In · and · About · Bellefonte

-Mrs. William Daley and son Edvisited friends in Runville over Sunday

-Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hall and sons, of Osceola Mills, were visitors in Bellefonte on Tuesday. -John Walker is improving his property on east Lamb street by a new concrete pavement.

-Mr. George M. Reeser, of Win-burn, is visiting his sisters, Mrs. Daniel Heckman and Mrs. Wilson Sholl, in this place.

Mrs. Carrie Showers has returned to her home on Lamb street after spending the summer with George Thompson and family at Alto.

-Mrs. David Kreps, of Glen Iron mother of Mrs. Edward Young, of this place, was a week-end guest at the latter's home on Phoenix street.

-D. W. McCloskey, of Plum Grov School House, was in Bellefonte Wednesday between trains, while on his way to visit his daughter at Danville,

-By reason of the Jewish holiday season, the Lyric Theatre will be closed Friday evening. This evening and Saturday evening it will be open as usual, with good programs.

-Charles Reese and wife, of Snow Shoe, were Bellefonte visitors recent-ly, and upon returning home they rode in their own car, a brand new Ford, purchased at the Keichline garage. -There are said to be at least 4,000 bushels of apples on the penitentiary farms at Rockview, the greater por-tion of which will be shipped to Pittsburg, where they bring $2 per bushel. -Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Crider, their daughter, Mrs. Charles E. Dorworth and the latter's little daughter, Rebecca, will leave today for Philadelwhere they will spend several Charles McClellen and son Robert returned to their home on Sunevening after a pleasant visit her daughters, Mrs. Brady Fore, at Pittsburg, and Mrs. George James, -The College authorities have de cided to erect a new residence for their president Dr. E. E. Sparks and his present home will be turned into a club house for the accommodation of visitors and students.

-The wedding of Miss Ida M. Shirk, of Bellefonte, and Uriah P. Stover, of Axemann, will take place next Wednesday, October 15th, at the latter's home. The young couple will make home in Pittsburg where the groom-elect is employed.

The Epworth League of the Methodist church will give a reception to the Methodist Academy boys their friends from the student body, also to the newly received members on Friday evening Oct. 10th at All members are invited.

-Mrs. Sarah Long and Mr. and Mrs. David Long, of Shamokin, arrived in Bellefonte Wednesday evening and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kuip, of east Bishop street. The former is the mother of Mrs. Kulp while Mr. Long is her brother.

If you have the Scenic habit you are happy. Patrons of the Scenic are never at a loss to find amusement in left Wednesday morning for Williams-port to attend the annual convention of the Pennsylvania State Sunday Association in session there ville, Illinois, last year, his niece, Miss

—The Young People's Missionary

Della Heckman, of this place, has fallen heir to the snug little sum of church will hold a rally day service

—The Young People's Missionary represented the Singer Sewing Machine Company in this place, but who now is in the insurance business at man, who died at his home in Orange-$500. This gift was stipulated by Mr. in the church on next Sunday even-Heckman to be in consideration of ing, October 12th. An interesting prokindness shown him by Miss Heck- gram has been arranged and the pubman during his visit to Bellefonte lic is cordially invited to attend. shortly before his demise.

-James and Harry Bitner, of Nebraska, with their sister, Mrs. Harry Long, all of whom are east on a visit with friends, were guests at the Daniel Heckman home, Monday. Over Sunday visitors at this home were Mr. and Mrs. John Marks, the latter a sister of Mr. Heckman, and their daughter, Mrs. Harry Weaver, husband and two children, all of Penn Hall.

