

RUNVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Houseman, son Daniel and daughter Mildred, of Altoona, returned home Sunday afternoon, after spending a week very pleasantly at the home of James Lucas and wife.

Everyone is invited to attend the Poorman reunion in Kohlbecher's grove, Milesburg, Saturday Aug. 30.

Mrs. Carl Garbrick, of Tyrone, visited friends at this place over Sunday night.

Mrs. Floyd Davis, of Coleville, and Miss Myra Lucas, of Tyrone, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of their father, John A. Lucas.

Mrs. Claude Lucas and family, of Snow Shoe, and Irvin Lucas and wife, of Wingate, attended the festival at this place Saturday night.

Paul Stauffer and friend, of Snow Shoe, were seen on our streets on Saturday evening.

Elmer Saxton, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday at the Smoyer home at this place.

Mrs. Joseph Alexander and daughter, Jocie, are visiting her sister, Mrs. Geo. Lucas.

James Parks, wife and son, James, Jr., visited at this place over Sunday.

Preaching service Sunday evening by the pastor, E. B. Summers, at 7:30 o'clock.

Merrill Poorman, of State College, accompanied his aunt, Mrs. Matilda Resides to this place on Saturday night.

Rev. E. B. Summers, E. S. Bennett and wife attended the United Brethren reunion held at Lakemont Park on Thursday, Aug. 14th.

Mrs. Ida Poorman spent last week visiting friends in Altoona and also took in the United Brethren day at Lakemont.

Miss Elsie Walker, of Bellefonte, and friend, Charles Walker, spent Saturday night and Sunday at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Fetzer.

Elwood Comley, of Unionville, spent some time with his wife and two sons at this place.

Elery Lucas, of Snow Shoe, spent Sunday at this place.

Madge Poorman and Abbie Brower took the examination at Milesburg on Saturday.

The festival held here on Saturday night by the members of the Citizen Cornet Band, of Runville, was largely attended and proved a great success, the proceeds being $125. The Boys Band of Milesburg furnished music which was very much enjoyed by all who were present. They extend their heart-felt thanks to all who liberally helped on this occasion.

The joy riders, of Milesburg and Bellefonte, enjoyed the festival here on Saturday night.

SPRING MILLS.

Bruce S. Granley returned to New York City after spending two weeks' vacation with his parents.

Mrs. J. M. Munkler, of Chicago, Ill. came Monday to spend some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bartz.

Mrs. George Musser and daughter, Helen, of Buena Vista, Va., and Mrs. Corman, daughter Nona and son Glen, of Windber, are visiting at the home of Alice and Elvina Neese.

Mabel Allison and her friend, Allie Mann, of Georgia, have spent the past few weeks camping at Lumber City, Pa.

W. H. Allison is home spending some time with his father, Wm. M. Allison.

Mrs. M. J. Donachy spent last week in Lewisburg, visiting her son, Benjamin.

Beatrice Lee accompanied her aunt, Mrs. Koons, to Northumberland on Tuesday morning, at which place she will spend a short time.

Ruth McCreary has gone to Centre Hall where she will spend the few remaining weeks before her school opens for the winter term.

Miss Ethel Hettlinger returned home after spending the last two months with her aunt, Mrs. Blanche Phillips, in New York.

Rev. E. M. Duck, of New Jersey is here visiting friends and relatives.

VALLEYVIEW.

Mrs. Alvin Smith has returned home after spending some time with friends in Altoona.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Gates are spending their vacation in Atlantic City.

There will be a festival held at the U. B. church next Saturday evening, August 23rd, for the benefit of the church, everybody invited.

Martin Brower and Wm. Kesser were Bellefonte shoppers Saturday.

Paul Resides spent Saturday in Lock Haven.

Miss Bessie King, who is employed in Bellefonte, spent Sunday with her parents here.

Guests on Sunday at the home of Andrew Spicer were William Summers, Irvin Lucas and wife, of Wingate; Edward Imel and wife, George Spicer and wife, of Bellefonte; John Spicer, wife and two children, Vida and Persey, of State College.

David Caster purchased a new horse Saturday. Good luck to you Dave.

George Rider was seen driving through our village with his new bronco on Sunday.

