NITTANY.

Mrs. Art Rossman, of Clintondale, stopped here between trains on Friday evening and took supper with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Tolbert.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoganmiller and three children, of Janette, are the welcome guests of Mrs. Hoganmiller's sister, Mrs. Perry Webber and family at this writing.

Ralph Peck and his mother visited friends at Jacksonville on Sunday. The annual corn bake was held in Zerby's woods last Thursday evening.

James McMullen and wife, of Milesburg, were dinner guests at the W. E. Kessinger home on Sunday. Those who visited at H. P. Zerby's the past week were Mrs. Schell, of Hubersburg; Stanley McClintock, of Johnstown; Mrs. Emma Knapp and children, of Williamsport and Miss D. Knox, of Philadelphia.

Wanted—At Nittany a good blacksmith, a good butcher shop and a livery stable, and the state road finished. Rev. D. A. Erdie and Elder H. A. Benfer took dinner at the home of H. P. Zerby on Saturday and supper at W. J. Mauck's on Sunday, after which Charles Mauck took the Elder to Bellefonte in his car, he having an appointment to fill there on Sunday evening.

Miss Blanche Condo, of Jacksonville and Miss Mert Dietrich, of near Hubersburg, were guests at the home of W. E. Kessinger and family on Sunday. Simon Lucas, of Bellefonte, visited his lady friend here on Sunday.

Those on the sick list at this place the past week were: Mrs. G. W. Young, Aaron Yarnell, D. O. Dorman, Mr. and Mrs. James Gunsallus, Retta and Edna Baker and the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher.

The many friends of Mrs. Perry Webber are rejoiced to hear that she was able with the help of some one to go to the table to eat with the family, several times the past week, for the first time in four years and four months.

W. J. Mauck and son, Charles, were bass fishing quite recently and report having had good luck. Mrs. G. N. Hoy has returned to her home in Philadelphia, after a ten-day visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Beck.

ORVISTON.

(From last week.) Mrs. Tom Johnson arrived in town on Tuesday evening and is the guest of Mrs. George High.

Bert Morgeret and son, Raymond, departed for Maryland on Friday to visit Mr. Morgeret's home folks. Mr. and Mrs. Alva Confer and little daughter Lois spent Sunday at Howard, the guests of Wm. Confer and wife.

Mrs. Harry Herr is on the sick list. We hope she may recover soon. Joe Lowery, wife and son, Charles, are spending some time in Philadelphia visiting Mr. Lowery's mother.

A birthday surprise party was given at Francis Poorman's in honor of their son, Roger. Following are the ones who were present: Margaret Plack, Clara Hastings, Gladys Welsh, Catherine Confer, Miss Miller, Ruth Heverly, Josephine Poorman, Benjamin Poorman, Paul Lomison, Boyd Kellerman, Herbert Confer, Ward Packer, John Confer, Sam Poorman, Clarence Plack, Joseph Plack, Lloyd Heverly, Alton Poorman, Garland Patterson, Roger Poorman, Willis Thompson, Chester Thompson, Wm. Ridge, George McCloskey, George Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Poorman. All departed at a late hour wishing Roger many happy returns of the day.

Geo. Hebley is spending some time in Lock Haven visiting friends. There has been some one trying to break into different houses and woe unto him if he is caught. Geo. Burd and wife visited Mr. Burd's home at Fleming over Sunday.

Joe Herkel, wife and children, also Mrs. Gertrude Obyran and Miss Hazel Council spent Sunday at the home of David Confer. Carol Brown and wife visited Lock Haven over Sunday.

Miss Maude Daley, of Romola, spent Saturday here. Ives Harvey and family spent Sunday in Flemington. James Moody was a Williamsport visitor on Wednesday.

Hammel Huey spent Thursday with his friend, Miss Hartzel, who is a patient in the hospital. We had a very interesting game of base ball on Saturday between Lock Haven and Orviston. The score was 12-6 in favor of Orviston. Our boys are hard to beat.

Mrs. Gertrude Herr, of Monument, was a caller on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. James Heverly and children, also John Heverly and wife did shopping in Lock Haven on Saturday. Miss Mabel Page spent Sunday at her home in Blanchard.

Mrs. Bion Nelson and daughter, Miss Thelma, are visiting friends in Sunbury. Miss Emma Pletcher, of Howard, was a caller here on Tuesday. Jack Croft and lady friend, Miss Samantha Pownell, of Yarnell, visited Tom Croft and wife recently.

ROCK FORGE.

