Circulation Over 5,600-Largest in Centre county.

BELLEFONTE, PA., THURSDAY, JANUARY 29th, 1914.

Vol. 37. No. 5.

MANY SUDDEN DEATHS DURING PAST WEEK

J HOWARD LINGLE AND WILLIAM B. THOMAS ANSWER CALL.

IN THE MIDST OF LIFE'S DUTIES

They Were Called Hence-One a Veteran Employee of the P. R. R., and the Other a Former Business Man of Bellefonte-Other Deaths in Co.

LINGLE:—A telephone message received here Wednesday announced the sad news that J. Howard Lingle had died suddenly while at his place of business in Dubois that morning. Mr. Lingle who was in the foundry busi-ness at Dubois had suffered a slight attack of indigestion Tuesday night but felt able to go to his work as and Constable McMahon search the usual Wednesday morning, but while Parks home and recovered quite a usual Wednesday morning, but with a in his office he was stricken with a second attack of indigestion and died second attack of indigestion and died later identified by merchants whose cost-mark was still on the goods. As a cost-mark was still on Tuesday afternoon was the son of Joseph and Elizabeth Lingle and was born at Howard, Centre county, about 62 years ago. About forty years ago he started in the foundry business with the firm of Todd & Duncan in this pace and later with William P. Duncan. After the retirement of Mr. Duncan the firm became Jenkins & Lingle, J. Howard Lingle being the junior member. They conducted a foundry and machine shop below the old Snow Shoe station and to the old car shops When Mr. Jenkins retired the firm became the Lingle Foundry Company About three years ago Mr. Lingle retired from business here and went to Philadelphia and later located at Dubois where he became president and general manager of the Nopact Spigot Company which position he held at the time of his death. Mr. Lingle was a member of the Disciple church but when a resident of Bellefonte he attended St. John's Episcopal church and served for many years as librar-ian of the Sunday School. He was married to Miss May Brower, of Bloomsburg, who survives him with the following children, HaroldB. Ray mond and Marion Lingie, all of Du-bois. He also leaves one sister, Mrs.

Milesburg, this entire community lost one of its best and most upright citizens. A quiet unassuming gentleman, a faithful employee of the Pennman, a faithful employee of the Pennman, a faithful employee of the Pennman, a sincere member of the church and an upright citizen in every respect, his sudden death came as a day which occurred on that date. The day which occurred on that date. The day which occurred on that date. The Burdine Butler vs. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company. Trespass. spect, his sudden death came as a severe shock, not only to his family, but to his many friends and associates. On the day previous to his death he was at his desk as usual attending to his duties in the freight office of the Pennsylvania Railroad at this place. He was apparently in his usual health when he left in the evening to take the train for his home in Milesburg and little did his associates think that they would pever children. T. M. Weaver and daughter to his family, but to his following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Shuey, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. White, Mr. and Mrs. William Owens, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. White, Mr. and Mrs. William Owens, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. White, Mr. and Mrs. William Owens, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. White, Mr. and Mrs. W. ciates think that they would never children, T. M. Weaver and daugh-see him again in this life. Some time during the night he was taken sick Mrs. Winfield Markle, Mr. and Mrs. and his daughter summoned a doctor who discovered Mr. Thomas was suffering from a severe attack of heart trouble. Everything possible was done to relieve him, but of no avail as he passed away shortly after the doctor arrived. William Boyd Thomas was the sent of John P. and Nors. William Boyd Thomas was the sent of John P. and Nors. as was the son of John B., and Nancy A. Thomas and was born in Miles-burg, Pa., September 22, 1847, and was therefore aged 66 years, 4 months and 1 day. In the spring of 1865 he entered the employ of the Bald Eagle Valley Railroad company and con-tinued in this employment under the Pennsylvania Railroad when they took over the Bald Eagle valley. Although past the age limit when Pennsylvania Railroad employees are allowed to retire, he preferred to stick to his post and died in the harness. He was one of the oldest employees of the Railroad company in this place. He first went to work for the Rail-road company as a track hand, April 1st, 1865, and on Nov. 22, 1870 was transferred to Bellefonte to act as assistant ticket agent and baggage master and in 1888 he was promoted to chief clerk at the freight station which position he held until his death. He walked to and from his almost continuously until Christmas 1913. He was ordained an elder of the Presbyterian church November 25, 1871 and served in that capacity ever since. Also served as Sunday school superintendent several times. He was married to Miss Sarah J. Zimmerman, April 22nd, 1880, she preceding him to the grave, May 15, 1912. Surviving him are the following children: Charles W., of Altoona; Ralph E., Wilkinsburg, and Henrietta Tuesday morning at ten o'clock from his late residence. Dr. George E. Hawes, of the Presbyterian church officiated. Interment in the Union cemetery at this place.

