—Miss Emma Alkins left for Altoona Monday afternoon where she visited with friends and also attended the great New York success "Pie of Mr. Heart," at Misher's theatre Tuesday evening, returning home Wednesday.

—Rev. W. B. Cox, formerly pastor of the Evangelical church at this place, but now located at Berwick, was in Bellefonte Monday for several hours greeting old friends, as he is big and handsome and a bachelor, it may have been the pretty school marm in town this week, that proved the attraction.

—List of unclaimed letters for the week ending November 8th, 1913, at the Bellefonte post office: Frank DeKoster, Mrs. Margaret Loye, F. E. Rath (4), Mrs. Harry Reno, Mrs. Verna Spicer, Mrs. Vichia Thomas, Miss Elsie Young—H. C. Valentine, postmaster.

—Rev. W. H. Brown, a former pastor of the Evangelical church at this place, now located at Lewisburg; Rev. W. J. Dice, of Millheim, and Rev. H. R. Wilkes, of Millheim, were Bellefonte visitors Monday between trains while on their way to attend the Anti-Saloon League convention at Columbus, Ohio.

—The venerable John Royer, of Zion, gave the Democrat a call while in town last Saturday, and if he had not told us so himself, we could scarcely believe that Mr. Royer is the oldest male resident of Walker township in this county. He has been a bachelor all his life, yet he carries their weight with remarkable vigor.

—Mrs. Philip Waddie left last Thursday for Lancaster where she will visit with her brother, Dr. Wilbur Twitmore, and from there go to Millersburg for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Finkle, Mrs. Roberts was a former resident of Bellefonte and a student at the Bellefonte Academy.

—Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Schell, of East Lamb street, expect to move into the Harry Miller property on Wilson St. just as soon as Mrs. W. E. Gray vacates it to occupy her own home on East Lamb street. James Morrison will move from Burrows street to the house now occupied by Schools on Lamb street. Ferd Beezer has moved his family from their home at Spring creek to the property on East Lamb street recently occupied by John Leopold.

—Dr. Ansel, the well known eye specialist, of Williamsport, will be at the Brockhoff House, Bellefonte, next Wednesday and Thursday, November 19th and 20th. Dr. Ansel will give a special treat on this trip to everybody. He will give his best services, worth Ten Dollars, with guarantee and very profitable, although the conditions of the sight and headache, for Five Dollars, and some for $2.50. Consultation and eyes examined free of charge. Parents having school children who are dull in learning should have their eyes examined.—Adv.

—On the approaching Sunday, November 16th, all the customary services will be fully resumed in the Methodist Episcopal church of Bellefonte. The Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. should command the attendance and participation of increasing numbers of people, young and old. At 11 o'clock the pastor will have as his subject, "The Young Disciple." A meeting for men will be conducted by the pastor at 3 p. m. Such a meeting last Sunday afternoon was well attended and very profitable, although the weather was trying. All men of our community are invited to the meeting next Sunday afternoon. At 7:30 p. m. the subject of the sermon will be "The Temperance Issue in Belle-—Miss Martha Parker, of Jersey Shore, was a Bellefonte visitor last week.

—Mrs. Mary Smith was a last weeks visitor at State College with her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Pennington.

—Miss Mary Thomas departed Tuesday morning for an extended visit with friends in Philadelphia.

—Rev. M. C. Piper, of Milesburg, will fill the pulpit of the United Brethren church next Sunday, morning and evening.

—Mrs. John Raymond and her niece, Miss Lena Smith, were pleasant visitors over Sunday with the former's daughter in Lock Haven.

—Mrs. J. Allison Platts, who has been a guest of Prof. and Mrs. James R. Hughes at the Academy for the past ten days, returned to her home in McKeesport on Tuesday.

—The residence of Bernard McGovern, No. 227 East Lamb street was quarantined Tuesday on account of the illness from scarlet fever of their son, Thomas McGovern, age 7.

