BELLEVIEW—Hustn Twp.

Miss Ella Merritt, who has been attending school at Altoona, is at home at this time, having been on the sick list for the past week.

Miss Mary Wilson and Mr. Allan Andrews were united in marriage on Wednesday by Rev. Ezra Youm at Bellefonte, and departed on a brief wedding tour to Niagara Falls.

Delbert Yothers, son of T. V. Yothers, who has been on the sick list for some time, is slowly improving.

Weddings are very numerous and seem to be all the fashion, the past two weeks around our vicinity.

Jerry Hanscome, George Hogenkamp and Charley Fahr left on Monday for Tyrone where they will work for Tom Patton.

We have been having some very fine weather and as the old saying is, it must be old woman days.

On Friday evening a jolly bunch of boys and girls assembled at the home of A. W. Hartsock and pleasantly surprised their son Robert.

Misses Martha, Nora and Celia Andrews, Ella Wilson, Misses Edna and Mabel Straw, Jennie Straw, Rhoda Flick, Elda Hartsock, Mrs. Eberts and her daughter Lydia, Kathryn Hartsock, Pearl Fink, Ophelia Rowin, Orlando Andrews, John Straw, Clair, Lester and Leslie Fink, Leslie Cronister, Jasper McDonald, Robert Hartsock and Alfred Rowin.

The evening was spent in playing games and dancing, but all that was missing was the music. A delicious lunch was served after which they all returned to their homes in the wee hours of the morning.

Edna Straw, who has been living at Martha for several weeks, has returned home.

CURTIN.

Vince Sharp and son Frank, of Lock Haven, visited his mother, Mrs. Wm. Allen, on Thursday.

Mrs. Jessie Bathurst and son Malin, and Calvin Bathurst and daughter, Miss Sue, attended the butchering at the home of Samuel Stanley at Milesburg on Wednesday.

Miss Hilda Bryan visited her aunt, Mrs. T. G. Leathers, at Mt. Eagle, over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stanley visited at the home of Adam Schroyer, at Milesburg, on Sunday.

The Misses Elgie and Stella Barger were Bellefonte shoppers on Saturday.

Mrs. James Barnhart and two daughters, of Bellefonte, visited at the home of Mrs. V. E. Curtin on Friday.

Mrs. John McCartney, of Snow Shoe, and Miss Nancy Robison, of Mt. Eagle, visited at the home of Wm. Prince and wife on Sunday.

Mrs. Elmer Bryan, of Bellefonte, visited at Wm. Allen's on Thursday and helped them to butcher.

Rev. Piper and W. J. Brooks administered communion to grandma Ginger on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim Keller and Mrs. Wm. Keller, of Pleasant Gap, were visitors of Mrs. Amelia Gingham on Sunday.

BELLGROVE—Union Twp.

Alfred Ammerman killed two big hogs last Friday. Those who helped him to butcher were Miles Hall, Mrs. Aaron Hall and Miss Betsy Hall.

Freeman Caldwell and Jonathan Ammerman spent Saturday evening and Sunday at Milesburg and Bellefonte, visiting friends and relatives.

Miss Cora Hall, who is employed at Flemington, spent Sunday with her parents, Mark Hall and wife.

Aaron Wellers, wife and three children, of this place, spent Sunday with Mrs. Wellers' sister, Mrs. Harman Burd, of Dix Run.

Mrs. Cassie Ammerman helped Harry Harper's to make applebutter, one day last week. "Kinder late in the season for making Pennsylvania salve, isn't it?"

Things are getting lively around here now. There are two saw mills at this place, one owned by George Holt and the other by Ed. Bullock.

Nothing is needed without a job. Miles Hall is still shipping apples and potatoes and getting a good price for them.

Aaron Hall and wife were in Unionville Saturday evening. While there they attended the L. O. O. F. meeting. Mrs. Hall called on her friend, Mrs. Perry Wollaslag, who has been on the sick list for some time. We are glad to note she is getting along nicely.

John Hall was a caller at the home of Miles Hall, Sunday afternoon.

Harry Hall, Freeman Caldwell and Charley Hall, all of this place, and Ed. Hall, of Plumgrove, took their guns and went hunting on Monday for big game. Wonder if they will get any?

Freeman is hunting for deer (dears).

MOSHANNON.

Misses Frances and May Holt returned home from Renovo, after being there a few months to see their father, who is poorly at this writing.

Raymond Holt is very poorly, but hope for his speedy recovery.

Walter Fye was on the sick list; also his sister Grace, and Bert Hazard.

Jennie Walker has returned home after spending a week or so with friends in and about Bellefonte.

Our hunting parties got a few deer and a bear; the O'Neal party got the bear.

Wm. Holt, who had his ribs broken, is able to be around again; he went to Bellefonte on Monday to see his brother George, who is in the hospital with a broken leg.

William expects to go to work again today at his old job, driving a mule team.

The electric light proposition is moving along nicely; they have the wire stretched through the town and will soon have the lights on.

LIVONIA.

