

In and About Bellefonte

Hon. W. C. Lingle, of Phillipsburg, was a Bellefonte visitor on Monday.

Mrs. W. C. Lingle was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Garman, for a few days this week.

Mrs. Harry Jenner spent a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. Spishburn, and other friends in this place and Pleasant Gap.

Miss Esther Hanscom, of Williamsport, spent the forepart of the week at the home of her friend, Miss Sue Solt in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Foust, of Altoona, were guests over Sunday of Mrs. Foust's mother, Mrs. James H. Rine, of west High street.

The Woman's Exchange will serve lunch at their rooms next to the Y. M. C. A., on Wednesdays and Saturdays from ten to four o'clock.

Harry Struble, of State College, accompanied by his father and mother, autoed to Bellefonte last Saturday and transacted business in our town.

D. W. Musser returned to his home in Scranton Saturday after a very pleasant visit with his daughter, Mrs. Paul Sheffer, of north Spring street.

Mr. and Mrs. James Davis returned home Saturday from their wedding trip and are now comfortably located in their rooms in the Kurtz property on High street.

Mrs. Hammond Sechler left Bellefonte Monday morning for Philadelphia where she will have her eyes examined and treated by a well known eye specialist of that city.

Mrs. M. A. Cairle left Tuesday morning for her home in Pough Keepsie, N. Y., after an extended visit at the home of Emanuel Noll, of north Allegheny street.

Mrs. Charles McCoy, of Thomas street, left on Sunday for Altoona to remain a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Ray Hoy, who has been confined to her home by illness.

A sale of bread, cakes, pies and aprons will be held by the ladies' aid society of the Lutheran church on Saturday, the 26th, in the vacant room adjoining Mrs. Aiken's store, on south Allegheny street.

Joseph Guisewhite, Jr., of Cherry Tree, Pa., was an over Sunday visitor at his home in this place. He reports work as plenty at Cherry Tree and says there are quite a number of Bellefonte boys employed there.

The offering at the rally day services in St. John's Reformed church on Sunday amounted to $80. This sum will be applied to the maintenance of the mission station in Japan supported by this school.

General Albert J. Logan, of Pittsburg, Brigadier General of the Second Brigade, N. G. P., was in Bellefonte Monday inspecting the Armory of Company L, in regard to some improvements needed there.

Robert Montgomery has been appointed constable in the south ward to fill a vacancy existing by reason of the resignation of William Beezer. Mr. Beezer will leave Bellefonte shortly to resume his trade as a glass worker.

Mr. Howard Ruger and little son Richard, of Phillipsburg, made a weekend visit with her aunt, Mrs. Ed. Garman, on east High street. Mrs. Ruger expects to move shortly to Baraboo, Wisconsin, the home of the Ringling circus people.

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Dunkle, of Reading, Pa., were over Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Garthoff on Reynolds avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Dunkle were only recently married and are on their wedding tour.

Mrs. Dixon, of Philadelphia, wife of George D. Dixon, vice president of the Pennsylvania Railroad, spent Friday night in Bellefonte with her sister, Mrs. Sheldon. She made the trip to and from Philadelphia in her husband's private car.

Wallace Woodring, of Port Matilda, was a guest of Robert H. Woodring and family in their home on east Howard street Monday of this week. Mr. Woodring is an enthusiastic hunter and while in town secured his hunter's license from Treasurer Miller.

James Metzger, of Beech Creek was transacting business in Bellefonte on Tuesday. He made it a point to give the Democrat a call. Mr. Metzger is one of Beech Creek's most respected citizens and his friends in this place are always glad to welcome him.

James Solt and Arthur Tompkins, both of Williamsport, spent the latter part of the past week at the home of James Solt on Logan street. It is related that Arthur's errand to this place gave promise of being a happy one, but alas (yes, a lass) it proved somewhat of a disappointment. Cheer up, Arthur.

The famous Edison Talking Pictures will again be the attraction at the opera house Friday and Saturday of next week, with matinee Saturday afternoon. Prices 25, 35 and 50 cents, with special prices to school children. Every man, woman and child in Bellefonte should see and hear this wonderful invention of Thomas A. Edison. It is marvelous. Don't fail to attend.

The Amor Gap quarries of the American Lime & Stone company were put in operation this week after being idle all summer, during which time a number of improvements were being made to the plant. One of the most noticeable is a new steel incline trestle leading from the quarry to the mill and kilns. The work was done by Horatio Moore, proprietor of the Bellefonte steel works.

