HOWARD.

Divinest autumn! Who may paint the best, Forever changeful o'er the change-ful globe?

Who guess thy certain crown, thy favorite crest, The fashion of thy many-colored robe?

R. H. Stoddard.

In Our Churches Next Sabbath.

Methodist Episcopal—Assistant pastor M. C. Piper will preach in Howard at half past ten, at Hunter's Run at half past two, and at Beech Creek at half past seven.

Reformed—Pastor E. H. Zechman will preach, and conduct a Harvest Home service at Salona at half past ten, and will preach at Mt. Bethel at half past two.

United Evangelical—Pastor M. J. Snyder will preach at Fairview at half past two, and in Howard at half past seven.

Presbyterian—Pastor Walter Fay Carson will preach at Jacksonville at Jacksonville at eleven o'clock and in Howard at half past seven.

Mrs. J. D. Loss Dead.

At the German hospital in Philadelphia, Mrs. Loss, whose serious case was mentioned in last week's letter, succumbed to the inevitable, and passed quietly and serenely into the beyond.

Mrs. Loss was born Rose Traister, in Tyrone, Aug. 22, 1865. In early womanhood she was married to Irvin Schenck, and their son, Clair, was born to her. While still young she lost her husband, and on Oct. 6, 1889, in St. Louis she married J. D. Loss, and later came east to the old farm at the foot of Schenck's hill.

For many years, Mrs. Loss was a severe, but patient sufferer from an organic trouble which finally required an operation, followed in a few days by her death. The funeral took place yesterday, Wednesday, with service in the Reformed church, conducted by Rev. E. H. Zechman, assisted by Rev. M. J. Snyder, of the United Evangelical church in the absence of her pastor.

Mrs. Loss united with the Methodist church at Hunter's Run when about eighteen years of age, and lived the life of a consistent christian woman to the day of her departure. She was of a most pleasing disposition and was beloved by neighbors and friends wherever known. Her bereaved husband has the sympathy of the community.

Farmer's Institutes.

These interesting and profitable meetings for farmers, and many others as well, as suggested by the Department of Agriculture at Harrisburg for the coming season in this county, will be held at Pine Grove Mills, Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 29 and 30; at Rebersburg, Wednesday and Thursday, Dec. 31 and Jan. 1; and at Jacksonville, Friday and Saturday, Jan. 2 and 3.

The State speakers will be Prof. Franklin Menzes, of York; Prof. R. H. Bell, specialist in horticulture and orchard fertilizing, The Pennsylvania State College; and H. M. Gooderham, a practical and experienced farmer of Cambria. Every farmer within reach of these meetings will work to his own and his neighbor's advantage if he will arrange his affairs, so far as practicable, to attend one or more of these meetings.

The study of the best ways of farming is one of the very best uses to which the comparatively leisure time of winter can be put, and the season chosen by the department is just right, a good way to begin the new year.

Damages Awarded.

The viewers who were appointed by the court to award the amount of damages sustained by Messrs. Antis J. Confer, Burdine Butler and Robert E. Cooke, by reason of the low grade line of railway passing through their places, and which the owners and the defendant company were unable to agree upon, heard the case and offered in Bellefonte last Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and awarded the following sums. To Mr. Confer, one thousand and three hundred dollars. To Mr. Butler, eight thousand and five hundred dollars. To Mr. Cooke, three thousand and five hundred dollars.

These are the only cases along the line in which an agreement between the parties was not reached and resort was had to legal proceedings, excepting that of the Tipton estate whose legal complications made a view necessary.

This Week's Improvements.

The good work of repairing, cleaning up, reworking, and in other ways improving the homes of our town moves on, not with great rapidity nor impulsiveness, but with such regularity that the net aggregate result is most encouraging.

A new concrete walk, porch and steps are being added to John Wagner's back buildings. A substantial sidewalk on the Black street side of the residence of Squire Hayes Schenck, is a long needed betterment.

Mained.

By some unhappy mischance last Monday afternoon, Albert R. Strickland, of Mt. Eagle, for many years an employe in the handle factory of Earl Leathers, brought his left hand into contact with a circular buzz saw which he was running, cutting it across diagonally, severing his first and second fingers entirely, and badly cutting the remaining portions of the hand.