G. C. Lannen, of Dix Run, was seen coming across the mountain on Saturday. What is the attraction, Governor?

How was the corn roast in the dinkey, boys I presume Jack's tasted the best, don't you Raymond?

Mrs. Andrew Spicer was a pleasant caller at George Smith's, Friday.

FRUIT TOWN.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Fleisher, of this place, spent Sunday in Mifflin county.

Mrs. Ruth Dippery, of Reedsville, is under the care of Dr. Kidder at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bubb.

Harry Deckard, of Altoona, spent Sunday at the home of Wm. Reiber at P. C. City.

Peter Philip left for Mifflin county where he will be employed.

Melvin Holdeman spent Sunday with friends at Milroy.

John Lee and daughter Sadie left for York to attend the funeral of Mr. Lee's sister, Mrs. Clara Furry.

Mrs. Emma Fabinger has returned home after spending some time at State.

TYLERSVILLE.

Mrs. Washburne, of Rosecrans, was buried at this place last Tuesday afternoon. Funeral services were held in the United Evangelical church.

A number of our people attended camp meeting at Boonville last Sunday.

Thomas Walton, who has been ill for some time, is not improving.

Miss Edith Shrack, of Pittsburg, is visiting friends and relatives at this place.

Mrs. A. H. Caris and daughter, Ida, are spending a few days visiting in Ranchtown.

WOODWARD.

Among the visitors registered at the Woodward House during the last week were viz.: Rev. S. J. Taylor, of Juniata, Pa., Dr. and Mrs. O. K. Pellmar, of Millburg; Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Siegel and Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Siegel, of Williamsport, Pa. and Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Seibold, of Millersburg, Pa.

Edison Fultz and James Fultz and wife, of Pleasant Gap, and George Fultz and family, of Elmington, Pa., visited their aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Fultz at this place over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Dorman, of Snydertown, Pa., visited among friends and relatives during the past week.

Sumner Wolf and family, of Howard, Pa., and Mrs. G. W. Wolfe, Jr. of Aaronsburg, visited among friends in this community on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Vonada and Misses Helen and Pearl Grimm, all of Pleasant Gap, visited Charles Gumbo's over Sunday.

H. O. Bower and Mrs. John Krape and son, Paul, spent Sunday at J. L. Kreamer's.

Prof. Chas. Kreamer and family returned to their home at New Hope, Pa., at which place Prof. Kreamer will resume his duties as instructor in the high school.

Luther Weaver returned home from Buffalo, N. Y., on last Thursday accompanied by Roy Bowersox in an Overland automobile which Mr. Weaver bought in Buffalo.

Among those on the sick list are Sadie Walter, Adrena Smith and D. G. Mingle.

On account of the beautiful moonlight night the festival at this place on last Saturday night was attended by a very large crowd. But as usually is the case there were some in the crowd that had to imbibe too much king alcohol and the language used while passing home was certainly beyond any used by ladies and gentlemen.

Miles Boob, of Bellefonte, is visiting grandpa Boob and Kreamer at this place.

The public schools at this place will open on Monday, Sept. 1st.

Purce and Andrew Vonada autored to this place on Sunday and spent some time at Abraham Treaster's.

Miss Maud Ard is spending some time with friends in the western states.

Samuel Bierly and family, of Rebersburg, spent Saturday and Sunday at D. J. Benner's.

Mrs. Maria Messmer, of Yeagerstown, is spending some time visiting friends in this community.

BRUSHVALLEY.

Quite a number of our people spent Sunday at Sugarvalley camp meeting.

Don't forget the festival at the swamp on Saturday evening.

Some of our people are spending their vacation at Atlantic City.

Most of our farmers are through putting away oats.

On Sunday evening after dark, while on the way home from camp meeting, Carl Long drove a head of another buggy at Arthur Comming's lane on this side of Rebersburg and drove on a heap of crushed stone, upsetting the buggy, throwing Mr. Long and his lady friend both out.

Mr. Long clung to the lines and prevented the horse from running away. Mr. Long and friend received several bruises and their buggy was also slightly damaged.

The township should know better than to crush stones at the edge of the road so close that a person cannot turn out. Miles township has quite a number of these along the road which should be removed before another accident happens.

Our supervisor has a gang of workmen on the road at present.

ROCKVIEW.

Mr. and Mrs. Noil spent Sunday with their son, David.