We had the pleasure on Tuesday of meeting J. S. Houtz, one of the genial Pennsylvania-reared fellows who early in life grasped the opportunities offered by the farming communities of Illinois, and moved there. Mr. Houtz is a prosperous farmer of Kirkland, DeKalb county, and together with his wife had been visiting relatives and friends in Centre county for the past few weeks. Mrs. Houtz is a sister of ex-Commissioner J. L. Dunlap, at whose home they were guests while in Bellefonte. This was the first time in twenty-six years that Mr. Dunlap and Mrs. Houtz had seen each other, and the reunion was a joyous one. This was also Mr. Houtz's only visit to Centre county in the past sixteen years, and the pleasure of greeting old friends has been great. Mr. Houtz feels very grateful for the kind treatment he received while visiting through Pennsylvania, where very old acquaintances made it pleasant for him. They expect to leave today for their western home.

"A Royal Slave" at the opera house next Wednesday night, Oct. 29th.

Miss Helen Proudfoot, of Altoona, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Edward Klingler, in this place.

"The Royal Slave" is a splendid attraction. Don't fail to see it at the opera house next Wednesday evening.

James I. McClure returned home Wednesday morning on a week's visit to his sons, Charles and Harvey in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Asher Adams, of Sunbury, visited her mother, Mrs. Frances Shreffler, of east High street, Wednesday of this week.

L. D. Orndorf, of Woodward, one of the progressive business men of that section of the county, transacted business in Bellefonte on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Claybaugh, of Huntingdon, were over Sunday guests at the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hamilton, in this place.

Mrs. Frances Atwood, of Huntingdon, was an arrival in Bellefonte Wednesday and is spending a few days with General and Mrs. James A. Beaver.

Mrs. Harry Keller gave a reception Tuesday afternoon from two o'clock in honor of Mrs. Hastings's guest, Mrs. W. Orville Hickok, of Harrisburg.

Twenty-eight tickets were sold at the Bellefonte station last Saturday for the Pennsylvania Railroads one day excursion to Washington, D. C. All who took advantage of the trip report having enjoyed it immensely.

Squire W. H. Musser and wife departed on Wednesday afternoon for a business trip to Philadelphia. Mr. Musser will return in a day or so, and the probabilities are that his wife will extend her visit to a longer period.

General James A. Beaver, our distinguished fellow townsmen, was seventy-six years old on Tuesday. He spent the day quietly with his family at his home on north Allegheny street, receiving the congratulations of his family and friends. It is earnestly hoped he may see many more happy returns of the day.

An interesting and exciting game of football will be played on the old Hughes field next Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock between the Bellefonte Academy and the strong Dickinson team. The home team hopes to retrieve its past defeats Saturday and start a winning streak. Go and encourage them by your presence.

The new firm of G. R. Dannehower & Son have opened their wholesale grocery in the Phoenix mill property and are doing a rushing business. They have as their manager, J. Homer Decker, is book-keeper, W. R. Houser, road man and R. W. Osmer, shipping clerk. They expect to carry a stock of about $35,000 and will have for their field of operations the seven central counties of the state.

Mrs. John N. Bauer and little daughter left for Williamsport on Wednesday morning where she will meet her husband, who is just returning from Ohio, where he has been employed by the Eyre-Shoemaker concern, of Erie, Pa. Having finished their work out there, Mr. Bauer with his wife, will spend his vacation taking a little trip to different points of interest after which they will return to their home in this place.

The court house was about one-third filled on Thursday evening to hear the exponents of "Good Roads" tell why we should vote a $50,000,000 debt upon Pennsylvania. Charles E. Foote, Good Roads editor of the American Motorist, was the principal speaker of the evening. Following him were G. R. Sparks, of State College. Both men handled the subject intelligently but a lack of enthusiasm was noticeable on the part of the audience.

Rollin S. Miller, a former well known resident of this place who moved with his family to Ford City, Pa., a year or more ago, spent a week among friends in this vicinity, leaving for his home on Wednesday morning. Mr. Miller, who is superintendent of the sand plant of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co., is recovering from an illness, and took advantage of the "loafing" period to make his friends here a visit. We are glad to state that the members of Mr. Miller's family, who had been suffering with mild attacks of diphtheria, have all fully recovered.

