-Rev. M. J. Stover, of Sunbury, former well known pastor of the Zion and Snydertown charges of the Lutheran church, was a Bellefonte visilor on Wednesday while transacting business in this vicinity. Rev. Stoer is a native of Aaronsburg, and keeps informed of the happenings in that vicinity through the columns of The Centre Democrat. His visit to this place was shortened somewhat by

-The Edison talking pictures were well received by fair sized audiences at the opera house on Saturday ternoon and evening. As this was the first appearance of this entertainment in Bellefonte, it is safe to say that one-third of the people did not realize the merits of the wonderful invention of Edison, and confused it with a cheap form of talking pictures with which the local public was fooled last winter. The Edison talking pictures are wonderfully true and lifelike, and should the managers play a return date we predict that Bellefonte will be more appreciative.

-The Sunday school rally held by the United Brethren church in this place last Sunday morning proved in every particular as interesting and successful as had been predicted. The seating capacity of the church and four hundred and two persons who were present. The sacred music ren-dered by "Our Boys Band," of Miles-burg, under the direction of F. L. The home of Mr. DeLong is in charge of a daughter, Mrs. Thos. McCloskey, who spared no pains in making ready for the happy occasion. It will be seventeen years next January since family were all together, and the only regret at the late reunion was, that one of the daughters, Mrs. M. M. Marcy and family, who have been homesteading for over four years, at Leon, Montana, could not be present. first of the family to arrive was LeRoy and wife and two children, who came on Friday after their five-days' trip from Seattle, and departed on Wednesday morning for Columbus, Georgia, to visit at the home of Mrs. DeLong, before returning West. All joined in making merry, and many happy reminiscences were recalled, forgetting that several years may lapse before they shall meet again. Those present were, H. S. DeLong, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McCloskey and son Charlie Roy, Mrs. Jacob Beightol and two daughters, Gladys and Ruth, of Snow Shoe; Dean R. DeLong, of Un-iontown; C. V. DeLong, and son Hugh, of Homestead; LeRoy DeLong, wife and two children, Alice and Elsie, of Seattle; H. E. Rodman, wife and daughter, Rena, of Binghamton, N. Y.; N. I. Communicated.) Thompson Family Reunion.

Everything has or had a beginning and an end except eternity. So had the reunion in our family a beginning. For some time we had contemplated the assembling of our children and dren have grown up under the parental roof and gone out from that nome, that can fully realize the joy, that comes to those parents' hearts when a gathering of this kind takes On Saturday morning they came from their respective homes and o'clock every child with their husbands and wives and families were on the ground ready to help make the day a joyful one for all present. After greeting each other (the day being a delightful one) we all took up the various amusements that generally go to make those oc-casions a pleasure. They consisted of target-shooting, quoits, ball game, phonograph, vocal and instrumental At the noon hour all gathered around a large table (32 ft. long and ft. wide) laden with the good things brought from the four points of the compass. After being seated at the table, and singing "Praise God from Whom all Blessings Flow," and thanks being returned to the Giver of all good gifts, we partook of a bounteous re-past. They had all come with laden and in order that there might not be taken up twelve basketsful, we decided to again surround the table in the evening. After invoking God's blessing, we all partook of a hearty supper. It was unanimously decided to again hold a reunion next With the singing of "Don't Forget the old folks," "God be with you till we meet again," and good bye, we bade each other farewell and ended our first reunion. In all there were forty present

Those Who Run May Read. A party of Hollidaysburg motor-ists, as they speeded into the Narrows east of Lewistown one day week, were astonished to read a large sign erected along the state highway, which bore these words:— "If you are a Christian, take the upper road because the lower road was stolen by the Jesse James gang." It seems that a landowner in that locality has developed a grouch, because a portion of his property was appropriated by the state highway department by virtue of condemnation proceedings.