Dr. W. J. Kurtz made him as comfortable as possible, and sent him to the Bellefonte hospital on No. 55 in the afternoon. Mr. Strickland is one of the most industrious and capable young men of the township, his mishap will draw out to him the sympathy of the whole community.

Chester A. Moore spent last week on business at Tyrone.

Mrs. Jacob Robb spent Sunday between trains in Lock Haven.

Ray Allison looked after business matters at the county seat, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Tipton, of McKeesport, are here on a business visit.

Mrs. James Wyble is entertaining her daughter, Miss Jennie, of Mahanoy City.

Mrs. Frances Ardrey of Philipsburg, is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Robert F. Confer.

James Robinson, of Martha Furnace, was the Sunday guest of his uncle, George S. Williams.

Mrs. Bertha Bishop, of Beech Creek, was the guest, last week of her cousin, Mrs. William B. Rossman.

Mrs. Ira C. Stover and three children, of Juniata, are guests of her cousins, the family of Mr. Zeigler.

Clair Butler, who is employed by the Anderson Brothers, at Henry, W. Va., was at home for last week-end.

A fine big boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Robb last Sunday, and hearty congratulations are tendered.

Joseph Loder is absent from home for a short time, seeking relief from an uncomfortable condition of health.

Mrs. S. I. Reber is entertaining her cousin, Mrs. Nan McKibben, formerly of Nittany valley, now of Williamsport.

John S. Holter, of Johnsonburg, was called home Saturday by the continuing illness of his brother Bower, at Bellefonte.

Mrs. Abraham Weber, her daughter, Miss Edythe, and Miss Elsie Long were Friday afternoon visitors in Bellefonte.

Mr. W. B. Edman, prominently connected with the street railway system of Chicago, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. C. C. Lucas.

Willis Thompson, recently one of Howard's small boys, and now a six-footer, of Orviston, spent Sunday here among his friends.

Miss Genevieve Pletcher is winning admiration as pianist of our local picture show, conducted by editor F. S. Dunham and wife.

Mr. William Weber last Friday escorted his daughter, Miss Dorothy, to Myerstown, where she will enter Albright College for a full course.

Mrs. David Gunsaulus, of Blanchard, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Mary Wensel, and their brother, Peter Robb, for several days of last week.

L. H. Thompson, of Orviston, spent last Thursday night with friends here, after paying a visit to his invalid brother-in-law, Bower Holter, at Bellefonte.

Mrs. and Dr. W. J. Kurtz, with their two children, Charlotte and Walter, Jr., enjoyed Atlantic City last week, the Dr. incidentally taking in the great medical assembly at the same time.

The millinery opening of Mrs. Ward Schenck will take place Thursday, Friday and Saturday, of next week, October 2nd, 3rd and 4th, in her new place of business, the old Robert Cooke store.

The Misses Lucille and Sarah Wetzel, daughters of the Hon. John H. Wetzel, of Bellefonte, and Arthur Dorman, and Malcolm Pifer, of Altoona, were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Pifer.

An attractive display of flowers, fruits and vegetables, contributed and arranged by the ladies of the congregation was a pleasing feature of the Harvest Home service in the Reformed church last Sabbath evening.

As dinner guests last Monday, Mrs. S. H. Bennisor entertained Miss Jane McCalmont and Mrs. John Hartwick, of Bellefonte, Mrs. Katherine M. Long, of Clarksburg, Va., and Miss Jane Sterrett, of Washington, D. C.

Miss Gertrude Elise, of Orlando, Florida, whose visit, caused by the deaths of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elise, of Milesburg, was called home last Wednesday morning, by the announcement of the death of her aged father, Prof. B. B. Elise. The sudden deaths of those three near relatives within five weeks and the frail health of her mother, now eighty years of age, make a series of heavy blows under which Miss Elise may well stagger.

Samples of the fruit known as "That's-the-largest-and-finetest-peach I've-ever-seen," we by no means infrequent, but the Howard letter does not remember having ever seen a larger or finer specimen than the one handed him last Saturday by cashier Matthew Rodgers, Jr., taken from a small basket of similar ones sent by a friend up in New York. It was, presumably a "Crosby," having the fine size, color and flavor, and the split pit characteristic of that variety.