A business deal was consummated this week by which W. Reynolds Shope & Son became the owners of John McCoy's coal yard and will conduct the same in the future. William Shope has been employed as a book-keeper by Mr. McCoy for some time past and has acquired a thorough knowledge of the business. He with his father constitute the new firm and he will manage the business. He is an honest, industrious young man and his friends will make a success of his new venture and become one of our most successful business men. They acquired possession of the coal yard Monday.

High constable "Jimmie" Matthews was made defendant in a suit before Squire Brown on Saturday evening, upon charges of threats brought by another constable named Spencer. The latter, who rooms at the home of William Stuart on Penn street stated at the hearing that he had been invited out side of the house one evening recently by "Jimmie" to have his head blown off. He declined to part with this useful portion of his anatomy, and caused Matthews' arrest. By reason of the plaintiff failing to prove Matthews guilty of the charge, the Squire dismissed the case and divided the costs between the litigants.

Frank Pitts Green, the well known druggist, celebrated the 79th anniversary of his birth on Wednesday of this week and received the congratulations of his many friends at his place of business, where he remained all day attending to his work as usual. Mr. Green is a remarkable man in many ways, and is one of Bellefonte's oldest business men, having conducted a drug store here since 1853, a period of sixty years. In the early days he played in the old Bellefonte band and has been a member of the Masonic lodge here for over fifty years. When a young man of eighteen he was very delicate and his parents did not expect him to live to be twenty-one, but he is still hale and hearty and his many friends hope that he may live to pass the century mark.

"The Butterfly on the Wheel" at the opera house tonight.

William P. Humes left Bellefonte Monday afternoon on a business trip to New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Burkholder spent Sunday with friends and relatives at Centre Hill.

International Opera Company opens Star Course this year. Five numbers, $1. 37-1f.

Mrs. Sarah E. Satterfield returned home Saturday from a trip to Pittsburgh and West Middlesex, Ohio.

Mrs. F. Coke Bell, of Coatesville, Pa., is spending a week with friends and relatives in Bellefonte and Pleasant Gap.

Mrs. John Blanchard departed Tuesday morning for Overbrook and New York where she will visit friends and relatives.

Dr. Robert Beam, of Lorraine, Ohio, was a guest the past week at the home of D. I. Willard, of north Thomas street.

Mrs. Ballen, of Philadelphia, and her daughter, Miss Ursula Ballen, are guests of Mrs. Bogie and Miss Norris at their home, the Forge House.

Don't miss the guaranteed attraction at the opera house tonight. "The Butterfly on the Wheel" will hold your interest from start to finish.

Thomas R. Morgan, who has been visiting friends in Bellefonte, expects to start soon on his second year at Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia.

Jack Lyon, who has been visiting his parents in this place, left recently forunkirk, N. Y., to take charge of the electrical equipment of a large laundry.

Dr. M. A. Kirk spent several days during the past week with his brother, Joseph Kirk and his nephew, Dr. George Kirk at Kylesstown, Clearfield county, Pa.

Mrs. John N. Lane left Bellefonte for Altoona last Friday to be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Fay, expecting later to go to Ohio for a visit to her son, James B. Lane, who has been in ill health for some time.

Mrs. Morris Runkle, of Lancaster, with her little daughter, Dorothy Wagner Runkle, arrived in Bellefonte last week to spend a month or more with Mrs. Runkle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Wagner and other relatives.

Rev. A. M. Schmidt left Monday for Sunbury to attend the sessions of the Eastern Synod of the Reformed church held in that city this week. He was accompanied as far as Williamsport by Mrs. Schmidt and son William, who consult Dr. Haskins the eye specialist.

Mrs. J. Allison Platts, of Wilkesburg, and her daughter, Allison, have been guests during the past week of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Hughes at the Academy. From here she will leave for Elmira, N. Y., for a visit with relatives, expecting to return to Bellefonte later on for a longer stay.

Geo. Furey and family, who have been living at Martinsville, Ill., have given up their home in that place and have returned to Bellefonte to take charge of the old homestead of Mr. Furey's father, the late Morris Furey. Mrs. Morris Furey and daughter will move to Bellefonte and occupy one of Dr. Hayes' houses on Pine street.

Messrs. Darius Wait, C. D. Young and Herbert Miller, a committee representing the United Brethren congregation at this place, left Tuesday morning for Tyrone where they will meet the Presiding Elder of their church and try and select a pastor for their congregation whose pulpit has been vacant since Rev. C. W. Winey was transferred to Conneville by the late conference.