-There will be an elimination checker tournament held in the Y. M. C. A. half on Friday evening, October The players will play until the four best are selected when they will later be pitted against the best Typlayers. The latter have been Bellefonte's scalp for some time and are now accommodated. Among the Bellefonte players will be W. L. Daggett, W. E. Hurley, J. Thomas Mitchell, Dr. E. S. Dorworth and oth-

-Col. W. Fred Reynolds left on Monday for New York City to attend the general convention of the Protestant Episcopal church, which opened Wednesday morning at the cathedral of St. John the Divine on Morningside Heights. Col. Reynolds is one of the four lay delegates to this convention from the Harrisburg diocese, the others being Col. Charles M. Clement, Sunbury; Col. James M. Lamberton, Harrisburg; and George N. Reynolds,

-Miss Mollie Snyder now carries her left arm in a banage as a result of an accident that befel her Monday morning at her home on west Bishop street. She has a small alcohol stove in her room and on getting out of bed she attempted to light it when she accidentally set fire to her night dress. Her cries brought Mrs. Thomas Mayes to her assistance, who promptly threw a blanket around Miss Snyder extinguishing the blaze. Miss Snyder's left hand and arm were painfully burned but she is thankful that she escaped asily as she did, thanks to the

"The Wolf" at the opera house next Wednesday evening.

-Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Musser, of Clearfield, were visitors in Bellefonte rone, over Sunday.

-Mrs. A. C. Heverly left Tuesday morning for Altoona where she will visit friends until Friday. —Mrs. G. Williard Hall, of this city, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. E. D. Hoffman at Williamsport.

-Edward Rine, agent for the Adam's Express Company at Tyrone, spent Sunday with his family in this -Beginning with next Sunday, the morning services in St. John's Re-formed church will be held at 11 instead of 10:30 o'clock. -Miss Elizabeth Blanchard returns

ed home Monday from Philadelphia where she attended a meeting of her class at Bryn Mawr College. -Charles Smoyer and wife, of Sharon, the former a nephew of Mrs. Dora Rine of this place, spent a few days at the latter's home this week. -Misses Roxey and Helen Mingle left Tuesday afternoon for Williamsport where they will attend the Pennsylvania State Sunday school convention in session there this week. -Chester Pringle, one of Port Matilda's energetic young business men, was in Bellefonte on Wednesday attending to some business matters.

Company at Renovo for the past year or more, has been promoted to a better position and is now located at

-J. Robert Cole and Dr. D. K. Mus-ser left Bellefonte Wednesday afternoon for Buffalo, N. Y., to look over some real estate in which they are in-terested and which is located in that

-John Burns, formerly of Snow During her stay here she will stop at the Brockerhoff House. burg during the past four years, is —Miss Nellie Cannon, of Hazleton, now employed as lineman for the a sister of Mrs. Coburn Rogers, is for the last week or ten days in Phila-delphia and Chester county. At the latter place they were guests of Mr. Walker's mother.

-Mrs. Edgar Holt, of New York city, after spending several days at the home of M. I. Gardner in this place, left Tuesday afternoon for Pittsburg where she will visit friends township, transacted business in town on Monday. The Squire is not in bits usual good health, as he still feels the effects of a severe attack of lumbefore returning home.

-Charles E. Gates, clerk Central Railroad freight station, is acting as agent for the company at is away on a vacation.

-Miss Julia Curtin celebrated her S1st birthday at her home on Spring ployed as a clerk at the Bush House street last Friday. Miss Curtin is a for some time past, left Monday for sister of the late Governor Andrew G. Pittsburg where he will become a Curtin, and the only surviving membe of his immediate family.

-Bishop Eugene A. Garvey, of Altoona, and a number of visiting priests will be present at the services in the Catholic church next Sunday at which time the sacrement of confirmation will be administered to a large class winter with Mrs. Wm. P. Wilson.

fonte, having accepted the agency for the has fully recovered from the ef-the Metropolitan Life Insurance Com- fects of his illness. pany at this place.

wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week. They expect to have the opportunity to hear Billy Sunday, the famous evangelist, during the week.

—By the will of the late Elias Heck
—B plant at which he is employed.

-Mr. and Mrs. George Beezer left Bellefonte Wednesday for New York, for the Hudson river trip to Albany. Mich., expecting to return to Belle-fonte by rail.

