

Correspondence

(Continued)

CURTIN.

The railroad bridge crossing Bald Eagle was moved on Sunday and there will be a new bridge put in instead of the old one.

Abdneso Williams, who is employed at Ramey, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Blon Williams over Sunday.

Mrs. Parker, of Bellefonte is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Jerry Glenn.

Miss Pearl Bryan, who is going to Bellefonte High school, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Bryan.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bryan and two children, of Bellefonte, visited at the home of Orlando Bryan and wife.

Mrs. Joseph Griffith and daughter, Miss Laura, returned home on Saturday after visiting friends at Yeagertown for a couple of weeks.

Our sick this week are Mrs. Blon Williams, Grandma Riley and Baby Map; hope for them all a speedy recovery.

A carriage load of ladies driven by John Robb of Howard, attended the Grange picnic, although the inclemency of the weather did not permit them to get an early start, but they had a jolly good time all the same and returned home about 10 o'clock, feeling it was good to be there.

H. L. Curtin has purchased a fine threshing machine and will use it in threshing his own crops this year; success to you.

The festival held on Saturday evening was a grand success.

Charles Stanley moved his family to Curtin last week.

Two men were injured on Sunday at the railroad bridge. Howard Spear was one but the writer failed to find the name of the other man who belonged to the Tyrone crew; we hope their injuries are not serious.

The much needed rain has come at last; the windows of Heaven have opened and we are very thankful to God for these great showers of rain.

Miss Gertrude Batchlet, of near Curtin, visited at the home of Henry Shultz and wife over Sunday.

M. D. Garman has a new patent corn cutter and some of the farmers would like very much to buy one; nothing like being ahead.

A corn cutter has been added to the side on the farm of H. L. Curtin and in all probability will be a success.

Mrs. Lewis Pletcher and children and Miss Hannah Neff visited their aunt, Mrs. Henry Shultz on Monday.

CURTIN.

Mrs. Mollie Wasson, of Lock Haven, was a recent visitor at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen.

Lott, how did you enjoy your trip to Milesburg last Saturday night?

David Allen, who has been on the sick list for the past few days, is slowly improving.

The festival held in this place by the Evangelical church on Sept. 20th, was well attended considering the weather. They made sixteen dollars, clear of all expenses; proceeds for the benefit of the church.

Fred Shope, of this place, was a visitor in Bellefonte Saturday evening.

Mrs. F. F. Shope and Reynolds and baby Ethel spent last Saturday night at the home of her father, David Allen.

Those who visited at the Allen home last week were Jacob Shank, of Mt. Eagle, and daughter, Mrs. Eva Kepler and son, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., also Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Calhoun and son, William, of Unionville.

Mr. and Mrs. Lott Neff spent Sunday at the home of Wm. Bitner at Mt. Eagle.

Well Charlie P. how was the cake you got at the festival Saturday evening?

AXEMANN.

Those who tented at the Grangers picnic at Centre Hall from here were: T. M. Weaver and wife, Mrs. Calvin Grierer and daughter Helen, James Somers, wife and son Edgar. They all report a very pleasant time.

Grant Gingerich, of Clearfield, visited at the home of W. S. White and wife on Saturday.

Mrs. A. J. Hoover, of Juniata, visited friends here, being on her way home from Grangers picnic at Centre Hall.

Edgar Somers has returned to his work at Altoona again.

The Ladies Union Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Sallie Steyer on Thursday and quilted two beautiful haps which are already sold.

Mrs. Joseph Fish and daughter Helen, of Lewistown, are visiting at the home of Calvin Burris and wife.

Rev. D. A. Sower and wife, of Benzette, visited friends here over the Sabbath. Rev. Sower preached at this place on Sunday evening, and his many friends were glad to hear him preach again; he was a former pastor on this charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Frazier, of Bellefonte are visiting at the home of George W. Miller and wife.

Mrs. William Stuart returned from a pleasant visit with her daughter, Mrs. E. H. Heverly at Lewistown.

Mrs. Arthur Sunday and three children, of Akron, Ohio, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Burris, William Burris of Reading, also visited his parents over Sunday.

