FRUIT TOWN—Potter Twp.

Howard Shadon and family, of Millin county, spent Sunday among friends in Colyer. They also visited at the home of Arthur Holderman.

Mrs. Henry Shadon will make sale of her household goods on Nov. 1st, at her residence at Colyer.

Mrs. Wilbur Holderman, of Woodward, and Bruce Ishler, of this place left for Valparaiso, Indiana, where they expect to enter as students in the Valparaiso University College.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Boal, of P. C. City, spent Sunday at the home of John Weaver.

Miss Lydia Ishler spent one day last week with her cousin, Miss Edna Ishler, at Tusseyville.

Well, the hunting season opened on Wednesday, October 15th. You could hear the bang of the guns in every direction and I thought I would shoulder my rifle and see what I could bring down. The first shot I brought down five grey squirrels and one pheasant. I said by Gosh, that breaks the record. I then bagged my game and started out. I met an old friend who said, "where is your tag, old man." I showed him my tag and he examined it and said, "you are hunting under last year's license." "Well," I said, "I am just shooting." "Then met one of my school boys who just entered a physiology class. He asked me if I could give a simple example of the human body as it adapts itself to changed conditions. "Tessum," I answered; "I am the score and am able to answer any question. For the first I gained 155 lbs last year and my skin never cracked." "Well," he said, "what is meant by the quick and the dead?" I said, "those who get out of the way of motor cars and shot guns are quick, and those who don't are dead." He tipped his hat and said success will come to anyone who perseveres. I don't know about that. I have been married for twenty years and my wife hasn't cooked anything I liked yet. Well I returned home in time to hand in my news.

PLEASANT GAP.

Tuesday was a little like winter. Mrs. Hunter Knisley, of Bellefonte, is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Meyer.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kremer and two children and Harry Swartz Sunday at E. E. Swartz's.

Don't forget the supper to be held in Noll's Hall on Halloween for the benefit of the M. E. church. Come, everybody welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Meyer and child spent a couple of days last week with Mrs. Ira Bilger.

Those who went to Washington from here on Sunday were William C. Huffman, Victor Meyer and Joe Haines.

Those who Sundayed at J. A. Meyer's were William McClellan, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Watson and family, of Bellefonte, and Mr. and Mrs. Yarnell and family, of Snow Shoe.

The stork made its rounds once more leaving a young son with Mr. and Mrs. James Meyer.

The sick around here are still improving.

WOLFS STORE.

Sunday was a cold, rainy day. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walker, Elvina Esterline, Wm. Walker, Elmer Wolf and Austin Schreckengast were to Washington on the excursion.

Those on the sick list at the present time are Miss Mildred Walte and Miss Katie Stover but both are improving under the skillful treatment of Dr. G. S. Frank.

Monday night the stork visited the home of Mr. Confer and left a bouncing baby boy with Mr. and Mrs. Eungard.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wolf attended a birthday party Friday night.

The Winkleblich and Wolf Lumber Co. have shut down during corn husking.

The Friends and neighbors of Mrs. S. V. Stover remembered her on her birthday and had a post card shower for her. She received forty-six cards.

PENNSYLVANIA DAY AT STATE.

Pennsylvania Day at State College has become an important occasion second only to Commencement.

Friday, November 7, has been set aside as the date for the celebration this year. The exercises of the day will consist of an inspection of especially interesting class and practice work; an address by Mirza Ali Kull Kahn, Persian minister to the United States, who will be introduced by Governor Tener, a country fair, organized and conducted by students; a review of the college cadets; a military band concert; a glee club concert and a game of football between Penn State and Notre Dame. By this varied program it is hoped to give visitors a glimpse of the life of the students now enjoying the benefits of an education provided largely by the munificence of the state.

Making Survey of Roads.

A survey of all the roads throughout the state is being made by the State Highway Department, and during the past week a number of young men have been over the roads on the south side of Centre Co. performing that work. The notations consist of directions and distances. All political boundaries—townships, borough and county lines are marked, as are also school houses, churches, bridges, etc. Surveys were made before of the county seat to county seat roads, but this survey includes all public roads.

The party of rouetman are working under Superintendent W. D. Meyer, and C. B. McClun is chief. The names of the other men are E. B. Harnish, Stanley Backwerk, Ralph Volpe, G. M. Purpis, J. L. Stewart, W. K. McCallagh.

