In · and · About · Bellefonte

—A. S. Garman, of Tyrone, was a Bellefonte visitors on Wednesday. -Millard Hartswick was recently added to the sales force in Joseph & Co's store. Harris Hoy, of Clarence, at tended the funeral on Tuesday of the late Mrs. Alice Laurie, in Bellefonte. -Reverend and Mrs. Fred W. Barof Centre Hall, circulated among their many friends in Bellefonte, Wed-

-Miss Emily Valentine, of Phila-delphia, is a guest at the home of her aunt, Miss Emily Natt, on west Curtin street.

the week in Bustleton, Pa., a suburb of Philadelphia where he visited his brother, Eugene Beck.

James Kreps left for Tyrone on Wednesday afternoon to attend the re-union of the 110th Pennsylvania Infantry which takes place there to-

-Asbury Lee and H. F. Bigler, two of Clearfield's most prominent busi-ness men, were Bellefonte visitors Wednesday while enroute to State

-Harvey Schaffer, the genial proprietor of the Schaffer hardware store, has been battling with a severe cold the past week, a portion of the time being confined to his home.

daughter, Miss Carrie Kelley, Wednesday for Williamsport where Mr. Kelly will have his eyes treated by one of the well known eye specialists of that city.

-The children of the late Samuel Tibbens are erecting a monument ov-er the resting place of their parents in the cemetery at Pleasant Gap. work is being done by Mayes the marble dealer at Lemont.

-Mr. and Mrs. Frank McFarlane, of Boalsburg, are guests this week of Henrietta Nolan over Sunday. McFarlane's sister, Mrs. Jennie R. Hastings at her residence in this place. Mrs. Hastings is also entertaining Mrs. W. O. Hickok, of Harris-

-Emil Roth moved last week from the old Markle property near Roops-burg to Halfmoon Hill, a more convenient location for Mr. Roth whose time is principally taken up in canvassing throughout Bellefonte and vi-

-Mrs. J. Malcolm Heinle left for Altoona Tuesday where she will meet her husband who is employed in the electrical department of the Pennsylvania Railroad shops. It is their inthere permanently.

-Mrs. W. Homer Crissman has been quite ill for the past week at her home on north Thomas street. Her condition has been such as to give her family considerable alarm, but on Wed-nesday afternoon she was somewhat improved and she was resting much denomination which closed its ses- day with his family in Bellefonte. He lic sale on March 18th. sions at Uniontown on Monday. Rev. is considering moving to Indiana in Robinson is a scholarly gentleman and the spring.

-Not satisfied with raising the awning higher in front of his place of business in order to afford more light, Tyson.

the same day. We are glad to say that the operation passed off successfully and that she is getting along nicely with every prospect for recov-

-Mr. and Mrs. John Curtin are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a sweet little baby girl which the jolly old stork left at their home turning home. Wednesday morning. They have decided to keep the lixle stranger and have named her Caroline, in honor of her grandmother, Mrs. Caroline S.

-Chas. R. Kurtz, of Philadelphia, transacted business in Bellefonte over the week-end, returning to his paint, home on Tuesday morning. He was accompanied as far as Coburn by his mother, Mrs. Frederick Kurtz, who spent a few days with relatives in Aaronsburg, Millheim and Centre Hall, coming to Bellefonte on Monday and remaining over night as the guest of Mrs. John Olewine.

-Edward Garbrick, of Coleville, employed at the Potter-Hoy Hardware fell down a flight of stairs of sustained a painful injury of the torn, causing him to refrain from using the limb and resort to the use of crutches.

-The confectionery shop and shoeshining parlor in the western end of son of letter carrier Ed. Woods and the Arcade building, has changed Robert Woodring, Jr., son of letter ownership, owing to the fact that James Patchez, the former proprietor, who left about a month ago for Greece, his native land, has decided to remain and enjoy the fruits of a regular carriers themselves. snug little fortune made in America. The establishment will hereafter be countryman of the former proprietor,

19th, is the time of the autumnal communion in the Methodist Episcopal may church of Bellefonte. All members of life. communion will be administered at both preaching hours. The week immediately following will be given to cottage meeting in preparation for the 26th inst, under the leadership of "Bob" Jones and his helpers. Great results for our community are anti-cipated. Interest is growing. Get

Dr. Minor Baldwin's coming orrecital in the Catholic church Wednesday evening, Oct. 22nd, without doubt be one of the first -Dr. Minor Baldwin's coming or-

-Mrs. Jerome Harper is visiting her sister, Mrs. Seixas in Philadelphia. -John D. Meyer, of Altoona, spent Sunday with his parents at Centre Hall.