The growth in attendance upon the union prayer meeting, from fifty-eight the first evening and eighty-six the second to almost one hundred—ninety-eight, to be exact, in the Christian chapel, Thursday evening—may well be accepted as evidence that the change was a good one and has met the approval of the church-going people of the town; and would seem to warrant the Ministerial association in arranging for an indefinite continuance of the practice. The next meeting occurs this, Thursday, evening and will be held in the Reformed church. The subject for consideration will be "Prayer that Prevails."

Another will be added to the already long list of those of our good, steady, hard working and substantial citizens who have recently felt called upon to move to places where more regular and remunerative employment can be found, when Mr. and Mrs. Shuman Holter go next month to Jenkins, Ky., where their son Shuman has made a home and is profitably employed. Mr. Holter has sold his comfortable and nicely located home on Grove street for twelve hundred dollars, to Henry Williams, a thrifty carpenter, who has heretofore been a renter, and he is to be congratulated upon having secured so desirable a home of his own.

Last Saturday evening, at her home on Main street, Miss Maud Thomas tendered to her piano pupils, and their mothers, a recital which proved to be a charming social function. In addition to the performance of each of the pupils, Miss Thomas rendered several selections, as well as some readings, in the delightful way of which she is mistress, and before the close of the evening, served dainty refreshments. Not all of her class could be present but the names of those who took part are as follows: Margaret Schenck, Hazel Crider, Margaret Crider, Richard Hoffmann, Vonda Johnston, Rosetta Schenck, Mary Kessinger, Lida Bechtel, Fay Stover, Marion Cooke, Luella Snyder, Gertrude Leathers, Josephine Pletcher.

The most important real estate sale recently made here was that of the home of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Williams to George Harvey, of Boggs township. This is a fine, practically new, brick house, built with unusual care, finished in hard wood, convenient and attractive in its interior arrangements, equipped with hot water heating apparatus, radiators in every room, bath and toilet room, with hot and cold water, and finely located on Maple street. It is one of the most desirable homes in town, and Mr. Harvey gets a good bargain at two thousand seven hundred dollars, which is understood to be the purchase price. The Williams have concluded the purchase of the old Mahafey property on Main street, where their "Green Front" confectionary and grocery store, with ice cream parlor and lunch room, in local demand will make it their permanent home.

SCOTIA.

Mrs. P. E. Hicks and daughter Myra spent Saturday at Tyrone.

Miss Laura Wilson, who is attending high school at State College, spent Saturday and Sunday at home.

Miss Florence Lykens was a Dunbar visitor between trains on Saturday last. Barr returned to his home at Pigeon Saturday morning, after spending a very pleasant vacation among relatives here. He also spent a few days at Lancaster.

E. T. Kellerman and son Harry left Monday for Bellefonte where Mr. Kellerman has taken up a position as section foreman for the B. C. R. R. They were at Bellefonte Saturday with the purpose of looking up a house and expect to move in the near future.

Jacob Ghight and niece, Miss Rella Ghaner, returned home Saturday from a week's visit with relatives in Altoona.

Mrs. A. C. Markley and sister, Mrs. Barr, spent one day last week with friends at Gatesburg.

J. M. Lykens left Saturday for DuBois to meet his daughter, Miss Ruth Lykens, who was accompanied from Westfield, Pa., to DuBois by her aunt. They were guests a few days at the home of G. C. Lykens at Bellwood before coming here.

Mrs. Bertha Lykens, who has been seriously ill, is slowly improving.

Our friend, Harry Pennington, who had the misfortune of breaking his collar bone some few weeks back, is able to be about again. His chief occupation now is, going to see his neighbors, which he says he always enjoys.

John Bottorf visited his brother at State for a few days this week.

Miss Minnie Ellenberger, of Juniata, was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Murtoff last Wednesday.

Mrs. P. E. Hicks accompanied her nine-year-old son Fred to Hickory Corners, Tuesday where he will take treatment from Dr. Patrick of that place, for his leg, which has not been improved very much since he has been home from the hospital.

The remains of Andrew Tomco, who for many years was a highly respected citizen of this place, were brought to his home here from Danville, Saturday. Interment in the Pine Hill cemetery Monday, the Rev. M. J. Runyan officiating.

MOSHANNON.

R. C. Compham, the boss on the New York central R. R. has vacated the house at Gilettown and moved to Avis having received employment in the car shops; sorry to see you leave, Rob.

Mrs. Gordon Spots arrived home Saturday from a visit of two weeks in Runville, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Spicer at that place.