—You can get the best oleomargarine, 5 for $1, that money can buy, at Gross' Cash Store. We also have those 10c Peaches that we sold a ton of last year. Don't forget oysters, 35c. qt.—Adv.

—Steve Hanks, a Slavishman boarding at Cold Stream, near Phillipsburg, is in Bellefonte jail charged with having stabbed John Wosowick, a fellow countryman, during a dance a short time ago.

—Messrs. Harry Hutchinson and Liam T. Kelley who represent the Pennsylvania passenger and freight agents respectively, attended an agents convention in Williamsport on Tuesday.

—Miss Rebecca Rhoads left Bellefonte on Monday for Columbus, Ohio, where she will attend the fifth-annual convention of the Anti-Saloon League of America. She joined a party of ten from this section of the state who will attend the convention.

—Nevin Wetzel returned home last Thursday from Reynoldsville, Pa., where he was in the employ of a large contracting firm, who are erecting a bridge at that place. Having completed work on the bridge, Mr. Wetzel will likely remain at home for the winter, the company having no other work in sight at present.

—Mrs. Telford Fink left Bellefonte Tuesday morning for Phillipsburg where she will make her future home. Mr. Fink having secured an excellent position with a large hardware firm in that city. They moved their household furniture the beginning of the week. Mrs. Fink was accompanied by Miss Mary Kniseley, a daughter of Jacob Kniseley, who will remain with her until she is comfortably located in her new home.

—Among those who are reported to be on the sick list are Miss Kathrin Parker, confined to bed with lumbar; Mrs. Al. Stine, a victim of the same ailment, and unable to be about; Miss Anna Straub confined to her home in Spring township; Harry Miller, who has several contract jobs underway at State College, was brought to his home on East High street Saturday evening, and has since been bedfast with a severe attack of lumbar.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bowersox, of Altoona, who formerly conducted the restaurant in Crider Exchange, accompanied by their children were visiting relatives in Bellefonte during the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Bowersox left on Monday for Aaronburg where they spent a day with the former's grandmother, Mrs. Wm. W. Bower, returning again to Bellefonte on Tuesday. They departed on Wednesday for their home in Altoona, where Mr. Bowersox is in the employ of the Penna. Railroad company.

—One of the busiest men to be found in seven counties is Frank Deitrich the painter, who has been employed all through the summer and fall months in the vicinity of Snow Shoe and Clarence. He has managed to get to Bellefonte long enough to spend Sundays with his family, but that is about the only time anybody here gets to see him, as his contracts in the mountain towns have kept him constantly busy. Mr. Deitrich expects to finish up his work this week and return to his home. An expert painter he has few equals.

—The sale of Red Cross Christmas seals has begun and from now until the end of the holiday season many thousands of the little stamps will be purchased and placed upon letters and packages. As in former years, Miss Helen Overton will handle the sale in Bellefonte, and has a supply of 6,000 on hand. These may be purchased of her at one cent each, the entire proceeds of which are used by the Red Cross Society in their endeavors to stamp out the tuberculosis germ. Aside from the worthy work aided in their purchase, the little seals make useful and pretty ornaments for parcels and packages.

—The new addition to the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium is nearing completion and Friday evening of next week will have a formal opening with a reception by the Board of Directors and Ladies Auxiliary from 7 to 9 o'clock followed by a basket ball game from 9 to 10 o'clock, between the Tyrone Y. M. C. A. and Bellefonte. The gymnasium with its new addition erected at a cost of about $2,000 is one of the finest in the state and is 40x80 feet in length. It will have a fine basket ball floor and will also be fitted up for indoor tennis. It will be provided with a portable stage, curtain and portable electric lights, so that moving picture shows and other entertainments can be held there. It will have a seating capacity with the gallery of 700 people.