LUCAS:—Mrs. Nancy Lucas died at her home near Moshannon, Sunday morning, after a long illness with canmorning, after a long illness with cancer of the stomach, from which she had been a patient sufferer. She was a faithful member of the Methodist church and was highly esteemed by her friends and neighbors. She leaves to survive two daughters, and seven sons, namely: Mary and Bertha, at home; George, of North Bend: Theodore, of Renovo; Robert, of State College; Charles, Guy, Harry and Oscar. ; Charles, Guy, Harry and Oscar, home. Five grandchildren also RICHARDS:—William H. Richards, of Wilkinsburg, was struck by a fast train on Saturday evening, near East Liberty, and was instantly killed. He was aged about 59 years and was a foster son of Mrs. Barbara Rider, formerly of Gatesburg, now making her home with her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Ellenberger, at Tyrone. Mr. Richards was married in 1899 to Miss Anna Brooks, of Neffs Mills, who with one daughter, Miss Thelma, survive to mourn a loving husband and father's death.

(Other deaths on page 5.)

PARKS FAMILY IN TROUBLE.

Father and Two Sons Now in Jail on Grave Charges. For some time the residents of State College have been harassed by sneak thieves and several business places have been entered by these trespass-er of the law. Several parties were under suspicion by the officers but they laid low until Tuesday evening of last week when another attempt vas made to burglarize several places The thieves broke into the J. H. Musser grocery. The crash of breaking glass was heard by one of the operators in the Bell exchange and she at once called Constable John Snyder who made double quick time to the scene of operations and succeeded in capturing Bert Parks who confessed his guilt and was brought to Bellefonte and lodged in jail. Parks later impli cated a young man named Emory Gallagher, of York, who was also placed under arrest but stoutly maintains his innocence.

On Monday of this week Sheriff Lee result of this on Tuesday afternoon James, father of Bert was arrested on the charge of receiving stolen goods and lodged in jail here. Among the business places robbed were the Musser grocery, Gentzel & Hublers, the saddler shop, and Meek's coal office. At the latter place they got $4 in cash. Among the goods stolen were cloth-ing, watches, shoes and groceries.

On Tuesday afternoon Frank Parks, another son of James Parks, was arrested on a serious charge preferred against him by a young lady residing near the College and he too joined his father and brother behind the bars at Fort Lee.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

Returning home Saturday evening rom a visit with their daughter, Adam Anderson, a prosperous farmer of near Reading, and his wife were drowned in the Tulpehocken creek, a stream that had become very high owing to recent heavy rains. It is sup-posed the aged couple missed the road and drove into the creek.

C. C. Jaxtheimer, of New Wilmington, is trying out a new and successful scheme to increase productiveness of his chickens. During the winter Edwin F. Garman, of Bellefonte, and the following brothers, Hon. W. C. Lingle, of Philipsburg, and Frank I. Lingle, of Patton. The arrangements for the funeral have not been completed but the remains will be brought to Bellefonte for interment.

The solution of his chickens. During the winter chickens often remain on the roost until nearly 8 o'clock in the morning, and return to roost about 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Jaxtheimer has placed a 150-watt Tungsten light in his coop. This is allowed to burn until 10 o'clock at night and is turned on early in the agreement. THOMAS:—In the sudden death of William Boyd Thomas, Friday, January 23rd at 5:15 a. m., at his home on the case ordinary than the case ordinary than would be the case ordinary than would be the case ordinary.

Operation for Appendicitis. Howard J. Thompson, who recently resigned his position with the Penn Public Service Company, of Philips-burg, to accept the Superintendency of the State-Centre Electric Com-Railroad when they pany's plant at this place, was selzed Raile Ragle valley Al- with an attack of appendicitis last Thursday and was operated on at Dr. McGirk's Sanitarium in Philipsburg on the same evening. He left Bellefonte Thursday noon to go to Pitts-burg to purchase new machinery for the plant at this place but was sick on the train between here and Tyrone, and instead of continuing his journey proceeded to Philipsburg. Here he was examined by Dr. McGirk who at once diagnosed his case as appendicitis and the operation followed. He is reported as getting along as well as could be expected.

> Date Set for License Arguments. Orvis fixed Wednesday, February 11th, as the date for hearing the arguments in the liquor cases in which remonstrances have been filed. All evidence on both sides has been taken before Notary Public Harry Keller and has been filed with the court and on the date set the attorneys for and against the liquor license applications will sum up their cases and present their final ar-guments to the court. The matter will then be up to the court for his consideration and to make what disposition is thought proper.

