

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

Dr. Edith Schad visited friends in Altoona Monday of this week. Harry Holz departed Sunday morning on a business trip to New York City. Miss Marie White, of Williamsport, was an over Sunday visitor with relatives in this place. Abraham Long, a son of John Long, is now employed as bookkeeper in the coal office of A. G. Morris, Jr. Mrs. Kate Dinges departed Saturday for Williamsport where she will spend a week with friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Blanchard left Friday for Philadelphia, where they will visit the latter's mother at Ridley Park. Miss Christine Merriman has returned to her home in New York City, after a visit with her sister, Mrs. John Blanchard. Mr. and Mrs. David Confer and two children, of Orviston, were in Bellefonte last week attending the Fair and meeting old friends. Mr. and Mrs. Charley Keichline left Saturday for Kirkland, New York, where they will visit the latter's home for the next two weeks. The bonus on road tax apportioned to Centre county by the state is $14,412.41. This money is to be used for the improvement of township roads. Merrill Showers and his lady friend, Miss Olive West, of Altoona, were over Sunday visitors at the home of his mother, Mrs. A. C. Showers, of east Beaver street. Frank Crissman, who is employed in the Pennsylvania Railroad offices at Sunbury, spent Sunday in Bellefonte with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Homer Crissman. Two Ford touring cars crashed head-on near Hecla Park on Thursday, when both attempted to pass a horse and buggy on the state road, but no one was injured. The Huntington presbytery will hold its next meeting in the Second Presbyterian church, Altoona. The opening session to be held at 7:30 Monday evening, October 6th. Robert Green, one of our energetic young colored men, left Bellefonte Monday afternoon for Philadelphia where he has accepted a position as porter at the Passmore House. William C. and Henry Mingle, of Akron, Ohio, stopped in Bellefonte Saturday at the home of their uncle, A. C. Mingle, while on the way to visit their old home in Chester. There is some talk of buying the Newton Hamilton camp ground as a place to establish an Old Folks Home by the Central Pennsylvania M. E. conference. It would be an ideal place. Prof. and Mrs. Geo. P. Bible and daughter, Miss Genevieve, left Monday afternoon for their home in Philadelphia after an enjoyable visit of several weeks with relatives in Bellefonte. Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hoover, of Williamsport, Miss Lizzie Morrison and Mary Hoover, of Buffalo, New York, passed through Bellefonte today in a large touring car bound for State College. Miss Mary Schad, daughter of Dr. Edith Schad, and Miss Helen Hawes, daughter of Rev. George Edwin Hawes left during the past week for Oxford, Ohio, where they will attend the Western College for Women. Hon. Charles E. Patton, of Curwensville, congressional representative of the Centre-Clearfield-Cameron-McKean district, has been elected a member of the National Republican Congressional committee, vice Hon. J. Hampton Moore. The fiftieth annual convention of the State Homeopathic Medical Society convened at Bedford Springs last week. About two hundred members were present. The delightful surroundings, perfect accommodations, and social features made the event one long to be remembered. Mrs. M. A. Calre, Miss Reble Noll and Ralph Hassinger returned home Tuesday from Clark's Lake, Michigan, where they were spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. C. F. York. Mrs. Calre will remain in Bellefonte a few weeks at the home of Emanuel Noll and then leave for her home in Poughkeepsie, N. Y. Orvis Keller, eldest son of Harry Keller, Esq., who spent the past year in Wyoming on a ranch, returned to Bellefonte last week much benefited in health by his stay in the west. Before he returned home he visited Salt Lake City, Southern California, and other points of interest. He expects to enter State College this fall. Mrs. Oscar E. Hall and daughter Eulalia, who have been visiting friends in Bellefonte and Centre county for the past three weeks, returned Thursday to their home in Champlain, Ill. Mrs. Hall whose maiden name was Eliza Williams, is a sister of the late George Williams, of Bellefonte, and was born and raised at Beech Creek. Charles Yingling, working at the Longhrey tunnel, four miles northeast of Bald Eagle station, Thursday found the shed skin of a blacksnake which measured seven feet in length and was six inches in circumference. The owner of the skin is presumably at large and is evidently a fine specimen of its kind. William Snyder, a former fireman on the Snow Shoe branch of the P. R. R. with headquarters in Bellefonte but who left Bellefonte fourteen years ago and is now a conductor in the yards at Pittsburgh, is visiting friends in Bellefonte and at his old home in Wingate. He expects to leave this week for New York to spend the balance of his vacation. A circular has been issued to commissioners of the various counties of the state by the secretary of the commonwealth Robert McAfee, calling attention to the fact that under the primary and non-partisan nomination acts voters can vote for only one candidate for superior court both at the primary and at the general election. There are fifteen candidates. During the past summer E. M. Broderick, an instructor in Mechanical Engineering at State College, has been taking a course at Columbia University in New York and while he was thus engaged Mrs. Broderick stayed with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thad Hamilton, of east Howard St. Having finished his studies at Columbia, he returned to Bellefonte and on Monday with Mrs. Broderick left for State College where they will go to housekeeping and he will resume his duties at the college.

