Home Circle Column

Pleasant Evening Reveries for Every Member of the Family

What Crankiness Costs. The following from one of our most serving of a place in our Home Circle Department :

An 18-year-old girl in New York, hillside belong to your neighbor,"

"It was just a picnic. We never thought of it as anything else. I un-derstand my father says he is going to have me sent away. I don't care, I don't want to go home. The old man is so cross and cranky he gets

Without knowing in detail the fampitied, for clearly his crossness and his crankiness, robbing the daughter of the home joys which were her due, success, usefulness and elevation is to sent her to the bad.

Amidst the worries, the stress, the to preserve a sweetened temper at intellectual improvement if the children are to have a fair drink to her loveliness and take or the social circle in which they move leave the lesson as we please. A man must have something of the child in it, whatever his perplexity nature ing.

shall solve it. Men have set their mark upon the woods and hills. They valuable exchanges certainly contains have divided the land and have said more truth than poetry and is de- to the world, "This farm is mine." "Yonder woodland is yours," "the bab bling brook and the beach-covered back from an adventuresome joy-ride the forest child of nature which with a lad of 18 in a stolen auto, to chances that way without a penny in a woman reporter who visited her in his pocket may have all the beauty the lock-up:

and peace of this lovely landscape for

In this day of cheap literature the m my nerves."

This girl was once a pretty, smilling reach of every family. The current promising baby, father's pet and magazine and the best of agricultural mother's joy; a baby not foredoomed papers may be had at a trifling cost mother's joy; a baby not foredome-to be unloving and wayward. Some-thing between the ages of 2 to 16 hap-thing between the ages of char-thing between the ages of charinvite the children to spend their evenings by the fireside. Unless these ily history, couldn't you pretty safely things are furnished at home it is hazard a guess on the basis of that only natural that the young people one assertion: "The old man is so should seek them elsewhere, and after cross and cranky?" The proper influence in a home is gayety the boys and girls often re-LOVE—patient, tender, long-suffering love. It is a child's right. The child who is defined it is defrauded. Just formed his first resolve to quit the as it takes the warm sunshine to farm when crawling into a cold bed bring out the beauty of the flower, so in a cold and clammy bedroom after the soul of a child, and especially the he has spent an evening at a party or soul of the woman-child, must have some scene of festivity in the city or the warmth of affection, continuous village. Give the children plenty of and never-failing, to develop the home comforts and make the farm graces which make it clean and sweet. fireside the brightest and most inter-We know not what cares, what sorrows, what aggravations, made this "old man cross and cranky." It may be we'd forgive him if we knew him.
In any event, he's profoundly to be witted for clearly his crossess.

success, usefulness and elevation is to the partnership heretofore existing be attributed to the companion of his between his brother, Harry C. Kunes choice. It is not possible for all wodisappointment of life it is often hard men to be learned or to keep pace in home. But it is what the parent must husbands, but they can study to gain do, or at least try to the limit to do, discretion and proper control of the discretion and proper control of the tongue. If they temper their speech with charity, if they cultivate loving thoughts and express them in words Nature in her silent, beautiful way, of kindness and sympathy, they are teaches many lessons. She does not sure to promote a spirit of harmony force a moral upon us. We may and good feeling in the home and in

Let us teach our children to be lovhis heart to feel the splendor of the ers of the meadows and woods, the horizon, the magnificence if the stars, the mystery of the woods, the joyous dignity of fertile sunlit meadows; and that nature will be to them as Wordshaving the child's heart to feel, he worth the anchor of purest thought, will have the child's faith to see, and the nurse, the guide, the guardian, of whatever his sorrow, nature shall heal the heart, the soul, of the moral be-

FACT, FUN AND FANCY. Bright, Sparkling Paragraphs-Selected and Original.

QUEER THINGS IN NEWS.

tains. One of its discoveries was $33

in bills and another 396 dimes. Hoboes put in a plea for god roads as necessary in their business at the American Road Congress in Detroit

Mrs. Joseph Leiter for an around-theand four canary birds.

There are many farms in Kentucky of worth one-third as much today as the walnut trees made into rails forty years ago to fence them.

While a Chicago cripple slept, thieves stole $100 hidden in his wood-

A drummer was arrested in Atlanta while teaching park monkeys to smoke is prisoner in Fort Smith dug

A girl in Georgia made a fine income all summer catching tomato works,' worms for fishermen at a cent a piece. ly. But D. Sankey at Eastport, L. I., is to be converted into a duck pond.

Death Came in Many Guises. Of the hundreds of death certificates handled annually by the Wisconsin State Board of Health in making its State Board of Health in making its classification of diseases, many, as filled out by local physicians and mailed to the board, contain unusual comment as to the cause of death. Some of these, found in the reports of L. W. Hutcheroff, chief statician follows.