-The banks and post office observed Monday as a legal holiday in honor of Columbus Day.

-Frank Eckenroth, of Sunbury, arrived in town Monday for a visit to Bellefonte friends.

Eckley at Altoona, Pa. -Mrs. John Porter Lyon visited her friend, Mrs. Frank McFarlane at -R. A. Beck spent the forepart of Holidaysburg during the past week.

—Mrs. Blanche Schloss, of East View, N. J., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Martin Fauble, of east High street. -J. Malcolm Heinle, who is employed at the electrical business in Altoona, spent Sunday with his family in this place. -Almost two thousand hunters' licenses have been issued by County Treasurer John D. Miller, so far in Centre county. -Harry F. McManaway, one of Millheim's rising young business men, was attending to business in Belle-fonte on Monday. -Mr. and Mrs. G. Oscar Gray returned home last week from a visit

-Mr. and Mrs. William Kelly and to friends in Hazleton, Bloomsburg and Pitcairn. left and Williamsport. -Mrs. A. G. Morris and daughter, Miss Eliza Morris, have returned home from Atlantic City and opened their home on east Linn street. -Frank Derstine, of Altoona, spent Sunday in Bellefonte with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Derstine, of north Penn street. two children, of Johnstown, were guests of Mrs. Otto's mother, Mrs.

-Miss Ruth Lieregood, of Jersey day of this week for Columbia, Pa., popular landlord. where she will visit Mrs. Amos Mulen and take in the Old Home week exercises at that place.

-Fred Rees, of Kane, Pa., arrived tention to rent a house and locate of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Rees, of Reynolds Avenue.

istered at the Bush house. -Abram V. Miller, of Pleasant

Gap, was in Bellefonte Monday between trains while on his way to East Liberty, Pa., to attend the wedding of a daughter of his old friend, Capt. Tyson.

Tyson.

P. F. Keichline, the enterprising west High street green grocer, tas installed handsome new plat glass windows and is also enlarging his ware room in the rear of the store.

—Rev. E. D. Robinson, pastor of the store.

—Rev. E. D. Robinson, pa

will receive more light.

—Mrs. William P. Wilson left Bellefonte on Thursday for Chester, where she will visit with Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Hiller. She was accompanied by J. Wallace Gephart who will transact business in Philadelphia before returning home.

duction is carried intact.

—Mrs. Mary Gray, of Wilkesbarre, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Laurie and son Robert, of Tyrone, Mr. and Mrs. J. Malcolm Laurie, of Winburne; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Eldredge, of Cape May, N. J., were in Bellefonte on Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs.

of Woodbury, N. J., arrived in Belle-fonte by automobile recently and —Manager G wood, of Unionville.

year or more in Philadelphia where he underwent treatment for his hear- It No. 2 warehouse several days ago and ing, has returned to the home of his mother, Mrs. Alice Showers, in this place, and is now employed at the right leg. A physician's examination place, and is now employed at the revealed the fact that the ligaments Match factory. He reports a decided improvement in his hearing, which is gratifying news to his friends.

-During the absence of several members of the post office force last week due to sickness, John Woods, son of letter carrier Ed. Woods and carrier R. H. Woodring, were pressed into the service to carry the parcel post. The boys acquitted themselves post. The boys acquitted themselves well and perhaps some day may be

-William B. Rankin, the known insurance agent, who has been in ill health for some time past, left Wednesday of last week for the home The approaching Sunday, Octath, is the time of the autumnal compaired in the Methodist Episcopal nurch of Bellefonte. All members of the church are urged to be present.

ely following will be given a meeting in preparation for relistic campaign to open on inst, under the leadership of nes and his helpers. Great is rour community are antiliner share it.

Interest is growing. Get time the leadership of the celebration of the celebration of the Lord's Supper on Sabbath. It is expected that every member, and adherent of the congregation will attend all these services. It is confidently desired that the attendance at the communion will exceed in every way the same communion of last year.