Four apples weighing 2 1/2 lbs. were sent by parcel post recently by Mrs. Frank Devine, of Martha, to a lady friend in Bellwood. Apples such as these are scarce. They bear the name of "King of Compton County," but in our estimation they could be called king of any county this season.

Clyde Dutrow, of Centre Hall, closed up a deal last Friday by which he became owner of the West farm owned by Professor James Gregg, of Tyrone. This is the adjoining farm to the Gregg homestead in Penns valley which was sold by Mr. Gregg this summer to Mr. Heckman. The consideration for the farm sold Friday was $7,500.

EAT MORE OYSTERS.

People Do Not Realize the Wholesomeness of This Food.

In these days of high cost of meats the oyster season should be a welcome period to the householder. Few people realize the wholesomeness of the oyster, nor the economy found in their use.

If sold by weight, oysters would cost about 22c per pound. According to a recent issue of the Farmers' Bulletin, published by the Department of Agriculture, the cost of foodstuffs to the consumer at market prices, when refuse and waste were considered, was: Chicken, 35.6c per pound; choice cuts of beef and lamb, 30 to 40c per pound. If sold by weight, opened oysters would cost about 22c per pound, but few people realize that about one-half the weight of meats is in the bones, gristle and waste. Oysters, although costing much less by weight, have no bones or gristle to discard.

Thus oysters are not only a delicious luxury for the wealthy epicure, but are an economical and wholesome food for those of limited means. They furnish an agreeable change from the monotony of ordinary foods and answer the frequent question of the puzzled housewife, "What shall we next have to eat?" They should not be regarded as a rare treat, but as a frequent and appetizing item of regular food supply.

Oysters are now caught by steamers, power boats and fast sailing vessels, delivered promptly at the shipping houses. They are thus not subject to the delays formerly experienced. They are handled and packed by the best methods in sterilized receptacles. They are kept cool by artificial refrigeration and by pure artificial ice. Oysters, either in shell or opened, are now shipped from the Atlantic Coast to the Pacific, arriving there in as perfect condition as when taken from the water. There is no place in the United States or British America where the railroads penetrate in which oysters cannot be received in perfect condition.

FREE USE OF FORESTS.

Forestry Reservation Commission Makes Offer to Children.

Realizing the possibilities for enjoyment and recreation found only in mountains and forests, the State Forestry Reservation Commission has generously offered the free use of lands now owned by the state to all who wish to use them for outings, etc. This offer is made with the understanding that all necessary precautions will be taken to prevent destruction of young trees, etc. The following has been submitted for publication:

WHEREAS, this Commission has consistently advocated the use of the Pennsylvania State Forests as outing and recreation grounds for the people to be freely used, subject only to the few reasonable rules necessary for the protection of the land itself; and

WHEREAS, the joy of child life, the conservation of youthful health, and education for future good citizenship will be augmented by intelligent use and enjoyment of the State's great outing grounds; therefore

BE IT RESOLVED that the State Forestry Reservation Commission grant the children of Pennsylvania free use of the State Forests as recreation ground, subject to the few reasonable and necessary rules for the protection of the land itself, and urges upon them the use of this land for all proper purposes, particularly for mineral and plant study, the collecting of wild flowers, the study of bird and animal life, the gathering of chestnuts and other wild nuts and fruits, and the enjoyment of such pleasures as are incident to the life of a child in nature's great outdoors.

RESOLVED, further, that all forest officers afford every reasonable facility in their power to the children in their respective neighborhoods for the enjoyment of the privileges herein conferred, and of which the children are freely invited to avail themselves. October 9, 1913.

HAPPY MARRIAGES

The Quickest, Simplest Cough Remedy Easily and Cheaply Made at Home. Saves You $2.

This plan makes a pint of cough syrup—enough to last a family a long time. You couldn't buy as much or as good cough syrup for $2.50.

Simple as it is, it gives almost instant relief and usually conquers an ordinary cough in 24 hours. This is partly due to the fact that it is slightly laxative stimulates the appetite and has an excellent tonic effect. It is pleasant to take—children like it. An excellent remedy, too, for whooping cough, spasmodic croup and bronchial asthma.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and add the Sugar Syrup. It keeps perfectly. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

Pine is one of the oldest and best known remedial agents for the throat membranes. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in guaiacol and other natural healing elements. Other preparations will not work in this combination.