—Richardson Pearson Hobson, of Merrimack fame, who was to have been here to deliver a lecture November 20th as the second attraction in the Y. M. C. A. Star course, has been compelled to cancel his date owing to the fact that he is in the midst of a hot campaign for United States Senator from his native state Georgia. He will however appear here some time after the 1st of the year. The fact of his not coming has necessitated a re-arrangement of the schedule of entertainments and Miss Margaret Stahl has been substituted for Captain Hobson and will appear here on November 25th instead of on Hobson's date, the 20th. Miss Stahl, besides being a beautiful woman, is one of the greatest impersonators on the Lyceum stage today and all patrons of the star course are assured of a great treat in the entertainment to be given by her on Tuesday evening, November 25th. Don't forget the date.

—Samuel Hoy, of Zion, gave the Democrat a call while in town on Tuesday.

—Miss Phoebe Gettig, of Altoona, was a recent guest of her uncle, S. D. Gette, Esq.

—Mrs. Cronmiller and Alice Fox were among the young ladies to spend Pennsylvania Day at State College.

—Mrs. Lyman Corman and sister, Mrs. Thos. Fishburn, of State College, were Bellefonte visitors on Saturday.

—Mrs. Harry Resides, of State College, is visiting at the home of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. William Resides, East High street.

—The Misses Pearl and Katherine Hoy, daughters of F. Hoy will leave Friday for a few days visit with friends in Tyrone and Phillipsburg.

—Mrs. LeRoy Plum, of Newton, Kansas, arrived in Bellefonte last week to spend a month with her mother, Mrs. Mary Fox, on Bishop street.

—The ladies of the United Brethren church will hold an oyster supper in the basement of the church, on Thursday, Nov. 20th. The patronage of the public is solicited.

—Mr. and Mrs. Hayes Schreyer, of Chicago, Ill., were Bellefonte visitors during the past week, greeting their old time friends. They were guests at the Bush House.

—Gilbert Beaver, of Yorktown Heights, is a guest of his father, Judge Jas. A. Beaver, during the absence of Mrs. Beaver who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Thos. H. Hayes, at Atlantic City.

—Mrs. Bartholomew and Miss Helen Bartholomew and Mrs. Joseph Lutz, were at this place on Monday, when they motored to Bellefonte last Sunday and spent the day at the home of Mrs. Mary Smith, east Bishop street.

—Mrs. William Rees and little daughter, Margaret, of Patton, were arrivals in Bellefonte Saturday for a visit with the former's father-in-law, G. W. Rees, and family on Reynolds Avenue. Sunday being the sixth birthday of little Margaret a dinner was given in honor of the event, which proved most enjoyable.

—The family of Henry Lowery, east Bishop street, were considerably alarmed early last Thursday morning by the presence of a strange animal which worked its way into the house, entered by way of a door which had been left open. In trying to make its escape the intruder jumped to the top of an upstairs window, knocking three shelves of flowers to the floor and raising more or less of a racket. The only explanation for the weird animal's strange visit is that it had been driven from the mountains by the forest fires.

—G. E. Lentz, the genial and accommodating conductor on the Lewisburg passenger train, is an enthusiastic sportsman and loves nothing better than a tramp in the woods and mountains in search of game. The first four days of last week he spent in Paddy Mountains with his old friend Andrew Harpster, of Glenn Iron, and the combined result of their hunt was twenty-two pheasants, four quail, two partridges and one gray squirrel. Mr. Lentz aims at a pheasant and eight rabbits up until Wednesday morning at 11:30. He says he found game very plenty and is naturally quite proud of his four days hunt.

—The following were among the callers at this office during the week: Mrs. E. J. Van der Meer, of Millheim; Pine Grove Mills; F. W. Dillen, Julian; T. A. Auman, Rebersburg; Harry C. Zeigler, Wolf Store; Thos. L. Moore, Centre Hall; E. R. Wolfe, Wolf Store; Frank Batchel, Howard; Mrs. E. J. Van der Meer, of Millheim; Spring Mills; A. J. Long, Juniata; Chas. Musser, Woodward; Carl M. Bartzke, Coburn; Edwin Hosterman, M. T. Zubler, Spring Mills; G. A. Cerman, Rebersburg; Daniel W. Diehl, Nitburg; H. J. Yades, Howard; J. W. Zerby, D. Neess, Spring Mills; W. A. Guisewitz, Aaronburg; H. O. Fiedler, Woodward.

