MILESBERG.

Before this week's paper enters the post office at Milesburg, our sportsmen will be taking vengeance on the dollar license they so grudgingly paid, by trying to get their dollar's worth of game. But we must remember, there will be no legal wild turkey dinner this fall, and rabbits must not be killed until Nov. 1st; also that the horns of a male deer must project two inches above the hair. If you meet an elk, the safest place is up a tree. And while you are in a receptive mood I will tell you of a few friends who were visiting in town last week and of some other things that transpired.

Mr. Wilbur Hall Kreamer and Miss Ruth Alverta Stiller, of Berwick, Pa., were united in marriage, Saturday evening, Oct. 11th, at 6 o'clock, at the home of Mr. Kreamer's sister, Mrs. Toner A. Hugg, at Milesburg. The contracting parties arrived at 5 p. m., accompanied by Misses Ruth and Martha Kreamer and Esther Stiller. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. M. Piper, former pastor of the groom, and was witnessed by a few immediate friends and followed by a sumptuous repast. After making a short visit among friends and relatives the party departed for Berwick where they expect to make their future home. They certainly have the best wishes of their friends for a long and prosperous journey through life. Mr. Kreamer is employed in the office of the American Car & Foundry Co., of Berwick. Can't fool our boys, for they were right on the job with cow bells, tin cans, horns, and almost everything that would make a noise, and gave the young married couple a proper serenading before they left town.

Mrs. Anna Cessna, of Altoona, superintendent of the Elementary Sunday School Association of Centre county, gave an excellent address on Sunday school work Sunday morning in the M. E. church, and spent the day with Rev. and Mrs. Ash. Preaching for the winter months will begin at 7 p. m. next Sunday.
