MILESBURG.

Sunday was an ideal day as warm and beautiful as could be expected in April. Many of our town folks took advantage of it by going visiting, strolling over the hills, or along the streets. Most everybody remarked, "how beautiful" when lo! a north wind blew and put an end to the balmy air and sunshine and sent our whole populace shivering to their firesides. The thunder rolled in the north and some one predicted it was a sign of warm weather. But the sign must have been reversed by some one. From the Bible we quote: "In the midst of life, we are in death." Nothing could be more congenial to pleasure and happiness, (as far as nature is concerned) than last Sunday was, for this time of the year. Nevertheless Milesburg contained some very sad hearts for the honorable and respected H. H. Harshbarger, a former Centre countian, was brought here for interment. He was born at Zion in June, 1846, and died in the Altoona hospital last Friday at one o'clock a. m. with Bright's disease and with pneumonia, aged 67 years. He was first married to Miss Julia Barnhart, who preceded him to the land of rest nineteen years. His second wife's maiden name was Miss Clara Tompkins, of Altoona. He is survived by his second wife, and these children: Henry and Lillian, at home; Ralph, of McKeys Rocks; James, of Johnstown; Mary, of Altoona; two brothers and two sisters; Z. T. Harshbarger, of Milesburg; Mrs. James Lower, of Passadena, Cal.; Dr. S. U. of Port Matilda; and Mrs. John Yearick, of Bellefonte. Interment was made in the Curtin cemetery, by the side of his first wife and infant David. Mr. Harshbarger was admitted to the bar in Bellefonte, and practiced law for twenty years.

The fair and market that was held in the parsonage of the Presbyterian church by the Ladies Aid Society last Friday and Saturday afternoons and evenings was a grand success, and the effort put forth was amply rewarded, the making the sum of one hundred and ten dollars clear of expenses. The proceeds will be used for repair work on the church. The place was very attractive, being artistically decorated with evergreens, Japanese lanterns and candles. The fire place in the dining room, made the ice cream table very inviting.