Star Course opening by the later of the celebration of the celebration of the celebration of the celebration of the congregation will attend all these services. It is confidently desired that the attendance at the communion will exceed in every way the same communion of last year.

Star Course opening by the later of the congregation of the celebration of the celebration of the congregation will attend all these services. It is confidently desired that the attendance at the communion will exceed in every way the same communion of last year.

Star Course opening by the later of the congregation will attend all these services. It is confidently desired that the attendance at the communion will exceed in every way the same communion of last year.

Star Course opening by the later of the congregation will attend all these services. It is confidently desired that the attendance at the communion will exceed in every way the same communion will charge of his son John Rankin.

-Don't forget to attend the Good Roads meeting in the Court House this evening.

-Miss Virginia Robb departed on Saturday for a week's visit with friends in Shamokin. -Miss Anna Cherry returned home Monday from an extended visit with friends and relatives in Philadelphia. -Mrs. Hazel, of Greensburg, was in Bellefonte Tuesday enroute to Pleasant Gap to visit her father, Mr. -Miss Sarah Miller, of this place, Pleasant Gap to visit her father is visiting her friend, Mrs. George Robert Sloteman, of that place.

-Mrs. C. M. Heisler has returned to her home in this place after spend-ing Sunday in Lock Haven with her brothers, H. M., and A. W. Bartley.

-E. E. Heckman has erected oncrete silo sixteen feet wide and fifty feet high, one mile east of Mackville on the farm owned by S. H Shoemaker. -James Fleming, who has been working in Williamsport in a large radiator works, returned home last week suffering with an attack of rheumatism. —Emanuel Noll made a flying trip to the western part of the state the latter part of last week, visiting friends in Wilkinsburg, Greensburg

-William Wallis, of Pittsburg, was a guest the latter part of last week of Miss Nelle Conley at the home of her parents, Mr. and MMrs. J. Will Conley of east Logan street.

-Miss Althia Edwards, of Philadelphia, was a guest during the past week of Miss Lyda Miller at her home in the Lyons building. Miss Miller -Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Otto and and Miss Edwards were school friends at Westtown. -Mrs. Orville Sherwood, of Hazleton, Pa., arrived in Bellefonte Tues--Mrs. John Sebring, Jr., returned day afternoon and is a very welcome home recently from a visit with her sisters, Mrs. Mann and Mrs. Dexter, at Pottsville, her former home.

day afternoon and is a very welcome guest of her brother, Dr. E. H. Yocum, at the Methodist parsonage on east Linn street. -C. M. Hanna, of this place, at-

Shore, has returned to her home after tended the funeral of A. L. Russell at a pleasant visit with Mr. and Mrs. Lock Haven Monday. Mr. Russell George M. Gamble, of east Linn street. was the proprietor of the Russell -Miss Helen Scheffer left Wednes- House at Lock Haven and a very

-Mr. Will Smith, who has been spending some time in Wilmington, Delaware, is here for an indefinite stay with his mother, Mrs. Fred Smith in Bellefonte Saturday and remained and sisters, Misses Bessie and Daisy, until Monday afternoon at the home of east Bishop street. -Jack Lyon, who has been located in Cincinnati, Ohio, for some time

-Former County Treasurer Frank past, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Former County Treasurer Frank past, is visiting his parents, Mr. and K. White, of Philipsburg, accompanied by Mrs. White and child, were His health has been poor of late and Bellefonte visitors Monday and reg- on that account his stay here will be face. Fortunately his injuries will -The Ladies' Aid Society of the

-Charles T. Noll, manager of the intention to sell all his farm stock the past year, has been returned to Huntingdon & Clearfield Telephone and implements in the spring, and if Bellefonte by the conference of that Company at Indiana, Pa., spent Sunnothing intervenes he will hold pub-

Robinson is a scholarly gentleman and popular among his congregation.

—Mrs. D. I. Willard, of north Thomas street, was taken to the Bellefonte hospital last Friday and operated on a new one, which will be built a literage of the popular among his congregation.

—P. F. Keichline is having the old awning in front of his store on West house next Thursday, evening, Oct. 23rd. Miss Natalle Warfield has been a new one, which will be built a literage of the popular among his congregation.

—P. F. Keichline is having the old awning in front of his store on West house next Thursday, evening, Oct. 23rd. Miss Natalle Warfield has been a new one, which will be built a literage of the popular among his congregation.

