

In and About Bellefonte

—Oliver Witmer, of Pittsburg, was a visitor at his parents' home in Bellefonte over Sunday.

—Margaret Stahl, a wonderful impersonator, in Star Course, Tuesday, Nov. 25, at the Opera House.

—Miss Mary Miles Blanchard spent the past week in Baltimore in attendance at the Friends yearly meeting.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Davis, of the Garman House, left Wednesday for a brief visit with friends in Williamsport.

—Miss Ursula Bayard, of Williamsport, is a pleasant guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Zeller, of North Allegheny street.

—Mrs. Robert Gaftan and little daughter, of Tyrone, arrived in town Wednesday and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Garman, of East High street.

—Mr. and Mrs. William Dawson and children, of Altoona, spent Sunday in Bellefonte with Mr. Dawson's mother, Mrs. Susan Dawson, of Half Moon Hill.

—Miss Margaret Duncan, of Philadelphia, while in town last week attending institute, was a guest at the home of her cousin, Charles Gilmore, of east Linn street.

—Fred Chambers, of Philadelphia, was a business visitor in Bellefonte last Saturday. Fred is looking well and prosperous and his friends here were glad to see him.

—Mrs. Alonzo Ross, of south Potter street, was taken to the Bellefonte hospital last Friday suffering from blood poisoning as the result of running a splinter in her arm.

—Mr. and Mrs. Kurtz L. Houser and son, William, from Houtzdale, and Mrs. L. K. Lenker and daughter, Sue, from Aaronsburg, are visiting at W. R. Houser's on S. Water street.

—Miss Gertrude Miller, of McKeesport, Pa., was an arrival in Bellefonte Wednesday, for a visit at the home of Dr. S. M. Nissley, of East High street. Miss Miller is a sister of Mrs. Nissley.

—Mrs. Harry Keller and son, William, are visiting Mrs. Keller's sister, Mrs. W. C. Stoddard, at Westcott, Pa. Later they will go to Lancaster and be the guests of William H. Keller for several weeks.

—Mrs. Harold Kirk, of North Tonawanda, N. Y., will arrive in Bellefonte this afternoon to remain with friends and relatives until after Christmas. Mr. Kirk will join her about Christmas time.

—Mr. and Mrs. Sim Baum have given up their quarters at the Brockhoff House and have gone to house-keeping in the cosy little house on North Spring street recently vacated by Miss Bertha Lauria.

—Mrs. Harry Showers, of Chicago, Ill., passed through Bellefonte Tuesday morning to visit her parents at Pleasant Gap. She was formerly Miss Margaret Mulfinger, and is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mulfinger.

—Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Garman entertained a party of their friends belonging to the younger set at their cozy home on East High street. This evening they will again entertain in honor of their mature friends.

—Misses Ursula, Fies, Margaret Galt, Priscilla Bell, of Philadelphia, were in Bellefonte, Friday between trains, while on their way to State College where they were, the guests of John Fies and Harold Bell, students at the college, over the Sabbath.

—Mrs. Henrietta Nolan, Mrs. Emma Rapp and Mrs. S. S. Sycamore, of Philadelphia, attended the funeral of Mrs. Martha Forsythe at Houtzdale, Wednesday. Mrs. Forsythe is a sister of Mrs. Nolan, Mrs. Rapp and Mrs. Walker and is the first death to occur in a large family of children.

—Capt. George R. Rieker arrived in Bellefonte Wednesday of last week and remained until Saturday as the guest of W. R. Brachbill and other friends. Capt. Rieker now has a good berth on a freight steamer plying between Boston and Newport News and this is his first visit to Bellefonte in three years.

—Maurice Runkle, who is now a successful druggist in Lancaster, Pa., was a Bellefonte visitor last week and enjoyed a few days hunting. Mrs. Runkle and little daughter had been here about ten days visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Wagner. Friday they accompanied Mr. Runkle back to their Lancaster home.

—Under the auspices of the Epworth League, the Methodist Episcopal church will hold a series of evangelistic services beginning Sunday, Nov. 30th, and extending through the following Sunday. The pastor, Dr. E. H. Yocum, will be assisted on the various nights by out-of-town ministers, and careful preparations are in progress to make this week of special interest and profit. All persons are extended a cordial and earnest invitation to be present.