Some of our sports put a tick tick on W. J. Daughenbaugh's front door sound like an old mule kicking boys, on Saturday evening and made it sound like an old mule kicking boys.

Boys would like to see you, but you better look out, you might get yourselves in a nice bit of trouble.

Thos. Kerin, of Froghollow, made a trip to Frenchville on Saturday evening and Sunday to try and get the best of George Walker, but I am afraid there is a poor chance for you Tom for George has a good stand in with the old man.

Edward Smoke is employed by the Lehigh Company cutting corn.

Myles Ward, who is employed at Clarence on the state road, spent Sunday at his home here.

George looks very blue since Tom went to Frenchville; you had better get her picture enlarged George, for that is all you will have.

Kelly Bros. have started up full blast at No. 5 and put in a railroad from No. 5 to Cherry Run.

Milford Yaudes is not much improved at this writing; he had the doctor the other day again.

A number of young people from this place took advantage of the excursion Sunday to Watkins Glens. All report having a good time.

Lecture at Pine Grove Mills.

Dr. George P. Bible, of Philadelphia, the noted traveler and lecturer, will be in Pine Grove Mills next Thursday evening, Oct. 2nd, to deliver his famous lecture entitled "Wit and Humor."

The lecture will be given under the auspices of the Reformed Sunday school, and will be held in the Reformed church at that place, beginning at 8 o'clock. The proceeds will be devoted to purchasing a new roof for the church. The price of admission is 25c for adults and 15c for children. Aside from the worthy cause to which patrons will be contributing, the lecture will afford a rare treat to the hearers of Dr. Bible.

Dedication at Gatesburg.

The new Lutheran church at Gatesburg, Pa. is now nearing completion, and will be dedicated Oct. 12th. The services will be in charge of A. H. Spangler, D. D., C. T. Aikens, D. D. and Fred W. Crider. The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

FROM FREEPORT, ILL.

Freeport, Ill., Sept. 20.

Dear Editor: I went down to Kane county a week ago to visit my daughter, Carrie Bateman, and Ammon Gramley, and I had a pleasant time. I found all well, and enjoyed myself with the friends who were formerly residents of the lumber and coal yard at Kaneville. Slifer, one of the Beck boys and I paid Sheets a visit. He has twenty-four cows to milk and is making money. John and Warren Beck have been offered two good farms to work next year for the half. I had been informed that William Houtz, who came out here last spring was thinking of going back. I took supper with him and asked him if the report was true. He replied, "No, Jim; I like Illinois. I have a fine family to work for and am treated good. My brother Ira works for the same man and we each get $38 a month. Ira boards with me. I get rent free, potato ground and a good garden, and I cannot kick. There is only one thing that I miss very much and that is Pennsylvania apple butter." I told him to send his orders to John Royer at Madisonburg, and they would send it out to him. I told him Royer's always made the best, and that night I went to visit Andrew Ockerd's, and found them all well and happy, as are all the Pennsylvania people here. Nearly all are reading the Centre Democrat, which they say is a welcome visitor.

Kane county had a dry summer. They had only one soaking rain in June. Their oats run from 25 to 50 bushels to the acre, and the hay crop was good. They have a good corn crop this season, but it was dry to plow and sow their wheat. We in Stephenson county had it dry, too. On the 15th we had a good rain, so the farmers finished their plowing of rye ground and have it nearly all sowed. We may get a good crop of potatoes, as around Freeport there are a good many planted. Each farmer has from three to twelve acres. They are selling at 65 cents per bushel. I and my boys' families are all well. If there are any good single men who want places to work on a farm, they can get employment here in March, 1914. Wages are good for industrial men.

JAMES J. GRAMLEY.

OUR FALL Millinery Exhibit will take place FRIDAY AND SATURDAY September 26th and 27th.

The showing this season will surpass anything that we have ever heretofore attempted.

It not only comprises the New Things that are now shown in the Eastern Cities but Creations that are exclusively our own.

Owing to the fact, that many of our patrons have been missed by sending personal invitations by mail, we have eliminated that this season, but extend to one and all a hearty invitation to call and inspect our showing.

KATZ & COMPANY

Look into the matter; learn the real economy and satisfaction in buying the best; get style that is stylish.

YOU CAN DRESS as well as any man you know, if you come here and ask for one of our New Ready-to-Wear