(From last week.) We are having very dry, hot weather these days and it makes our gardens and corn fields look withered. Al Garner is thrashing around through Rock this week, as he could not cross Rock bridge he was compelled to go through Housersville to some of our Rock Forge farmers.

Samuel Dale's family, of DuBois, visited at the home of George Bhears last week. Charley says the Bellefonte girls for him every time. How about it Verna?

A festival was held at Rock Forge school house on Saturday evening. The proceeds for the organ fund. Miss Mae and Sarah France, two bright young ladies from the Bungalow, called at the home of Ira Benner one day last week.

Wonder what the attraction is up at the stone house. Ask Jessie. G. D. Bhears visited last week at the home of Frank Gattig at Howard. Say Ira go back and bring Charley, the spooks will catch him.

Henry Tressler beats all the farmers in fruit, as he has some fruit of all kinds. Miss Irene Breon has returned home for a vacation. Harry Halderman expects to work at his old job in the peach orchard.

John Eminhizer enjoyed himself at the home of Andy Breon on Thursday evening, playing fitch. James Marshall has returned home from the Bellefonte hospital where he underwent an operation for appendicitis. Frank Hunsinger is getting along nicely with his broken arm.

YARNELL.

The much needed rain was welcomed by all, although not enough to be much help to the planting; it was a great benefit to the corn which was really suffering for water. Mr. Alfred Shank is ill at this writing; we hope for his speedy recovery.

Clayton Yarnell's two-year-old colt had its foot painfully injured; Dr. S. S. Nissley, of Bellefonte, is attending it. Miss Elmada Pownell, one of our accomplished teachers who will teach this term in Benner township, visited the location of her school with the intention of securing a boarding place last week.

D. W. Boyer has almost completed the large and roomy shed which he is building as an addition to his new barn. Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham and family spent Sunday with Mrs. Cunningham's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. L. Croft, of this place.

A number of people, from this place, took in the festival at Milesburg last Saturday. Rev. Summers preached a very able sermon Sunday afternoon; preaching next Sunday evening. Jno. Walker spent Sunday with his father, Thos. Walker. Mr. Walker has been in poor health this summer, but is now somewhat improved.

JACKSONVILLE.

After spending a week in Sugar valley, visiting friends and attending Booneville camp meeting, T. P. Beightol returned home on Tuesday, bringing his two nieces, Edna and Grace Guyer, of Loganton, along for a week's stay with their grandparents. They will be accompanied home by their aunt, Ora Beightol, who will spend a few days in Sweet valley.

Thursday Mrs. C. N. Yearick and daughters, Rosetta and Evelyn, Miss Alta and Mrs. Rosa Yearick and Miss Lulu Evers attended the Howard Business Men's picnic in Shanks' grove and on Saturday Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Yearick attended the Leathers reunion at Howard.

Our seamstress, Miss Della Garbrick, was shopping between trains in Bellefonte on Saturday. Mrs. Josephine Poorman, Roy Harter spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Shope, of Upper Marlon, whose daughter is very ill at this writing.

Our friend, Franklin Weight, is again laid up, suffering untold pains of rheumatism and neuralgia. Miss Newton Bickel and daughter May, of East End attended the special service in the Reformed church on Sunday and took dinner with their friend, Miss Della Garbrick.

Miss Ella Garbrick, of Pittsburg, and Mrs. Charles DeLong, of Eagle, spent a few hours on Sunday very pleasantly with Miss Della Garbrick. Mr. and Mrs. Claud Johnson of State College, visited our town on Sunday.

Alvie Confer, who is employed on the Beech Creek Railroad, spent Sunday with his family here. B. L. Noll, our traveling salesman, and Lewis Beightol have embarked in the lumber business and are taking out timber for the cook stove.

SMULLTON.

Boyd Gramly, who had been to the Bellefonte hospital for an operation, is home, but not much improved. J. R. Styers is afflicted with rheumatism. Some of our people attended the I. O. O. F. picnic west of Rebersburg on Saturday. The crowd was not as large as of former years.

Jacob Winkleblech has a very sick horse. About six weeks ago he lost a valuable beast and if this one should die for him his loss would be a heavy one as he keeps only the best. S. A. A. Smith has had a new roof put on his house. Next Monday the tots can toddle their way to the school house for another seven month's term.

Mrs. Stella Wetzel, of Stoyestown, Pa. is visiting friends here. Geo. H. Smull and wife have been away for a few days; Mrs. Smull returned last Friday. Mrs. W. H. Winkleblech, of Renovo, is visiting her parents, here.

