

Correspondents' Department

Bright, Newsw Letters From the Various Sections of the County.

REBERSBURG.

The funeral services in memory of the late John W. Harter, last Thursday, were solemn and impressive, attended by many sorrowing friends from four valleys. The public schools were dismissed as a mark of respect. Brief services were held at the house of mourning, which were conducted by Rev. J. M. Rarick, of Williamsburg, Pa., assisted by Revs. Bingham and Stauffer, local ministers. The Rebersburg lodge I. O. O. F. of which Mr. Harter was a valued charter member and ever foremost and unostentatious in friendship, love and truth, turned out over forty members and conducted the ritual services at the tomb. The pall bearers were Thomas A. Auman, Geo. B. Winters, Chas. H. Smull, George Waite, Henry A. Meyer and Victor Brunsart. The funeral arrangements were directed by Mr. Campbell, of Millheim. St. Peter's Lutheran church of whose congregation he was an esteemed and active member, was crowded to the doors, a mute testimony to the worth of this deceased member in his lifetime. The choir sang affectingly the hymns he loved so much and a selection: "I am going home," as typical of his abiding faith, which is the corner stone of Luther's theology. A touching prayer was said by Rev. Bingham. The sermon by Rev. Rarick was replete with sententious phrases and his theme was the service of Christ Jesus, the lowly incarnation of God, to bear the sins of the world and make atonement for all who have faith. He was followed by Revs. Bingham and Stauffer in pathetic testimony to the christian character of the deceased and his worth as a citizen and neighbor. The church services were ended the Odd Fellows conducted by Hon. C. Luther Gramley surrounded the grave. The ritual services were spoken by Rev. Luther Miller, formerly of Smulinton and the prayer commending the spirit of the departed brother to Almighty God, was spoken by Chaplain Clement Gramley. Then each brother deposited upon the casket a sprig of immortelle, in final token of the Order's faith in the immortality of the soul of their beloved brother.

Titus Gramley, of Spring Mills, was an attendant of the funeral of John W. Harter.

The relatives and friends of the family of John W. Harter were suitably entertained and served with refreshments at Long's.

A solution of the age problem in Rebersburg items, two weeks ago, has been sent in by K. R. B. Philadelphia, as follows: Four is four-fifths of 5. 9 years represents one-fifth and four-fifths are four times 9 or 36, the age of Helen now. Five-fifths equals 45 years, Florence's age now. In 9 years Helen will be 36 plus 9 or 45 years, and Florence will be 45 plus 9 or 54. The sum of 45 and 54 is 99. Let us hear from the High school.

The late John W. Harter left no written will, but in his last hour expressed that his wife and only daughter should share his earthly possessions equally, it is said. This is a nuncupative will as to personality, if regularly probated as such. As to realty, there can be no nuncupation.

Thomas Igeon and his son, of Logan Mills, were over at Mr. Harter's funeral Thursday.

The immediate relatives of the late John W. Harter, his widow and daughter, extend heart-felt thanks to friends and neighbors for their sympathy in their great bereavement.

Theodore Royer was not forgotten by his friend, John W. Harter, in his last wishes. Theodore was virtually raised by Mr. and Mrs. Harter, and seemed like one of the family.

Rev. Rarick, who pronounced the funeral sermon on the demise of John W. Harter, began his ministry in the Lutheran church at Rebersburg, years ago.

Miles township went "demokrat-sch" as usual, and against the "wagon road bond steal" of Tener, Penrose, McNichol et al.

Willis P. Bierly has not only bought up all the plies in four valleys, he could rest, but has started a "ground hog" factory. His sausages are "true" to the definition of the act of assembly and he sells them at 15 cents a pound. If you want them smoked, you can smoke them to suit your asophagus. The total weight of mail received at the Rebersburg post office and sent out during October was 7,643 1/2 pounds.

The fine specimens of Fallowater apples exhibited at Hazel's store are from the orchard of John Herb, east of Madisonburg.

On Friday, quite a number of our lovers of sport, were motored to State College to see the game of pedal education between State and Notre Dame of Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Ammon Hazel and Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Corman, with Sam. Gephart, autoed to State College, on Friday.