The prompt results from this mixture have endeared it to thousands of housewives in the United States and Canada, which explains why the plan has been imitated often, but never successfully. A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

OVER THE COUNTY.

The Penn State Electricals gave an informal dinner at the Brockerhoff House, Bellefonte, Thursday of last week.

Butcher A. M. Bower, of Aaronsburg, recently killed a beef and found two ten-penny nails in its stomach. If hardware fattens cattle, prices should be reduced accordingly.

Benner Walker, who for a number of years lived on the Van Valzah farm, west of Centre Hall, recently purchased by P. W. Breon, has leased the Howard Grove farm near Houserville.

The Bellefonte Fish hatchery are shipping small trout to all parts of the state to be placed in the different streams. Last week thirty-two cans of trout from four to six inches long were placed in Elk Creek near Millheim.

Announcements have been received by friends of two weddings: Roy Kline, son of Mrs. Adaline Kline, of State College, to Miss Henrietta Weber, of Greensburg, and George Mattern, of State College, to Miss Sacer, of Bellwood.

Harry M. Grimm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grimm, of State College, and a graduate of Penn State, who has lately transferred to the Trenton division of the Pennsylvania railroad as assistant supervisor, was awarded a prize of $400 by the board of inspectors. His chief, C. M. Wiseman, received the Klondyke prize of $500.

While Mrs. Mary Motz, of Woodward, was attending church services, Sunday evening a week ago, some miscreant entered her home and stole $50 in cash besides the pension check of George Miller, an aged veteran, who resides with her. She kept the money in her bureau and did not discover her loss until several days later when she had occasion to go to the bureau.

W. L. Walker, a former resident of Centre Hall, but now residing in Williamsport, has been unable to do work of any kind for a year or more, owing to an accident that befell him about that time. He was employed in a large radiator works in Williamsport, and in some manner got his hand into the cog wheels, and had it very badly crushed and since has had no use of his hand or arm.

John Messmer, who resides on the mountain north of Penn Hall, in company with his sister, Mrs. Annie Reeder, started to drive to State College, one day recently, and while going down the mountain road to Brush Valley, the girth of the harness broke. The horse ran away, upsetting the buggy and throwing the occupants down over an embankment. Mr. Messmer sustained a fractured leg, and Mrs. Reeder a broken arm.

A quilt made by the volunteers of the Methodist church at New Bloomfield, of which Rev. G. W. McClain, formerly on the Penns Valley charge, is pastor, was sold at auction on Saturday to Mrs. John Sheaffer, for $5.95. The quilt is an album quilt, and is inscribed with the names of persons living almost from the Atlantic to the Pacific ocean. Each name represents a contribution. The volunteers are raising money for the new church fund.

The joint council of the Penns Valley Lutheran charge held its annual meeting at Centre Hall one day last week. Business of various character was transacted. The pastor, and members present were these: Tusseyville, A. P. Heckman, D. C. Roseman, W. H. Lingie, John Wert; Georges Valley, P. A. Auman, John D. Wagner, James D. Barzer; Spring Mills, T. M. Gramley, W. H. Smith; Union, Cleveland Eungard, Henry Bate, George P. Emrick; Centre Hall, E. M. Huyett, H. G. Strohmeyer, C. D. Mitterling.

Paul Musser, of Millheim, the brilliant young pitcher of the DesMoines base ball team during the latter part of the past season and who is still retained by the Washington American club, was tendered a banquet at the National Hotel, Millheim, by a dozen base ball fans and friends of his boyhood, in appreciation of his excellent record of the past season. It was a very enjoyable occasion. Paul is visiting his home in Millheim. Of the games he pitched for the DesMoines club he won seventeen and lost six.

Abraham Kremer and his mother, Mrs. Elias Kremer; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rook and Mrs. Annie Rook, all of Windfield, Pa., autos to Millheim the forepart of last week. Sixty years ago Mrs. Elias Kremer spent her honeymoon at the Kremer farm, in Penn township, now occupied by W. P. Catherman, and the party visited the place. While coming through the Penns Valley narrows the folks stopped to eat lunch, and a small grip containing money, eye glasses, etc., was left unnoticed on the running board of the automobile when they continued their journey and it was jolted off the machine and lost.

A chicken and waffle supper will be held at Paul Markle's near the store at Romola, next Saturday evening, October 25th; the proceeds will go toward painting the church. We ask a helping hand from all.—The Christian church.