-J. A. Emerick, a former Centre -J. A. Emerick, a former centre countian, now a resident of Clinton county with his home in Renovo, came to Bellefonte on Tuesday, in company with his daughter, Mrs. J. K. Linn, to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. Anna Beck, whose death occurred at Anna Beck, whose death occurred at Milkesphyre, and interment in this Bellefonte she has made many warm. Wilkensburg and interment in this Bellefonte she has made many place.

-Rev. C. W. Winey, of Connells-ville, was in Bellefonte this week of-

—Charles Heisler left Bellefonte
Monday morning for Masonville, N.
J., the home of his younger days, where he will visit old friends and acquaintances. Before returning home he will visit the Mt. Holly Fair at Mt. Holly Fair at -Mrs. J. Mac Curtin and two children who have been spending some time in Bellefonte with Mrs. Curtin's mother, Mrs. George F. Harris, of east Linn street, left for their home in Pittsburg on Monday. During the past week Mr. Curtin came in from Pittsburg and joined his family here for a brief visit. Sunday he spent with his mother at Curtin station and Monday returned with his family to

-Some time between Saturday night prowler with no good intent, gained an entrance to the res-idence of Charles Chandler on South which may not be accomplished for

-W. E. Hurley transacted business in Jersey Shore on Monday.

-Mr. and Mrs. Dan Nolan, of Ty were over Sunday visitors in Bellefonte.

-Dr. Edith Schad attended the State convention of the W. C. T. U. at Johnstown last week.

-M. A. Landsy left the latter part of last week on a two-week's business trip to Altoona and Philadelphia. -John Hall, the well known Williamsport lumberman, was a Belle-fonte visitor the fore part of the week. -Mrs. Edward Harper is spending two weeks visiting with her sister, Mrs Jack O'Connell at Chitenango, New York. -Misses Anna McCoy and Kate Shugert departed Thursday of last week for Atlantic City where they will spend several weeks.

-Rev. George E. Hawes, D. D., and James H. Potter attended the sessions of the Huntingdon Presbytery at Altoona, Monday and Tuesday. -The same excellent company that played the "Servant in the House" here last season, will present "The Wolf' next Wednesday evening. -General and Mrs. James A. Beaver entertained as their guests during the past week or ten days, Mrs. Ridgeway and Mrs. Holmes, both of Philadelphia. -W. L. Malin, the energetic and -Fred Rees, who has been in the successful representative of the Mu-employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad tual Life Insurance Company, left Monday on a business trip to Philipsburg and Clearfield. -Mrs. Horton S. Ray, her sister, Miss Louise Armor and Mrs. Brod-erick, left Tuesday for Philadelphia where they will spend a week or ten days shopping. -Mrs. Harriet L. Kurtz arrived in Bellefonte last week from Philadel-phia after a year's absence from town.

-Mr. and Mrs. John S. Walker, of east Linn street, have been visiting for the last week or ten days in Bellefonte, expecting to stay with Dr. Rogers and wife until after Christmas.

burg, returned to her home in that place Saturday, after a visit of sever-al days at the home of Elmer E. Davis, of east Linn street. -Squire Vinton Beckwith, of Taylor

bago. -John Smith, the well known furniture dealer and undertaker of Sprins

Mills, Pa., and a staunch democrat, was transacting business in Bellefonte Salona this week in the absence of the regular agent, G. W. Pletcher, who Saturday, making the trip in his automobile. -Don Baldwin, who has been em-> traveling representative for a large Chicago picture firm. -Miss Isabelle E. Hill has return-

-Oliver Hazel and little son, of

-J. H. Hill, who several years ago Johnstown, spent several days of the past week in Bellefonte visiting his son, Louis Hill, and renewing old

Miss DeSalles Walsh, the young-Bellefonte Wednesday for New York, est daughter of Mrs. Julia Walsh, of from where they will take the boat east High street, left Bellefonte Mon-From there they will go to Niagara will enter the Mercy hospital for the Falls and then take a boat for Detroit, Mich., expecting to return to Bellefonte by rail. same hospital.