Mrs. Sallie Harter-Hillbush, of Snyder county, attended the funeral of John W. Harter.

From the number of defective ballots cast, Nov. 4th, it is evident that a greater necessity exists to teach good citizenship than euogenics and peripatetics! The present convict ballot is a nuisance.

It's neck and neck between Bob, and the Professor!

The Auman clover huller is now raising the dust.

It don't pay to change one's politics even for a little office.

Thomas Walker was able to enjoy the salubrious sunshine of Friday.

The success of the state game commission in wringing dollars from would-be hunters, it is said, encourages that body to get the next fool legislature to raise the license to $5-Dianas at half price!

The Blankenburg ninyhammer administration got its measure Nov. 4. "The old Dutch Cleanser," lost his mop in the Pocono mountains, and spilled his soap all over Philadelphia without the tools to rub it in! Or out!

Pardon this preachment. It is the fate of many to love those who do not reciprocate. But it was the command of Jesus to love one's enemies and to do good to those who hate you and despitefully use you.

Mr. and Mrs. Ad. Winters and Samuel J. Winters are visiting Erastus Winters at his home in Indiana. Erastus will be remembered as the Winters with that perennial smile, when a lad.

Jerome Meyer arrived at Peubla, Colo., the day after his brother Calvin's death.

Our teachers are "institoooin!" This district is partial to male teachers.

"Judge" James P. Frank is at his post again.

Thanks to the intelligence, virtue and honesty of the "trooral deestricks," that $50,000,000 road bond steal was voted down. The crooked cities and towns of the state which are run by a community of crooks, all favored the proposed steal. The legislature may as well get together, now, and repeal the snakey Jones Road law and the false pretence Sprul act of 1911.

It is the general opinion of hunters and woodsmen that we will have a long hard winter. Lay in your wood and coal.

Mrs. Amanda Evans holds the belt as champion female corn husker.

Supervisors are giving the fall attention to our good roads, with their limestone bases. It would be extremely folly to use the defeated state road plans and materials on such roads.

Bank up around the young fruit trees and tramp down the ground to save them from mice. Hon. Henry Meyer put wire netting around his young fruit trees to keep the rabbits from lurching on them. If you cover the peach and apple trees with lime, sulphur and tar, the rabbits and mice will take to the woods.

Thanks to Mrs. Luther B. Frank for copies of the Pennsylvania German, the publisher of which moved from East Greenville, to Lititz, Lancaster County, and, owing to protracted illness discontinued publication, for the time being.

"Farmer Creasy" got there! "He's all right," says Dr. Bright, and produces some stout hickory clubs on his farm from behind Catawissa.

Our lively principal, from behind Lebanon up, is as punctual as isochron and loves music, too.

Jake Heiler will resume his visits to Lock Haven, to supply them with good meats.

Thos. Hubler, John Hubler, Lee Kidder, C. W. Zimmerman, and party went to "the Narrows" on Saturday, so as to be after those bucks with two inches visible horns, by dawn, on Monday morning. Kalbus, the owner of all the same, graciously permits his tagged hunters to shoot such bucks, with such horns aforesaid, until the 25th of November.

Oh, the heavenly hilarity of the auto, speeding, say the female devotees and still they yell, "faster!" It was the same with the bicycle felicity, in pairs, about fifteen years ago. But the joy was transient and the joyesses are dead!

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

PLUM GROVE.

On Friday Mr. Irwin Alexander was buried in the Plum Grove cemetery. He was an old soldier, a good neighbor and a good citizen. His wife and daughter have our deepest sympathy in their sad bereavement.

Miss Gertrude Lucas, Miss Ethel Hinton, Mr. Ernest Lucas and Misses Ruth and Mabel Custer were entertained at the home of Geo. Deters on last Friday evening. Miss Gertrude gave us some fine music on the piano.

Mrs. Willard Fisher, from Wingate, made a short call at the home of G. W. Deters last week.

John Askins visited at Ed. Hall's last week.

Howard and Frank Long, of California, Pa., came to this place on last Tuesday afternoon, but became discouraged and went home the same evening. Howard, if you had not been in such a hurry you might have caught a live deer at Plum Grove.

