er friends in this place.

Asbury Park.

street.

-Mrs. Lucy Watkins and two lit-

-Harry Turner, of south Potter street, has returned home from a visit with his brother at Malgia, New Jersey. While in that state Mr. Turner visited the famous coast re-

-Miss Jodie Bayer returned to her home in this place on Wednesday, after a brief vacation spent with friends in Montgomery, Pa. She was accompanied by Miss Emeline Bryson, of that place, who has become the guest

-Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Marie Gher-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Gher-eran parsonage in Bellefonte is rapidly shaping up under the skilled direction of contractor Isaac Miller. It

74th Birthday.

anniversary, which occured on that has many warm friends throughout mont; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Marshall;

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cramer, son and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hun-daughter, Adeline and Ralph; Mr. and and sons, Harold and Ernest; Harry

Raymond and son Robert, of Bellefonte; Misses Lulu and Demarius ra Lykens, of Bellewood; Mr. and Mrs.

Robert Roan, of Bellefonte: Dr. Eva

B. Roan, of State College; Mrs. Samuel Leitzel, of Bellefonte; James Wit-and children, Alice, Rosetta, Jerry,

John, Arthur, Hannah and Robert;

Mr. and Mrs. John Kelly and son Clarence, and Mrs. Wm. Owen and

Mr. Roan is one of Centre county's best know citizens, and owns a fine

A FOREIGNER IN TROUBLE.

the Latter's Undoing.

promptly arrested Joe and brought him to Bellefonte and had him committed to jail. Monday evening the fore Squire Brown, at which time the both present and testified to Joe's

Fine Rural Products.

Festival at Pleasant Gap.

E. church, and Hile's orchestra.

on Wednesday, September 17th.

riage.

defendant was granted a hearing prosecutrix and her husband daughter Mildred, of Axemann.

mer and son; Mr. and Mrs.Wm. Roan of Philadelphia; Nathaniel

Last Wednesday evening, the valley and county.

tle sons, of McElhatten, Pa., were

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

Mrs. Frank Derstine and little son of Altoona, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Donachy, of this

-Robert Markle and Mr. Graham. of Pittsburg, are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Charles Lose, on east High street.

-Frederick and Philip Reynolds left Tuesday afternoon for Harrisburg where they will be guests at a large house party.

-Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brandon, companied by Miss Eleanor Parker, autoed to Philadelphia . Tuesday and spent the day very pleasantly. -Mrs. C. C. Shuey and daughters,

Sarah and Anna, are visiting this week in Williamsport with her eldest daughter, Mrs. Charles Donachy. -Miss Hattie Lambert, a daughter of James Lambert, of Greensburg, left for her home in that city Wednesday after visiting relatives in this place. -Miss Myrtle Hoover, chief operator at the Bell Telephone office at Altoona, is visiting friends in Bellefonte and other Centre county towns this week -Miss Margaret A. Iliff, of Brook-lyn, N. Y., arrived in Bellefonte on Wednesday to spend the fall and winter with her grandmother, Mrs. Amanda Hunter. The venerable James Poorman, one of Boalsburg's representative citizens, paid his respects to the Democrat while in Bellefonte on business, Wednesday. -Miss Irene Koontz is now very efficiently filling the position of clerk in Aiken's store, recently made va-cant by the resignation of Miss Emma Smith.

There will be no services held in the Reformed church next Sunday morning or evening. Dr. Schmidt will be away from home until Saturday of next week. -Mrs. Joseph L. Montgomery and two sons, Jack and Gordon, returned home Tuesday evening from Atlantic City, after spending several weeks at that popular resort. -Ex-Prothonotary Wm. F. Smith, of Millheim, candidate for Democratic State Committeeman, was a Bellefonte visitor Wednesday, looking at ter his political fences. -Miss Sarah Fullerton Hastings accompanied by her niece Miss Jane Hickok, were passengers Tuesday enroute to Harrisburg, where the former will attend a large house party.

-The wonderful Edison Talking Pictures at the opera house Saturday afternoon and night. Matinee will be gin at 2.30. Prices-children 15 cents, 25 cents. Evening prices-25

35 and 50 cents. -Thos. Noll and wife, of Pitcairn, who have been visiting their son-in-law, George Miller at Pleasant Gap, and his brother, Emanuel Noll, this place, left on Wednesday for their home in the Western part of the state.