-Miss Katie Hurst, who has been friends who will be glad to welcome her back at any time.

-Joseph Kelly, an inventor of toilet ficiating at the Underwood-Brower wedding and greeting his numerous of Bellefonte for the last three years, with his new charge, and reports that he and his family are now comfortably expects to spend the winter and pos-acquaintances. Before returning home he will visit the Mt. Holly Fair at Mt. Holly, N. J., and also take in the game of base ball, Wednesday between the Giants and Athletics for the World Championship. He expects the World Championship. He expects well he will move his family there

-Rev. Dr. W. M. B. Glanding, the new Lutheran minister in Bellefonte, preached two excellent sermons that denomination on Sunday, his ef-forts being well received by large congregations both morning and evening. Dr. Glanding left on Monday in company with John Garthoff to attend the sessions of the Lutheran Synod being held at Lewistown this week. His household goods have been shipped to Bellefonte and stored in Alexander Berry a vacant room of the church pending as easily as she did, thanks to the prompt assistance of Mrs. Mayes.

—A rare treat is in store for Bellefonte people who wilf take advantage of the musical to be held in St. John's Catholic church Wednesday evening, October 22nd. For this occasion Prof. Baldwin, the world's greatest organist, has been secured to give one of his famous musicals. Prof. Baldwin is a renowned artist and has visited all the principal cities of Europe. It is seldom that a town of this size gets the pleasure of hearing so capable an artist as Mr. Baldwin, and we feel sure his visit to Bellefonte will be appreciated. The musical will begin at 8 p. m., and an admission of 50 cents will be charged.

Gianding and his family are held in six or eight weeks yet. That Dr. Glanding and his family are held in high esteem by their friends is attention of the parsonage. Chass. S. Mendler - Minnie R. Leister - Russel E. Hockman - Rhoda E. Dorman - Leiand P. Lumadue - Rachel M. Absolom - Glanding has been eminently guithout securing any plunder. Chandler at once made an investigation, but the would be robber had all the principal cities of Europe. It is seldom that a town of this size gets the pleasure of hearing so capable an artist as Mr. Baldwin, and we feel sure his visit to Bellefonte will be appreciated. The musical will begin at 8 p. m., and an admission of 50 cents will be charged.

A. star course is progressing nicely and everything points to a successful series of entertainments for this win-

-Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Gates returned home Monday evening from their wedding tour and are now com-fortably settled in their new home on east Lamb street. Quite a number of their friends and relatives were gathered at the house to greet them on their home coming.

-Mr. John N. Lane and family expect to close their house on east Linn street for the winter and occupy the residence on north Allegheny street formerly occupied by Mrs. Lane's father, the late J. H. Sands. They father, the late J. H. Sands. They will likely return to the Linn street house the first of April.

-Mrs. George F. Harris, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. John M. Shugert and the latter's two children, George and Mollie, left on Monday in the former's automobile for Downingtown, Pa., where they expected to visit friends. On the way Mrs. Harris was taken sick and they stopped over night in Harrisburg returning to last Bellefonte Tuesday evening.

-Joe Torsell, the popular young High street shoemaker, is nursing a very painfully injured eye, the result of a spawl of glass striking it on Wednesday morning. Joe is accustomed to using glass in scraping and shaping up the soles of shoes, and was in the act of breaking a piece with his hands when a particle struck him in the optic. The extent of the injury but it is hoped it may not be perma-

Bellefonte High Downs State High. In one of the most exciting games of foot ball witnessed for some time Hughes Field, Bellefonte School defeated State College High School last Saturday afternoon, by a 3 to 0 score. The game was closely contested at every point and the result was at many times in doubt. Bellefonte has ever accomplished—defeated State High. The local school has an exceptionally strong team and the prospects are bright for a successful season. Games are now pending with Lock Haven Normal, DuBois, Lewistown and Clearfield.