Hutchcroft, chief statician, follow:
A mother "died in infancy."
"Went to bed feeling well, but woke

"Died suddenly at the age of 103.

To this time he bid fair to reach a ripe old age."
"Do not know cause of death, but patient fully recovered from last ill-

"Deceased had never been fatally sick."
"Died suddenly, nothing serious."

"Pulmonary hemorrhage caused sud-den death." (Duration four years).
"Kick by horse shod on left kidney."
"Deceased died from blood poison, caused by a broken ankle, which is remarkable, as the automobile struck him between the lamp and the ra-professor," said the musically ambitious youth, "that I can ever do anything with my voice?" "Well," was the cautious reply, "it may come in handy to holler with in case of fire."

the looking. You can make home happy by bits of kindnesses and little courtesies.

an evening spent out amid life and

A beer famine is predicted.

A Denver woman has a pet chipmunk which frequently guides her to hidden treasure in the Rockey Mountains. One of its discoveries was $33

Curious Animal.—Johnny, who had been to the circus, was telling his teacher about the wonderful things he wards had been connected with the hip—hip—" "Hippopotamus. dear." prompted the teacher. "I can't versity.

A full pint of cough syrup—as much wise, for his new field of labor on as you could buy for $2.50—can easily the wards had been connected with the Westinghouse Company at Pittsburg more quickly, usually conquering it inside of 24 hours. Excellent, too, for the previous to going to Wisconsin Unispansion of the cough syrup—as much wise, for his new field of labor on as you could buy for $2.50—can easily the wards had been connected with the worderful things he wards had been connected with the hip—hip—" "Hippopotamus. dear." prompted the teacher. "I can't versity. just say its name," exclaimed Johnny, "but it looks like 9,000 pounds of Booking So-and-So .- Herber J. Mey-On the yatche chartered by Mr. and er, the booking agent, received a telegram from a Louisville theatrical world trip, are two cows, one Shetland pony, three Angora cats, two Boston bull dogs, five white rabbits Book him if O. K." "So-and-So not in New York. Understand his act stupid and mediocre." Presently this them week Sept. 9!" Known by His Works.-"Stump speaking is the hardest work in the world," said Senator Beveridge. "It is especially hard," he continued, ter smiling, "when there are hecklers in 1st. the audience. "A friend of mine the through a two-foot wall with a spoon other day was getting on famously in a stump speech. "'Gentlemen,' he shouted, 'a man is known by works.' "And he paused impressively. But a heckler took advantage of ly. But a heckler toyell: "Then yours

> Problem in Economies.-A farmer came into a store to sell a load of potatoes, the merchant offering 75 cents a bushel for them. A drummer who was standing by went out and er in hades I reckon I could get ten cents a drop for it, too." The drum-mer beat a hasty retreat.

> Attorneys Identified .- While Judge William A. Roane, of Atlanta, was on the bench, the trial of a case had just begun when the opposing attorneys became involved in a heated argu-ment. One called the other a blankety blank liar, and the other replied that he was a contemptible ass. The courtroom was in an uproar over this breach of court etiquette, and all ex-pected summary action by the court. But the judge calmly said to the at-torneys, "Now that you have identi-fied each other, we will proceed with the case."

Great Scheme.-It was raining very heavily in Berlin, so a wealthy mer-Putting Dollie to Bed.—Mother—
What ever are you doing to poor dolly, child? Child—I'm just going to put her to bed, mummy. I've taken off her hair, but I can't get her teeth out.

Use For His Voice.—"Do you think, professor," said the musically ambitious youth, "that I can ever do anythous youth, "that I can ever do anythink you have a sovereign on the floor of the cab." Instantly the cabman whipped up his horse and soon disappeared chant, on leaving the exchange, hall-ed a cab and asked to be driven to a distant part of the city. On the way up his horse and soon disappeared around the next corner.

The Reason Why.—The information editor received this letter from a fresh youth: "Kindly teil me why a girl always closes her eyes when a fellow kisses her." The editor replied: "If you will send us your photograph we may be able to tell you the reason."

The Hens Were Jealous.—"My dear," said the professor's wife, "the hens have scratched up all that eggplant seed you sowed." "Ah! jealous!" mused the professor. And he sat down and wrote a 20-page article on the "Development of Envy in the Minds of the Lower Bipeds."

Hens Were Jealous.—"My dear," said the professor's wife, "the hens have scratched up all that eggplant seed you sowed." "Ah! jealous!" mused the professor. And he sat down and wrote a 20-page article on the "Development of Envy in the Minds of the Lower Bipeds."