Miss Caroline Valentine, who has been spending the summer in Rhode Island, returned home Tuesday evening. Charles Norris, who has been visiting J. N. Bogle at his home in Philadelphia, departed Wednesday for his home in Philadelphia. Dr. Thomas C. Van Tries left on Monday for Altoona where he will spend this week with his son, Rev. William Van Tries. Charles McCurdy Scott expects to enter the Freshmen class at Princeton College this year and will leave for that institution next Wednesday. Miss Alice Lowery left Saturday for Stormstown, Pa., where she has accepted a position as teacher in one of the Halfmoon township schools. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Cooke left on Wednesday morning for Philadelphia and Atlantic City where they expect to spend the next few weeks. Miss Margaret Aull, who has been spending the summer in Bellefonte at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Richards, left Tuesday for her home in Philadelphia. Misses Mary and Elizabeth Blanchard returned home Tuesday evening from an extensive trip through the New England states in the interest of the Basket Shop. Mrs. E. J. Bates, of Pine Glenn, and daughter, Miss Martha Bates, of Philadelphia, were guests Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Heverly, of East Howard street. Mrs. Marg. Dikeman and granddaughter, Miss Constance Roberta Smith, of Washington, D. C., are being entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clement Dale, of North Allegheny street. The Ladies' Aid Society of the United Brethren church will hold a bake sale of cakes, pies, bread and rolls, in the room adjoining the church, on Saturday evening. Ice cream will also be served. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Seixas and daughter, Miss Martha Seixas, of Philadelphia, Monday afternoon after a delightful visit at the home of Mrs. Seixas' mother, Mrs. Charles Smith of east Bishop street. Frank P. Blair & Son recently placed a fine new awning made of khaki material in front of their jewelry store in the Brockerhoff block. It is made by the firm in Toledo and is one of the best on the market. Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Singheiser, of Renovo, Pa. spent last week in Bellefonte taking in the County Fair and visiting Mrs. Singheiser's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Woodring of East Howard street. They left for home Saturday. John G. Love, Jr., left Monday afternoon for his home in Philadelphia, where he is a sophomore at Haverford College but as the college term does not open until September 25th, he will likely return home before the school opens. Miss Martha Shoemaker left on Tuesday afternoon for New York City where she will attend Mount Vincent College as a student. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. T. A. Shoemaker who will see her safely to her journey's end. The young men of the town gave a farewell dance in the hall at the public building on Tuesday evening in honor of the boys who are about to leave for schools and colleges. Smith's orchestra furnished the music and the occasion proved a most delightful one. Squire W. H. Musser spent Sunday in Altoona with his brother-in-law Frank B. Stover, who has been quite ill for some time and is confined to his bed. The many friends of Mr. Stover in Bellefonte will be sorry to learn of his illness and sincerely hope for his recovery. Mr. and Mrs. Abner Musser, of Pitsa, are receiving congratulations over the birth of a bouncing baby boy at their home on last Friday. The little fellow weighs ten pounds. Mrs. Musser was formerly Miss Margery Richards, a daughter of John Richards, of this place. Mrs. A. J. Casperson, of James-town, N. Y., is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gehret, of this place. She expects to remain for several weeks and as this is her first visit home since her marriage, her parents and friends were naturally overjoyed to see her. Mr. and Mrs. George James, of Tyrone, were over Sunday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McClellan, of North Spring street. During the week, Miss Mabel Purdy, of Tyrone, was also a guest at the McClellan residence returning to her home Sunday evening. Miss Pauline Ryan, one of Altoona's attractive young ladies, returned to her home Tuesday evening after a week's visit with Register J. Frank Smith and family on East Linn street. On Friday evening Miss Nellie Smith entertained a party of young friends in honor of her guest. Miss Eleanor Boyd, of Harrisburg, is a guest of Miss Sara Fullerton Hastings. On Wednesday morning Miss Boyd, Miss Hastings, Frederick Reynolds and Theodore Davis, Boal, Jr., auted to Boalsburg where they were entertained at luncheon at the beautiful country home of the Boals. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Harper and their little son, who have been spending the summer at the home of his mother, Mrs. J. C. Harper of east Howard street, left Monday morning for their home in Columbus, Ohio, where Mr. Harper will resume his duties as an instructor in the Ohio University. Mrs. Thomas Shaughnessy, Jr., of east Howard street, left on Sunday evening for Erie, Pa., where she will visit her sister. Later she will go to Pittsburgh to see her son Frank before returning home. She expects to be gone about three weeks. She will be joined within the next week or ten days by her husband who will enjoy a well earned vacation from his business duties. Col. F. Taylor Pusey and wife, with Miss Hannah Smedley and Capt. W. R. Carson, all of Philadelphia, were in Bellefonte Saturday afternoon for a short time while enroute to Buffalo, N. Y., traveling in the former's automobile. Col. Pusey and Captain Carson were pleasant callers at the Democrat office while in town. Capt. Carson is chief clerk in the office of the Surveyor of the Port at Philadelphia, while Col. Pusey is a prominent attorney at the Philadelphia bar, a member of Gov. Tener's staff, and a former member of the legislature, who gained fame as the author of the anti-cartoon bill during Gov. Pennypacker's term. The party expect to proceed from Buffalo by boat, where they will be met by their son, John Gov. Tener and attend the unveiling of a monument in honor of Perry's victory at Lake Erie. They are both affable gentlemen whom it is a pleasure to meet on any occasion.