NEW ELECTRIC COMPANY.

Closes Deal for Bellefonte Plant and Will Furnish Light and Power.

It has been known for some time that the State-Centre Electric Company, a new corporation, headed by Asbury Lee, A. M. Musser, W. H. Willey, of Clearfield, and Senator John E. Fisher, of Cambria, was negotiating for the purchase of the local electric light plant, and Friday of last week the deal was closed and all the property of the Bellefonte Electric Company was transferred to the new concern. This deal had been pending for a long time. At a recent meeting of council the new company was granted a franchise and a ten year contract, the entire cost of the plant, including the cost of the power, thus depriving the old corporation of a large share of patronage. The deal pending for the purchase of the present operating plant in Bellefonte was then renewed and successfully carried to a finish. It is said the purchase price amounted to $125,000.

It is said there will be no changes at the plant here at present. It will continue under the name of the Bellefonte Electric Company until it is finally merged with the State College plant. It will be operated as at present upon the direct current system until spring, when an alternating current system will be installed. C. G. McAvoy will remain as superintendent, as will the balance of the men now employed there. They expect to be in a position to furnish more power for manufacturing purposes. The company which was chartered during the past year, covers a large portion of Centre and Clearfield counties and proposes to furnish light and power for Bellefonte, State College, Milesburg, Pleasant Gap, Unionville, Phillipsburg and Clearfield and many smaller communities and country districts. The main power house will be located close to the company's mines near the Black Moshannon and there will be sub-stations at Phillipsburg, Clearfield, Bellefonte and State College. The plans of the company are of course in their infancy, but some big developments in the electrical business can be expected in the not too distant future.

A Double Wedding.
Squire W. H. Musser was called upon on Monday to officiate at a double wedding, the parties all being from Altoona, who came to Bellefonte on the noon train, secured marriages licenses at the register's office, had the knot tied by the Squire and were able to leave for home on the 4:45 train. The names of the couples were Carl H. Hoffman and Lydia A. Troy, William Clapper and Margaret Dodson.

MARRIAGES.

Bressler—Shank.

Harry L. Bressler and Norma V. Shank both of Spring Mills, drove to Millheim Sunday evening, where at the Evangelical parsonage, they were united in holy matrimony by the Rev. W. J. Dice. Both are popular young people and it is hoped that their married life may be happy and prosperous.

Smith—Ray.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Harriet Elizabeth Ray, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Ray, of Bellefonte, to Raymond Harold Smith, of Allentown, Pa., the ceremony taking place in New York City, Tuesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Smith departed the same day on a wedding tour that will embrace Boston, Philadelphia and other eastern cities, and upon their return will be at home in Allentown after December 1st, at No. 29 North Eighth street in which city the groom is employed as supervisor of the Lehigh Valley Transit Company. The bride is a graduate of the Bellefonte High School, a member of the Harmonious Club, and is very popular among a large circle of friends in this place.

Wallis—Conley.