-M. I. Gardner left Saturday for Pittsburg on a business trip and after transacting the same, left for Homewood, where he remained until Tuesday evening with his son, Harold Gardner, who is employed as a Chemist at the Jones & Laughlin Steel Works.

you can readily understand what the Allegheny street. Mrs. Clipfell left players are saying, are hard to real-You can be convinced of Mr. Edison's wonderful gift to the world Her father's name was Amos of entertainment by going to the opera who lived at one time not far from on Saturday afternoon and Boalsburg.

last week. Mrs. Raffette accompanied her niece and will spend a short time with her parents.

-H. L. Hutchinson has been entertaining for the past week his nep-

Oscar Keller , formerly of this Quaker City. place, who with his parents, Mr. and rival in Bellefonte last Thursday to tions to be held in the Y. M. C. Motor Car Co. plant in Detroit.

-Miss Catherine Allison returned C. A. gemnasium. home Sunday from Missoula, Montana, where she had been spending the summer as the guest of James Ryman. Miss Allison left Bellefonte the 9th of June for Washington, D. C., where she joined the family of Senator Dixon and traveled in their private car to Monwas greatly pleased with her visit and liked the country there very much.

-Thirty-six members of the local order of Odd Fellows attended the funeral of the late Henry Meyer at Mill Hall on Sunday, Deceased was a member of the Bellefonte lodge, I. O. O. F., and also of the Lock Haven lodge of Elks, and the pall-bearers were chosen from the two orders. Edward Owens, Foster Jodon and Clevenstine represented Bellefonte lodge in this capacity.

-During the past week Rhoads & Knisely and their crew of workmen have been busy placing a concrete retaining wall along the state road in front of the residence of Miss Rebecca Rhoads, on west Linn street. The wall is about three feet high, and was finally concluded to have the work done.

-The Y. M. C. A. is arranging a contest to help pay for the repairs to the gymnasium. Two teams are being empty hallway from the gymnasium. organized, one of young men and one of young ladies, prizes will be awarded the successful team and a banquet even at the end of the contest. The given at the end of the contest. The be the most interesting yet held. contest is a very novel one and is Boys and girls, fathers and mothers, arranged as follows, a chart has been are all invited to be present, especialdrawn representing the wall to be erected and it has been laid off in little squares to represent the bricks. These bricks are sold at 25 cents each and every time you buy one your name is written on one of the bricks. The team selling the most bricks wins the prize. It is the intention to sell towards the amount necessary to lake the morning beginning at 25 to take towards the amount necessary to lake the morning beginning at 25 to the morning beginning at 25 towards the amount necessary make the repairs.

-Frank Jamison departed Sunday for a week's visit at his parents' home in Canton, Ohio. -Charles Newcomer, of Sunbury, spent Friday and Saturday with his parents in this place. -Mrs. Mart Cooney returned home last week after spending a week with relatives and friends in Tyrone.

-Mrs. William Woods departed Friday morning for a visit with her Weaver, at Harrisburg. daughter Margaret, at Ocean Grove. -Miss Dorothy Stover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stover depart-ed Monday for a week's visit with friends in Millheim. -Mrs. Sarah Gephart, of Bellefonte, visited during the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Karstetter at Loganton, Pa.

-Miss Bertha A. Hunter will leave to-day for Pittsburg to attend the Guisbert-Zelch wedding which will take place on Saturday, August 30th,

-Mrs. H. L. Garber left on Saturday for Claysville, Washington county, Pa., to visit her husband who is employed under R. B. Taylor on his state road contract.

-Miss Harriet Ray, daughter of S. D. Ray, returned home on Tuesday from a delightful three-weeks' visit among friends in Allentown, Reading and Delaware Water Gap.

-Mr. and Mrs. Edward Poorman returned Tuesday afternoon to their home in Ambridge, Pa., after a visit of several days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jesse Derstine in this place.

--Miss Mildred Laurie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Laurie, of Tyreturned to her home in that place Sunday afternoon after a pleasant visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. L. Gates of East Lamb street.