—Edward E. Rine, Adams Express Agent at Tyrone, is now taking an enforced vacation which he is spending at his home at Coleville. It seems that about ten days ago an accident befell him in which his right leg was caught between two boxes, resulting in severe contusions. Not anticipating any serious consequences, Agent Rine paid little attention to his injury, but on Saturday his physician informed him that crutches were in place of his method of locomotion for the next two weeks. During his absence from duty his place is being filled by the messenger on the Bald Eagle Valley division, while Leo J. Toner, of Bellefonte, is acting as messenger in place of the latter for the next ten days. This necessitated an additional assistant in the office at this place to take Leo's place and John Woods is filling that position very acceptably.

—One more great game of foot ball—the greatest ever witnessed in Bellefonte—will take place next Saturday, on Hughes Field. The Wyoming Seminary eleven of Wilkes-Barre, the strongest "prep" school team of eastern Pennsylvania, will make their first appearance in Bellefonte this week. They are as good as most second-rate colleges. The Bellefonte Academy sprung a surprise on them last year and gave them the first defeat they had ever received on their own grounds in Kingston. This year they have defeated Ursinus College and every other team they have played, allowing but a single touchdown to be scored against them. They are coming here with a veteran lot of players to wrest the state championship from Bellefonte Academy. Will they do it? Go and see. It is true that the Academy have a big job on hands to ward off defeat. The game will be called at 2:30 sharp.

—Mrs. Chas. Cruse is visiting her sister, Mrs. Mattland in Williamsport, for a short time.

—Miss Anna Valentine attended the annual meeting of the Audalon Society in New York last week.

—Mrs. Roy Brandon, of Altoona, was an arrival in town Monday and is a guest of Miss Emma Aikens.

—Mrs. A. R. Richards and daughter Miss Mary, of Philadelphia, were the guests of Bellefonte friends during the past week.

—Mrs. Claude Jones, of Tyrone, was the guest of her aunts, the Misses Armer and Mrs. S. B. Miller, the latter part of last week.

—Mrs. Emma Eyer, of Buffalo, N. Y., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Benjamin Bradley, Jr., of North Spring street. She will remain until after Christmas.

—Miss Ethel Hedding, of Spring Mills, spent the past week very pleasantly at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Burkholder, of North Thomas street.

—Mrs. D. H. Hastings has closed her home on North Allegheny street for the winter and with her daughter, Miss Sarah, left last Thursday for Harrisburg.

—Mrs. William C. Cassidy has been spending the past two weeks in Philadelphia, while her husband is out in the Alleghenies with the Panther Hunting club.

—Mrs. Edmund Blanchard has been spending the past two weeks with her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Donnelly at Ridley Park while her husband is out hunting for deer.

—Mrs. James A. McClain and little daughter, Emily Eliza, left Tuesday morning for their home in Spangler after a week's visit with Col. and Mrs. J. L. Spangler.

—Mr. and Mrs. John S. Walker charmingly entertained a party of their young married friends at a card supper at their home on east Linn street Friday evening last.

—William Doll left Bellefonte for Linden Saturday to meet his wife, who has been visiting her brother, Augustus Gillen. After spending Sunday there he accompanied Mrs. Doll back to Bellefonte Monday.

—The schools of the borough opened on Monday after being closed the previous week on account of influenza. During the week the school rooms were thoroughly fumigated to prevent the further spread of scarlet fever.

—Millard Hartwick and Roy Grove both of this place, successfully passed the recent civil service examination for clerk or carried at the Bellefonte Post Office and it is likely both will receive the appointments in the near future.

—J. Linn Harris is attending this week the fifth national convocation congress in Washington, D. C. which is in session Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, he being one of the fifteen delegates appointed by Governor Tener from this state.

—Mrs. Jean Smith, of Lock Haven, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Raymond, of South Potter street. On her return home she was accompanied by her daughter, Miss Lena, who has been visiting in Bellefonte for some time with her grandparents.

—Toney Noll, the expert shoemaker, who with William Shutt has conducted a cobbler shop in the Garman building for some time past, moved his family and household goods to Milesburg this week, and will hereafter keep the citizens of that borough better heeled than heretofore.

—Mrs. Christ Decker had the misfortune Monday morning of last week to slip and fall on a snowy side walk at her home at Zion and break her left arm above the wrist. Mr. and Mrs. Decker reside in Bellefonte but have been spending the summer and fall at their farm home near Zion.

