RECENT DEATHS.

retired from active duties. Mr. Alexander was a member of good standing in the Methodist Episcopal church, and was held in high regard by the entire community.

TAYLOR:—Arthur J. Taylor, formerly of Bellefonte and quite well known to many of our people, died at his home in Milton, Sunday at 11 p. m. of diabetes. The deceased was born in Cogan Valley, Pa., and was 49 years of age, and the son of Wm. P. and Amanda Taylor. When the Nail Works was in operation here, he came to Bellefonte, some time in 1882, and worked at his trade as a nailer. After residing here about ten or fifteen years he located in Milton where he worked in the nail mill of C. A. Godcharles & Company. Just twenty-nine years ago this Christmas he was united in wedlock to Miss Alice L. Scanlon, of Ayr, and their married life was a happy and agreeable one. He is survived by his wife, but no children, and two brothers, Fred W., of Canton, Pa., and Howard W., of Buffalo. He was a consistent member of the Catholic church and held in high esteem by all who knew him. Funeral services were held in the Catholic church at Milton Wednesday morning conducted by Father Maloney, after which the remains were brought to Bellefonte at 1 p. m. Wednesday, interment being made in the Catholic cemetery at this place.

SHUTT:—Mr. and Mrs. William Shutt, of this place, have the sincere sympathy of the entire community in the sad death of their little daughter, Pearl Shutt, who died at their home on east Burrow street, Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock, of black scarlet fever, after being ill since last Friday. The little girl was nine years of age and a student in the public schools. Owing to the contagious character of her disease the funeral services were private and held on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, interment in the Union cemetery.

HUFFMAN:—It is with extreme regret that we chronicle the death of Mrs. Gertrude Spigelmyer Huffman, wife of J. E. D. Huffman, of Williamsport, and eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Spigelmyer, of this place, which sad event occurred at the German Hospital, Philadelphia, Wednesday evening, October 29th, at 10 o'clock, where she had been for two weeks under the care of Dr. John Deaver. Mrs. Huffman had been ailing for almost two years and her condition finally became so bad that she was taken to the hospital where on Friday previous to her death she underwent an operation and was so much relieved that her husband and attendants were encouraged in the belief that she would recover. Her condition showed improvement up to the Monday previous to her death when she suffered a collapse and her relatives were summoned to her bedside. Deceased was about forty-three years of age and was born in Lycoming Co., where her girlhood was spent. When a young woman she came to Bellefonte with her parents and lived here until her marriage to Mr. Huffman about twenty years ago, since which time she resided in Williamsport. She was a member of the Presbyterian church since girlhood. In addition to her husband she is survived by three children, Leonore, Ralph and William, all at home. She also leaves her husband's parents, G. R. Spigelmyer, of this place, and two sisters, Mrs. G. Willard Hall, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Charles Kase, of Sunbury. The funeral services, which were private, were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 from her husband's residence in Williamsport, conducted by Rev. Herbert Ure, pastor of the Presbyterian church, interment in Wildwood cemetery.

HARTER:—John William Harter died at his residence in Rebersburg, November 3, 1913, aged 58 years, 6 months and 21 days. Deceased was born near Beaver Dam, on Penn's Creek, about a mile from Penn Hill, the son of Samuel and Lydia Ann Harter, both of whom survive, the former at 83 and the latter at 80. His early years were passed at his place of nativity, and his rudimentary education was received at the Beaver Dam school, where for many years Jamison was master and tutor. Only a few weeks ago, he recalled those youthful days and memories of his school companions. He received a good English education, as all the youths of that epoch did in the common schools. He came to Rebersburg about 1885 and engaged in mercantile pursuits with J. C. Morris and subsequently continued alone at the store now owned by M. Claude Haines. In his long business career he prospered, although he was liberal to the poor and did many a quiet deed of charity, remembering the saying of the Master: "Inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these, you did it to me." He was married June 5, 1887, to Miss Ida A. Wolf, who survives, the marriage proving a happy one. To them was born one daughter, Ethel Wolf, recently married to Harry Hubler, and upon her he bestowed the most tender, paternal affection, which was manifested even to the moment of dissolution, when the mortal spirit released itself from these earthly bonds. He was a leading citizen, a good Odd Fellow, a regular communicant of the Lutheran church, and by his death a void is created in the community, which will not be so readily filled. His survivors, in addition to his parents, wife and daughter, are these near connections: brother Erza, who resides in George Valley and sister Anna, who is Mrs. J. C. Finkle, Spring Mills. His death followed the operation for appendicitis from which he never rallied, although he was conscious up to the time of his decease. The funeral will be held at the house at 10 a. m. Thursday, and the church services will be conducted by Rev. Rearick, a former pastor, assisted by Revs. Binzma and Rev. Stauffer, interment at Rebersburg.