—P. F. Keichline is having the old awning in front of his store on West house next Thursday, evening, Oct. 23rd. Miss Natalle Warfield has been a new one, which will be built a literage of the popular among his congregation. tle higher, so that the store room maston and the entire Shubert production is carried intact.

> -The Penna. Railroad Company are Alice A. Laurie, widow of Dr. Laurie. re-painting their buildings hereabouts, —Dr. Glanding, Bellefonte's new al nights there recently. All members including the passenger station, bag- Lutheran minister, from all appear of the company are colored which gage room, freight station and tow- ance has captured the hearts of his ers. All persons having business about the station should keep their weather eye out for the sign fresh paint.
>
> ance has captured the hearts of his company will be at Garman's opera house two nights, tomorrow and indication whatever. Dr. Glanding is a man of scholarly attainments, and the union cemeters.
>
> This company will be at Garman's opera house two nights, tomorrow and indication whatever. Dr. Glanding is a man of scholarly attainments, and the union cemeters.
>
> Hall. Interment in the Union cemeters.
>
> HENRY:—Mrs. Nancy Mitchell Saturday, with matinee Saturday afternoon. Popular prices—10, 20 and ternoon. -Mr. and Mrs. Warner Underwood, Bellefonte will be the gainer by his 30 cents.

> -Manager Garman of the opera spent a week visiting friends here and at Unionville. Mr. Underwood is a traction in "A Butterfly on the Wheel" brother of Isaac Underwood, of this next Thursday evening, Oct. 23rd. t Unionville. Mr. Underwood is a traction in "A Butterfly on the Wheel" next Thursday evening. Oct. 23rd. lace and Owen and Jason Underwood, of Unionville.
>
> —Fred Showers, who had spent a fear or more in Philadelphia where the underwent traction is said to be superior to it.
>
> Butterfly on the Wheel has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. While away Mr. Marks have been the guest of his sister, Mrs. Penina A. Symington, had the pleasure of attending the wedding of his nephew, Harry Skotnik, and Miss Mary Moskowitz, at Rutherford, New Jersey, an account City she became ill and passed away in traction in "A Butterfly on the Wheel" has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. Who had been making her how with har sister, Mrs. Penina A. Symington, had the pleasure of attending the weekly ago to visit her sons and daughters and while in the Smokey traction is said to be superior to it. place and Owen and Jason Under- Everyone remembers how thoroughly is a powerful and gripping dramatic sensation.

-Not to be outdone by their mer chant neighbors in enjoying modern sidewalks, the firm of Joseph & Co. this week had a substantial concrete payement laid in front of their store on south Allegheny street. pletes a line of well-built and pleasing paving area on that section of the treet from the Brockerhoff corner to Aikens' corner.

-List of unclaimed letters at the Bellefonte post office for the week ending October 14, 1913: H. F. Adams, Hayward O. Bair, Frank P. Eyer, Mrs. A. E. Garbrick, Miss Emma Green, Miss Ruth M. Herman, Miss Eliza Johnson, Herman Kahn, John C. Kuhn, Ray R. Reed (2), Fred Rosso, Jim Sanderson, Mrs. Nora Taylor.

—H. C. Valentine, posmaster.

-At the Presbyterian church, services are being held Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, in anticipation of the celebration of the national Opera Company, Thursday night, Oct. 30, in the Opera House mest Wednesday evening, Oct. 22nd, will without doubt be one of the finest musical treats ever accorded a Beliefonte audience. The London Musical Courier says of Dr. Baldwin: "His playing was of such musicially skill that he was encored again and again." The Rt. Rev. Bishop J. J. Collins, in writing from Kingston, Jamaica, says: "He demonstrated his absolute mastery of the organ and of his exceptional power and ability of which we now have ample proof."

Don't fail to hear Dr. Baldwin in the Catholic church next Wednesday evening. Admission 50 cents.

From, at State College, and other friends in this vicinity.