Elizabeth Proudfoot, one of Altoona's nicest little girls, spent several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Klingler in this place last week, as the guest of her cousin, Mary Klingler. On Wednesday evening about 6:30 o'clock a slight fire occurred at the carriage works of Forest L. Bullock on south Water street. Fortunately it was discovered before gaining much headway, and was quickly extinguished with slight damage. Prof. Jonas E. Wagner, although kept busy as a result of the opening of the school term, finds time to smile and receive congratulations over that first baby boy, which the jolly old stork left at his home Monday. Both mother and babe are getting along nicely. The last quarterly communion for the conference year will be held in the United Brethren church next Sunday, morning and evening. Mrs. L. Wright, president of the Women's Missionary Societies of Allegheny conference, will be present and speak at the evening service. John I. Bush, of Glen Campbell, son of the late Peter Bush, of Union township, was a business visitor in Bellefonte last week. Mr. Bush owns real estate in Indiana county and is prospering, but is not availing himself of coming back to Centre county some day if he can find a suitable farm that could be purchased. The regular monthly meeting of the Men's organized bible class of the United Brethren church will be held on Friday night in the Ladies' Aid room adjoining the church. Rev. Walter F. Carson, a well known Presbyterian minister of Centre county, will be present and make an address. Refreshments will be served during the evening. Harry Weaver, Penna. Railroad operator at the tower between Bellefonte and Milesburg, is enjoying a vacation trip that will take in a number of states throughout the west. In company with his wife, Mr. Weaver left last week for Pittsburgh, and from there will go to Cincinnati, Ohio, and then to Kentucky, expecting to spend for a short period in the cities of Newport and Covington. Paul Miller, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Miller, of east High street, was accompanied to the Mt. Airy School for the Deaf and Dumb, by Rev. Winney to resume his studies at this well known institution. Paul has spent the past four or five years at this school and is progressing nicely. His periods of vacation are spent at home, and his trips to and from the school are generally made in company with Rev. Winney. Mrs. Harry Haag, daughter Sara and sister, Miss Hannah Noll, arrived home last Thursday from a most delightful trip of five weeks through the west during which time they visited many relatives and old acquaintances. Starting from Bellefonte, Mrs. Haag and daughter spent a short time with Mr. and Mrs. William McMullen at Johnstown, where they were joined by Miss Noll and continued their journey to Ashland, Ohio, to become guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dolinger. Later they spent a week in Chicago visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harry