G. C. Miller is quite ill with grip at this writing; we hope for his speedy recovery.

STORMSTOWN.

The farmers are all busy cutting off corn just now.

We are glad to say that Mrs. J. H. Griffin, Mrs. Hannah Northamer, and J. A. Hunter, who were on the sick list are able to be around again.

Miss Mildred Eckley, while on her way to school had the misfortune of falling and hurting her wrist.

Mrs. D. B. Mattern, who spent the summer months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hunter, of this place has returned to her home in Altoona.

You had better take this advice Wade and the next time you go to town, don't ride such a balky horse.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Lytle and Dr. and Mrs. Coons attended the fair at Hollidaysburg.

Herbert Mattern, of Altoona, spent Sunday with his parents at this place. The people were certainly glad to see the rain as it was needed.

Sunday school at 10 o'clock next Sunday; everybody invited.

Safest Laxative for Women.

Nearly every woman needs a good laxative. Dr. King's New Life Pills are good because they are prompt, safe, and do not cause pain. Mrs. M. C. Dupuy of Leadhill, Tenn. says: "Dr. King's New Life Pills helped her troubles greatly." Get a box today. Price 25c. Recommended by C. M. Farris, Bellefonte, Pa.—Adv. Sept.

AARONSBURG.

Mrs. Blanchard is spending an indefinite time at Woodward with her husband at the home of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Ard; he is not enjoying good health at this writing.

Mrs. William Fredey, from Bolton, Kansas, came east a week ago to visit her children and all her many friends were glad to see her.

George Stahl, from Milton, is entertained by his aged aunt, Mrs. Desher, and his only sister Mary, who was more than glad to see him.

Well on Sunday we had a heavy fall of rain, lightning and pretty hard thunder.

Fred Stover, one of our very energetic young boys, got married on the 28th of September to Miss Stella Martin, a fine seamstress. The ceremony was performed at the Reformed parsonage, of which church he is a good member. Rev. W. D. Donat officiated. Their many friends are congratulating the nappy couple.

W. C. Mingle and wife, Mrs. C. W. Wyle, and Mrs. Musser all returned to their Akron, Ohio, homes, after spending a few very pleasant weeks with their parents and numerous other friends.

Miss Ruth Crouse, who was visiting in Altoona and Osceola for the last few weeks, returned to her parents' home, Mr. and Mrs. Hol. Crouse, on Saturday, realizing there is no place like home.

Allen Winkleblech and wife, from Rebersburg, were the welcome guests of his brother Warren and family.

Mrs. Calvin Eby, after spending a few very pleasant weeks with her mother, Mrs. Caroline Maize, and her many other friends, returned to her New York city home last Thursday.

On Sunday Mrs. Sara Letzel entertained her four brothers, Ross and his daughter, from Logan; Samuel and children, from Rebersburg; Jeremiah, from Youngstown, Ohio, and Henry and Mrs. C. C. Bell, from Centre Hall.

Mr. Stricker and his son Howard, who are employed in the lumber business near Philipsburg, spent Sunday with his family. His brother, from Lewistown, was to visit them, also.

JULIAN, No. 2.

A farewell party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Beals on Friday night in honor of their daughter, Hazel. Mr. Beals has purchased a restaurant at Pittsburg and expects to leave for there on Tuesday. The evening was pleasantly spent in playing games and music. Those present were: Gella, Nora and Martha Andrews, Mary Wilson, Ella Wilson, Ella Merritt, Alice Walizer, Sue Walizer, Jennie Straw, Clara Flick, Elizabeth Hand, Elva Campbell, Mayme Hoover, Esther Mattern, Meriam Mattern, Clark Mattern, Philadelphia, Ralph Williams, Port Matilda; Clair Lester, Leslie Fink, of Martha; Clark Steele, of Martha; Herbert Williams, Jake Fink, Orlando Andrews, Charley Hoover, Richard Merritt, Preston Merritt, John Straw. Refreshments were served about 11 o'clock, after which they all returned home thankful Miss Hazel for the pleasant time.