-Mrs. H. L. Curtin gave a large lawn party at her home at Curtin on Tuesday of this week. Thirty-eight ladies were present many being from Bellefonte. The day was an ideal one and the occasion proved very enjoyable

-Morton Bidwell informs us that he spent last Thursday in Jersey Shore and enjoyed the firemen's convention. It kept Morton pretty busy, however, trying to keep one eye on the pretty girls and the other on the parade.

-The friends of Mrs. William Resides, of east High street, will regret to learn that illness has kept her confined to her home the greater portion of the past two weeks. Her poor health is attributed to a breaking down of the system.

-Charles S. Miller, of Johnstown, brother of county treasurer John D. Miller, gave the Democrat a call while in town on Monday. Mr. Miller, accompanied by his wife, have been spending their vacation with his mother, Mrs. Sarah R. Miller, at Zion. -Hemil Hahl, the noted German Symphony orchestra, will give a recital in Petrikin Hall on Wednesday evening, September 3rd, commencing at 8:30. He will be assisted by Mrs. at 8:30. He will be assisted by Mrs. Brandon, soprano soloist and Marie Walsh, pianist.

-Mrs. Maggie Clipfell, of Lincoln, Nebraska, is visiting at the home of was a visito Pennsylvania when quite young, going to Michigan with her parents.

-Mrs. Charlotte Simpson -Miss Beatrice Saylor, after vis- daughter, Margaret, of Altoona, have iting her aunt, Mrs. M. C. Raffette, been visiting friends at Yarnell for in Punxsutawney, returned to the home of her grandparents, Mr. and son was a Bellefonte visitor and made son was a Bellefonte visitor and made William Saylor, at Prossertown this office a pleasant call. Mrs. Simpson is a reader of the Centre Democrat and says she considers it the newlest paper in Centre county. -Robert and Daniel Rhoads, sons of Joseph J. Rhoads, Division Superhews, Dan Hutchinson, a son of Mrs. intendent of the Pennsylvania Rail-Thomas Hutchinson, of Kane, and road at Philadelphia, who have been Cresswell Hewes son of C. P. Hewes, visiting their aunt, Miss Rebecca of Erie. The forepart of this week he Rhoads for the past week, left Monaccompanied them to Gettysburg where day afternoon for Altoona to attend they inspected the site of one of the a golf tournament after which they greatest battles in the World's history. will return to their home in the -Great preparations are Geo. D. Keller, moved to De-Mich., last spring was an ar-Y. M. C. A., for the Carnival of Naspend his vacation with his grand- gymnasium the latter part of Sepmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Keller, at tember. It will continue three days Pleasant View. The young man is and every church in town will be re-lucratively employed in the Cadallac presented by a booth. The proceeds go to pay for the repairs to the Y. M.

> -Judge B. F. Keller and wife and Miss Fairchild, of Charleston, West Virginia, were arrivals in Bellefonte Monday, Mrs. Keller and Miss Fairchild are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Keller of East Linn street, while later will return to Bellefonte for a visit at the Keller home.

-Mr. and Mrs. George L. Goodhart, of Centre Hall, and their daughter, Mrs. D. Wagner Geiss and two children, Martha and David, of this place, returned home last Thursday from their tour of the west. They have been principally in Orangeville, Ill., and and interesting discourse. Rev. Wood-White South, Dakota. They were cock is the son of Mrs. Anna Woodmuch pleased with their trip and en-whom, it is claimed by his owner, has made necessary by the widening of been his pilot for a great many years, the road at that point during its re- Seville claims to have traveled from Seville claims to have traveled from building several years ago. The matter of placing a wall at this place has frequently been before council, and greatly attached. The dog is well our town and he was very favorably trained as a guide, and when leading his blind master from door to door it is said can readily distinguish an empty hallway from a place of bust-

-Rally Day at the Bellefonte United Brethren church next Sunday promises to be a big event, and will member the rally service is to take place in the morning, beginning at 9.30 You should plan to be there.

-C. A. Kerstetter, of State College, was transacting business in town, on Monday

-Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hunsinger and daughter, of Altoona, visited days of their sister, Ethel Tate, at friends in Bellefonte this week.

-Robert Williard returned Monday from Ontario, Canada, where he has een employed in a large paper mill. -Deputy Internal Revenue Collector

G. W. Reese, accompanied by Mrs. Reese, spent Tuesday very pleasantly at Snow Shoe.

-Thursday, September 4th, there will be a lunch served all day on the Y. M. C. A., lawn for the benefit of the U. B. church.