Showers, and while there called upon Mr. and Mrs. Jas. I. Corl and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cole, all former Bellefonte people. Going back to the same state, Mrs. Haag paid her brother, Charles Noll, a visit at his farm home whom she had not seen for ten years. Returning the tourists stopped off at Johnstown and Tyrone and arrived in Bellefonte safe and happy on Thursday. Hospital Donation. Following a custom of former years, many exhibitors of fruits, vegetables, cakes, bread, etc., at the fair last week donated their exhibits to the Bellefonte hospital, a most commendable act, and one that is highly appreciated by the managers of the hospital. They, therefore wish to return thanks to the following named for gifts bestowed: Fruits and vegetables—Jeff Tressler, 12 plates; John Mills, 9 plates; Oliver Wilmer, 28 plates; Mrs. A. G. Grove, 16 plates; Mrs. D. H. Shively, 5 plates; Mrs. Samuel Decker, 46 plates; A. C. Mingle, 4 plates; Victor L. Meyer, 12 plates; Wm. C. Hoffman, 20 plates; F. Tilsens, 9 plates; Gertrude Houser, 27 plates; all of Bellefonte. Mrs. Wm. B. Johnston, Johnstown, 6 plates. Mrs. Elmer S. Lauder, Oak Hall, 18 plates. Samuel Knoll, Pleasant Gap, 30 plates. William Baird, State College, 2, 17 plates. Lulu Markley, Buffalo Run, 12 plates. Herman Keen, Zion, 50 plates. C. L. Pletcher, 6 plates; Geo. H. Musser, 24 plates; J. A. Korman, 45 plates; all of Curtin. Jellies, bread and cake—Mrs. D. H. Shively, Mrs. John McCuley, Miss Lulu Markley, Miss Josie Decker, Miss Marion Dukeman. Marriage Licenses. Malcolm Spicer - - - - Bellefonte Verma E. Lutz - - - - Bellefonte Robt. Gibbons - - - - Decatur Twp. Elizabeth Smith - - - - Decatur Twp. Michael Santella - - - - Bellefonte Marietta Tarana - - - - Bellefonte Lawrence McDonald - - - - Philipsburg Elizabeth Maggs - - - - Winburn Jas. M. Moore - - - - Philipsburg Esther Pilkington - - - - Philipsburg Wm. Lowry - - - - Troy Edith Mason - - - - Troy Wm. W. Keichline - - - - Bellefonte Roxie Ralston - - - - Bellefonte Charley Womer - - - - Poorman Side Carrie Womer - - - - Poorman Side CAUTION. All persons are hereby notified not to purchase, carry away or meddle with the household goods now in possession of J. C. Derr, as the same are my property. JAMES W. DERR, 337 Austin, Texas. THIS PREVENTS INFECTION. No family should be without a pack of Rexall Lysperine. This ideal antiseptic should be applied at once to all cuts and wounds, to destroy the germs of infection. It is valuable as a gargle for sore throat, as a wash for canker, sore mouth, as an application for burns and scalds, as a douche or spray for nasal trouble. Cleansing, healing, and tending to prevent further infection, as a douche in diseases peculiar to women, it is particularly valuable. In every case, the sale of Rexall Lysperine is accompanied with our positive guarantee that it will give satisfaction, or money back. Price, 50 cents. Sold in this community only at our store. The Rexall Store. Get it at Green's The Rexall Store