—Miss Frances Kern, of Duluth, Minn., who has been visiting her brothers, Milton and Frank Kern, in this place, and also relatives at Millheim, left Saturday for her home in the far west. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Lizzie Kern, who will spend the winter with her in Duluth.

—The Reformed parsonage was placed under quarantine this week by reason of William Schmidt, the young son of Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Schmidt, having contracted a mild case of scarletina. While there is no cause for any great alarm, the precaution of thoroughly fumigating the church and Sunday school room was promptly observed, thus banishing all danger from this source.

—Mrs. Ben. F. Curry and little son, Billy, who have been visiting Mrs. Curry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Cook, left Tuesday morning for Baltimore, Florida, where they will join Mr. Curry and spend the winter. Mr. Curry, who was formerly chief chemist, with the Jones & Laughlin Steel company at Homewood, Pa., is interested in real estate and farming in Florida, and decided to spend the winter there looking after his interests.

—Willis Ishler, of Pittsfield, Mass., was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ishler, the latter part of last week, leaving for home Saturday evening on the 8:30 train. Mr. Ishler, who is in the employ of the General Electric Company, had been sent out to Indiana to do some work, was caught in the great snow storm that raged in that section and was delayed several days, but stopped in Bellefonte for a few days before returning to his home.

—During the past ten days considerable interest has been manifested in a novel guessing contest in progress at Morris & Sheffer's store. About a dozen or more toy balloons on which letters were inscribed were suspended by strings over an electric fan, which kept the balloons moving constantly. These letters represented the name of a well known business man of this city, and the trick was to assemble those letters together, so as to spell the name of the said business man. Quite a number of guesses were received and when the contest closed on last Saturday night, it was announced that the name was John Sebring, Jr. The first prize a five pound box of candy was won by Miss Mary Hayes, daughter of Rev. G. E. Hayes, her guess being the seventh one received. One pound boxes were awarded to Henrietta Sebring, Harry Nighthart, Lawrence Ray, John Bower, Melvin Locke, Kline Woodring and Willis Wion. George R. Meek won two half-pound boxes and each of the following a half-pound box, C. A. Morris, Bud Morris and Elizabeth Morris.

—Mrs. Thomas Thompson and children spent last week with her mother at State College.

—Mrs. Cyrus Showers and daughter, Mrs. Duval Barter, were held Wednesday evening for Philadelphia on a shopping expedition.

—Mrs. Foreman, wife of Prothonotary D. R. Foreman, spent a portion of last week in Philadelphia with her mother, Mrs. Beulah Smith.

—O. C. Peters, of Lancaster, but formerly of this place, is transacting business in town this week in the interest of the International Harvester Company.

—Curtis Houser, wife and child, of Brinsburg, Pa., are visiting his father, William Houser, in this place. Mrs. Lank and daughter, Sue, of Aaronsburg, are also guests at the Houser home.

—Mrs. George Derr was taken ill during the past week and her physician has diagnosed her ailment as appendicitis. It is not known at present whether or not an operation will be necessary.

—Saturday's Tyrone Herald says: Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Garman left on Friday morning for Stuart, Florida, where they will spend a season with Harry Wilhelm.

—Willis Scholl, of Bishop street, journeyed to Newark, N. J., to accompany his wife home, who has been spending some time with their son and family at that place.

—Aikens will have a fur display at the Bush House, Wednesday, November 27th. The largest, finest and most up-to-date buying ever shown outside the city.—Advertisement.

—All the mail boxes throughout the town and vicinity have received new coats of paint, in keeping with the annual custom of the government. The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Club will be held on Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock, in the High school building. The subject for discussion will be full of suggestions for the coming Christmas season.

—William Barner, head chemist at the match factory, resumed his duties yesterday after several days of enforced idleness due to a slight accident by which some of the material he was working with got in to his eyes.

—The ladies of the Reformed church will hold their annual Thanksgiving market next Tuesday and Wednesday in Petrikin Hall. There will be the usual sale of good things for which the ladies of this congregation are famous.

—P. F. Keichline, the green grocer, is able to be about again after being confined to his home for the past ten days with a severe attack of grippe. During his illness Mrs. Charles Keichline, his daughter-in-law, very capably assisted her husband, in the conduct of the store.