—Mrs. William H. Brouse is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Landis of east Curtin street. She expects to remain here until her husband gets settled in his new location at Paw Paw, W. Va. Mr. Brouse has been located at Bippus, Ind. He has resigned his position there and accepted one with Sheesley & Janney, large railroad contractors of Paw Paw, with the Opera House This Company is indorsed by all the Chautauquas and is highly recommended by the Bureau Company as the very best. It will be a great treat for a city of this size to listen to a soloist that has sang with Mme. SChuman Heik for two years. Their engagements are always in large cities but they happened to have an open has been located at Bippus, Ind. He has resigned his position there and accepted one with Sheesley & Janney, large railroad contractors of Paw Paw, W. Va. to which place he went last week. He will get a nice increase in his salary and the contract they now have will last for two years at least.

-John Loughry, of Philadelphia, spent last week with friends in Bellefonte and Unionville.

-Harry Cohen, of the Claster store, the Lundy-Witten wedding in Lock Haven last Saturday. -Thomas Beaver laid aside cares of his big farm near town on Tuesday and transacted business in

-Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Rees left last Friday for Patton, Pa., where they were the guests of their son, William Rees and family until Monday even-

-Go to the opera house tomorrow and Saturday night and hear Happy Williams' minstrels. Matinee Saturday at 2:30. Prices 10, 20 and

-Miss Blanche Henry and Mrs. Thomas, both of Ebensburg, Pa., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Shoemaker, of North Allegheny street.

-Mrs. G. Williard Hall left last Johnstown, were guests during the past week of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Smith, of Bishop street.

-Mrs. Thomas Swartz, of Tusseytille, returned to her home Tuesday afternoon after spending a week in Bellefonte at the home of her mother, Mrs. Alice Robb, of east Bishop street. -Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Steele left last Monday for Williamsifort where Mrs. Steele will have her eyes treated by Dr. Haskins. She expects to remain about ten days. Mr. Steele returned home on Tuesday afternoon. -Miss Helen Robb has been confinfor the past week, suffering from a severe attack of jaundice. We are man for the Bellefonte Central rall-

-Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Leepard and two children departed Tuesday afternoon for Bloomsburg where they will make their future home, Mr. Leepard having accepted a good position in a large tailoring establishment in that city. They shipped their household goods Tuesday morning.

-Mrs. A. M. Clees, of Philipsburg, was in Bellefonte Tuesday to attend an executive meeting of the County W. C. T. U., and from here she pro ceeded to New York City where she will spend a month or two with relatives and attend the World's Convention in Brooklyn.

-Joseph Parrish, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Parrish, while atwhile it was still in motion, fell and William Wagner, of Altoona; Mrs. badly bruised the right side of his Mary Toben, of East Rochester; Mrs. not prove of a serious character.

will be held by the ladies of the Re- Saturday afternoon. formed church, in Petriken Hall, beginning Tuesday, Nov. 25th, and continuing until Wednesday evening. A large assortment of aprons, home made bread, cakes, pies and candles, together with a variety of farm pro-these services.

chance of success. -The Lock Haven papers speak very highly of George H. Jubilee minstrels which played severshould be an assurance of good music. -Jacob Marks has returned to his home in this place after a month's of which will be found in another part of this issue. -An interesting game of foot ball ter of William Wistar and Mary Ann is scheduled for Saturday afternoon Kephart Miles, and was born at Rock ablaze in several places. Beyond a Chapman E. Underwood - Unionville few burned shingles little damage Mida Brower - - - Unionville

-Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Jeffrey and son Mary Sorotes - - Sugar Camp, Pa. John, of Scranton, Pa., were guests of the Olewine's and Bottor's the forepart of the week. They had been to State College to see their son, William, a student there, and stopped in Bellegate on the return trip. They were Ray I. Showers - State College. fonte on the return trip. They were traveling by automobile and left for home Tuesday. They were accompanied as far as Lewisburg by Mrs. John I. Olewine and Mrs. Will Bottorf, who later returned to Bellefonte by who later returned to Bellefonte by Marie Louise Gherrity -

-The Pennsylvania Railroads one day excursion to Washington, D. C. Sunday drew over four hundred peo-ple from Bellefonte and vicinity. One hundred and thirty-three tickets were sold at the Bellefonte station alone. When the train pulled out of this place Saturday evening at 11 o'clock there were ten coaches all well filled. The excursionists reached the National State of the stational Sta

RECENT DEATHS.