Penny a Word Ad.

Any subscriber can insert a want advertisement in this column one issue free, if it does not exceed 25 words. Charges for extra lines over a word, first issue, 10 cents; second issue, 5 cents; two issues 40 cents; three issues 60 cents. No advertisements will be answered from this office.

HOUSES—For sale and rent. J. M. Keichline, Bellefonte, Pa. $100

FOR SALE—One horse delivery wagon, cheap. Inquire of Gillen grocery. 234f

FOR SALE—Six American fox hound pups, Gardner Grove, Spring Mills, Pa. 235f

WANTED—Boy to drive wagon and work in store. Call on Gillen grocery. 234f

WANTED—Wood choppers, at 55c per cord, and pit post makers. C. W. Korman, Curtin, Pa. 235f

FOR SALE—Three cows and four head of young cattle. Inquire O. L. Fetzer, Yarnell, Pa. 236f

FOR SALE—Driving mare, blooded stock pedigree, safe and speedy. R. C. Noll, Pleasant Gap. 237f

FOR SALE—Timothy seed. Inquire of S. H. or Jacob F. Hoy, Bellefonte, Pa. Commercial phone. 238f

FOR SALE—Boggy, in use only six months, in good condition. Apply Rev. W. M. Hoover, Huntingburg, Pa. 239f

FOR SALE—One, two year old grade Guernsey bull. From College stock. Inquire of C. E. Lutz, Philmore, Pa. 240f

FOR RENT—Desirable dwelling house on High street, recently occupied by Chas. R. Kurtz. Apply at this office. 241f

WANTED—Vise hands floor stands and machine hands, non-union, steady work, good pay. Address Post office box 184 Erie, Pa. 242f

FOR SALE—Pull blooded Rhode Island Red chickens from State College. Eggs 50 cts. a setting. George W. Zerby, Tusseyville 1234

WANTED—Girl to work in restaurant kitchen; wages $5. Call or address A. C. Longee, State College. 233

FOR SALE—Good house and lot, located on old Boalsburg pike, 3 miles south of Bellefonte. Inquire of William Colpezer, Bellefonte, Pa. 232

FOR SALE—Orchard for a coal, a large bay horse; also a lot of fine Chester white pigs. S. H. Hoy, Bellefonte, Pa. Commercial phone. 243f

FOR SALE—Farm, one mile North of Zion, containing 127 acres, 85 clear, the balance in good timber, fruit of all kinds. W. A. Bieker, Zion, Pa. 244f

FOR SALE—Registered Jersey bull, also a grade Jersey bull, bred by "Golden Prince" of Laurel Run. Inquire of W. H. Crebs, Middletown, Pa. 245f

FARMS—Large and small, limestone soil, in Blair, Centre and Huntingdon counties. Send for catalogue. G. C. Waite, P. O. Box 222, Tyrone, Pa. 246f

FOR SALE—Cheap, four horsepower International gasoline engine, on roller, water cooled. Garbrick Bros., Alliance Big Spring, Bellefonte. Both phones. 247f

FOR SALE—A good farm of 30 acres, in Warren, Pa. Mark Township, Huntingburg, Pa. A good bargain to quick buyer. Address Albert Beck, Exr. Warriors Mark, Pa. 248f

WANTED—Girl to assist with general house work. One with good references and who will appreciate good home. Mrs. L. G. Backus, No. 119 Joy street, Edgewood Park, Pittsburg, Pa. 249f

