ELSE:-Charles H. Else, a well known man of Milesburg, who for Rev Winey, of this place, printed in many years was the proprietor of a the German language in the year 1516 drug store in that town, died on Mon-day morning of this week at 3 o'clock, after an extended illness due to an affection of the liver. Although in poor store. The ancient little book is one health for several years, Mr. Else was of Luther's translations of the New He was aged about 67 years, and leaves to survive his wife, who was formerly a Miss Lyman, and one brother, Benjamin Else, residing In Florida. His only child, a daughter who became the wife of Claude Smith. State College, preceded her father to the grave three years ago last December. Mr. Else had resided in Milesburg the greater part of his lifetime, during which time he conducted the drug store which he and his brother, Benjamin, established many years ago. He was a man of upright character and was held in the highest esteem by the entire community. Religiously, he was affiliated with the Methodist church. The funeral services were held at his late home on Wednesday afternoon, conducted by Revs. Ash and Piper. The body was brought to Belle fonte and interment made in the Union cemetery.

STIVER:-Dr. Thomas J. Stiver, a native of Centre county and a brother of Mrs. J. E. Ward, of Bellefonte, died at his home in Freeport, Illinois, Friday afternoon, after an extended illness, at the age of 53 years, 9 months and 6 days. From the Freeport Bulle-tin we secured the following facts pertaining to the life of deceased: Dr. Stiver was a son of Thomas J. and Mary Stiver and was born on a farm near Potters Mills, Centre county, Pa., on Jan. 9, 1860. He was educated in the public school, at an academy and in a normal school. He taught school for five years in Pennsylvania and one year in this county, after going west in 1882. He was a traveling salesman for a year and then located at Sidney, Neb., where he filed a land claim and lived there several years. He again filled a position as traveling salesman for a year and then engaged in the jewelry business at Woodland, Cal. He conduct-ed this business for about two years, when he disposed of it and began the study of medicine in San Francisco. In about a year he entered the university of Denver, graduating three years later. For seven or eight years after his graduation, Dr. Stiver practiced his profession in Denver and was an instructor in the university for five years. Owing to an accident while in Denver, his health failed and he came to Stephenson county in 1992 he came to Stephenson county in 1902, where he spent much of his time since. The deceased was a man of since. The deceased was a man of varied talents and was enjoying a highly successful professional career until it was cut untimely short. He is survived by these brothers and one sister: Drs. W. B. and R. J. Stiver and P. O. Stiver, of Freeport, Ill.; Dr. D. S. Stiver, of Chicago, and Mrs. Ward, wife of Dr. J. E. Ward, of Bellefonte. A fifth brother, Rev. S. L. Stiver, of Bunker Hill, Ill., passed away three years ago, and a sister, Mrs. W. B. Krape, died at Aaronsburg last December. Funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon in the Lutheran church at Lena, Ill., Rev. C. E. Derr, D. D., officiating. Interment was made at Lena.

"Our Boys Band" to Hold Festival.

"Our Boys Band" of Milesburg are planning to hold a big festival on the lawn in that place on Saturday evening of this week. The boys of this organization deserve much encouragement, not only from the citizens of Milesburg but Bellefonte as well. It would be only proper if everybody It would be only proper if everybody in Bellefonte who can do so, would take a run down on the auto bus on Saturday evening and enjoy an hour with the boys.

An Old and Interesting Relic. An old bible was shown us this week, and can be seen by anyone who will take the trouble to call at Montgomery & Co's Testament from the Greek text Erasmus, and was published at Basel, almost four Switzerland, years ago. Mr. Winey's grandfather. the Rev. Samuel Winey, a bishop of Mennonite church purchased book at a public sale, and it later passed into the hands of Mr. Menno the present owner's father. The little volume, despite its extreme age, is well preserved, giving evidence that the printers and binders of those days were masters at the 'Art Preservative."

Dates to Remember.

There are several dates in connection with the political campaign this year that voters should not overlook. Many votes are lost because men fail to be assessed, and when they at-tempted to pay their tax in order to register, discover they are disqualified. The last day to be assessed for the November election will be Wednesday, September 3; the last registra-tion day will be Saturday, Sept. 13; the last day for the payment of poll tax will be Saturday, Oct. 4. The voter who keeps these dates in mind will not risk the loss of his vote.