The Misses May and Janette Heverly, of Milesburg, visited last week with their uncle, William Hoover.

Those who visited during the week at Chas. Houser's, were Miss Ruth M. of Clearfield and Earl Roth of State College.

Bethard Keller spent Sunday with his friend, Homer Peters.

Cora Peters visited over Sunday with relatives in Fillmore and State College.

MARRIAGES.

Barkow—Bechdel. Miss Lenore Barkow and Albert Bechdel were married at the home of the bride's sister at Gramplan on Tuesday, August 5. Mr. Bechdel is instructor in the department of botany. The bride is a graduate of Swarthmore college. They will be at home to their friends after September 15.

Summy—Stoddard. Miss Elizabeth Archibald Summy, of State College, and Edwin Freeman Stoddard, of Carbondale, were married at Philadelphia Friday, August 8th. Mr. and Mrs. Stoddard, who are well known in State College, the bride being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel C. Summy of West Beaver avenue and the groom a graduate of Penn State, class of 1912, in horticulture, left immediately after the ceremony for West Raleigh, N. C. where they will be at home after September 15.

Chase—Mingle. Joseph E. Mingle, the well known shoemaker at State College, Pa., and Miss Minnie M. Chase, of Elmira, N. Y., who has been acting housekeeper for the Catholic club at the college for the past year, were married at the home of the groom on Thursday afternoon August 8th, at 4 o'clock by the Rev. James McK. Reiley, pastor of the Methodist church at that place. The attendants were Mr. Mingle's two daughters, Mildred and Edna. The wedding march was played by Miss Mabel Norris, of Fillmore, a sister-in-law of the groom. A luncheon followed the ceremony.

The Best Pain Killer. Bucklen's Arnica Salve when applied to a cut, bruise, sprain, burn or scald, or other injury of the skin, will immediately remove all pain. E. E. Chamberlain of Clinton, Me., says:—"It robs cuts and other injuries of their terrors. As a healing remedy its equal don't exist." Will do good for you. Only 25c. at C. M. Parrish, Bellefonte, Pa.—Adv. Aug.

Joseph E. Mingle, the well known shoemaker at State College, Pa., and Miss Minnie M. Chase, of Elmira, N. Y., who has been acting housekeeper for the Catholic club at the college for the past year, were married at the home of the groom on Thursday afternoon August 8th, at 4 o'clock by the Rev. James McK. Reiley, pastor of the Methodist church at that place. The attendants were Mr. Mingle's two daughters, Mildred and Edna. The wedding march was played by Miss Mabel Norris, of Fillmore, a sister-in-law of the groom. A luncheon followed the ceremony.

The Best Pain Killer. Bucklen's Arnica Salve when applied to a cut, bruise, sprain, burn or scald, or other injury of the skin, will immediately remove all pain. E. E. Chamberlain of Clinton, Me., says:—"It robs cuts and other injuries of their terrors. As a healing remedy its equal don't exist." Will do good for you. Only 25c. at C. M. Parrish, Bellefonte, Pa.—Adv. Aug.

Joseph E. Mingle, the well known shoemaker at State College, Pa., and Miss Minnie M. Chase, of Elmira, N. Y., who has been acting housekeeper for the Catholic club at the college for the past year, were married at the home of the groom on Thursday afternoon August 8th, at 4 o'clock by the Rev. James McK. Reiley, pastor of the Methodist church at that place. The attendants were Mr. Mingle's two daughters, Mildred and Edna. The wedding march was played by Miss Mabel Norris, of Fillmore, a sister-in-law of the groom. A luncheon followed the ceremony.

The Best Pain Killer. Bucklen's Arnica Salve when applied to a cut, bruise, sprain, burn or scald, or other injury of the skin, will immediately remove all pain. E. E. Chamberlain of Clinton, Me., says:—"It robs cuts and other injuries of their terrors. As a healing remedy its equal don't exist." Will do good for you. Only 25c. at C. M. Parrish, Bellefonte, Pa.—Adv. Aug.

Joseph E. Mingle, the well known shoemaker at State College, Pa., and Miss Minnie M. Chase, of Elmira, N. Y., who has been acting housekeeper for the Catholic club at the college for the past year, were married at the home of the groom on Thursday afternoon August 8th, at 4 o'clock by the Rev. James McK. Reiley, pastor of the Methodist church at that place. The attendants were Mr. Mingle's two daughters, Mildred and Edna. The wedding march was played by Miss Mabel Norris, of Fillmore, a sister-in-law of the groom. A luncheon followed the ceremony.