HUFF:-Anna Virginia, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Huff died at her parents' home on east Beaver street, this city, Saturday, October 11th of inflammation of the bowels. She was born in Bellefonte and was 11 months and 11 days old.

ness resulting from a stroke of par-alysis sustained a number of years ago, Adam Harter, a well known resident of Millheim, died on Wednesday morning about 10 o'clock, aged 48 years. Deceased was a son of Jona-than Harter, and leaves to survive, his father, a wife and three sons, namely: Fred and Harry, of Altoona, and Norman at home, who helped take care of his father. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Harry port remaining over Sunday.

—Rev. William P. Van Tries and wife, of Altoona, arrived in Bellefonte Tuesday afternoon and are guests of Mrs. Louise Harris at her home on north Allegheny street.

—Mrs. Thomas Thomas Special Sale of the Bellefonte Baskets, at China Hall, Bellefonte, Pa., October 23 & 24. All Baskets will be sold at greatly reduced prices. This is an opportunity to purchase your Christmas Presents.

CRAFT:—Jacob Craft, a well known citizen of Snow Short a well known citizen of Snow Short and the conducted by Rev. Geesey, of the Lutheran church. Interment will be made in Fairview cemetery, Milheim.

CRAFT:—Jacob Craft, a well known citizen of Snow Short and Rev. Garage.

5th, age 57 years. His death was the result of a lingering illness which began over a year ago with a stroke of paralysis. Deceased was born at Brookville, Jefferson county, October 19,1831, and removed to Snow Shoe when he was 25 years of age. Surviving are a number of children including William, of Clearfield; Mrs. Sarah Viehdorfer, A. L. Craft, S. S. Craft, of Moshannon; Edward Craft, of Philipsburg; Mrs. Estella Dixon, of Zion; Mrs Tillie Young, of Lock Haed to her home on east Bishop street ven; Mrs. Bella Barger, of Curwensville, and Charles Dexter Craft, supsevere attack of Jaundice. We are glad to say she is now improving and will soon be able to be about again.

—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rishel, of Willowbank street, left Tuesday afternoon for a vacation trip which they will spend in Philadelphia and New York. Mr. Rishel is the track foreposedly residing in the West. Sever-

McARTHUR-Mrs. Clara McArthur, wife of Donald R. McArthur, and a bride of but a few months, died at her home, in Altoona at 3:15 o'clock last cial phone.
Thursday afternoon, of typhoid fever, FOR SALE-Holestein bull, young cat after an illness covering a period of but a few weeks. Deceased was born at Port Matilda, Centre county, February 27, 1894. Eight years ago she went to Altoona and on May 13, 1913, was married to Mr. McArthur. She was taken ill last month and grew worse until she passed away. She was a member of the Third United Brethren church and enjoyed the esteem of a wide circle of friends. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Tili-thea Reese, of Altoona, and the following brothers and sisters: Abel, of -Joseph Parrish, the little son of Blandburg; William, of Madera; Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Parrish, while attempting to jump from Philip Shoetempting and properly an David Stonebraker, of Tyrone; Mrs. C. A. Barger, Mrs. John Stambaugh and Misses Amanda and Laura, all of -The annual Thanksgiving market Altoona. The funeral took place on LAURIE:-Mrs. Alice A. Laurie, widow of Dr. William Laurie, former pastor of the Presbyterian church, died at her home on north Spring ducts will be offered for sale.

—All day rally day services will be held in the Reformed church next Sunday. At 9:30 a. m. Sunday school rally with special order of service and Wallingford. Corn structure in the result of a general break down of the system. The deceased was born in Wallingford. Corn structure in first class condition and Hubler thresher: in first class condition and the system. roll call of classes. At 11 a. m., a ral-ly day sermon that you want to hear, and Amelia Ives, her maiden name At 6:45 p. m., Christian Endeavor ral- being Miss Alice A. Ives. She was -Much interest is manifested in the ly, and at 7:30 evening services. A married March 4th, 1873 at Geneva, N. announcement of "A Butterfly on the hearty welcome awaits you at all of Y., to Rev. William Laurie. In 1876 they moved to Bellefonte where she -M. L. Altenderfer and Prof. Whit- has resided ever since. Her husband ing left Bellefonte Monday for Erie.
Pa., where they will attend the grand encampment of the State & Pennsylvania, I. O. O. F., and the department eral years ago. She leaves to survive council patriarch militant. Prof. Whiting is the present Grand Senior War- dredge, wife of Samuel Eldredge, Esq. den of the state and is a candidate of Cape May, N. J., and Miss Bertha for Grand Patriarch with a good A. Laurie, of Bellefont. She also leaves two sisters, Miss Julia Ives and Mrs. Frank P. Pendleton, both of Philadelphia. The funeral services were held on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Presbyterian church, conducted by Dr. George E. Hawes, assisted by Rev. Schuyler, of Centre Hall, Interment in the Union ceme-