Aunt Sue and uncle Caleb says they don't care how often Mr. and Mrs. Wayne go visiting, just so they call on them to keep house every time.

Mr. and Mrs. Love Winters and children are visiting at the home of Ed. Hall, at this writing.

Mrs. James McClincy and children spent Tuesday at Aaron Wellers at Bellgrove.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Way went to Tyrone last Tuesday, returning Wednesday evening.

Mrs. William Ingram and children, of Bald Eagle, visited at E. G. Way's last week.

Quite a number of our people attended the sale at Martin Brewer's on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Williams and children from Port Matilda, Sunday, at E. G. Way's.

We had quite a rain here on Sunday. The small streams looked like rivers all day. Followed by a snow storm during the night.

Mr. John P. Gearhart, from Blue Ball, Pa., arrived here on Sunday evening, his business being to help George Deters butcher.

P. B. Iddings butchered on Monday. Sallie, the next time you kill a skunk, be sure he's dead before you let him go.

George Deters butchered his hogs on Monday, one weighing 345 pounds, the other 355 pounds. Those who helped butcher were Ed. Hall, Ellis Way, John Gearhart, Mrs. Ellis Way, Mrs. George Tolbert, Mrs. William Tolbert and Miss Ethel Hinton.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Why did not the weather bureau foretell the deluge of Saturday night and Sunday? Their gaze was upon the far west. It was the Master who said: "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and no man can tell whence it cometh or whither it goeth!" Weather bureaus and aviators take a tumble!

William Harter and John Ruhl, Tyllersville nimrods, went hunting last week and disdained small game. Nothing less than a 400-pound black bear suited their fancy. The hids alone it worth about $50.

Pale Children

Ayer's Sarsaparilla helps nature to make rich, red blood. No alcohol.

Sold for 60 years.

Ask Your Doctor.

NITTANY.

No preventing providence there will be Sunday school at 2 p. m. K. L. C. E. and preaching in the United Evangelical church in the evening, unless otherwise ordered.

H. P. Zerby was on the sick list several days the past week, but is better again.

Phillip Krape, the jolly tea man was through here last week showing some very nice Christmas premiums.

Visitors at the home of Harry Tressler over Sunday were, Mr. Statton, of Rata, and Miss Margaret Lannan, of Mill Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Will Tressler, of Sugar Valley, Mrs. Chas. Emerick and Mrs. Fannie Emerick, of Snydertown, Allen Winkelman, of Mackeyville.

Mrs. Harry Tressler and daughters, Verne and Ruth, spent a day very pleasantly with Mrs. Clem Lutz at Snydertown last week.

Those on the sick list at this writing are getting better. We hope for their speedy recovery.

W. B. Rossman, of Howard, was the guest of G. W. and J. W. Tolbert over Sunday.

Miss Hester Zerby visited friends in State College, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. McCabe visited friends at Mackeyville, recently.

Sunday was a very rainy day and on Sunday evening it began to blow and snow, which made you think that the good old summer time had passed and winter had come.

William Dolan butchered on Monday.

H. A. Long and William Garbrick were across the mountains on Monday after cattle for H. A. Long, who is our up-to-date butcher.

Our coal dealers are busy delivering coal since the cold weather set in.

AARONSBURG.

Mrs. Lewis Bailey, nee Bower, and daughter, from Logan, are spending a few days with her father, Chas. Bower, and her brother and family, our up-to-date butcher.

Mrs. William Fredray, from Bolton, Kans., left her many friends here Monday to return to her western home. We are sorry to see her leave but wish her a safe journey.

John Detwiler, of Centre Hall, a former merchant of our town, spent a day at his former home, visiting his father, Frank Detwiler, at the home of his brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Winkleblich.

Walter Orwig, wife and interesting son Kermit visited his parents over Sunday at Hartleton, his father not being in the best of health.

Mr. and Mrs. John Eisenhauer and bright little daughter, Margaret, from Milesburg, were welcome over-Sunday guests of his brother's family.

Mrs. E. R. Wolfe and son Jason, of Wolfe Store, spent a day in town, Saturday. Her husband, our intermediate school teacher, took them as far as Axemann to spend Sunday with his brother-in-law; Monday he went to Bellefonte to attend teachers institute. All the schools are therefore closed for the week.