The Best Pain Killer. Bucklen's Arnica Salve when applied to a cut, bruise, sprain, burn or scald, or other injury of the skin, will immediately remove all pain. E. E. Chamberlain of Clinton, Me., says:—"It robs cuts and other injuries of their terrors. As a healing remedy its equal don't exist." Will do good for you. Only 25c. at C. M. Parrish, Bellefonte, Pa.—Adv. Aug.

Joseph E. Mingle, the well known shoemaker at State College, Pa., and Miss Minnie M. Chase, of Elmira, N. Y., who has been acting housekeeper for the Catholic club at the college for the past year, were married at the home of the groom on Thursday afternoon August 8th, at 4 o'clock by the Rev. James McK. Reiley, pastor of the Methodist church at that place. The attendants were Mr. Mingle's two daughters, Mildred and Edna. The wedding march was played by Miss Mabel Norris, of Fillmore, a sister-in-law of the groom. A luncheon followed the ceremony.

The Best Pain Killer. Bucklen's Arnica Salve when applied to a cut, bruise, sprain, burn or scald, or other injury of the skin, will immediately remove all pain. E. E. Chamberlain of Clinton, Me., says:—"It robs cuts and other injuries of their terrors. As a healing remedy its equal don't exist." Will do good for you. Only 25c. at C. M. Parrish, Bellefonte, Pa.—Adv. Aug.

Joseph E. Mingle, the well known shoemaker at State College, Pa., and Miss Minnie M. Chase, of Elmira, N. Y., who has been acting housekeeper for the Catholic club at the college for the past year, were married at the home of the groom on Thursday afternoon August 8th, at 4 o'clock by the Rev. James McK. Reiley, pastor of the Methodist church at that place. The attendants were Mr. Mingle's two daughters, Mildred and Edna. The wedding march was played by Miss Mabel Norris, of Fillmore, a sister-in-law of the groom. A luncheon followed the ceremony.

The Best Pain Killer. Bucklen's Arnica Salve when applied to a cut, bruise, sprain, burn or scald, or other injury of the skin, will immediately remove all pain. E. E. Chamberlain of Clinton, Me., says:—"It robs cuts and other injuries of their terrors. As a healing remedy its equal don't exist." Will do good for you. Only 25c. at C. M. Parrish, Bellefonte, Pa.—Adv. Aug.

Joseph E. Mingle, the well known shoemaker at State College, Pa., and Miss Minnie M. Chase, of Elmira, N. Y., who has been acting housekeeper for the Catholic club at the college for the past year, were married at the home of the groom on Thursday afternoon August 8th, at 4 o'clock by the Rev. James McK. Reiley, pastor of the Methodist church at that place. The attendants were Mr. Mingle's two daughters, Mildred and Edna. The wedding march was played by Miss Mabel Norris, of Fillmore, a sister-in-law of the groom. A luncheon followed the ceremony.

WAVERY means highest quality and true value in Gasolines Lamp Oils Lubricants for all purposes Direct from our independent refineries Free-327 page book—all about Oil Waverly Oil Works Co. PITTSBURGH, PA.

RECENT DEATHS.

TOMLINSON.—Mrs. Jane Tomlinson, a former resident of Phillipsburg, died on Thursday of last week at her home in Bradlock, aged 79 years. Deceased was a native of Lower Gornal, Staffordshire, England. She was twice married coming to America with her second husband, Charles Tomlinson, in 1866. She is survived by four daughters and one son.

BEATTY.—Mrs. Sarah Beatty, of Spring Mills, died very suddenly Friday, August 8th, while visiting at the home of a friend, Mrs. Rhoads at Jersey Shore. Death was due to paralysis. The remains were shipped to Spring Mills where the funeral was held Tuesday morning following. The deceased's maiden name was Miss Sarah Runkle, a daughter of the late Daniel Runkle. She was born in Gregg township, and lived there all her life. Her husband, who died more than twenty years ago, was James Beatty. The children surviving her are: Mrs. Orris McCormick, Penn Hall; Mrs. Ralph Shirk, Glenn Iron; Mrs. Ellis Hazel, Bellevue, Ohio; Mrs. Edward Wasson, Avis; Orvis, Beatty, Avis; Daniel Beatty, Bellevue, Ohio. There survive also these brothers and sisters: James W. Centre Hall; John W. Middleburg; R. Duncan, Shamokin; Calvin, Williamsport; Mrs. Robert D. Musser, Spring Mills; Daniel, Spring Mills.