LOCAL REPRESENTATIVE WANTED—No canvassing or soliciting required. Good income assured. Address National Co-operative Realty Co., 1471 Marden Building, Washington D. C. 250f

INSURANCE—Insure your town and farm property in the Lykens Valley Mutual Fire Insurance Company; Established in 1854. Rates for-ward to fifty per cent lower than board companies. Losses promptly settled. Earle C. Tuten, Agent, Bellefonte, Pa. 251f

STOCK—Eggs and yearling stock—single comb brown and white Leghorns, White Wyandotters, Barred Rocks, Peppercorns and Partridge Game. H. K. Mattern, Locust Hill Poultry Farm, Julian, Pa. 252f

FOR SALE—A Ford runabout, 1912 model, in excellent condition; has been used very little. Completely equipped. First $300 takes it. Machine can be seen at Peter Mendis home, East High street. 253f

FOR SALE—At less than cost, a new Peerless No. 4 chop mill, slightly shorn, capacity 5 to 25 bu. per hr. power required 2 1/2 horse power. Call on or write to S. C. Brungart, Spring Mills, Pa. R. F. D. #4. 254f

FOR SALE OR RENT—At the head of Marsh Creek, 126 acres, 30 acres clear, balance in timber. Good water, fruit of all kinds. Address Harry Kessling, Snow Shoe, Pa. x-36

FARM—For sale or exchange; situated about 5 miles west of Bellefonte containing 100 acres, about 75 acres cleared, balance in timber, good house, bank barn and other outbuildings; fruit and well on farm. Will sell cheap on easy terms, or exchange for property of equal value, 6 months rent. Address A. I. Garbrick, Bellefonte, Route 1. 255f

WANTED—The Centre Democrat needs a bright boy of clean habits, who is at least 15 years of age, to learn the printing and publishing business. Applicant should have a fair amount of education, and be willing to learn rather than teach. To the right boy, a splendid opportunity will be given to learn every branch of the business, embracing job printing, set type composition, and retorting. Apply in person at this office. 256f

EXECUTRIX'S NOTICE. In the matter of the estate of Dr. Philip S. Fisher, late of Zion, Centre county, Pa., deceased. Letters testamentary in the above named estate having been granted to the undersigned, all persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make payment and those who are creditors against said estate are requested to present the same duly authenticated without delay to HENRY CHRONISTER, Administrator, 234 Julian, Pa. 257f

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE. Letters of administration on the estate of Dallas Chronister, late of Huston Township, deceased. Letters of Administration in the above named estate having been granted to the undersigned by the Register of Wills of Centre County, Pennsylvania, all persons indebted to the said estate are hereby requested to make payment and all persons having claims against said estate are requested to present the same duly authenticated without delay to HENRY CHRONISTER, Administrator, 234 Julian, Pa. 258f

VALUABLE PROPERTY AT PRIVATE SALE. Wm. Beltz offers at private sale, a fine house, barn, saw mill and 25 acres clear land, situated between Tyroneville and Bellefonte along the main road. Also 270 acres of mountain land, well timbered, a good water power saw mill, plaster, chert mill and all wood working machinery. The clear land contains a vein of valuable mineral ore. This property could be made a valuable summer resort. Will sell at a very low price. Call on or address Wm. Beltz, Tyroneville Clinton Co. Pa. 259f

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE. In the matter of the estate of Amanda Decker, late of Penn Township, deceased. Letters of Administration in the above named estate having been granted to the undersigned by the Register of Wills of Centre County, Pennsylvania, all persons indebted to the said estate are hereby requested to make payment and all persons having claims against said estate are requested to present the same duly authenticated without delay to EDWARD F. DECKER, Administrator, 233 Spring Mills, Pa. 260f

MARKET QUOTATIONS. Bellefonte Produce. Butter 25c Eggs 25c

Bellefonte—Grain. The following prices are paid by C. T. Wagner for grain. Wheat, Red 85c Wheat, White 80c Rye 70c Corn 75c Oats 40c Barley 60c