Mike Jovanzi, who with a compan-ion escaped from the new penitentiary at Rockview about five weeks ago, was Appointments Made. The county commissioners recently appointed Dr. M. A. Kirk, of Belle-Daughter-in-Law Dead.

Mr. Edward Gill, of Pleasant Gap, has received the sad intelligence of the death of his daughter-in-law Mrs.
Clarence Gill, which occurred at Columbus, Ohio. Full particulars will appear in next week's issue.

FOR SOBER, LAW-ABIDING CITIZENS:

The following editorial appeared in the Philadelphia "Inquirer," Tuesday, January 26th, 1914. We republish this editorial in the hope that it will be read by every intelligent and thoughtful citizen of Centre county, who has respect for our courts and believes that the laws of this commonwealth should be upheld

"DELAWARE COUNTY LIQUOR LICENSES."

"After an unusually prolonged session of the License Court in Delaware county everyone seems to be dissatisfied except the men who secured their licenses. The good people who made a campaign for wiping out all saloons are much depressed and unfortunately some of them are making attacks on the judges. The persons who failed to get licenses are dissatisfied, the people who think the judges were too strict are dissatisfied and we presume that most of all the judges themselves are dissatisfied with the result.

"The unrestrained critics of the judges—and many of them do not live in Delaware county at all—forget that the judges are obliged to act within the law. Soon after the Brooks act was passed one county judge—General White, of Indiana county, if we mistake not—refused to grant any licenses at all on the ground that he did not consider a license to sell liquor a "necessity" as the law prescribed. He was overruled by the Supreme Court. Since then judges have been obliged to use their best judgment, since a "necessity" is construed by our court of last resort to mean that those who want to drink liquor shall have an opportunity to do so. The restrictions on drink liquor shall have an opportunity to do so. The restrictions on selling are that the liquor dealer should be of generally good character. If he disobeys the law his license may be taken from him. If a man gets drunk to the extent of injuring others he may be punished. If he is an habitual drunkard his wife or next friend can take steps to prevent anyone selling him drink.

"WHETHER THERE SHOULD BE LIQUOR SOLD AT ALL IS NOT AND CANNOT BE AN ISSUE BEFORE LICENSE COURTS SO LONG AS THE PRESENT LAW EXISTS. THOSE WHO OBJECT TO THE SALE OF LIQUOR ANYWHERE AT ANY TIME HAVE THE RIGHT TO WORK FOR THE PASSAGE OF SUCH A LAW OR AN AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION, BUT THEY SHOULD NOT CRITICISE JUDGES FOR DOING WHAT THEY ARE COMPELLED TO DO BY LAW. It is widgent that in Delaware countries. COMPELLED TO DO BY LAW. It is evident that in Delaware county members of the recent license court may be fought for re-election, not on the general ground of their conduct as judges, but for their ministerial acts. This has been read in many largest and the conduct as judges, but for their ministerial acts. This has happened in many counties and ought nev-

In connection with the editorial quoted from the Philadelphia Inquirer it s fitting to quote from an opinion of the Supreme Court written by Mr. Justice Dean from the neighboring county of Blair when he was a member of that court, stating clearly the law as follows:

'A decree made arbitrarily, or in violation of law, it is our plain duty to set aside. For example, if a judge should refuse a license, because in his opinion the law authorized licenses is a bad law, or if he should grant all licenses because he believed the law wrong as tending to confer a privilege on a special few in either case there would be no exercise of judicial discretion; both would be the mere despotic assertion of arbitrary will by one in power, that sort of law-lessness which is least excusable and excites most indignation."

TRIAL LIST-February Term.

The trial list for the first week of ourt commencing Monday, February 23, 1914, is as follows : Schwanger-Klein Co. vs. S. E. Kim-Appeal. Non-assumpsit.

J. F. Eisenhauer vs. H. A. Ellis and Appeal. Non-assumpsit. wife. The list for the second week of court commencing March 2nd, is as follows D. F. Bowersox vs. D. F. Bowerson

Executor of John Bowersox, deceased, Burdine Butler vs. The Pennsylva- |1

rs. Assumpsit. Non-assumpsit, Salant & Salant vs. Spaide & Staufr. Assumpsit. Non-assumpsit. William E. Shaffer vs. Joseph D. Diehl. Assumpsit. Non-assumpsit. Geo. L. King vs. Enoch Hugg. Assumpsit. Non-assumpsit.