POTTER.—Mrs. Ellen Potter, widow of the late Dr. Thomas B. Potter, and one of Phillipsburg's oldest residents, died on Friday morning, August 15th at her home in that place after an illness of four years duration. The deceased was born near Orbisonia, Huntingdon county, and was the daughter of Enos and Casandra McMullen, who have long since preceded her to the spirit world. She was married to the late Dr. Thomas Potter in Phillipsburg, on April 18, 1876, by Rev. Thos. Switzer, who passed away soon after performing the ceremony. Mrs. Potter some years ago united with the Methodist church, and when able to attend, enjoyed being present at the public worship. Mrs. Potter is survived by one son, the way home from camp meeting, Carl Long drove a head of another buggy at Arthur Comming's lane on this side of Rebersburg and drove on a heap of crushed stone, upsetting the buggy, throwing Mr. Long and his lady friend both out.

Mr. Long clung to the lines and prevented the horse from running away. Mr. Long and friend received several bruises and their buggy was also slightly damaged.

The township should know better than to crush stones at the edge of the road so close that a person cannot turn out. Miles township has quite a number of these along the road which should be removed before another accident happens.

Our supervisor has a gang of workmen on the road at present.

ROCKVIEW.

Mr. and Mrs. Noil spent Sunday with their son, David.

The Misses May and Janette Heverly, of Milesburg, visited last week with their uncle, William Hoover.

Those who visited during the week at Chas. Houser's, were Miss Ruth M. of Clearfield and Earl Roth of State College.

Bethard Keller spent Sunday with his friend, Homer Peters.

Cora Peters visited over Sunday with relatives in Fillmore and State College.

MARRIAGES.

Barkow—Bechdel. Miss Lenore Barkow and Albert Bechdel were married at the home of the bride's sister at Gramplan on Tuesday, August 5. Mr. Bechdel is instructor in the department of botany. The bride is a graduate of Swarthmore college. They will be at home to their friends after September 15.

Summy—Stoddard. Miss Elizabeth Archibald Summy, of State College, and Edwin Freeman Stoddard, of Carbondale, were married at Philadelphia Friday, August 8th. Mr. and Mrs. Stoddard, who are well known in State College, the bride being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel C. Summy of West Beaver avenue and the groom a graduate of Penn State, class of 1912, in horticulture, left immediately after the ceremony for West Raleigh, N. C. where they will be at home after September 15.

Chase—Mingle. Joseph E. Mingle, the well known shoemaker at State College, Pa., and Miss Minnie M. Chase, of Elmira, N. Y., who has been acting housekeeper for the Catholic club at the college for the past year, were married at the home of the groom on Thursday afternoon August 8th, at 4 o'clock by the Rev. James McK. Reiley, pastor of the Methodist church at that place. The attendants were Mr. Mingle's two daughters, Mildred and Edna. The wedding march was played by Miss Mabel Norris, of Fillmore, a sister-in-law of the groom. A luncheon followed the ceremony.

The Best Pain Killer. Bucklen's Arnica Salve when applied to a cut, bruise, sprain, burn or scald, or other injury of the skin, will immediately remove all pain. E. E. Chamberlain of Clinton, Me., says:—"It robs cuts and other injuries of their terrors. As a healing remedy its equal don't exist." Will do good for you. Only 25c. at C. M. Parrish, Bellefonte, Pa.—Adv. Aug.

Joseph E. Mingle, the well known shoemaker at State College, Pa., and Miss Minnie M. Chase, of Elmira, N. Y., who has been acting housekeeper for the Catholic club at the college for the past year, were married at the home of the groom on Thursday afternoon August 8th, at 4 o'clock by the Rev. James McK. Reiley, pastor of the Methodist church at that place. The attendants were Mr. Mingle's two daughters, Mildred and Edna. The wedding march was played by Miss Mabel Norris, of Fillmore, a sister-in-law of the groom. A luncheon followed the ceremony.