The line-up on Saturday was as follows:

Bellefonte		State	College
Deitrich, Clair			Pond
Deitrich, Clair	R.E.	Pond
Hartswick, H	R.T.	Bullock
Witmer	R.G.	Jackson
McClellan	C.	Edminston
Deitrich, Carl	L. G.	Graham
Smith	L. T.		Ishler
Saylor	L.E.	Williams
Hartswick, L.	(Capt)	0.	Shirk
Wallace	R. H.		Dale
Yeager	F. Kru	umrine	(Capt)
Cook	L. H.		Lytle

GATESBURG.

Roy Meyers, the carpenter, says he loesn't care how high he is up, if he has one foot on the ground.

Mr. Dolph Strayer, of Juniata, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Strayer. Clarence Dearmet transacted busi-

Tyrone last Saturday. Our farmers have begun husking their corn which will be a fairly good The apple crop through our valley having her hand badly burned. A few of our young people attend-

"The Wolf" Coming.

Next Wednesday evening at the pera house promises to be a notable event, the occasion being the pre-sentation in this city of "The Wolf" sentation in this city of "The Wolf" the play that set all Chicago talking more than ten weeks, during its of house, and also held New York spellbound for nearly a year at the Lyric theatre.

"The Wolf" is from the pen of Eugene Walter, author of several dramas, but it is so different from the usual run of plays that it leaves a distinct impression of its own on the mind of the spectator. The story and theme are new. There is an abundance of bright dialogue, droll humor and the pathos and sentiment of the play are not of the artificial sort. The stage settings are remarkably elaborate and many of the scenes are so well managed as to receive hearty applause. The engagement of "The plause. The engagement of "The Wolf' promises to be a record break-

Prices, 25, 35, 50 and 75 cents; a few

WOLFS STORE.

by building a new corn crib.

Mrs. Elvina Brumgart is on the sick list at present.

The stork visited the home of Wm. Bowersox and left a bouncing baby

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stranehan and daughter Sarah were visitors at Mr. October 23 & 24. All Baskets will be S. V. Stover's on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Showers, from Sugarvalley, were the guests of their son George on Sunday.

October 23 & 24. All Baskets will be sold at greatly reduced prices. This is an opportunity to purchase your Christmas Presents.

M. I. GARDNER.

Marriage Licenses. - - Howard Jno. V. Bowers - - -Philipsburg Philipsburg Alexander Berry -Cleveland, O. - Troy, Pa. Chas. S. Mendler -Lewistown - Flemington Lock Haven Blue Ball Jas. C. Witmer - - - Bellefonte Poorman - - - Yarnell

"The Wolf," one of Eugene Walters' strongest plays, at the opera house next Wednesday evening, Oct. 15th. Prices 25, 35, 50, 75 cents and

-International Opera Company op-ens Star Course this year. Five num-bers, $1.

MARRIAGES.

Armstrong-Harter. Tuesday morning, September 30th, Earl R. Armstrong, of Salona, and parsonage, Lock Haven, by the Rev. dicated that he has no time for a po-

Fay-Perry.
Frank H. Fay, Esq., and Mrs. Anna
P. Perry, both of Hollidaysburg, were married at Snow Shoe on Saturday noon, and are now on a honeymoon trin to southern cities. The bride is a daughter of the late Samuel Milliken, and the groom is a leading practitioner of the Blair County Bar.