-Miss Carrie Weaver returned home on Monday evening from month's visit to her brother, H. C

-Messrs. G. W., Charles and Sam-uel Richards, of Swissvale, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Richards, on Logan street.

-John Hartsock and daughters, Verna and Lucy, departed last Thurs-for a week or ten-days' visit with his brother, George Hartsock, at Emporium.

—Misses Helen Beezer, Elizabeth and Sarah Barnhart, Helen Eckenroth and Mrs. R. R. Witcraft, all of this place, spent Sunday with friends in Tyrone.

-W. A. Peters, of Unionville, and his son-in-law, E. E. Taylor, of Juniata, were transacting business Bellefonte on Saturday and gave the Democrat a call.

-The Ladies' Adult Bible class of the U. B. church will hold a sale of will occupy the space that for many bread, rolls, pies, cakes and ice cream on Saturday afternoon and evening the church. in the room adjoining the church.

-The Fall term of the Bellefonte Academy will open on Wednesday September 17th, at 2 p. m. Next week's issue will contain a list of the teachers and instructors for the coming term.

-Misses Helen and Mildred Wetzel, daughters of Mrs. Harvey Wetzel, of South Thomas street, gave a par-Monday evening in honor of their guest Thomas Farron, of Annawait, West Virginia.

-Miss Ruth Badger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Badger, returned home Monday from a visit of five weeks which she spent among friends and relatives in Sunbury, Lewisburg and Mifflinburg.

-Mrs. Edward Gehret and Miss Helen Love left on Saturday for Beaver Falls where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Guy Linn. Before returning home they will also visit Mrs. Eckles at Pittsburg.

-D. I. Williard has just installed two very handsome new show cases singer; Mr. and Mrs. Tressler, son and in his store on High street. They add greatly to the appearance of his place of business as welle as displaying his and son; Mr. and Mrs. Runkle Frazier attractive line of goods to good advantage.

the M. E. church at Coleville next Knox, of Philadelphia; Nathaniel Sunday, 1:30 p. m. Rev. D. J. Frum, Krape; Misses Esther Kelly and Laupastor of the Pleasant Gap Methodist church, will make an address, All are invited to be present and enjoy the services. -Another of the popular Gettysburg

-A special service will be held in excursions will be run next Sunday over the Penna. Railroad, leaving violinist, member of the Philadelphia Bellefonte at 5:40 a. m. Returning the excursionists will leave Gettysburg at 6:05 p. m. The fare for the round trip is $2.75. -Foster Garman, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Garman, formerly of this place now residing in Williamsport, was a visitor in Beliefonte and vicinity over Sunday, and spent a portion of the limit o of the time very enjoyably at the home of L. J. Marshall, at Valley View.

-Mr. and Mrs. Horace Musser and Mrs. John Bullock attended a reception at Pine Grove Mills last Friday tendered to Mr. and Mrs. George Woods upon their arrival at the former's home in that place. Mr. Woods is a son of Dr. Woods, the well known physician.

-On Tuesday morning Mr. J. Harbold, accompanied by Mrs. Harbold, arrived in Bellefonte from their former home in York and are now his head that he was bossing a harem comfortably located in the Bower residence on East Linn street. Mr. Harbold is the chief engineer of the new automobile company.

-Mrs. Lide B. Fisher, widow of the late Dr. P. S. Fisher, of Zion has decided to make her future home with her daughter, Mrs. Nelson E. Robb at State College. She will sell all her household furniture, also her beautiful country home at Zion. The sale will be held the coming Saturday, Aug. 30th.

-O. J. DeVictor, until recently an employee in the press rooms of Williamsport Grit, is a visitor in Belie-fonte and a guest in the home of his vife's mother, Mrs. Sarah E. McElhatten, on Beaver street. Mrs. De-Victor, formerly Miss Esther McElhatten, is also a guest in the same home.

-There is no better or purer ice fixed his bail at $600 for an appearcream made than the Penna. State ance at court. ollege creamery product which will be for sale at the Judge Keller went on to Boalsburg to County Fair next week by Howard visit his sister, Miss Sallie Keller and H. Bricker, of Boalsburg. Mr. Bricker will also have a fountain at stand where sodas and sundaes will be served .- Adv.