A festival will be held in the basement of the M. E. church on Saturday evening, Sept. 27. Ice cream, cake and candy will be served for the benefit of the Sunday school. Everybody invited to come and help a good cause along.

M. A. Keirn spent a couple of days last week at the home of E. E. Beals; call again, Mike.

John DeHans spent Sunday in our town.

Mrs. Priscilla Hall, who has been confined to her bed for some time, is able to be around again.

Miss Dora Scholl, of Huntsville, Ala., spent a few days last week with her friend, Miss Lizzie Hand.

Elmer Spiecher, of Milesburg, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Beals.

Miss Ella Merritt expects to leave for Altoona on the first of the month where she will enter business college.

Rollie Williams is improving the looks of his home by building a new kitchen.

Miss Elizabeth Hand spent Sunday with Miss Pearl Fink at Martha.

Apple cuttings seem to be all the go; there were two last week one at Mr. Breon's and one at C. M. Myer's.

Miss Ida Turner is spending a couple of weeks in Niagara Falls.

SCOTIA.

Mrs. Calvin Murtorf entertained the members of her Sunday school class and a few friends at an elaborate dinner Wednesday of last week. Promptly at the hour of 12, the guests were invited into the dining room, where a table laden with all that the inner man could crave for greeted them. After dinner music and speech making was in order. Those present were: Mrs. Jess. Pennington and daughter, Mrs. Harry Williams and two children, Mrs. Jas. Williams, Mrs. Berch Parsons, Mrs. Chester Young and two children, Mrs. Asbery Markley, Mrs. Louis Barr, Mrs. John Curry and two children, Mrs. Edward Markley and son, Mrs. Daniel Daywalt and son, Mrs. Lizzie Kellerman, Mrs. Wm. Bottorf, Harry Pennington, Jess Pennington, Paul Farber and Miss Minnie Ellenberger, Altoona. The oldest person present was grandmother Farber, who despite her 75 years was one of the happiest of the crowd.

TYLERSVILLE.

Samuel Wolfe, an aged man of this place, died last Friday and was buried on Tuesday morning.

Frank Rockey left this place last week with the intention of going to Porto Rico.

Miss Beatrice Prantz went to Johnson town where she will be employed.

Miss Martha Frank went to State College where she intends to work.

The Harvest Home services held in the Reformed church on Sunday morning were well attended although the weather was unfavorable.

Landis Greninger, who is teaching school at Caldwell, left last Saturday.

Charles Weaver, who is working at Nittany, spent Sunday with his family.

Mrs. Arthur Eckel and children visited several days in Avis.

BOALSBURG.

Harry Harro and family who moved away from here last spring, moved back here last week into the Dr. Kidder house.

Harry Loneberger started on his new work as mail carrier at State College last Monday.

Mrs. Houser and daughter, of Rock Springs, spent Saturday at the home of A. B. Murray.

George Koch, of Pine Grove Mills, spent Sunday at his parents' home at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wetzler, of Williamsport, were visitors at the home of Mrs. Sara Gingerich.

Mrs. Eva Fisher, of Bellefonte, spent a few days at the Kaup home.

International Opera Company opens Star Course this year. Five numbers, $1. 37-Lf.

MT. HILL.

Chas. Miller, who has been working in Kentland, Ind., this summer, has come home to stay. He says there is no place like home.

Boyd Sheates spent Sunday with his friend, F. A. Vonada.

Harry Bressler and lady friend, Miss Vera Shirk, of Greenbrier, spent Saturday night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Shirk at Spring Mills.

Fred Vonada and Boyd Sheates were to Spring Mills Saturday night. Wonder what the attraction is.

Corn husking is next on the program.

We all advise Carrie to send that young farmer home a little earlier, as he might fall to sleep while husking corn.

Mrs. W. W. Vonada and daughter, Mrs. C. H. Hosterman and son, Francis, spent a couple days last week at Millburg with the former's brother, O. A. Jamison.

STORMSTOWN.

Justice of the Peace, John Way, attended municipal court in Bellefonte last Monday and Tuesday.