Mr. Geo. T. Bush was a visitor to State College from Friday to Sunday as a guest of his fraternity there. At Dr. E. S. Dorworth, third and Dr. M. J. Locke, fourth, they will meet, every Friday night until they cross foils with the champions from Tyrone. All checker players are invited to come and look on or participate in these games.

C. W. Korman, of Curtin, was a business visitor in Bellefonte on Tuesday, and made it a point to have his name put on the list of names to be given for renting it to a good tenant. This firm is claimed to be one of the best filled in Centre county.

The opening number of the Star Course will be next Thursday night and everything is being done to make the opening a grand success. The ladies will decorate the theatre and see that every detail for the reception of the opening of the Grand Opera Co. will be complete. The ushers will be in full dress and the pages in white will serve you with the most delicious hot hors d'oeuvres from New York. The new charts plainly set forth and numbered so that no mistake will be made in the selection of seats. Another innovation will be that patrons can secure reserve seats right through the whole course. The Opera Co. will appear in fancy costumes, and give scenes and music from Grand Opera. Although the course is superior to last year the price of tickets remains the same as it is not the purpose of the Y. M. C. A. to make money out of the venture but just to give the musical loving people some of the very finest music in the country at the lowest possible price and without the least thing being objectionable to the most sensitive person. If you consider what it is to hear great music for twenty cents which would cost you from one to two dollars in large cities, you will readily catch on and see what a boon it will be to take advantage at the course rate and not pay fifty and seventy-five cents for single admission. Reserve seats will be on sale at the Y. M. C. A. the day before, beginning at 9 o'clock.

The rummage sale held by the ladies' auxiliary of the Bellefonte hospital last week netted that institution the neat sum of $360.

The swimming pool at the Y. M. C. A. will be opened today, after being closed for some time while repairs were being made at the rear of the building.

If you are looking for good amusement, keep your eye on the Scenic. Everybody considers the Scenic a fine place to spend the evening. Some great plays this week.

A burning brush pile at one of the residences in Brown row last Saturday evening, caused someone to turn in a false alarm of fire, which drew a large crowd to that vicinity.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Club will be held in the evening of October 27th, at 7:30, in the High school building. As an interesting subject will be discussed, a large attendance is desired.

Fifteen cans of trout from the United States Fish hatchery were dumped in Spring Creek above the falls on Tuesday afternoon. The State Fish hatchery at Pleasant Gap is also shipping trout to all parts of the state.

Since the removal of Rev. C. W. Winey from Bellefonte the United Brethren church has been without a minister and up to this time no selection has been made. It is understood, however, that a new man will soon be sent here. Rev. J. S. Fulton, conference superintendent, will be present on Saturday and preach to the congregation in the evening.

Mrs. Howley, widow of the late John Howley, is quite ill at the home of her son-in-law, Harry Taylor, at the latter's home on north Penn street. Owing to her illness, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor were compelled to give up their contemplated trip to Boston this week to attend a convention of Catholic societies to which Mr. Taylor had been chosen as a delegate.

Charles P. Taylor, who is acting as agent for the Adams Express company at this place, while his brother, Harry, is enjoying a brief vacation, has been appointed agent for the company at Bellwood, Pa., and will assume his duties there next Saturday. For some time past he has been an express messenger on the Bald Eagle valley road from Tyrone to Lock Haven.

Railroad officer Fred Giles, of Tyrone, nabbed two young freight riders at Snow Shoe intersection on Tuesday and brought them to Bellefonte where in default of a fine and costs they were committed to jail. They were identified as George Gendron and C. R. Caldwell, and stated they were beating their way to a town where they could find work. There is a strict law, however, against trespassing on railroads, and the boys will have to abide by the consequences.

MARRIAGES.

Harpster-Rhawn.

The many friends of Richard F. Harpster, of Renovo, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Harpster, of Bellefonte, will be interested in the announcement of his marriage with Miss Jessie M. Rhawn, a popular young Renovo girl, which took place at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. R. E. church, Lock Haven, on Thursday afternoon of last week, by the Rev. Dr. A. L. Miller. Mr. and Mrs. Harpster will continue to reside in Renovo, where the groom for a number of years past has held the position of superintendent of the electric light plant. The Democrat joins with "Dick's" friends in extending best wishes for a long and happy life for himself and bride.