Witmer-Poorman. The United Brethren parsonage at Runville was the scene of a quiet wedding on Monday evening of this wedding on Monday evening of this for SALE—Good top buggy $20, a bargain. In quire Centre Democrat. week, in which James C. Witmer, of Bellefonte, and Miss Ida A. Poorman, D. C. Hall. Fleming, Pa. x36tf D. C. Hall. Fleming, Pa. x36tf ties. Rev. E. B. Somers, pastor of the church at that place, performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. James Snyder attended the happy couple. Following the ceremony a supper was served at the home of the bride, and an informal reception held. The occasion was enlivened by the Runville band who carried out a well-planned serenade for the newly-weds. Both Mr. and Mrs. Witmer are well and favorably known among a large circle of friends. For some time past the bride has conducted a store at Runville in addition to serving in the capacity of postmistress of that town.

Witmer-Sanftleben.

It will be of interest to many of our readers to learn that a wedding which took the form of an elopement, was consumated in Milwaukee, last Saturday, October 4th, the principals be ing Edward Witmer, formerly of Bellefonte, and Miss Anna Sanftle-Bellefonte, and Miss Anna Sanftle-ben, of Forest Park, Ill. The groom, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward of Laurei Run. Inquire of W. H. Crebs, Madi-Witmer, of this place, left here more than two years ago to accept a position with the Acme Supply Company this victory Bellefonte High School of Chicago, and that he has made has done what no other team from good with them is best judged by the advancement he has made. The bride comes from a German family of Forest Park, a suburb of Chicago, and is esteemed as one of the leading belles of that German community. May the planet, that assures of success and happiness, guide their future destinies, is the wish of their Underwood-Brower. On Wednesday afternoon 'clock a quiet wedding was celebrated at the home of David Barlett, Sr., on Thomas street. The happy principals in this nuptial contract Chapman E. Underwood and Mida Brower, both of Unionville. The w. Winey, former pastor of the United Brethren church at this place, but now located at Connellsville, Pa., who made the trip to Bellefonte especially for this occasion. Both of the new-ly-weds are well known in Bellefonte. The groom is a graduate of the Bellefonte High school and besides being a rural mall carrier, is engaged with his father, Owen Underwood in stock raising on their farm near Unionville. The bride is a very charming young lady and is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Brower, of Unionville.

After a brief wedding tour they will make their home at Unionville. Caldwell-Osmer. On Sunday evening James Caldwell Mrs. Emma Rider is having her room remodeled by having it papered and painted, when completed it will be one of the most beautiful rooms one could imagine.

Mrs. John Barr was very unfortunate a few days ago, while removed they were they took the train for Wilson popular young people of our city, surprised their many friends by quietly slipping out of town to Wilmington, Delaware, where they were united in wedlock. They left Bellefonte in Max Gamble's tary 5th. Write for catalogue, to Dr. George P. Sibger, Principal. the evening. Everything possible is done to make you enjoy your visits of boys and girls.

—Deputy Revenue collector G. W. and painted, when completed it will be to the Scenic. Go tonight and see the great wreck at sea in the feature play, "The Wheels of Fate."

—Deputy Revenue collector G. W. and painted, when completed it will be the work of the most beautiful rooms one of the some sealing wax from the stove, by Monday morning. They lost no time in hunting up a minister who pro-nounced the words that made them -Mr. Harold Gardner, who is chemist for the Jones & Laughlin Steel
Company at Woodlawn, Pa., is enHazel is now manager of one of the
Company at Woodlawn, Pa., is enHazel is now manager of one of the

William Philadelphia, are visiting friends and ed the evangelistic services at Ross's
Mr. E. church Sunday.

Mrs. D. E. Harpster and two into have an auto meet them at Milesburg and thus slip into town without the knowledge of their friends. friends however, were not to be fooled in this manner and they caught the couple before they reached the town, compelled the bride and groom to take their car and then proceeded to the home of the bride's parents in Bush Addition where they tendered them the warmest kind of a reception. The bride is a very attractive young lady and was formerly employed as a clerk in Claster's store. She is a daughter of Chas. Osmer of Bush Addition. The groom is the son of Thomas Caldwell and is the manager of the Arcade pool room. They ex-pect to reside for the present with the oride's parents in Bush Addition. Rally Day at the M. E. Church. The Rally Day services in the Meth-odist Episcopal church on Sabbath a success in every sense of the word. The Sabbath school, the morning preaching services and the children's exercises in the evening were all well attended, and of more than ordinary interest. The sermon by the pastor in the morning was a master-piece, and was listened to with much interest by the large congregation. The exercises in the evening by the ones were enjoyed by all. The next services of more than or-dinary importance will be the Holy Hello, here we are again; threshing and corn husking is all the go now.