ry, former editor of the Armstrong County Republican, published at Kittanning, died on Sunday evening at home in this place after a month's the home of her daughter, Mrs. Anna absence in New York City where he Merideth, in Pittsburgh. Mrs. Henry, City she became ill and passed away at the above mentioned time. Mrs. Nancy Mitchell Henry was a daughkephart Miles, and was born at Rock Forge, Centre county, November 11, when Academy and Indiana Normal meet on the gridiron. This should be a great game, as the Indianaians are the acknowledged champions of western Penna. Although somewhat crippled Academy means to put up a stiffight. Go prepared to pay your 25 cents or don't go at all. Game called at 2:30.

Kephart Miles, and was born at Rock Forge 11, Farm at Rock Forge, Centre county, November 11, 1835. Her parents were early pioneer settlers of Centre county and were prominent in the early political and social life of the Rock Forge settlement. Early in life Mrs. Henry united with the Presbyterian church, and with this faith which was very dear to her, she closed this earthly career. Hound, male; white legs, w ed at 2:30.

—A burning flue at the residence of Mrs. Julia Conley, east Logan street, threatened to become a conflagration on Monday shortly after the noon hour, but fortunately was subdued in the nick of time. The ringing of the fire alarm at the Undine house brought a crowd to the scene of the threatened neighborhood, and by the time water was secured the roof was ablaze. In the mick of the scene of the threatened neighborhood, and by the time water was secured the roof was ablaze. In the residence of following children: Frank, William and Mrs. Anna Merideth, of Pitts-burgh. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Penina A. Symington, and two brothers, W. W. and C. H. Miles, all of Tyrone. Funeral services and interment took place at Kittanning where her husband is buried.

Andy Beldo - - Sugar Camp, Pa.

State College Stormstown Bellefonte Ada Mae Shirk - - - tion's capitol at 4 a. m. and left for home at 5 in the evening reaching here I a. m. They report having had ens Star Course this year. Five numbers, $1.

EVERYONE SHOULD GO.

Free Moving Picture Show at the Scenic Next Monday.

The enterprising firm of Katz & Co. have arranged to give their friends and patrons a moving picture show funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon from the home of her parents, Rev. E. H. Yocum, officiating.
Interment was made in the Union cemetery.

extended illthe hox office of the Scenic. The play to be held at the "Scenic," Monday the box office of the Scenic. The play to be given is a full forty-five minute reel entitled "Mrs. Worthington's Dilemma." Show begins promptly at 2 p. m. In order that all may enjoy these movies two shows will be given, each of forty-five minutes duration, another progressive move of this well known firm.

BASKET SALE.

Penny a Word Adv.

Any subscriber can insert a want advertis ment in this column one issue free, if it does not exceed 25 words; charges to others, one cent a word, first issue, no advertisement less than 25 cents; two issues 40 cents; three issues 50 cents. No advertisements will be answered from this office.

WANTED—Woodchoppers at 60 cents per cord J. B. Shope, Curtin, Pa. x43 FOR SALE—Good top buggy $20. a bargain. In quire Centre Democrat. x38ti

FOR SALE—Cream separator at a bargain D, C. Hall. Fleming, Pa. x36tf WANTED:-Wood choppers, at 55c per cord, and pit post makers. C. W. Korman, Curtin, Pa. 33tf

FOR SALE—Full chester white boar, 7% month old, Inquire at once of S. H. Orndorf, Wood-ward, Pa. x41 WANTED—At the Haag house, a dining room girl, also one in kitchen. Apply Hotel Haag, Bellefonte, Pa. 381.

