SPRING MILLS, No. 1

It seems to be getting ready for winter as we are having lots of rain. Quite a number have gone hunting for deer this place. The rabbit hunters do not seem to have as good a success as they had on the first day, the rabbits must be getting scarce. Pheasants are plenty yet. Our farmers have nearly all their cornfodder in around here. The show that was held in the Grange Hall last week was well patronized. The moving pictures and other plays that they had were good, it was well worth ten cents every evening. Mrs. Samuel Stover and son James, spent Sunday at Pleasant Gap with Mrs. Stover's daughter, Mrs. John Hoy. Our new landlord of the Spring Mills Hotel took possession on Monday. Perry Detwiler, our Spring Mills lawyerman has moved into Harry Allison's house. Frank Foreman had sale on Wednesday. There will be quite a few changes made in and around this place in the Spring. The writer will publish same as soon as they find out where all changes will be made. Ralph Ziegler has gone to Lock Haven to secure employment. Eben Finkle, son of Cal Finkle has returned home from the west. Ralph Bartges who was employed in Ohio, as mail clerk has returned home, he expects to stay at home and go to school. Our shoemaker, Mr. Huss will have his shop closed for two weeks as he has gone hunting for deer. Our barber A. C. Dunlap, has gone hunting for deer. Penn Literary club will hold society on Friday eve, Nov. 21st, 1913, in Spring Mills High school room.

OAK HALL.

Mrs. Samuel Reitz was a pleasant visitor at the home of John Hanna, of Millbrook, one day last week. Doc sold his horse last week and says he has to walk now, but as his chief attraction is not very far from the post office he ought to be able to stand it. Our town was well represented at the State College Agricultural Fair. Mrs. Claude Radel is spending some time at the home of her parents at Selinsgrove. The Twilight Club had a very nice feed consisting of ice cream, cake, coffee, sandwiches and bananas and all present report a very nice time, the evening being spent in games, singing and eating. As I have heard some comment about this club I have taken the liberty to question a member as to the principles and motives of this club and what he told me was this. For the spreading of sociability which is so very much needed and as for educational, as music is our speciality, we also discuss topics that our moral person can indulge in. So my readers, you see that instead of criticizing we ought to encourage and support this band of young men who are trying to do a benefit to the community if only given a chance. Mrs. William Foy is spending some time at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. D. Mayes, of Milton. Mrs. H. A. Wagner and Mrs. A. C. Peters spent last Wednesday at Pine Grove.

BOALSBURG.

Quite a number from here attended Pennsylvania day at State last Friday. All the teachers of Harris township left for Bellefonte Monday to attend institute. Quite a number of hunters left town Saturday for their two-weeks hunting season. Henry Hosterman and family and Mrs. Faust autoed to Alexandria Saturday and returned home Sunday. Mrs. Faust stayed at her home there for the winter. Miss Reed, of Petersburg, a niece of J. J. Reed, was canvassing the town last week, selling different kinds of books. Miss Annie Weber and brother Samuel took a trip to Huntingdon last week. Miss Annie is visiting there a couple weeks. Mrs. Harry Shugart and little daughter Dorothy Bell, of Altoona, are visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Harry Shugart. Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher are happy over the arrival of a little daughter, Anna Louise, at their home Monday.

SOBER.

Boys, get your wedding bells ready for the wedding in the near future. How about it, Verna? Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Ebert, from Zion, visited Mrs. Ebert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Weaver. Ezra Ripka was disappointed on Saturday evening. Henry Immel called on his lady friend on Saturday evening and as it was quite rainy, he stayed for Sunday. Harry Shook had his lady friend up with his parents over thrashing. If you want a nurse, call on Ezra, he is a good one. Mrs. Kerstetter, from Altoona, is helping to take care of her sick sister, Mrs. Daniel Shook.

BRUSHVALLEY.

Protracted meeting is still in progress at this writing with no seekers. F. W. Beck has moved from his mountain home to the new home at the road. Those on the sick list are Miss Dorothy Roush, Miss Margaret Rachau, Mrs. Lloyd Miller and Maurice Miller. The West hunting party left for their camp on Saturday. Some of our young men could easily be tracked on their way home on Sunday night. Better not stay so long next time. A certain young fellow of Rebersburg had his umbrella taken at Madisonburg on Saturday evening and was obliged to go home through the rain.

TUSSEYVILLE.

Mrs. Frank Richardson and son, Orvis Sarah Horner, Grace Horner, and James Foust spent Friday evening at the home of Harry Horner's. We are sorry to say that Mrs. Wm. Martz is on the sick list. D. T. Stoner made a business trip to Mifflin county on Friday. Hugh Runkle, Al Page and Harry Horner, were to Jacksonville helping James Runkle finish his fall work. Mr. and Mrs. Orvis Horner of Colyer, spent Sunday with H. A. McClellan and family. The Farmer's around here hulled their clover seed last week. She is a poor hostess who is always entertaining suspicious.

Wanted to Know.—After the third addition to the family it became necessary to secure the services of a permanent nurse. "Now, my husband is very particular whom I engage as a nurse," said the mistress to a girl who had applied for the position. "He wishes me to go into the most minute details about your qualifications. Do you know how to prepare food? Can you sew and mend? Do you mind sitting up late at night? Are you faithful and devoted, and have you a kind, loving disposition? Will you—" "Excuse me, ma'am; am I to take care of the baby or your husband?" replied the girl. Many a man has strained his intellect by trying to butt in.