Heresident Taft's Two Seats.—When President Taft was Secretary of War he set out one afternoon for a base-ball game with two tickets in his pocket. He was in the habit of buying two seats so that he would have plenty of room. When he got to the grandstand he handed out the two tickets. The usher took in at a glance what they were for and led the way to the seats. When he reached them he paused. "What's the trouble, young man?" said Mr. Taft. "Sorry, Mr. Secretary," said the usher, "but if you sit in these two seats you're going to have some difficulty. They're on opposite sides of the alsle."

Mrs. Sadie Bushman is now an operator in the Commercial Telephone exchange at Centre Hall.

Jacob From, of Centre Hall, was arrested Tuesday of last week on the charge of chicken stealing, the prosecutor being Harry McClenahan, of twp.; $1400.

On Wednesday of last week Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Packer, of Yarnell, accompanied by their niece, Miss Bessie Shank, left for Johnstown where they will visit friends.

OVER THE COUNTY.

Frank Holmes, son of contractor Hammill Holmes, of State College, left Monday for Albright College, Meyerstown. Frank is a star foot A. Hammill Holmes, son of contractor Packet Packet ball player.

Penn State and Harvard will play game of foot ball on the gridiron, at er, premises in Boalsburg; $500. ambridge, Saturday, October The game takes the place of the one scheduled with Villanova.

During the past few weeks the urnpike company has been erecting langer signs at the sharp curves. The were furnished by the Bellefonte Automobile association.

Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution were entertained by Mrs. E. E. Sparks at her home at State College, one day recently. A covey of quail passed over the outhern section of Penns Valley.

had been operating a lumber job near lips. He was pardoned last spring by Beech Creek, last week left with his President Taft, family for Claysburg, Bedford county where he has put up a new saw mill and will start cutting. Robert M. Gocher, who graduated from Penn State, school of engineering, class of 1912, and who is employd by the Westinghouse Company at the Wilkinsburg plant, was the guest of State College friends recently.

T. M. Kunes, of Blanchard, is now onducting his mercantile business at that place under his own name, and himself having been dissolved.

Edward Hancock, of Philipsburg, who was over at Runville the past week buying up butter, eggs, etc., has introduced a novel way of handling hen fruit. Instead of using a crate humor, markets, cartoons; in fact, even or basket, he transports his eggs in eything that is to be found in a first good-sized burlap bags.

An American canceling machine has iness is increasing so rapidly that paper and The Centre Democrat, to-postmaster Foster made a requisition gether for one year for $1.65. o the department for the canceler.

urday evening, October 25, 1913, at 7:45. The members of the class will appreciate a full house. Everybody is Peter Hockman, of Hublersburg. hile picking apples, one day recentfell from a tree and was seriously jured. It is feared his spine is inared to such an extent that he canot recover. He fell a distance of be ween fifteen and twenty feet, and the fall was due to a limb breaking.

Oliver C. Edwards, who graduated from Penn State, class of 1900, has Curious Animal.—Johnny, who had accepted a lucrative offer made by the Minnesota University and left Wasau, Joseph Lowery has sold his farm on the top of Muncy mountain to Wm. April.will move into his own home in Coleville. Mr. Lowery and his better half have lived on this farm for the past forty-seven years and realizing that old age is approaching decided to take things a little easier the balance of their days.

The Col. John P. Taylor farm at telegram came from the Louisville Old Fort, was sold recently to Samuel manager: "Cut out So-and-So. If Hoy, of near Bellefonte for $13,000. Stupid and Mediocre act good book The farm contains 142 acres, 12 of which are timbered, the tract being known as the "Fort Woods." Hoy is the father of Thomas F. Delaney, who lives on the Baird farm, southwest of Old Fort and the latter will become the tenant on April

> Among the contemplated improve-ments at State College this year is the enlargement of the plant of the Hillside Ice Company. A large site on the Holmes and Foster farm has been purchased, abuting the Bellefonte Central tracks and the company will nstall a 10-ton frick ice machine, to

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

Mrs. Tammie Miller to Mrs. Annie Noll, tract of land in Harris twp.;

tract of land in Union twp.; $890. H. C. Robison et ux to William Wright et al, tract of land in Union

Charles W. Fisher to Elias Weaver, tract of land in Gregg twp.; $856. Robert U. Bitner et ux to Elias Weaver, tract of land in Gregg twp.;

William G. Runkle to Hannah F. Packer, tract of land in Curtin twp.; Dr. C. P. W. Fisher's heirs to Emma

Fisher, premises in Boalsburg; Emma A. Fisher to George N. Fish-

Pardoned Banker Married. William Montgomery, formerly cashier of the wrecked Allegheny, National bank, Pittsburgh, and a doned Fort Leavenworth penitentiary convict, was married secretly Satur day to Mrs. Frank H. Lea, a young

The members of the Bellefonte wildow of the fashionable Squirrel Montgomery's connection with the Allegheny National bank smash excited wide interest. Many prominent politicians, including a former United States senator, were in the rumors circulated. Montgomery was credited and selected a point on Main street, with holding the key to the mystery of Milheim, for a brief rest.—It was Just how the bank was looted. He Sunday afternoon that the visit was maintained stolid silence throughout Harry H. Harter, who for four years al penitentiary without unsealing his

THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD.