One of the prettiest and most elaborate weddings that has taken place in Bellefonte for some time was the ceremony Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in St. John's Reformed church, this city, which united in holy bonds of wedlock, Miss Nellie Meese Conley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Will Conley, and Mr. William H. Wallis, of Phillipsburg. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt, pastor of the church, in the presence of a large gathering which filled the pretty edifice to its utmost. The church was very handsomely decorated with white spruce and chrysanthemums and presented a very fine appearance. As the guests were gathered, Miss Grace Jenkins, of Milton, sang very sweetly a solo, entitled "Because" by P. Hardold. Miss Marie Conley presided at about the same time the wedding party came up the aisle she played "Lohengrin's" wedding march, during the ceremony she played "Traumerl" and as the party were leaving rendered Mendelssohn's march. The bride was led away by her father, J. Will Conley and the beautiful ceremony was used. The maid of honor was Miss Jean H. Wallis, a sister of the groom. The bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Harbinson, of Phillipsburg, Miss Caroline Poorman, of Tyrone; Miss Elizabeth Eker, of Lewisburg; Miss Rebecca O. Jacobs, of Millintown, Pa. The groom was attended by Mr. Dale R. Mason, of Phillipsburg, as best man, and as usher; Lawrence C. Sinton, of Clearfield; James B. Stephenson, of Crafton, Pa.; Hugh M. Clark, of Phillipsburg; Roger M. Evans, of Davis, West Virginia, and Neil H. Fleming, of Williamsport. The bride was attired in a beautiful gown, trimmed with lace and worn a veil of tulle and princess lace and carried a shower bouquet of brides roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor wore lavender crepe de chine, trimmed with lace and carried a bouquet of lavender chrysanthemums and wore a black picture hat. The bridesmaids wore charmeuse gowns trimmed with tulle and rosebuds, two attired in pink and two in blue and carried baskets of Killarney roses. They wore hats to match the dresses. The bride's mother, Mrs. Conley wore lavender brocaded satin trimmed with point lace. Mrs. John J. Wallis, mother of the groom was dressed in white crepe de chine trimmed with American beauty shawls. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on West Logan street, the house being decorated for the occasion, the color scheme being green and white. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conley and a granddaughter of the late John Meese and one of our town's prettiest and most accomplished young ladies. She is a sister of Mr. and Mrs. John Wallis, of Phillipsburg, a graduate of State College, and is now connected with the electrical firm of J. S. and W. S. Kuhn, of Phillipsburg. After a wedding tour to eastern cities they will reside at Bellefonte, a suburb of Clearfield. On Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock Miss Sarah Hastings gave an informal tea in honor of the bride and groom and in addition to the bride party there were present Misses Grace Cook, Elizabeth Morris, Janet McCallister, and Mr. Orville Keller. In the evening there was a dinner for the bridal party at her home.

The Academy-Kiski Game.

Saturday's game of foot ball at Tyrone, between the Bellefonte Academy and Kiski, was a very interesting and fierce struggle for football supremacy and the scholastic championship of western Pennsylvania. Over a thousand people braved the drizzling rain to witness the contest and the consensus of opinion was that the Academy, entering the field with the victory. It was the first game between these two rival schools in six years and the result is unfortunate. Technically the game belongs to Kiski by the score of 1-0, according to the decision of Referee Frye, of Phillipsburg, who refused to allow a touchdown made by Bellefonte, when one of their men, scooped up a fumbled ball by Kiski on Bellefonte's ten yard line with but four minutes to play and ran the length of the field for a touchdown. While the Centre county rooters were cheering in anticipation of victory, as it gave them a lead of 6-5. Referee Frye called the play back, contending that he had blown his whistle when the ball was in the hands of the man who fumbled when he tackled, making it dead. A long argument ensued, Bellefonte refusing to abide by the decision and finally the Referee awarded the game to Kiski and left the field for a touchdown. Head Linesman Prevorse called a majority of the spectators stood by the Academy in their contention and considered the Empire very incompetent. The field was wet and soggy, and it was evi- dently beforehand that the team getting the most breaks would likely come through victory. Kiski got them all in the first half and the Academy in the second. In the first half Bellefonte was weak but in the second, they came back strong. Bellefonte claims the victory by a score of 6-5, while Kiski claims it 1-0 on Referee Frye's decision. It was a most unsatisfactory finish to a thrilling game between two evenly matched teams.

Entertainment at Linden Hall.

The Linden Hall mission band will give an entertainment on Sunday evening, Nov. 16th, in the United Evangelical church in that place. A very interesting program has been prepared and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

When in need of any job printing, call on the Centre Democrat.

RECENT DEATHS.