Mrs. Mable Crouse Hain, from Sunbury, was entertained a few days by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Crouse.

Margalene Weaver returned home from Hubblesburg to spend some time with her mother.

TYLERSVILLE.

The teachers of this township are attending institute at Lock Haven this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ore Johnsonbaugh and children, of Avia, are spending some time here.

The Evangelical church is being beautified by being painted.

Mrs. Maggie Frantz visited at Johnstons.

George Miles is suffering from a sore eye.

SAVED HIS FOOT.

H. D. Ely, of Bantam, O., suffered from horrible ulcer on his foot for four years. Doctor advised amputation, but he refused, on reluctance tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve as a last resort. He then wrote: "I used your salve and my foot was soon completely cured." Best remedy for burns, cuts, bruises and eczema. Get a box to-day. Only 25c. All drug stores or by mail, H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis.—Adv. Nov.

RASH ON BODY FROM HIPS TO KNEES

A Red Flame or Sheet All Over Her. Could Not Bear Clothing to Touch Her. Would Cry, Fret, Rub and Scratch. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured Entirely!

R. F. D. No. 1, Box 65, Millerstown, Pa.—"My little daughter was very sick with a rash on her body, from her hips to her knees for about two weeks. I suppose it was eczema. It spread and got itchy and sore. She was about one and a half years old. It was a red flame or sheet all over her from her waist to her knees. By spells it would burn, scratch and itch and she would places and slip out water and blood. She could not bear her clothing to touch her without crying. I carried her day and night and she would cry and fret and rub and scratch.

"I used medicine, also used several ointments, but they did no good; she grew worse. I saw an advertisement in a newspaper of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. We bought a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment and after three times using the Cuticura Ointment and washing and bathing the affected body with the Cuticura Soap the child could sleep. Cuticura Soap and Ointment cured her entirely and left her skin snow white." (Signed) Mrs. Ellen J. Orris, Apr. 3, 1913.

Cuticura Soap 25c. and Cuticura Ointment 50c. are sold everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional medicine. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

F. J. CENESEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

FREE! A Beautiful Wall Pocket and Calendar.

To any one sending us 10 names and correct address of their friends, men over 21 years of age. Upon receipt of the names, we will ship free of charge, postage prepaid, a large Wall Pocket Ornament, which is also very useful.

Remember this costs you nothing, only send us the 10 names and your address. Write to:

C. F. ZARUBA & CO.,
318 THIRD AVE., PITTSBURG, PA.

CORTRIGHT METAL SHINGLES

Laid Right Over Wood Shingles

No Dirt, No Bother—In a very short time any building can have its fire-trap covering turned into a modern fire-proof, storm-proof, lightning-proof roof at a very moderate cost—a roof that will last as long as the building and never need repairs.

For Sale by
CORTRIGHT METAL ROOFING COMPANY,
50 North 23rd Street, PHILA. DELPHIA, PA.

Fresh Mackerel

First catch of the season.

10-lb Pails, 20 Fish,	$1.40
10-lb Pails, 16 Fish,	1.60
10-lb Pails, 12 Fish,	1.75

The goods are open for your inspection.
Come and See Them.

Sechler & Company,
High Street, Bellefonte, Pa.

LYON & CO. LYON & CO.

Furs Furs

Good Furs at low prices are unusual at the beginning of the season. The continued warm weather has had something to do with the special low prices.

Our assortment is the largest, everything new in Neck Pieces and Muffs to match. We are showing the Brown Fur sets in the long new Scarf effects with the large pillow muff. Black and Red Fox sets animal Scarf and Two Skin Muffs. White Fox set Two Skin Scarf and Muff. Real Brook Mink sets in all the newest shapes in the Two animal Scarf and Muffs.

Childrens and Misses Fur sets in White, Black and Brown in all new shapes.

Single Muffs in Black and Brown in barrel, envelope, and pillow shapes.

La Vogue Coats & Suits

La Vogue Coats and Suits. We are showing special new models in our Coat and Suit