AARONSBURG.

J. W. Foster, accompanied by his sister Mazie, and Mrs. Jane Coburn took a trip in his automobile to Nittany valley to the latter lady's brother, Dr. Huston, to meet her niece, Mrs. Harvay, from Akron, Ohio. They went over on Monday morning and came home in the afternoon.

Newton Kurtz and wife and the former's sister Elizabeth and her husband, David L. Glover, attorney-at-law, all from Millinburg, came in their $2000 car to call on their cousins, Luther E. and Charles Stover; also his aunt, Mrs. Lavina Lenker and her daughter Stella.

Rev. John Kerlin, from White Water, Kansas, was the guest over Sunday of his aged aunt, Mrs. Maria Deshler.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Peirce, from New York City, are the very welcome guests of the lady's mother, Mrs. Caroline Maize, and her sister, Mrs. William Guisewitz, and husband.

On the 2nd of October there was an infant son born to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Weaver on 2nd street; both mother and baby are getting along nicely.

Fred Stover and wife, our newly wedded couple, moved in with Mrs. Lydia Meyer, this week.

Mrs. Harry Weaver and her three children, from Centre Hall, came down to visit her sick mother, Mrs. Herman, at the home of her brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Haffley.

David Summers, from Altoona, and Mr. and Mrs. Weiser, from Millheim, also Miss Mary Minich, from Lemont, spent over Sunday with their sister, Annie Summers.

Merchant James Lenker, from Lemont, spent a few days here with his mother and sister.

O. F. Adams, the up-to-date paper hanger and painter, transacted some important business a few days last week in Milton and Sunbury.

Mrs. Mary Friel and three children, from Renovo, is at present being entertained at the home of her uncle, A. S. Stover, on 2nd street.

George Weaver and wife are sojourning for a few days with the lady's sister, Mrs. Grenoble, at Yeagerstown, and brother in Lewistown.

Mr. and Mrs. Ebon Bower, from Bellefonte, were entertained over Sunday by his parents, Merchant E. A. Bower and wife.

Mrs. Lewis Mensch, who had been very ill the past week, is improving at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Gramley and their accomplished daughter, Miss Jennie, from Millheim, spent a few hours in our burg on Sunday.

Miss Edna Weaver, from Coburn, was seen in our town last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorenca Wilt and daughter Anna; their son William and wife and son Alfred, from Franklin, Pa., spent a week with the former lady's sister, Mrs. Sara Harper, at the home of Will Guisewitz and Mrs. C. Maize.

Earl Wert, wife and infant son Earl Baker, Jr., and his father-in-law, Mr. Baker and wife autoed from their home in Philadelphia to his mother's home here to spend a few weeks with her, where they are being royally entertained.

Mrs. Mary Stahl is at present spending a few weeks among her brothers in and around Milton.

Martha Bower, daughter of Al Bower, the butcher, while trying to crank her uncle Frank Heister's auto, had the misfortune to break her arm. Her schoolmates sympathize with her, but she is getting along very nicely.

Lloyd Brown, from Linden Hall, was the welcome guest of his sisters, Mrs. Maize and Mrs. Sara Harper, one day last week.

A. S. Stover and Thomas Hull, of State College, spent Sunday with their families here.

Frank Burd, one of our industrious boys, was very ill last week, but we are glad to say he is out again.

Miss Helen Bartholomew, from Centre Hall, came spinning in her auto on Saturday to call on Sara Guisewitz and Mrs. Carolina Maize.

Mrs. Archie King returned from Clearfield on Saturday where she was called to attend the funeral of her aged mother.

William Minich and daughter Mary, from Lemont, came down to pick his winter apples on his farm below town. Editor Hosterman and family, from Millheim, spent Sunday at the home of John Heins.

Harry E. Harter, of Beech Creek, one of Centre county's skilled lumbermen, departed on Monday for Claysburg, Bedford county, where he will operate a large lumber job. Mr. Harter has been very successful in this business in the past, and we feel sure the future will deal equally as kind with him.

NITTANY.

The Evangelical church is very much admired by the people in general, since it has been done over inside. Great praise and many thanks are due to all who helped in any way, to make this possible.

William Zerby and wife, of Penn Hall, were guests of H. P. Zerby and family on Saturday and from here they went to Howard to visit Charles Zerby and family.

Strangers at our Sunday school on Sunday were Mrs. Clayton Eddy; two daughters and son, Mrs. Emanuel Glantz, of Lamar, and Mrs. Samuel McCaleb. Come again, you are welcome.

Miss Stella Rogers and brother, who are teaching school this winter, were home over Sunday.

The infant child, of William Bear was quite sick on Sunday; we hope it will soon be well again.

Sunday was an ideal day and both Sunday school and preaching were well attended.

The Ladies Aid society will hold a social in the Franklin school house on Friday, Oct. 10th. Ice cream, cake and candy will be for sale. Everybody is cordially invited to come and help the good cause along.

Aaron, how much are scrambled eggs a dozen?
Mrs. Ben Fisher and daughter, Mrs. Elmer Stover, of Snyderstown, visited William Garbrick and family, one day the past week.

George Fisher, who is employed at Orviston, spent Sunday with his family.

The auction at W. E. Kessinger's store was well attended and while some things brought all they were worth, others went cheap. William Treasurer was the auctioneer.

Henry Young, of Bellefonte, was the guest of his brother, G. W. Young and family on Sunday.

George and Charley Gunsallus went to Beech Creek on Saturday on business and to attend lodge and visit friends Sunday, returning home on Sunday evening.

PORT MATILDA.

The lumber firm of Williams, Woodring and Spotts have commenced operations on the timber bought of W. S. Crain last spring; they have already shipped several cars of lumber. A double house is now being erected and E. M. Woodring and family and A. B. Williams and wife expect to live right at the mill this winter. It will be handy for their children to go to school as the school house is nearby.

J. S. Williams has bought an auto so he can travel to and from his lumber jobs to keep them moving. He got tired doing so much walking.

Job Williams has gone to the hospital at Philadelphia to have his eyes treated.

Some of the farmers are husking corn, which is a fairly good crop in this section.

The potatoes are not turning out as good as was expected; there will be a short crop in this section.

Rev. Board, a missionary, preached two very able sermons in the Baptist church on Sunday.