Burket-Way.

Robert W. Burket and Miss Anna Myra Way, two popular young people of Stormstown, were married in Altoona on Wednesday evening of last week at the parsonage of the Broad Avenue Methodist church, by the Rev. Gordon Arch Williams. They were attended by Edgar Way, of Altoona, a brother of the bride, and at his home they were guests over night. Mr. Burket is a prosperous young merchant of Stormstown, and his bride is the highly esteemed daughter of Thomas Way, a prominent citizen of Halfmoon valley. Mr. and Mrs. Burket have the best wishes of many friends for a prosperous wedded life.

Robinson-Woodson.

James Miller Robinson, of Jewland, Ohio, and Miss Leah D. Woodson, daughter of Mrs. Della Woodson, of this place, were united in wedlock Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Robinson, pastor of the A. M. E. church in the presence of the family and a few invited guests. Later the newlyweds left on the 8:30 train for a wedding tour after which they will make their home in Jewland, Ohio, where the groom who is a graduate of the Whitefore University holds an excellent position. The bride is a daughter of the late Rev. Woodson, a former pastor of St. Paul's A. M. E. church at this place.

In Methodist Circles.

The present week is filled with interest and anticipation for the congregation of the Methodist Episcopal church. Four evenings of this week are given to Group Cottage meetings, in many sections of the town, each evening. Wednesday and Saturday evening are given to meetings in the lecture room of the church, for prayer and preparation for the evangelistic campaign to begin next Sunday, the 26th inst. Mr. McKenzie, in song, will be here Saturday evening, and the evangelist, Bob Jones, is also confidently expected by that time. He begins with the service of Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. A brief note from him says he will be here at that time, and also indicated that they are having a great awakening and ingathering of the people at Macon, Wisconsin, from which point he comes to Bellefonte. Surely the Kingdom of God is come nigh to us in this community. May it be to our joy and not to our condemnation.

Matrimonial Market.

George R. Brooks Summerset Co., Pa. Irene Oswalt - - - - - Phillipsburg James M. Robinson - - - - - Cleveland, O. Leah D. Woodson - - - - - Bellefonte, Pa. Mike J. Bovshok - - - - - Munson, Pa. Elizabeth Miklus - - - - - Madison, N. J. John Combs - - - - - Phillipsburg Margaret M. Armstrong - - - - - Wilmour, Pa. Jesse Jordan - - - - - State College Alma E. Sampal - - - - - Axemant

The state committee of the Young Men's Christian Association has recently appointed Stewart H. Orndorf as corresponding member for Woodbury, Pa. He will gladly give any aid or information about work for young men that may be in his power.

RECENT DEATHS,

HALL.—R. Grant Hall, a former resident of this county, died recently at his home in Pittsburg, of tuberculosis, aged 46 years. Deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall, of Dix Run, and is survived by his wife, four children, one brother, George, of this county, and three sisters, namely: Mrs. Fred Schelle, Mrs. Maria Iddings and Miss Sarah Hall, all of Phillipsburg. Interment was made at Pittsburg.

SINGER.—Mrs. Mary Ann Weaver Singer, wife of John Singer, died on Monday, October 13th, at her home in Union township, after a lingering illness. Deceased was born December 19, 1875, thus was aged 37 years, 11 months and 24 days. She leaves to mourn a husband and seven children, among whom are Mrs. William Walker, of Orvinton, and Mrs. Shank, of Phillipsburg, the others residing at home. The remains were laid to rest in the Reformed cemetery at Romola, services being in charge of the Reformed minister.

CROUSE.—Mrs. Mona McClintic Crouse died at her home in Aaronsburg on Sunday, after an illness of some duration with congestion of the lungs. Deceased, whose maiden name was Mona McClintic, was born in Lock Haven, and was aged 43 years. She is survived by two children, Ruth and Harry, and the following brothers and sisters: William, of Lock Haven; Mrs. Bertha Campbell and Blanche, of Mill Hall, and two brothers residing in the west. The funeral will take place today, conducted by her pastor, Rev. Dice, of the Evangelical church, assisted by Rev. Geesey, of the Lutheran church.