Rev. J. R. Woodcock, formerly of brought us a sample from his orch-Bellwood, but now about to assume the pastorate of a large church in that resembled a bunch of grapes, on Syracuse, N. Y., occupied the pulpit a much larger scale. It was at the Presbyterian church Sunday since June 11th and visited evening and delivered an eloquent our window. On Wednesday T. L. cock is the son of Mrs. Anna Wood- oats stalks that measure fully 53 cock, of this place, and of the late inches in height. They were grown Rev. J. A. Woodcock, during his life time, a well known Methodist pastor.

-John I. Markle, who is employed by the Penna. Railgoad Company at Bellwood, is spending his vacation with his family at Pine Grove Mills, also visiting his brothers in Belle Mr. Markle was accompanied fonte. to this place on Tuesday by Larry impressed, especially so with the beauty of the Big Spring.

-Mr. Norman R. Wright, now with the Penna. Railroad Company, Bell-wood division, has been appointed assistant engineer of the Bellefonte Central Railroad, in charge of maintenance of way, motive power and equipment, the appointment to be-come effective September 1st. Mr. Wright is a graduate of the Penna. State College, class of 1908, and has been with the Penna. Railroad for a number of years since his graduation. Another acquisition of the Bellefonte Central is. Mr. Stewart Starr, form-erly of the Savannah & Southern Railroad, who has accepted a position as traveling freight and passen-ger agent, with headquarters at Belle-fonte. Mr. Starr entered upon his duties on Monday of this week. AIKENS'-Call and see our new fall TRIAL LIST-SEPTEMBER COURT.

line of coats, suits, waists and dresses. -Emma Barlet and Louise Levi ommencing Monday, September 22, attendance is expected. have been the guests for the past few 1913:

Mary D. Stonebraker vs. Centre County. Appeal. Non-assumpsit. -Mrs. Elmer Mulbarger, of Cleve-Charles Peters vs. Pennsylvania lighted and entertained.
Railroad Co., A. G. Price, agent. Acland, Ohio, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Whippo, and othpeal.

the Poor of Miles township. Appeal. ant sojourn at Atlantic City. guests at the home of Edward Wat-kins on Halfmoon Hill, Saturday. Non-assumpsit.

Clement Dale, executor of Austin Swisher estate vs. Pearl C. Gray, Burdine Butler vs. B. P. Swartz. Appeal. Non-assumpsit. Burdine Butler vs. John A. Nestle-sorts-Atlantic City, Ocean Grove and ode. Appeal. Non-assumpsit. C. Antis Confer and John G. Confer, now use of C. Antis Confer vs. Chester L. Neff. Appeal. Non-assumpsit.

Second Week-September Term. Commencing Monday, September 29, 1913 of Mrs. John Bauer, of east Bishop William J. Davis vs. F. H. Dale and William Biddle, Repleyin, Non cepit and property. William J. Davis vs. F. H. Dale and ity and James Davis, both of this place. Miss Gherity is the eldest William Biddle. Replevin. David McCloskey et al vg. J.

Young, Ejectment. ity, and Mr. Davis is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. McDavis, of the Garman Samuel Markowitz vs. The Pennsylvania Railroad. Ejectment. John Nolan vs. Martin Nolan, Admr. -The frame work on the new Luthof etc., of Patrick Flanagan, dec'd.

Assumpsit. Thomas Elwood Comley and Bessie Comley, his wife vs. Thomas Kelley. Trespass.

will not be long until a cozy residence Reuben Comley and Amanda Comyears was little used at the rear of ey, his wife vs. Thomas Kelley. Trespass. Thomas E. Comley and wife TENDERED A SURPRISE PARTY.

Harry P. Kelley. Trespass.

Reuben T. Comley and wife vs.