Hunting is all the go at Livonia at present, the number of men stopping at Stover's were about fifty in all, and secured about 150 pheasant and as many rabbits, also squirrels, etc.

The Rebersburg hunting club, who camped one and one-half miles from Stover's carried off the honors for big game, they having shot four deer and four bears at the present writing.

A large number of deer have also been killed by the different camps in the Narrows.

JACKSONVILLE.

T. P. Beightol left on Wednesday noon for Waddie where he assisted in killing some fine porkers for his son-in-law, H. Clayton Poorman on Thursday, and A. Clarence Poorman on Friday; Mrs. Joseph Poorman and son John, of Romola, also assisted at the butchering.

James Mackey, W. I. Walizer and G. M. Harter transacted business in Bellefonte on Saturday.

Mrs. Harvey Vonada brought her mother home and spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. E. S. McChintic's.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Stamm and daughter Mary were guests at the C. M. Harter home on Sunday.

George Leathers and family, of Howard, were guests at the C. N. Yearick home on Sunday.

John Weber and family, of Howard, autoed here and made a few calls.

Edward Dolen and Foster Beightol called at James Mackey's on Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Bartley called at James Bartley's and her father's, T. P. Beightol's, on Sunday.

The duel fought between Fitzsimons and Corbett on Saturday evening ended in favor of Fitzy. Boys you ought not to fight as it is hard on the eyes.

N. H. Yearick is putting up a lime pit this week to add to the fertility of his land.

James Bartley is busy ploughing for the next season's corn crop.

BOALSBURG.

A Thanksgiving service will be held in the Lutheran church Thursday evening, under the leadership of Rev. Harsh, of Lemont.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Mueser, of Bellefonte, were visitors in town Monday.

Miss Margaretta Goheen entertained her friend, Mr. Tussey, of Tyrone, from Friday till Monday at her home here.

Mrs. Jane Slavic, who had been housekeeper at the Everhart home for the past three years, came to live at the home of Cyrus Durst for the winter.

Miss Elsie Rishel spent Sunday at Pine Grove Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fortney spent Sunday at the Danley home at Pine Grove Mills.

Mrs. Peter Weber, of Huntingdon, is visiting with friends here and at Oak Hall.

Mrs. Henry Dale, Mrs. Calvin Weiland and George Ishler are on the sick list.

Protecting the Deer and Elk. Secretary Joseph Kalbus of the state game commission made an order closing the counties of Cambria, Somerset, Westmoreland and Fayette to the hunting of deer and elk for a period of three years.

This makes protection for the deer absolute, although the deer season for the rest of the state opened the 10, inst. Not a single person from the four counties submitted any objections to the petition of the sportsmen for the closing. At least 200 deer will be liberated in these counties early next spring.

RECENT DEATHS.

UNDEROFFER.—Mrs. J. W. Undercoffer, a former highly esteemed resident of Woodland, died on Wednesday of last week at her home in Phillipsburg. Before her marriage she was a successful teacher in the schools of Clearfield county.

Besides her husband she leaves one son and three married daughters.

KEATING.—Thaddeus S. Keating, of Osceola Mills, died on Tuesday morning, November 18, at McGirk's sanitarium, Phillipsburg, after an illness of two weeks with Bright's disease. He was born in Columbia and was sixty-five years old.

He was a railroad engineer by occupation and for many years was employed on the Moshannon branch. His wife and four children preceded him to the grave and only one daughter survives, Mrs. John Wayne, of Osceola. Burial was made at Osceola last Thursday.

GEARHART.—Cornelius Gearhart, who was one of Phillipsburg's earliest settlers, died Wednesday afternoon, November 19th, at 4 o'clock at the home of his son-in-law, Samuel S. Walk in Blue Ball. He had been in failing health for some time following a long life of remarkable vigor.

The deceased, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Gearhart, was born on what has for some years been known as the Fleck dairy farm, a short distance northwest of Phillipsburg, on December 20, 1825, making his age 87 years, 10 months and 20 days.

When a young man he was married to Miss Sarah Goss, who passed to her reward about 22 years ago. To this union eleven children were born, seven of whom survive, viz: Mrs. Joseph Gatos, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Jos. Myers, Isaac, Isiah, Mrs. Samuel S. Walk, and Mrs. James Walk, all of Blue Ball, and Ezekiel, of Chester Hill.

He was the last of a family of thirteen children. He had been for many years a member of the Methodist church at Phillipsburg. The funeral took place on Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the Blue Ball M. E. church, Rev. Mr. Hubb, officiating. Interment in Mock's cemetery.

Saved His Foot.

H. D. Ely, of Bantam, O., suffered from horrible ulcer on his foot for four years. Doctor advised amputation, but he refused and reluctantly tried Buckler's Arnica Salve as a last resort. He then wrote: "I used your salve and my foot was soon completely cured." Best remedy for burns, cuts, bruises and eczema. Get a box to-day. Only 25c. All druggists or by mail, H. E. Buckler & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis.—Adv. Nov.