BUTLER.—Mrs. Clara Valentine Butler, a well known colored woman and widow of the late Robert D. Butler, died at her home in Lock Haven, Saturday evening at 7:45 o'clock, after being confined to her bed for two years with rheumatism and paralysis of the brain. Mrs. Butler was born in Bellefonte but moved to Lock Haven many years ago and for some time was employed as janitress of the Lock Haven Trust & Safe Deposit Company. Her husband died in 1899. Deceased was aged 62 years, and is survived by seven children, her only daughter, Mrs. Annie V. Jackson, of Lock Haven and one brother, Abram Jackson, of Bellefonte. Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in Bethel A. M. E. church, last Church street, Lock Haven, by Rev. A. Leitch. Interment in Highland cemetery.

KRUMHINE.—The venerable Adam Krumhine, a well known and highly respected resident of Tusseyville, this county, died at his home in that place Tuesday afternoon, October 21st at 2 o'clock. He had been ill for some time from heart trouble and dropsy and his death was due to a complication of these diseases. He was born in College township and was the son of Frederick Krumhine. Had he lived until next February he would have been 79 years of age. He is survived by his wife whose maiden name was Sarah Jane Weaver, and his two daughters, Mrs. C. W. Swartz of Tusseyville, and Mrs. James Irvin, of Peru. All her life he had been successfully engaged in farming, but she had been living a retired life. He was a member of the Reformed church. The funeral will take place Friday at 10:30 a. m. from the house. Interment at Tusseyville.

BREON.—Mrs. Mary A. Breon, widow of the late John F. Breon, died at her home in Spring Mills on Tuesday morning at 3 o'clock, from a complication of ailments due to her advanced age, 73 years. Deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Long, residents of Herks county at the time of her birth. She is survived by seven children, whose names are as follows: Willis P., of Mill Hall; Robert P., of Horsehead, N. Y.; John F., of Altoona; Mrs. Anna M. Frankenberger, of Centre Hall; Mrs. H. M. Hedinger, of Altoona; Mrs. C. E. Hagan, of Spring Mills, and Mrs. Flora Fye, of Centre Hall. She also leaves two brothers and two sisters. Deceased was a consistent member of the Lutheran church and greatly esteemed by her many friends. Funeral services will be held at the home at 2 o'clock on Friday morning. Mr. Harry Frankenberger, Centre Hall, on Friday morning. Interment will be made at Spring Mills.

MURRAY.—On last Thursday afternoon, Jared D. Murray, one of Penns Valley's oldest and most respected citizens, passed away at his home in Centre Hall. His death was due to hardening of the arteries and other infirmities, incident to his advanced age, and his illness had extended over a period of seventeen months. For over thirty years he conducted a drug store in Centre Hall and by his home and industry built up a prosperous and successful business. The deceased was born near Linden Hall and was the son of George and Nancy Murray. He was aged at time of death 87 years, 4 months and 4 days. On the 2nd of October 1853 he was married to Miss Mary Hoffer, who preceded him to the grave about eight years ago. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. H. F. Bitner, of Centre Hall, and four grand-children. He also leaves two brothers and two sisters, namely, Abner, of Boushara; John, of Lemont; Mrs. Eliza Houser, of Houserville, and Mrs. Elmira Smith, of Huntingdon county. Mr. Murray was a consistent christian and a member of the Reformed church. The funeral will take place on Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the house. Rev. Jones, of the Reformed church officiated. Interment in the Centre Hall cemetery.

RINES.—Mrs. Hannah Elizabeth Rines, wife of Daniel Rines, died on Wednesday afternoon of last week at 4:45, at her home near Jacksonsville aged 63 years and 2 months. She had been an invalid for the past fifteen years, suffering from a nervous ailment and complications, and during the last few months had been confined to her bed. Deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bickle, of Jacksonsville, and was born at that place August 15, 1850. She was united in marriage with Daniel Rines, August 16, 1877, who survives, and with the following children: George, of Jacksonsville; Edith, wife of Reuben Sorgen, of Flemington; Charles, of Freeport, Ill.; Lavina, wife of Harry Shacer, of Latrobe; Rose, John and Blanche at home. One son and a daughter preceded her to the grave. She also leaves to mourn, one sister, Mrs. David Kreps, of Laurelton, and two brothers, Jacob, of Flemington, and H. W. of Southernland, Pa. Mrs. Rines was a devoted wife and loving mother, and her pleasing disposition won for her the love and respect of all who knew her. Funeral services were held on Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the Evangelical church, conducted by her pastor, the Rev. M. Snyder. Interment was made in the Evangelical cemetery, attended by a large concourse of friends and neighbors.