Harry P. Kelley. Trespass. Venerable Buffalo Run Man Reaches J. H. Lucas vs. Joseph Barnes. Tres-August Dass. Mrs. Kate E. Hastings, as an indiv-20th, a surprise party was held at the home of Mr. Jerry Roan at Buffalo Run, in honor of his 74th birthday idual vs. Mrs. Kate E. Hastings, Administratix of etc., of Enoch H. Hastngs, dec'd. Assumpsit. day. A very delightful time was made of the affair for the aged man, who Joel S. Royer vs. Elizabeth S. Meyer and W. H. McIntire, Admr. of etc. of J. C. Meyer, dec'd. Assumpsit. James A. Davidson vs. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company. Tres-After partiking of a sumptuous meal, prepared from the season's Christian Buck et al trading as bounteous stores, the guests departed for their homes, leaving with their Buck & Son, now use of Daniel host the unanimous hope that he may Buck and Katherine E. Buck, Executors of etc., of Christian Buck, dec'd live to enjoy many more returns of vs. Mary D. Holt and J. K. Johnston, the day. Among those present were the following named: Mr. and Mrs. Admr. of J. H. Holt. Sci. Fa. Sur Harry Shivery and daughter, Mary Judgment. Jane; Mr. and Mrs. Bathgate, of Le-

Dora G. W. Spotts and James L. Hamil Admr, of William White, dec'd vs. Mary D. Holt and J. K. Johnston, Admr. of J. H. Holt. Sci. Fa. Sur Judgment. Dora G. W. Spotts et al vs. Mary

D. Holt and J. K. Johnston, Admrs. of J. H. Holt, dec'd, Sci. Fa. Sur. Judgment Frances Glowacki vs. The Dusham oal Company. Trespass. Paul Rusnoveske vs. Dr. William fenderson. Trespass. W. S. Buddinger vs. Elmer Watson.

Replevin Ellen E. Gray vs. Thomas R. Weber, Admr. of Jacob P. Weber, dec'd with notice to all terre tenants. Sci. Fa. Sur Mortgage. Samuel Grant Dale vs. Moshannon Coal Company. Trespass.

A MINISTER'S EXPERIENCE. Rev. Winey Thrown From Carriage

When Horses Frightened. Friday afternoon a party of onters, consisting of John any write me. burg. Pa. Wilson Sholl. Sheffer and Thomas Beaver drove to the Masons' camp near Curtin to take Too Much Whiskey for Vitizky Causes supper. Hitched to the vehicle were a team of Mr. Beaver's bronchos, an Last Sunday a foreigner who is em-ployed at the White Rock quarries uncertain animal at all times, nevertheless skilfully handled on this ocand who answers to the name of Joe casion by Mr. Beaver, who acted as driver. The trip to the resort was Vitzky, filled up on a drink commonly known by the name so near like Joe's made without special event, and after that a thirsty man could not tell the supper the party started homeward. difference, and proceeded to get bad. Coming up the state road from Miles-Joe was not satisfied with owning burg, at a point near the old rolling Pleasant Gap, but evidently got into mill, a bolt on the carriage pole broke. allowing the pole to strike tthe horses' and that all the foreign women in that This frightened the animals legs. vicinity were his subjects. At all and they swerved to the right of the events he was informed otherwise road, running a short distance and when he entered the home of Mrs. causing the carriage to collide with Zelissnick, who conducts a boarding a telephone pole. The impact three oose the traces and the horses boithouse for foreigners at White Rock. Joe's proposals were flatly turned down, and with the help of her hused, pulling Mr Beaver out over the dashboard. Fortunately he landed the angry boarding mistress right side up and was unhurt, and ejected the drunken man from her flouse. Once outside Joe gave vent to soon had the frightened animals under control. Strange to say, the only his angry feetling by stoning the other passenger to be catapulted premises and raising hades generally. from the vehicle was Rev. Winey, who Constable William Irvin, of that suffered painful bruises of the shoulplace was notified of the facts and he der and arm by alighting upon his left side on the ground. The Reverever, and the pparty returned to Bellefonte later on the motor bus. The vehicle was considerably damwere aged and was brought to town the next day for repairs. In spite of the bad behavior. The charge against him thrilling and rough experience of a serious nature, and the Squire which Rev. Winey was subjected, he in nowise allowed it to interfere with his Sunday schedule, and was present as usual at all the services.

end's injuries were not serious, how-

The Democrat office has been fav-Marriage Licenses. ored the past week with several examples of what is being grown in our Will E. Oswalt -Philipsburg Agnes Scott - -Philipsburg ounty in the way of fruit and grain James Martin Bellefonte Elsie McCloskey -Unionville ard at Valley View-a cluster of plums Harry J. Henry -Lock Haver Cordie Sager -- - Lock Haver Rev. Frederick W. Barry, Centre Hall much admired while on exhibition in Anna M. Mitterling Centre Hal Alexander Beamer -Taylor Twp. Shope presented us with a bunch of Edith M. Woomer Taylor Twp William A. Eckman - Philipsburg Clara E. Diffenderfer - - Lancaster on the Shope farm, opposite Mt. Eagle by John Bowmaster, and are a splendid example of good farming.