The Best Pain Killer. Bucklen's Arnica Salve when applied to a cut, bruise, sprain, burn or scald, or other injury of the skin, will immediately remove all pain. E. E. Chamberlain of Clinton, Me., says:—"It robs cuts and other injuries of their terrors. As a healing remedy its equal don't exist." Will do good for you. Only 25c. at C. M. Parrish, Bellefonte, Pa.—Adv. Aug.

Joseph E. Mingle, the well known shoemaker at State College, Pa., and Miss Minnie M. Chase, of Elmira, N. Y., who has been acting housekeeper for the Catholic club at the college for the past year, were married at the home of the groom on Thursday afternoon August 8th, at 4 o'clock by the Rev. James McK. Reiley, pastor of the Methodist church at that place. The attendants were Mr. Mingle's two daughters, Mildred and Edna. The wedding march was played by Miss Mabel Norris, of Fillmore, a sister-in-law of the groom. A luncheon followed the ceremony.

The Best Pain Killer. Bucklen's Arnica Salve when applied to a cut, bruise, sprain, burn or scald, or other injury of the skin, will immediately remove all pain. E. E. Chamberlain of Clinton, Me., says:—"It robs cuts and other injuries of their terrors. As a healing remedy its equal don't exist." Will do good for you. Only 25c. at C. M. Parrish, Bellefonte, Pa.—Adv. Aug.

Joseph E. Mingle, the well known shoemaker at State College, Pa., and Miss Minnie M. Chase, of Elmira, N. Y., who has been acting housekeeper for the Catholic club at the college for the past year, were married at the home of the groom on Thursday afternoon August 8th, at 4 o'clock by the Rev. James McK. Reiley, pastor of the Methodist church at that place. The attendants were Mr. Mingle's two daughters, Mildred and Edna. The wedding march was played by Miss Mabel Norris, of Fillmore, a sister-in-law of the groom. A luncheon followed the ceremony.

The Best Pain Killer. Bucklen's Arnica Salve when applied to a cut, bruise, sprain, burn or scald, or other injury of the skin, will immediately remove all pain. E. E. Chamberlain of Clinton, Me., says:—"It robs cuts and other injuries of their terrors. As a healing remedy its equal don't exist." Will do good for you. Only 25c. at C. M. Parrish, Bellefonte, Pa.—Adv. Aug.

Joseph E. Mingle, the well known shoemaker at State College, Pa., and Miss Minnie M. Chase, of Elmira, N. Y., who has been acting housekeeper for the Catholic club at the college for the past year, were married at the home of the groom on Thursday afternoon August 8th, at 4 o'clock by the Rev. James McK. Reiley, pastor of the Methodist church at that place. The attendants were Mr. Mingle's two daughters, Mildred and Edna. The wedding march was played by Miss Mabel Norris, of Fillmore, a sister-in-law of the groom. A luncheon followed the ceremony.

The Best Pain Killer. Bucklen's Arnica Salve when applied to a cut, bruise, sprain, burn or scald, or other injury of the skin, will immediately remove all pain. E. E. Chamberlain of Clinton, Me., says:—"It robs cuts and other injuries of their terrors. As a healing remedy its equal don't exist." Will do good for you. Only 25c. at C. M. Parrish, Bellefonte, Pa.—Adv. Aug.

Joseph E. Mingle, the well known shoemaker at State College, Pa., and Miss Minnie M. Chase, of Elmira, N. Y., who has been acting housekeeper for the Catholic club at the college for the past year, were married at the home of the groom on Thursday afternoon August 8th, at 4 o'clock by the Rev. James McK. Reiley, pastor of the Methodist church at that place. The attendants were Mr. Mingle's two daughters, Mildred and Edna. The wedding march was played by Miss Mabel Norris, of Fillmore, a sister-in-law of the groom. A luncheon followed the ceremony.

The Best Pain Killer. Bucklen's Arnica Salve when applied to a cut, bruise, sprain, burn or scald, or other injury of the skin, will immediately remove all pain. E. E. Chamberlain of Clinton, Me., says:—"It robs cuts and other injuries of their terrors. As a healing remedy its equal don't exist." Will do good for you. Only 25c. at C. M. Parrish, Bellefonte, Pa.—Adv. Aug.