EVER CONSIDER.

MR. FARMER,

how easy it would be to locate a buyer for that buggy, wagon or other article you have no use for, by inserting a want ad in this column? The very thing you want to sell, some other fellow wants to buy, and is reading over this column to find you.

Penny a Word Adv.

Any subscriber can insert a want advertisement in this column one issue free, if it does not exceed 25 words; charges for others, 60¢ cent a word, first issue, no advertisement less than 25 cents; two issues 40 cents; three issues 60 cents. No advertisements will be accepted from this office.

WANTED.—For sale and rent. J. M. Keichling, Bellefonte, Pa. 2-50

WANTED.—Woodchoppers at 60 cents per cord. J. B. Shope, Curtin, Pa. 2-48

FOR SALE.—Good top buggy $80. a bargain. Inquire Centre Democrat. 2-381f

FOR SALE.—Cream separator at a bargain. D. C. Hall, Flemington, Pa. 2-261f

FOR SALE.—Fine grade Jersey cows, coming fresh. George Vantine, Bellefonte, Pa. 2-48

FOR SALE.—Driving mare, pedigree blooded stock; perfectly safe. R. C. Noll, Pleasant Gap, Pa. 2-45

WANTED.—At the Haag house, a dining room girl, also in kitchen. Apply Hotel Haag, Bellefonte, Pa. 2-381f

FOR SALE.—C. Rhode Island Red Cockerles and pullets. Bred from pure strain. A. A. Fletcher, Howard, Pa. 2-48

FOR SALE.—Two stove double heater, hard or soft coal burner. Inquire of W. B. Parsons, agt. Flemington, Pa. 2-48

FOR SALE.—Indian Runner Ducks & Drake. The kind that lay and pay. $1.00 each. B. F. Davis, Penna. 2-48

FOR SALE.—Full blooded, single comb, White Leghorn breeding cocks, Washburn Poultry Farm, Bellefonte, Pa. 2-381f

WANTED.—Good draft mare colt five or six months old, also a dozen good young ewes. L. K. Dale, Oak Hill, Pa. Bell phone 2-48

NO-GRO-IN.—For Ingrown Nails, send 25 cts. for bottle of No-Gro-In and canvasses proposition to No-Gro-In Co., Bellefonte, Pa. 2-381f

FOR SALE.—Two 2 mo. old colts, Percheron stock, good reason for selling. Philip W. Burn 506 Pugh St. State College, Pa. Bell phone 2-48

FARMS.—Large and small, limestone soil, in Blair, Centre and Huntingdon counties. Send for catalogue. G. C. Walte, P. O. Box 592, Tyrone, Pa. 2-48

FOR SALE.—Driving mare, harness, buggy, mule, fresh cow, Brookville wagon, Dockash Range and Dockash heater. J. B. Shope, Curtin, Pa. 2-48

POSITION WANTED.—Clerk by young lady with store experience. Address "X" care Centre Democrat, 42

FOR SALE.—Deering 2 row corn husker, in good condition; will sell cheap. Garbrick Bros., Opposite Big Spring, Bellefonte, Pa. Both phones 2-48

FOR SALE.—Second-hand Hubler threshers; in first class condition; will sell cheap. Garbrick Bros., opposite Big Spring, Bellefonte, Pa. Both phones 2-48

FOR SALE.—One bay colt, two and one half years old; good size, good stock and a beautiful animal without blemish. Margaret C. Gates, Curtin, Pa. 2-48

NOTICE.—A. C. Confer, of Gregg township, Bellefonte, desires to his friends that he will not be an independent candidate for supervisor, as has been rumored.

WANTED.—Ladies earn $25 dozen making plain neckties. Home business. Experience unnecessary. Mailings or instructions. Needcraft, 1066 Altoona, Pa. 2-48

FOR SALE.—On reasonable terms Centre Hall I. X. L. hydant plant, together with patent of same reason, age of over 70 years. Apply to D. F. Lusk, Centre Hall, Pa. 2-48

LOST.—A white and black and tan hound male; white legs, white breast, about 2 feet high. The finder will be suitably rewarded by returning him to the owner, David H. Thompson, Howard Pa. 41-1f.

WANTED.—To purchase a six or seven-room house in Bellefonte, on terms of one-half cash and balance in monthly installments. Communicate by letter with "House-builder," care of Centre Democrat office. 2-