Miss Charlotte Ryder, who is teaching school at Mount Pleasant, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents on Main St.

John Hicks took his departure for the city. We wish him ever luck.

Victor Way and Donald Strain were among those who attended the picnic at Centre Hall.

Mrs. McKelvey, of Bellwood, is visiting with her sister, Mrs. J. W. Sylvester.

Rev. Strain, formerly of this place, has been visiting here.

Mrs. Griffin, who has been in a critical condition, is somewhat better now. Some of the Y. M. C. A. boys were here conducting services on the Sabbath.

State to Pay $4 for Wildcats.

Wildcats with a price of $4 a piece, head the list of obnoxious animals and birds for which the state will pay a bounty, according to the Pennsylvania State Legislature. The other animals and birds named in addition to the wildcat and the amount of bounty on each is as follows: Grey fox, $2; weasel, $2; great-horned owl, goshawk and sharp-shinned hawk, each 50 cents. There is no bounty on the red fox or the mink.

Stops Falling Hair

Hall's Hair Renewer certainly stops falling hair. No doubt about it whatever. You will surely be satisfied.

1,500 AT STATE COLLEGE.

Opening Day Sees Heavy Registration With 2,000 Mark Probable.

The Pennsylvania State College opened its fifty-fifth year Wednesday of last week, with over 1,500 students regularly scheduled, and it is expected that the number will reach 2,000 when registration is completed.

In the absence of General Beaver, president of the board of trustees, prevented by illness from attending the exercises, Vice President H. W. Mitchell, of Pittsburg, officially opened the college year. He congratulated the students on the remarkable growth of the college, which has doubled its proportions of five years ago.

President Sparks, in his welcome, spoke highly of the aid given by the state and of the proposed uses of the $1,200,000 appropriated. The freshman class, which numbers 600, contains no member encumbered with a condition. This check was resorted to in order to adequately care for the incoming class.

Taft Weighs Only 240.

William H. Taft has lost eighty pounds in weight since laying down the cares which go with the office of President. There is nothing alarming in this, however, for it was brought about by deliberate design and Mr. Taft still tips the scale at 240 pounds. He has dropped the weight cultivating a big appetite through outdoor exercise and then refraining from gratifying the appetite. He also spends much time on the golf links.

Counterfeit Coins in Circulation.

Counterfeit half dollars and dimes are being circulated. The half dollar is of 1910 date and the dime is 1909 date. The imitations are poorly made and easily detected except in a rush. Storekeepers and people in general are warned to watch out for these counterfeiters.

VISIT MILTON FAIR. FAIR GROUNDS NEAR MILTON, PA. September 30, October 1, 2 and 3, 1913. EXCURSION TICKETS. PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

$1500.00 Worth of Men's, Women's, Misses', Boy's, Girl's, Children's and Infants SWEATER COATS. Ladies' Sweaters $1.48. 75c Men's Heavy Cotton Coat 48c. Men's Honey Comb Sweaters 98c.

CRIDER'S EXCHANGE, CLASTER'S, BELLEFONTE, PENNA.

The BANK of PERSONAL SERVICE. Where Business Problems are Solved. FIRST NATIONAL BANK, State College, Pennsylvania. INTEREST PAID ON DEPOSITS.

North, South, East, West. Beecham's Pills. Are Pronounced Best. He who waits for a dead man's shoes may get cold feet. Tacks are also stubborn things—but you can see the point. A jealous woman would be all right if she could only keep the lid down.

Mallory. CRIDER'S EXCHANGE, BELLEFONTE, PA. The Photographer in Your Town. EVERY MAN. Every man should have intimate relations with a good bank, ready at all times to help its patrons. Let us open an account with you. We may prove to be a friend when you need one. FIRST NATIONAL BANK.

SHOES. NEW FALL STYLES. Cousins, Queens, Boston Favorites, Nurses Negligee, Clarice—Regals, Just Wrights, Aldens and Banisters. All The Newest Shapes—See Them. Mingle Shoe Store, Allegheny St., Bellefonte, Pa.