Wm. Stover is improving his farm

Wm. Stover is improving his farm

Those who attended the Milton fair were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Zeigler and their little daughter Anna; A. B. all are invited. Let all come and join their little daughter Anna; A. B. all are invited. Let all come and joir Wolf and son Harry, and Mr. Harry in this great Evangelistic campaign. C. C. SHUEY, Chairman, Evangelistic Committee.

BASKET SALE.

Special Sale of the Bellefonte Bas-kets, at China Hall, Bellefonte, Pa. sold at greatly reduced prices. This M. I. GARDNER.

THE LYRIC THEATRE

Programme

THURSDAY NIGHT.
"Cupid's Bad Aim," (Nestor). "The Folly of it All," (Powers). Animated Weekly No. 72. "The Return of Crime," (An Eclair feature) in two magnificent reels. Five big reels and orchestra. Don't miss the recei orchestra. Don't miss the special. FRIDAY NIGHT.

No pictures on account of a Holi-

"The Oath of Conchita," (Nestor) feature in two enormous reels. An Indian picture of great merit. "The Frontier Twins' Heroism," (Frontier), a picture teeming with laughs. "The Cap of Destiny" (Rex), a pleasing drama. Four big reels and orchestra. Don't miss these programs. Doors open at 6 p. m. Saturday. SATURDAY NIGHT.

Democrats, who are real Democrats, have little sympathy for a congressman elected on the Democratic ticket, who was disloyal to his party by Miss Grace M. Harter, of Jacksonville, opposing the new tariff. President were married at St. Luke's Reformed Wilson has indirectly, and justly, inlitical traitor.

Penny a Word Adv.

Any subscriber can insert a want advertisment in this column one issue free, if it does not exceed 25 words; charges to others, one cent a word, first issue, no advertisement less than 25 cents; two issues 40 cents; three issues 60 cents. No advertisements will be answered from this office.

FOR SALE—12 fine pigs, 6 and 7 weeks old. Harry A. Corman Zion. Pa. Box 19 FOR SALE-70 bu, hand picked winter apples J. S. Burd, Aaronsburg, Pa.

FOR SALE—Two good work horses. Price reasonable, C. E. Finkel. Spring Mills. Pa. WANTED:—Wood choppers, at 55c per cord, and pit post makers. C. W. Korman, Curtin, Pa. 33tf

FOR SALE—Full chester white boar, 7% month old, Inquire at once of S. H. Orndorf, Wood-ward, Pa. x41

WANTED—At the Haag house, a dining room girl, also one in kitchen. Apply Hotel Haag, Bellefonte, Pa. 38tf FOR SALE:—Fuil-blooded, single comb. White Leghorn breeding cockerels. Washburn Poul-try Farm. Bellefonte. Pa. 28-4 f

NO-GRO IN:—For Ingrown Nails, send 25 cts. for bottle of No-Gro-In and canvassers propo-sition to No-Gro-In Co., Bellefonte, Pa. 38tf LOST:-Certificate of Deposite No 1582, issued by the Beilefonte Trust Company, dated Dec. 7, 1907, for $200. C. J. From. Centre Hall, Pa. x41.