TREASTER.—Roland B. Treaster died at his home near Pottera Mills on Monday of gastric indigestion and heart trouble, aged 63 years, 11 months and 23 days. Deceased is survived by a wife, Cora A. Treaster, and the following children: John S., at home; Homer R., of Yeagertown, and Emma J., of Colyer. Funeral service will be conducted this morning by Rev. Jones, of the Reformed church, and interment will be made at Springtown.

SHUTT.—Edward Shutt, the little six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Shutt, of Burrow street, died Tuesday morning of scarlet fever and was buried the same afternoon. The case is a particularly sad one as just a week previously at about the same hour of the day, their eldest daughter Pearl died of the same disease. Another little girl is ill with the same disease, but a trained nurse is in charge of the case and it is sincerely hoped that her case may not prove so severe and that her life may be spared.

HEWITT.—Mrs. Margaret A. Hewitt, wife of Angus W. Hewitt, of 7204 Idlewild street, East End, Pittsburg, was overcome by, escaping gas at her home in that city, Monday morning about 2 o'clock, when her husband, who is a railroad engineer, returned home in the morning, he found her cold in death. The deceased was a native of Centre county and was born near Milesburg, October 23rd, 1853, making her age 30 years and 15 days. She was the daughter of Thomas and Alta McClincy, now residents of this city. She was married on the 19th of May 1904 to Angus W. Hewitt and has since resided in Pittsburg. She leaves besides her husband and parents, the following brothers and sisters: Edward, of Seattle, Washington; Mrs. J. A. Grove, of Tyrone; Albert, of Pittsburg; Celia, Ruth, Milford, John and Elda, all of Bellefonte. The remains were brought to Bellefonte Tuesday afternoon and taken to the home of her parents at Valentine's forge where brief services will be held this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Hepler, of the Free Methodist church, to which the body will be taken to the Methodist church in this place where at 2 p. m. services will be conducted by Rev. E. H. Yocum. Interment in the Union cemetery.

WASHBURN.—Harry Washburn, one of the best known hotel men in the western end of the county, and who had conducted a three-year hotel, situated at Phillipsburg, Pa., died on Sunday morning at his home in Osceola, to which place he removed about two months ago. His death was the result of complications, with which he has been suffering for some time. The deceased was born in Phillipsburg on November 11th, 1855, making his age 53 years, 11 months and 29 days. He was married on February 20th, 1878 to Miss Frances Gearhart, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Asbury Gearhart. Three children were born to this union, two of whom survive, viz: Herlin, of Memphis, Tenn., and Viola, wife of J. N. Meyers, of Osceola. He also leaves several brothers and friends to mourn his death. Mr. Washburn was an enthusiastic republican and in the old days of county conventions was generally a delegate from his section of the county. He was a genial, courteous gentleman and an ideal hotel man. He was a member of the Elks and several other fraternities. The funeral services took place Wednesday evening at 8:20 at his late residence in Osceola, and the interment, which will be private, will take place this morning at 9:30.

PHILLIPS.—William Henry Phillips, a former prominent merchant of Aaronburg, died suddenly on Monday evening about 8:30, of heart failure, aged 67 years. Mr. Phillips had gone to Bower's barber shop to have some hair cut, when he was about to step from the door to go home when he suddenly fell to the floor and expired instantly. Deceased was a native of Ohio, but had been a resident of Centre county for many years. For twenty or more he was in the mercantile business at Aaronburg, and was widely known throughout the county. He retired from business about thirteen years ago, selling his interest to R. W. Mensch. He was a member of the Reformed church of Aaronburg, at which place the funeral services will be conducted on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, by the pastor, Rev. Donat. Interment will be made in the Reformed cemetery.

An Explanation.

We have been requested to make clear some facts in the Penn Chemical Co.—Ammerman case recently brought to a settlement, an account of which was published in this paper several weeks ago. While the settlement was made in the prothonotary's office in Philadelphia, it was effected before the case was called in the superior court. In fact, the defendant made no attempt to combat the claim of the Penn Chemical Co. in the Superior Court, and had not gone to the expense of preparing a paper book. In justice to Mary C. Ammerman, the defendant, we publish the above.