A festival will be held in Noll's grove at Pleasant Gap on Saturday

Almonds, it is because you have never used it. Every day,, some grateful woman testifies to its superiority over anything else of the kind she has ever tried. It is soothing, healing and cooling—tending toward purifying and beautifying the skin, and making it more soft, smooth and satiny. Entirely free from grease, it is quickly absorbed into the skin. It can be evening, August 30th, in the interest of the Ladies' Aid Society of the United Brethren Conference Sept. 17. The annual conference of the Unit-ed Brethren church, Allegheny diswill convene at Greensburg, Pa. Attention is called to the ice cream and cake festival to be held by the Pleasant Hill Sunday school, on Saturday evening, for the benefit of the United Brethren pastor. A hearty welcome is extended to all who wish to spend a few hours of entoyments. used by everyone, no matter how delicate or sensitive the skin may be. If it does not please you-your money to spend a few hours of enjoyment, back, Price, 25 cents. Sold in this Mrs. Lloyd Homan, after spending a week very pleasantly in Zion and Belle fonte, has returned to her home in Pittsburg. She took with her, her community only at our store. The

BEAUTIFY YOUR SKIN.

Rexall Store.

Set it at Green's Wagner for grain.

Wheat, White See 600 Corn 5550 Oats Barley 500 Pittsburg. She took with her, her nlece, Sarah Lose, who will visit her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Markle. Mrs. Homan will be remember by her many friends in this place as Miss Myrtle Markle, before her marking.

The Clinton County Veterans' as-The list of cases for the first week nic at Hecla Park to-day. A large Don't miss seeing the Edison Talking Pictures at the opera house on Saturday. You will be surprised, de-

Mrs. Oscar Miles, daughter Lillian eal. Non-assumpsit.

Dr. G. S. Frank vs. Overseers of their home in Milesburg after a pleas-

Penny a Word Adv.

Any subscriber can insert a want advertisment in this column one issue free, if it does not exceed 25 words; charges to others, one cent a word, first issue, no advertisement less than 25 cents; two issues 40 cents; three issues 60 cents. No advertisements will be answered from this office.

HOUSES:—For sale and rent. J. M. Keichline, Bellefonte, Pa. x-50 FOR RENT:—Five room house, $6.75 per month. Inquire at Jacob Mark's 24-t.f. FOR SALE: Faesh timothy seed. Clay Witmer, Bellefonte, Pa. Inquire

FOR SALE:—One horse delivery wagon, cheap, In quire of Gillen grocery. 23tf WANTED: Boy to drive wagon and work in store. Call at Gillens grocery. 30tf

WANTED:—Wood choppers, at 55c per cord, and pit post makers. C. W. Korman, Curtin, Pa. 33tf

FOR SALE:—Timothy seed. Inquire of S. H. or Jacob F. Hoy, Bellefonte, Pa., Commercial phone. WANTED: Vise hands, floor hands and machine hands, non-union, steady work, good pay. Address Post office box 184 Erie, Pa. x27 FOR SALE:—Full blooded Rhode Island Red chickens from State College. Eggs 50 cts. a setting. George W. Zerby, Tusseyville 12-24 FOR SALE:—Team of mated mare Colts. 2 and 4 years old, broken to do farm work, full sis-ters and quiet. Calvin Weston, Port Matilda. WANTED: -Girl to work in restaurant kitchen; wages $5. Call or address A. C. Longee, State College, x36 FOR SALE:—Good house and lot, located on old Boalsburg pike, 3 miles south of Belle-fonte. Inquire of William Colpetzer, Bellefonte,

FOR SALE:—Or exchange for a colt, a large bay horse; also a lot of fine Chester white pigs. S. H. Hoy, Bellefonte, Pa. Commercial phone. x34 *