—"From the Manger to the Cross" is conceded by critics to be one of the greatest sacred film features ever attempted. A production of this interesting religious subject will be given at the scenic on Thursday evening, December 4th. It should be witnessed by every person in Bellefonte.

—Mrs. William Gray is now occupying her home on Linn street, moving into it last week from Wilson street, where she had been temporarily residing since the date of the fire which destroyed her Linn street home. The house has been practically rebuilt and presents a handsome and cozy appearance.

—Mr. and Mrs. David Barlett were called to Tyrone Sunday by the serious illness of their daughter, Mrs. Howard Dry, who is suffering with appendicitis. Her condition is reported as somewhat improved at this writing and they hope to be able to bring her to Bellefonte the latter part of the week.

—John Hartsock and son Russell, who employed in Williamsport, came up from the Lumber City last week to spend several days at their home near the glass works. On Tuesday Mr. Hartsock butchered several hogs, and the family larder will be profusely supplied with a portion of the high cost of living for some time to come.

—Walter Welch, Esq., of Clearfield, who is beginning his second term as district attorney of Clearfield county, was a pleasant caller at the Democrat sanctum on Tuesday while in Bellefonte enacting his duties in connection with argument court. Mr. Welch, who is a democrat, escaped being drawn into the recent judicial muddle in that county and as a result the voters gave him his office with a nice majority.

—W. J. Driebelbis, of Greensburg, left for his home in that place on Sunday after spending some time with his mother at State College and other friends in this vicinity. Mr. Driebelbis was a resident of Bellefonte for a number of years and during that time successfully operated the Bellefonte creamery. After he left here he went to State College where he was employed for about two years, and was then offered a good position at Greensburg which he accepted. He has since been located in that city and has charge of two dairy farms. He has few equals as a dairyman.

—The Bellefonte High school is concluding its most successful season in foot ball. This year's team, with but two more games to play, has five victories to its credit, and but two defeats. One of the hardest fought games of the season was that of last Friday when Clearfield was defeated on Hughes Field by the score of 6-0. Arrangements have now been completed with the Bucknell University, whereby the Bucknell Freshmen will play the Bellefonte team in the Thanksgiving Day in Bellefonte. The game will be played on the local field and will be called at 3 p. m. A large crowd of Bellefonte rooters is expected to help our team win.

—J. A. Bowersox, of Seanor, Pa., father of Mrs. William Witmire and Mrs. Howard Stover of this place, was an arrival in Bellefonte last week, and after spending several days with each of the above families left on Monday for Aaronsburg and vicinity, to visit old friends amidst the scenes of his former home. The call of the woods is partly responsible for Mr. Bowersox's visit to Centre county at this time, and before leaving for Pennsylvania on Monday he fortified himself with a hunters' license and tag with the expectation of enjoying a few days' hunting. Mrs. Bowersox has been in Aaronsburg for the past several weeks visiting her mother, the venerable Mrs. Wm. Bower, who has been ill.

—Dr. J. E. Ward transacted business in Williamsport the fore part of the week.

COUNCIL MEETING.

At Monday night's meeting of the borough council President Keller presided and the following members were present: Judge, Walker, Brockerhoff, Daggett, Seibert and Beezer. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved after which verbal communications were called for. Clement Dale Esq., on behalf of his client W. Reynolds Shope, complained of the bad condition of the sidewalk in front of the property of Geo. R. Meek on South Thomas street. He was informed by the borough engineer that Mr. Meek had already been notified and that a contract had been given Rhoads & Knisely by Mr. Meek to lay a concrete walk in front of the said property. This proved satisfactory to Mr. Dale. A communication was received from the County Commissioners asking council to appoint a committee to meet with them at the court house on an early date to discuss and if possible arrange an amicable settlement of the High street bridge proposition. There has been a dispute for some time between the borough and county over the amount each was to pay towards the building of the new High street bridge over Spring Creek. The President appointed the Finance committee and Borough Solicitor to meet with the County Commissioners as soon as possible and report at next meeting. The borough engineer's reports have been inspected and found to be in good condition, but several minor repairs were recommended which the water committee agreed to do as soon as possible. New walks are needed in front of Jno. Bauer's property on Bishop street, J. M. Lieb's property on Logan street, C. T. Gerberich's lot on east Howard street, and a new crossing from the Electric Light works to the Central Station. The clerk was ordered to notify the parties interested.