This is a time of great events, and you will want the news accurately and promptly. All the countries of the world steadily draw closer together, and the telegraph wires bring the happenings of every one. No other newspaper has a service equal to that of The World and it relates everything fully and promptly.

The World long since established a record for impartiality, and anybody can afford its Thrice-a-Week edition. which comes every other day in the week, except Sunday. It will be of particular value to you now. The class daily.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD'S seen installed in the post office at regular subscription price is only state College. The machine will $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 cancel 250 letters per minute. Bus- papers. We offer this unequalled news-

The Madisonburg Teachers' Train-ing class will hold graduating exer-cises in the Reformed church on Sat-present plant to the new location and will have a capacity of 14 tons of ice

> How to Make Better Cough Syrup than You Can Buy A Family Supply, Saving $2

A full pint of cough syrup-as much and Fully Guaranteed.

spasmodic croup, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and bronchitis.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with ½ pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2½ ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, then add the Sugar Syrup. It keeps perfectly. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

This is just laxative enough to help relieve a cough. Also stimulates the appetite, which is usually upset by a The taste is pleasant.

The effect of pine and sugar syrup on the inflamed membranes is well known. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, in guaiacol and other natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this combination.

This Pinex and Sugar Syrup remedy has often been imitated, but the old successful mixture has never been equaled. It is now used in more homes than any other cough remedy. A guaranty of absolute satisfaction. or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Dimex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Don't Look Your Time

WOMAN'S delicate system requires more than ordinary care and at-Old Before tention-more care and attention it is given by the average woman. tention-more care and attention than Neglect it and ills soon creep in, and the look of old age, sometimes quickly, sometimes gradually follows. SI A

That backache, so common among women, brings with it the sunken chest, the headache, tired muscles, crow's-feet, and soon the youthful body is no more youthful in appearance—and all because of lack of attention.

There is no reason why you should be so unfortunate, when you have at your disposal a remedy such as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—recommended for over 40 years as a remedy for ailments peculiar to women. We have thousands upon thousands of testimonials on file—the accumulation of 40 years—testifying to its effectiveness. Neither narcotics nor alcohol are to be found in this famous prescription. Regulates irregularities. Corrects displacements. Overcomes painful periods. Tones up nerves. Brings about perfect health. Sold by dealers in medicines, in liquid or tablet form.

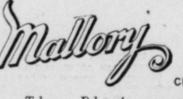

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser, nearly re-

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser, newly re-vised up-to-date edition, answers hosts of delicate questions about which every woman, single or married ought to know.

Prescription

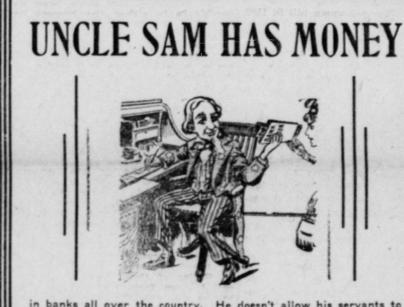

FOR TWO WEEKS before X-mas. last year, we had to turn away would-be-customers for portraits because they waited too long---we were crowded with work, could not promise

You are puzzling over the gift question. Settle it by having your photographs made now for X-mas use, --now before the rush is on. New Styles are here and we shall be pleased to talk it over with you.

CRIDER'S EXCHANGE, BELLEFONTE, PA.

The Photographer in Your Town.

in banks all over the country. He doesn't allow his servants to keep money in safes or cash boxes. You can depend on his knowing his business. Suppose you take the hint and deposit your money in the Bellefonte Trust Co. Open an account now so your money will be safe from Fourth of July fire possibilities.

The Bellefonte Trust Company

The Centre Democrat $1.00 a year

From Early Morn till Late at Night

In the cold fall and blustering winter the Perfection Heater keeps your home warm and comfortable.

Early in the morning it chases the chill in the bed-room and from the breakfast-room. At night it warms the spare-room for the unforeseen guest-gives warmth where the ordinary heat does not go.

The Perfection Heater is the safest, most efficient and most economical heater you will find.

Light, easy to handle, clean, durable and at the same time ornamental. See it at any dealer's, or write for descriptive circular.

The Atlantic Refining Company Philadelphia