FOR SALE:—Registered Jersey bull, also a greade Jersey bull, sired by Golden Prince of Laurel Run. Inquire of W. H. Crebs, Madisonburg, Pa. X41 FARMS:—Large and small, limestone soll, in Blair, Centre and Huntingdon counties. Send for catalogue, G. C. Waite, P. O. Box 292, Ty-rope, Pa. x41

FOR RENT:—Desirable dwelling house on High street, now occupied by Chas. R. Kurtz. Possession will be given after August 16th. Ap-ply at this office. SALESMAN WANTED:-To look after our interest in Centre and adjacent counties. Salary or Commission. Address The Victor Oil Com-pany. Cleveland, O.

FOR SALE;-Cheap; four horsepower Inter national gasoline engine, on sills; screen water cooled. Garbrick Bros., opposite Big Spring, Bellefonte. Both phones. 3211. INSURANCE: Insure your town and farm pro-perty in the Lykens Valley Mutual Fire Insur-ance Company: Established in 1854. Rates forance Company; Established in 1854. Rates for-ty to fifty per cent lower then board companies. Losses promptly settled. Earle C. Tuten, Agent, Bellefonte.Pa.

STOCK:—Eggs and yearling stock—single comb brown and white Leghorn, White Wyan-dottes. Barred Rocks, Pekin Ducks, and Pearl Guineas. H. K. Mattern, Locust Hill Poultry Farm, Julian, Pa.

FOR SALE:—8 good milk cows, 4 of these cows have been fresh within the last 4 months, 1 to be fresh soon and the balance to freshen during Dec. also a well bred Holstein bull calf. Inquire of R.J. Hartle, Bellefonte, Pa. R. F. D 3 x25 FOR SALE-No. 10 Tornado feed cutter, cheap for quick buyer; as new. Inquire of W. H. Crebs, Madsonburg, Pa.

WANTED: -Apples by the car load or per barrel shipment. If you have any write me. Geo. F. Hoy, Hublers-

Paul FOR SALE:-Lot of thorough bred Chester White pigs, some extra fine Apply to Geo. Immel, Spring ones. Mills, R. F. D. No. 1.

> FOR SALE:-Five horses-two bays, 1400 lbs each; one bay, 1300 lbs; team of grays, 1200 lbs each. Will sell or trade for smaller horses. J. W. Brickley, Howard, Pa. FARM FOR SALE OR RENT-At the head of Marsh Creek, 120 acres, 80 acres clear, balance in timber. Good fruit of all kinds. Address water. Harry Kessling, Snow Shoe, Pa. x-36 FARM—For sale or exchange; situated about 5 miles west of Bellefonte containing 100 acres, about 50 being cleared, balance in timber; good house, bank barn and other outbuildings; fruit and well on farm. Will sell cheap on easy terms, or exchange for property that will bring in monthly rent. Address A. I. Garbrick, Bellefonte, Route 1.

WANTED:-The Centre Democrat needs a bright boy of clean habits, who is at least 16 years of age, to learn the printing and publishing business. Applicant should have a fair amount of education, and be willing to learn rather than teach. right boy, a splendid opportunity will be given to learn every branch of the business, embracing job printing, linotype composition, and reporting. Ap-ply in person at this office.

EXECUTRIX'S NOTICE. In the matter of the estate of Dr. Philip S. Pisher, late of Zion. Centre county, Pa., decease

ed.

Letters testamentary in the above named estate having been granted to the undersigned, all persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make payment and those having claims or demands against said estate are requested to present the same duly authenticated for settlement without delay to

LIDE B. FISHER. Executrix, Zion, Pa.

VALUABLE PROPERTY AT PRIV-ATE SALE.

Wm. Beltz offers at private sale, a fine house, barn, saw mill and 25 acres clear land, situate between Tylersville and Rebersburg along the main road. Also 270 acres of mountain land, well timbered, a good water power saw mill. Planer, chop mill and all wood working machinery. The clear land contains a vein of valuable mineral ore. This property could be made a valuable summer resort. Will sell ac easy terms. Call on or address Wm. Beltz, Tylersville Clinton Co. Pa.

ADMINISTRATORS' NOTICE.

MARKET QUOTATIONS. Bellefonte Produce. Butter 25c