. Greth, nee Miss Lizzie Lauth, at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Lauth, Harold Greth was well known by all the youngsters in town. He is now living in Pittsburg, a fine stalwart fellow, and on Friday last, accompanied by his wife, paid a visit between trains to his aunt, Mrs. Caroline Commerford.

Our friends, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Butler, came near losing their little grandson, Irvin Butler, whose parents, Harry and wife, live near Hunter's Run last Thursday. He was playing on the high culvert lately built over the run and fell off into the shallow water covering a bed of stone some ten or twelve feet below. Badly stunned and thoroughly soaked, but not seriously injured, he was taken out and revived and is now none the worse for his tumble.

A slip of the linotype machine, (it is one of the advantages of having mechanical type-setter that it never kicks when charged with an error that it didn't make), made an interesting note concerning the passing of the seventy-first birthday of my friend George D. Johnson, seem very much like an unsalted egg because his name was omitted. All citizens of the quality of Mr. Johnson should have their names respectfully mentioned, and live a hundred years.

On Wednesday evening last, Mrs. Clyde Long, accompanied by her brother and sister, Balsar and Miss Edith Weber, Miss Anna Muffley and Miss Lauretta Weber, went to Philadelphia, where they expected to remain until Friday morning, going to Atlantic City for the week end. From there their purpose was to go to Newark for a visit with Mr. Paul Cheesman and wife, nee Miss Emma Weber, where her sisters, Mrs. Long and Miss Edith, will remain for a few weeks.

A delightful out-of-door function, under the appetizing title of a "Ham and Egg Supper" was held in Blair Pletcher's picnic ground last Saturday evening. The favored participants were: Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Cooke, Marion Cooke, Annie Leach, Rosetta Schenck, Mrs. Nathaniel Pletcher, Blair Pletcher, Marius Miner, Mrs. Kathryn Bechtol, Mrs. Zella Jordan, Miss Mollie Yearick, Charley Bower, Mrs. Harvey Wolfe, Miss Jean Bechtol and her friend, Mr. Walt D. Leonard, of Pittsburg.

Mrs. Grant Sweyers, formerly Miss Blanche Tipple, died in her Shippensburg home last Friday morning, Aug. 1, and was buried here Monday afternoon. Both Mr. and Mrs. Sweyers lived their young lives here and are well remembered by almost all our citizens, as they had not yet reached even middle age. They were married Dec. 12, 1894, and not very long after their marriage Mr. Sweyers' business required their removal to the pretty little Cumberland Valley town, where they comfortably established themselves. Mrs. Sweyers was a niece of Mrs. H. T. Lucas, and when her immediate family arrived here with the body at 4:15 Monday afternoon they repaired to the nearby home of Mrs. Lucas, where the friends and relatives here had assembled, and from there the sad procession moved to the Christian Chapel, the casket having been taken there direct from the train. The service was conducted by Rev. M. S. Blair, a former pastor of the church, and interment was made in the Methodist cemetery where the loved young wife and mother rests by the side of her own mother. Mrs. Sweyers was a faithful member of the Christian church and is remembered here as a girl and young woman of fine character, and great sweetness of disposition, and

ing. Come one and all and bring your friends. A fish pond will be in operation.

Bush-Meeting at Port Matilda. A Bush Meeting will be held in Thompson's grove at Port Matilda, Sunday, Aug. 10th, under auspices of the A. M. E. church, of Philadelphia, Pa. Good singing and good preaching will be main features of this meeting. Rev. J. E. Hawkins and the pastor will be present and preach. Prof. L. A. Chase and other good singers will furnish plenty music. Morning services begin 10:30 o'clock; afternoon services begin 2 o'clock; evening services begin 7 o'clock. Admission 10c.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Vaughn and Family.

Harrisburg came up to our town for a square meal on Tuesday and incidentally to see if there were any traps set by some of our 21 widows. Now Benner, you know you did.

The picture represents the family of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Vaughn, prominent and popular citizens of Philadelphia, Pa., and their 13 bright happy children. Mrs. Vaughn will be remembered as Miss Tessie Jones, daughter of the late Cook Jones. She was born and reared in Unionville and is well remembered by her many friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Russell left on Tuesday for a ten day's visit to friends in Adams county. We wish them a pleasant and enjoyable trip. Mrs. Marion Russell their daughter will take care of their home during their absence. No prescriptions filled, please.

A lady of Colorado visiting in this section of Uncle Sam's domain, recently in a conversation in which woman suffrage was the topic, said, "I have voted twice in the state of Colorado" when asked who showed her how to vote replied, "Oh Earnest showed me how to vote." (Earnest is her husband.) If women were granted the right of suffrage in this state, would that be about the general result, 99 per cent of the women would vote as their husbands would dictate. So that instead of Pennsylvania having a majority of 150,000, would have 300,000. Catch on?

There's a right smart town way out over the Alleghenies by the name of Curvesville, that has only one subscriber to the Centre Democrat. They let me the citizens shovel their food in to the opening in their faces with a knife instead of a fork. The ladies are wearing hoop-skirts instead of the modern hobble. The wear Sunbonnets to church. They have a peach orchard. I would advise the proprietor of the Centre Democrat to send a missionary to that ancient village to solicit subscribers. The name of the one, lone, honored, descendant of Adam who is a subscriber to the C. D. is Harry Teats, who is well known in Curvesville. He having been a clerk in Sechlers store for about 10 years.

Miss Margaret Iddings, the 14 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Iddings, of Philadelphia, died at the home of her uncle, Jesse Irwin in Union township, on last Saturday evening of tuberculosis of the bowels. She had been ill since last February and five weeks ago she came to visit her uncle when she became so ill that she could not be removed to her home. Funeral from the home of Mr. Irwin on Tuesday at 10 o'clock. Interment in Upper cemetery.

ORVISTON.

Mrs. Bion Nelson is entertaining her sister, from Linn, Massachusetts. Thomas Croft is visiting in Pittsburg.

Mrs. Laura Foresman, of Blanchard, transacted business here on Tuesday. Annie Confer and sister, Nellie, attended the festival at Romola, on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Murray departed for Maine, on Monday to be gone two months.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mann spent Sunday at Marsh Creek.

Wm. Barnhart was very sick on Sunday but is better at this writing. Mrs. Bowers is recovering nicely under the skillful treatment of Dr. Kurtz.

Mrs. Geo. Confer has arrived home after spending a week with relatives at Fairview and Pleasant Valley.

Quite a number from here took in the festival at Romola Saturday evening.

Ruth Heverly and sister, Nellie are visiting their grandma, Mrs. Daley.

Met and Adjusted Insurance.

At a meeting of the executive board of the Patrons' Fire Insurance Company of Centre county, held at the Garman house, Bellefonte, on Tuesday morning, the loss upon the barn of Gela Wagner, recently destroyed by fire as the result of lightning, was adjusted and the amount of insurance, $1150, ordered paid. Other business transacted by the board was the favorable action taken on fifty new applications for insurance, and taking in cash premiums to the amount of $650.

is sincerely mourned by those who knew her. She was born Feb. 2, 1872, and leaves beside her husband, to mourn her, a daughter, Bertha and son Walter, just approaching young man and womanhood, who will sadly miss her care and watchfulness at this critical period of their lives.