FOR SALE:—Cider by the barrel, Inquire of S. H. Hoy, Bellefonte, Pa. R. F. D, B-3. Commertle, cow and hogs. S. Edwin Brown, Spring Mills, Pa., R-3. FOR SALE—Indian Runner, Ducks & Drakes

The kind that lay and pay, $1.00 each. B. F.
Davis, Penna Furnace, Pa. 142 FOR SALE:—Full blooded, single comb. White Leghorn breeding cockerels. Washburn Poul-try Farm. Bellefonte. Pa. 28-t f

NO-GRO IN:—For Ingrown Nails, send 25 cts. for bottle of No-Gro-In and canvassers propo-sition to No-Gro-In Co., Bellefonte, Pa. 38tf LOST:-Certificate of Deposite No 1582, issued by the Beliefonte Trust Company, dated Dec. 7, 1907, for $200. C. J. From, Centre Hall. Ps. x41 FOR SALE:-Registered Jersey bull, also a greade Jersey bull, sired by Golden Prince" of Laurel Run. Inquire of W. H. Crebs, Madisonburg, Pa. FARMS:—Large and small, limestone soll, in Blair, Centre and Huntingdon counties. Send for catalogue G. C. Waite, P. O. Box 292, Ty-rone, Pa. x41

FOR SALE—Driving mare, harness, buggy, mule, fresh cow, Brookville wagen, Dockash Range and Dockash heater, J. B. Shope, Curtin, WANTED- Clerk by young lady with store experience. Address "X" care Centre Democrat.x42 street, Friday, October 10th. She had FOR RENT—Furnished room for light been in failing health for some time housekeeping. Apply to Mrs. Alice first class condition; will sell cheap. Garbriel Bros., opposite Big Spring. Bellefonte. Pa Both Phones.

FOR SALE:—Mammoth Pekin and pure white Indian Runner ducks; Welk and Rahn strain; bred from prize winners. Bernard M. Stover, Zion, Pa WANTED:—To purchase a six or seven-room house in Bellefonte.on terms of one-half down and balance in monthly instalments. Communi-cate by letter with "House-builder," care of Centre Democrat office. 36-t.f.

FOR SALE:—The property of Mrs. Mary E. Burkholder, deceased, at October Hill. Pa., containing about five acres of land and good buildings. Inquire of W. E. Burkholder, Administrator Beliefonte Pa.

INSURANCE:—Insure your town and farm property in the Lykens Valley Mutual Fire Insurance Company; Established in 1854. Rates forty to fifty per cent lower then board companies.

ty to fifty per cent lower then board companies. Losses promptly settled. Earle C. Tuten, Agent, Bellefonte.Pa. STOCK: Eggs and yearing stock—single comb brown and white Leghorn. White Wyan-dottes. Barred Rocks. Pekin Ducks. and Pearl Guiness. H. K. Mattern. Locust Hill Poultry Farm. Julian, Pa. x22-14

FOR SALE:—A Ford runabout, 1912 model, in excellent condition; has been used very little; completely equipped. First $300 takes it. Ma-chine can be seen at Peter Mendis home, East High street.

FOR SALE:—8 room house and two good lots, located in Unionville Pa. the property of the late William Spotts (deceased). Good water, excellent cellar, barn and all necessary out buildings, House just painted and spouted, Inquire of J. C. Davidson, Glenn Ave. & 4 St. Ellwood City, Pa. X41.

AFTER THE FALL WORK IS DONE—Why not enter the Lock Haven Normal School Octber 27th? You can spend seven and a haif weeks there for 836.25 if you are over seventeen and intend to teach. The winter term will begin Jantary 5th. Write for catalogue, to Dr. George P. Singer. Principal.

hound, male; white legs, white breast, about 2 feet high. The finder-will be suitably rewarded by return-ing him to the owner. David H. owner. David H.

Thompson, Howard, Pa.

CAUTION NOTICE. I give my son Elwood his, time and hereafter will not be responsible for any bills of his con-traction, or collect any money due him. H. C. Robison, Milesburg, Pa. 242

ADMINISTRATORS' NOTICE. In the matter the of estate of Maria Katz. late of the Borough of Bellefonte, deceased.

Letters testamentary in the above named estate having been granted to the undersigned by the Register of Wills of Centre County, Pennsylvania, all persons indebted to the said estate are hereby requested to make payment and all persons having claims against said estate are requested to present the same dully authenticated without delay

MARKET QUOTATIONS.

Bellefonte-Grain. The following prices are paid by C Y. Wagner for grain.

Red 856
White 800
700
750
400
600 Rye .....