Herbert H. Stover has a force of carpenters at work remodeling his property. He expects to have it in O. K. condition by the last of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Amos Fehl are visiting their son, Rev. Noah Fehl at Pittsburg.

Mrs. Wm. Waite beautified her home by the addition of a new porch. C. C. Smull is building a new silo. Miss Marion Emerick returned from an extended visit to various points in the state and other places. She reports having had a fine time, especially enjoying the bathing at Sea Girt, N. J.

CENTRE OAK.

Weather fine and the fall plowing about all done, the farmers are busy getting seed bed ready. The Sears and threshers are kept busy threshing for the farmers in this section. Mr. Harshberger, the manager, is an obliging man and a hustler.

Walter R. Hosterman, from State College, must have attractions among our farmers, girls, how about it Lila. The festival at the Swamp had a very large crowd on Saturday evening. They took in over $33. Weather was a little too cool for ice cream.

Miss Gladys Meyer, from Penn Hall, is visiting at the home of Paul Swab. Rev. Houtz, from the Susquehanna University, filled the pulpit at the Union for Rev. Barry. H. E. Duck, Wm. N. Duck, Mrs. Alice Duck and Miss Lizzie Keen, of Millheim, autored to the home of H. B. Frankoyger, the other day.

The primary held at Murray's made the following ticket: Judge of Election, Wilbur Lucas; Inspector, Wm. Hagen; Reg. Assessor, John Rachau; Tax Collector, Wm. Weaver; School Director, B. G. Grove; Overseer, Harvey Rote. The Y. W. C. Association met with Miss Zerby on Sunday evening. The next meeting will be with Miss Vonada. All members are requested to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shearer and child spent Sunday evening at Nathan Corman's. The barber has quit barbering and has gone driving the Grand Union tea and baking powder wagon. His place of barbering is being filled by Harry Boyer, of State College. Mr. William Kreamer who has been spending a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Swartz, left for her home at Altoona on Sunday, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Boyd Sampsel. The latter is going to spend a week in the Smoky city.

Well, Scribe No. 1 where have you been the last two or three weeks? I thought you were probably out in California or down in Virginia. Let us hear from you. William C. Huffman and Victor Meyer attended the Fireman's convention held at Jersey Shore last Thursday and reported having a fine time. An auto party from this place autored to Lock Haven lately, having a few mishaps along the way. Nevertheless they got home safe and sound. William Huffman was laid up a couple of days last week, the result of having a boil on his knee.

PLUM GROVE.

Sunday school next Sunday at half past two, as usual. Mr. and Mrs. Krid Irvin, of Unionville, made his customary visit to David Kooster's on Sunday. Being unfortunate as a cripple, Mr. Irvin has rented a small shop and through the week employs his time in mending shoes. He naturally becomes tired of close confinement to his shop, hence greatly enjoys his visits to the Kooster home.

Almost every Saturday evening David or one of the family bring him down to their home, and later accompany him back. David don't make any long prayers, either. John Deiters, the father of George Deiters, is here spending a few days among his friends.

P. B. Iddings is kept busy on the public roads. In my estimation the road drag knocks out the scraper on hilly roads. Ed. Wood's chickens, that went on a strike and quit laying, have begun laying again. After a five-weeks' strike, Ed. compromised with them by giving them double the amount of corn.

Mrs. David Kooster visited friends and relatives at Julian and returned home on Saturday night. Miss Mary Mitchell spent last week at the home of Harry Harper near Unionville. Of course there is some attraction. Ernest Moore, wife and family, of Julian, visited at Ed. Flick's on Sunday.

Those who visited at the home of D. W. McCloskey on Sunday were: James Martin and wife of Bellefonte, and Lulu Welch and Reuben Iddings, of Plum Grove. We are sorry to hear of the death of one of Joseph Withertite's children. At the time of this writing another of the children is reported to be critically ill. We did not learn the ailment.

GEORGESVILLE. Miss Sarah Barger, of Tiffin, Ohio, is visiting friends in Georgesville. J. B. Ripka and wife spent Saturday evening with C. W. Linsie. Miss Abbie Barger returned to State College, after a short visit with her parents. Miss Carrie Barger is home for a few weeks from State College.

Ploving limestone ridges is the next labor in Georgesville. Erhart Zettle spent Sunday with friends in Pleasant Gap. John Auman spent Sunday at F. W. Zettle's. William Ripka spent Sunday afternoon with his brother, Alfred, of this place.