sonburg, Pa. FARMS:—Large and small, limestone soil, in Blair, Centre and Huntingdon counties. Send for catalogue. G. C. Waite, P. O. Box 292, Tyrope, Pa. FOR SALE: - Second-hand Hubler thresher: in first class condition; will sell cheap. Garbrick Bros., opposite Big Spring. Bellefonte, Pa. Both Phones. FOR SALE:—A good farm of 136 acres, in War-riors Mark Township, Huntingdon County, Pa. A good bargain to quick buyer. Address Albert Beck, Exr. Warriors Mark, Pa. x40

WANTED: "To purchase a six or seven-room house in Bellefonte.on terms of one-half down and balance in monthly instalments. Communi-cate by letter with "House-builder," care of Centre Democrat office. 38-t.f. FOE SALE:—Two complete outfits for drilling wells; two Champion stone crushers, complete; one concrete mixer with engine attached; 8 stone quarry drills all formerly the property of Eyer-Shoemaker Co. at Tipton. Address Sealfon

Bros., Tyrone, Pa. INSURANCE:—Insure your town and farm property in the Lykens Valley Mutual Fire Insurance Company; Established in 1854. Rates forty to fifty per cent lower then board companies. Losses promptly settled. Earle C. Tuten, Agent, Bellefonte. Pa.

STOCK:-Eggs and yearling stock-single comb brown and white Leghorn. White Wyan-dottes. Barred Rocks. Pekin Ducks, and Pearl Guineas. H. K. Mattern, Locust Hill Poultry Farm. Julian, Pa. x22-14 FOR SALE:—A Ford runabout, 1912 model, in excellent condition; has been used very little; completely equipped. First $300, takes it. Ma-chine can be seen at Peter Mendis home, East High street. 25-tf

FOR SALE:—8 room house and two good lots, located in Unionville Pa, the property of the late William Spotts (deceased). Good water, excellent cellar, barn and all necessary out buildings, House just painted and spouted. Inquire of J. C. Davidson, Glenn Ave. a 4 St. Ellwood City. Pa. x41.

miles west of Beliefonte containing 100 acres about 50 being cleared, balance in timber; good house, bank barn and other outbuildings; fruit and well on farm. Will sell cheap on easy terms, or exchange for property that will bring in monthly rent. Address A. I. Garbrick, Belle-fonte, Route 1.

CAUTION NOTICE. I give my son Elwood his, time and hereafter will not be responsible for any bills of his contraction, or collect any money due him. H. C. Robison, Milesburg. Pa.

NOTICE TO HUNTERS AND TRAP. Hunters and trappers will please take notice that the last day for receiving bounties for scalps, under the Act of 1907, is Octobey 13 th, next. Certificates must be filed in the office of the Centificates must be filed in the office of the County Commissioners, at Bellefonte, before 12 o'clock poon of said day.

(Signed)

CENTRE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

Attest: H. N. MEYER, Clerk.

ADMINISTRATORS' NOTICE. ADMINISTRATORS' NOTICE.

In the matter the of estate of Maria Katz, late of the Borough of Beliefonte, deceased.

Letters testamentary in the above named estate having been granted to the undersigned by the Register of Wills of Centre County, Pennsylvania, all persons indebted to the said estate are hereby requested to make payment and all persons having claims against said estate are requested to present the same dully authenticated without delay

W.S KATZ.

MARKET QUOTATIONS. Bellefonte Produce. 300 Bellefonte-Grain.

The following prices are paid by C T. Wagner for grain.
 Wheat, Red.
 85c

 Wheat, White.
 80c

 Rye.
 70c

 Corn.
 75c
 Barley 60c

Why Keep on Coughing?

can obtain a remedy that will give you immediate relief. Colds oft. times develop into pneumonia or wasting lung diseases. Even the slightest cold is a serious menace. The safest and quickest cure is

Krumrine's Syrup of White Pine and Tar

A dose or two is enough to convince you that what we claim for it is true. A few doses will cure a slight cold and a bottle will help you to overcome deep-seated cold troubles. Per bottle-25c.

Krumrine's Drug Stores, BELLEFONTE & STATE COLLEGE.