Joseph E. Mingle, the well known shoemaker at State College, Pa., and Miss Minnie M. Chase, of Elmira, N. Y., who has been acting housekeeper for the Catholic club at the college for the past year, were married at the home of the groom on Thursday afternoon August 8th, at 4 o'clock by the Rev. James McK. Reiley, pastor of the Methodist church at that place. The attendants were Mr. Mingle's two daughters, Mildred and Edna. The wedding march was played by Miss Mabel Norris, of Fillmore, a sister-in-law of the groom. A luncheon followed the ceremony.

The Best Pain Killer. Bucklen's Arnica Salve when applied to a cut, bruise, sprain, burn or scald, or other injury of the skin, will immediately remove all pain. E. E. Chamberlain of Clinton, Me., says:—"It robs cuts and other injuries of their terrors. As a healing remedy its equal don't exist." Will do good for you. Only 25c. at C. M. Parrish, Bellefonte, Pa.—Adv. Aug.

Joseph E. Mingle, the well known shoemaker at State College, Pa., and Miss Minnie M. Chase, of Elmira, N. Y., who has been acting housekeeper for the Catholic club at the college for the past year, were married at the home of the groom on Thursday afternoon August 8th, at 4 o'clock by the Rev. James McK. Reiley, pastor of the Methodist church at that place. The attendants were Mr. Mingle's two daughters, Mildred and Edna. The wedding march was played by Miss Mabel Norris, of Fillmore, a sister-in-law of the groom. A luncheon followed the ceremony.

The Best Pain Killer. Bucklen's Arnica Salve when applied to a cut, bruise, sprain, burn or scald, or other injury of the skin, will immediately remove all pain. E. E. Chamberlain of Clinton, Me., says:—"It robs cuts and other injuries of their terrors. As a healing remedy its equal don't exist." Will do good for you. Only 25c. at C. M. Parrish, Bellefonte, Pa.—Adv. Aug.

Joseph E. Mingle, the well known shoemaker at State College, Pa., and Miss Minnie M. Chase, of Elmira, N. Y., who has been acting housekeeper for the Catholic club at the college for the past year, were married at the home of the groom on Thursday afternoon August 8th, at 4 o'clock by the Rev. James McK. Reiley, pastor of the Methodist church at that place. The attendants were Mr. Mingle's two daughters, Mildred and Edna. The wedding march was played by Miss Mabel Norris, of Fillmore, a sister-in-law of the groom. A luncheon followed the ceremony.

The Best Pain Killer. Bucklen's Arnica Salve when applied to a cut, bruise, sprain, burn or scald, or other injury of the skin, will immediately remove all pain. E. E. Chamberlain of Clinton, Me., says:—"It robs cuts and other injuries of their terrors. As a healing remedy its equal don't exist." Will do good for you. Only 25c. at C. M. Parrish, Bellefonte, Pa.—Adv. Aug.

Joseph E. Mingle, the well known shoemaker at State College, Pa., and Miss Minnie M. Chase, of Elmira, N. Y., who has been acting housekeeper for the Catholic club at the college for the past year, were married at the home of the groom on Thursday afternoon August 8th, at 4 o'clock by the Rev. James McK. Reiley, pastor of the Methodist church at that place. The attendants were Mr. Mingle's two daughters, Mildred and Edna. The wedding march was played by Miss Mabel Norris, of Fillmore, a sister-in-law of the groom. A luncheon followed the ceremony.

The Best Pain Killer. Bucklen's Arnica Salve when applied to a cut, bruise, sprain, burn or scald, or other injury of the skin, will immediately remove all pain. E. E. Chamberlain of Clinton, Me., says:—"It robs cuts and other injuries of their terrors. As a healing remedy its equal don't exist." Will do good for you. Only 25c. at C. M. Parrish, Bellefonte, Pa.—Adv. Aug.

Joseph E. Mingle, the well known shoemaker at State College, Pa., and Miss Minnie M. Chase, of Elmira, N. Y., who has been acting housekeeper for the Catholic club at the college for the past year, were married at the home of the groom on Thursday afternoon August 8th, at 4 o'clock by the Rev. James McK. Reiley, pastor of the Methodist church at that place. The attendants