The borough solicitor notified council that everything was in readiness to close up the deal for sale of the Light works property to the Moshannon Electric Company. The deal has been made out and notes drawn up and will be closed dating November 18th.

An order was drawn for F. W. Cridder for $116.93 being in full for the balance due him on Green mill property. The water tax on the property of S. B. Miller, agent, on East High street, was ordered reduced from $5.25 to $5.00. Mr. Walker moved seconded by Mr. Daggett that the water tax on the main building of the Y. M. C. A. be exonerated for 1913. It was so ordered. Walls have been repaired and windows fixed at the Phoenix Pumping Station as requested by Col. Reynolds and it is practically settled that he will release the pumping station for another ten-year period. After approving bills amounting to $1647.32 council then adjourned on motion.

MARKLEY:—John M. Markley, a veteran of the civil war, died shortly before 8 o'clock Friday at his home in South Philadelphia, the result of a stroke of paralysis suffered the previous Monday. The deceased was a native of Bald Eagle valley, this county. He was born on October 2, 1837, making his age 76 years, 1 month and 12 days. He was united in marriage on Feb. 22, 1865, to Miss Susan Spittler, who survives, together with 5 of the 12 children born to them, viz: William, of Williamsport; Mrs. Nancy Virginia of Snow Shoe; Vinton E., of Houtzdale; Mrs. Gertrude Borden of Madera, and Mrs. Alice Little, of Nant-Y-Glo. Mr. Markley was a brave soldier in the union army, serving his country faithfully for three years. He was a kind husband and father, and had a large circle of friends who will deeply mourn his death. For the past five years he had been very much of an invalid, and during this time was given the very best care by his faithful wife. The funeral took place from his late home Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, Rev. W. H. Spangler, officiating.

FIDLER:—Mrs. Catherine Fidler, a native of Centre county, died November 8th, 1913, at 9:30 a. m. at her home in Monroe, Wis. She was the widow of Mr. Henry Fidler, an old soldier, who died one year ago, Sept. 16, 1912. She was taken sick soon after the death of her husband and her illness dated from three months back. She was confined to her bed and suffered from a complication of trouble incident to old age, stomach and liver trouble combined with rheumatism. She was, with her husband, one of the early settlers of Monroe, moving there from Centre county, Pa., soon after the war, locating at Orangeville, Ill., for a few years, then moving to Monroe, Green County, where she has resided since. Mrs. Fidler's maiden name was Schrack, and she was born in Centre county, Pa., Sept. 7, 1835, making her age 77 years. She is survived by one son, James O. Fidler, of Monroe, and three daughters, Mrs. Clara Keller, of Western, Neb.; Mrs. Bertha Altenberg, of Chicago, and Mrs. Rosa Girard, of Monroe, and also one brother, David Schrack, and several sisters of Logan, Pa.

EVERHART:—William Everhart, a well known farmer of College township, died quite suddenly at his home on the Branch, at six o'clock Wednesday evening of last week. He had been doing the usual chores and when he returned to the house complained of not feeling well. The family summoned a physician but when he arrived Mr. Everhart was dead. Heart disease was the cause. Deceased was the son of Benjamin and Martha Everhart and was born on the farm on which he lived all his life and where he died in his sixty-seventh year. He was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Foster, a daughter of the late William Foster, of State College, forty years ago, and a week after the marriage, while away on their wedding trip, the bride died and Mr. Everhart has remained single ever since, true to the sweetheart of his early manhood. He was a very successful farmer and his farm was regarded as a model in that community. He was a staunch Republican in politics but never sought public office. He was a member of the grange and of the Presbyterian church. He is survived by two brothers, Alexander of Altoona, and James on the old homestead. The funeral services were held Saturday morning conducted by Rev. W. K. Harnish, interment in the Branch cemetery.

How to Get the Most Money Out of Your Furs

Send fur to Corry and save all profit from you to wearer. Corry furs go directly to manufacturers all over the world and YOU get the saving. Corry's prices to you are higher than you can obtain by selling fur to home buyers or shipping elsewhere. Corry's methods are fairer than those of any other house in the fur trade.

Whether you are trapper or buyer fill out the coupon to-day and send for Corry's plan. Learn how CORRY does business; how every shipment is held separate and returned to the shipper if he isn't satisfied. Get Corry's complete price list and market report. A postal will bring it if you haven't an envelope handy. Do it now and learn about this "Better>Returns-And-Sooner" house.