> Old Mrs. Rumor, who always tells a good deal more than she knows, reported that handsome Harry Kerchner was to be married to one of our very best and prettiest girls on a certain Tuesday not long ago. The prospective bride had gone to Altoona on a visit to her brother and on the Tuesday reported to be his wedding day Harry donned his best "bib and tucker" and went to Al-toona returning a few days after but without his would-be bride, and pos-itively denied that he was married. Now for the joke! Harry Diehl, a practical joker sent out more postal cards to as many different furniture dealers, hardware stores etc., requesting them to send him cathe had just been married and wanted to furnish his home with such house keeping paraphernalia as follows the wedding ceremony. In a few days ilmost a wheelbarrow load of catalogues and polite letters from scores of business men came to the office in the name of Harry Kerchner. One dealer more enterprising than the others, came in person and made inquiries relative to Harry's financial standing. Harry says he has enough reading matter to keep him busy for a year. It was a good joke, well play-ed and no one appreciated it more

On last Monday, Sept. 1st, one of our young ladies arrived at another mile post in her journey through life. No matter what milepost, anyway she past 32. The women's ply in person at this office. which she is a member, conceived the idea to give her a great surprise. At least a score of our good ladies enter-ed into the plot. The place fixed for the consumation of the was at the home of F. A. Holderman. The name of the surprise was a "stocking shower." The conspirators had all assembled at their vous" and the hosiery suspended above the door in such a way that when the victim entered a basket fuli of foot wear would be dumped over her head. Accordingly shortly 8 o'clock, one of the young ladies, a niece of the victim, acting as chief conspirator lured the said victim to go with her to the foresaid place on pretext to get some lace. When they arrived at the said home, the guide lingered a little so as to give the victim a chance to enter first. Innocently the poor girl entered and of course the trap was sprung and she was deluged in a cloud burst hosiery. She simply screamed when the crowd of conspirators rushed out and whooped her up for all there was in it. From then to the wee of the night was spent in social chat, eating ice cream and cake, yarns and chin music generally. The harvest was 28 pair of hose. The fun they had was 100 per cent. above par.

Exploding Beer Bottle Causes Injury. past seven. George Green, a colored House, met with quite a serious mis-hap, as the result of an exploding beer bottle, and it is feared he may loose the sight of his right eye, although the doctors have hopes of saving it.

George's work among other things, is assisting the bar tenders, and at the time of the accident he was engaged in putting bottles of beer in to a tub, partly filled with ice. Sud denly one of the bottles exploded and the broken glass struck the boy in the right eye. He was at once taken to the Bellefonte hospital where his injuries were attended by Dr. Seibert. Fortunately the glass did not enter the eye directly and for this reason it is hoped the eye may not be affected. He is eighteen years of age and a son of William Green, porter at the Brockerhoff House

Don't Place Loose Coins in Mail Boxes

The attention of postmasters at ru-ral delivery offices and of rural carriers is again directed to the fact that rural carriers are not required to col-lect loose coins from rural mail boxes. Patrons should inclose coins in an envelope, wrap them securely in paper or deposit them in coin-holding re-ceptacle so they can be easily and quickly taken from boxes and carriers will be required to lift such coins and, when accompanied by mail for dispatch, attach the requisite stamps.

Carriers who lift coins not so inclosed, wrapped, or deposited will do so purely as a matter of accommodation and not by any direction or requirement of the Department.

THIS PREVENTS INFECTION.

No family should be without a package of Rexall Lesperine. This ideal antiseptic should be applied at once to all cuts and wounds, to destroy the germs of infection. It is valuable as a gargle for sore throat, as a wash for canker, sore mouth, as an appli-cation for burns and scalds, as a douche or spray for nasal trouble. Cleansing, healing, and tending to prevent further infection, as a douche in diseases perculiar to women, it is particularly valuable. In every case, the sale of Rexall Lesperine is accompanied with our positive guarantee that it will give satisfaction, or money back. Price, 50 cents. Sold in this community only at our store. The