George L. King vs. Frederick Eisennauer. Assumpsit vs. Non-assumpsit Interstal Film Company vs. Harry Freeman. Assumpsit. Non-assump-

New Honors for Dr. Sparks. The annual meeting of the College Presidents' Association was held at the University of Pennsylvania Friday of last week at which Dr. Edwin Earle Sparks, president of the State College, was one of the principal speak ers and was elected president of the association. Among the speakers were President Moffat, of Washington and Jefferson, Dr. Nathan S. Schaefer, President Warfield of Lafayette, President Joseph Swain, of Swarthmore Prof. A. Duncan Yocum of the University of Pennsylvania, and Dr. Sparks. The following officers were elected: President, Edwin Earle President, Edwin Earle president of Pennsylvana fonte.

Operations—Mrs. Katherine Winklebleck, Aaronsburg; Mrs. Maude Harpster, Warriors Marks, Discharged—Toner Mann, Howard;
Atellio Latina, Pleasant Gap; Myrtle Lorah and Andrew Parasech, of Snow Shoe; Mrs. Catherine Cole, Buffalo, N.

There are thirty-five patients now in the hospital.

Will Embark in Hotel Business.

William E. Hurley, former sheriff of Centre county, last week closed a deal by which he becomes the proprietor of the new Crawford Hotel at Jersey Shore. This is one of the largest and best furnished hotels in Jersey Shore and enjoys a large patronage which will no doubt be greatly increased under the management of the largest and large the management of the largest and large the server leading the management of the largest large patronage which will no doubt be greatly increased under the management of the largest large large patronage which will no doubt be greatly increased under the management of the largest large large patronage which will no doubt be greatly increased under the management of the largest large large patronage which will no doubt be greatly increased under the management of the largest large patronage which will no doubt be greatly increased under the management of the largest large patronage. Jersey Shore and enjoys a large pat-ronage which will no doubt be greatly increased under the management of the new landlord. Mr. Hurley ex-pects to take charge of the hotel about

FROM BIG ROCK, ILL.

Dear Editor: neighbors of Bellefonte and Coleville, Saturday, by Justice of the Peace and especially to the boys and girls of the Bellefonte High school, that it first nuptial event to come before has really made me homesick to hear of the fine sleighing they are enjoying and I am not there to share it with the knot was made doubly secure. and I am not there to share it with them. I always had a good time when sled load, and I certainly enjoyed the sled load, and I certainly enjoyed the occasions. If you don't believe it ask occasions. Occasions of the Rev. J. C. Colledge, base on of the Rev. J. C. Colledge, base on of the Rev. J. C. Colledge, was one dollar now it is seventy-two cents. In general all express matter is distinct to New York on 50 lbs. Occasions of the marriage of the Rev. J. C. Colledge, was one dollar now it is seventy-two cents. In general all express matter is distinct to New York on 50 lbs. Occasions of the United Brethren cents. In general all express matter is distinct to New York on 50 lbs. taking the boys and girls out in nia Railroad Company. Trespass.

Not guilty.

W. H. Roush vs. A. G. Archey et al Admr. of H. M. Krebs. Assumpsit.

Non-assumpsit.

Kelly Brothers Coal Co. vs. Irish Brothers. Assumpsit.

Bemus & Vosburg vs. T. V. Yothers. Assumpsit.

Bemus & Vosburg vs. T. V. Yothers. Assumpsit.

Non-assumpsit.

Non-a

I will close by wishing the boys and girls a good time, even if I am not there to enjoy the good sleighing. AMMON GRAMLEY. Big Rock, Ill.

LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY.

On Thursday evening, February 12 Gregg Post, No. 95, Grand Army the Republic, will hold a meeting The W. T. Rawleigh Medical Company, a corporation duly incorporated under the laws of Illinois. Guarantee vs. H. S. Taylor, A. E. Schad and E. T. Roan, guaranters of John Long. meeting is anticipated. Everyone is cordially invited to attend this meeting, but a special invitation is ex-tended to the Sons of Veterans to be present as the Post has an interesting proposition to make them. There-fore let there be a full turn out of Sons of Veterans on this occasion.

> Glass Plant for Philipsburg Philipsburg is elated over the pros-pect of a 24-blower tank window glas factory being erected near that town.
> The Mercantile & Realty Co. of Pittsburg, are said to be backing the proposition and have secured options on a large body of glass sand up Tom-Tit run. The Journal says: The plant will be located on grounds between Cold Stream and the Tyrone pike, about one and a half miles south-A. Granville, of Pennsylvania College. lege, was elected to act, with these officers, as the executive committee.

Hospital Notes.

Admitted for treatment—Hazel M. Overton, aged 8 years; J. Ellis Stine and Mrs. Bessie Miller, all of Bellefonte.

Operations—Mrs. Katheric.

Operations—Mrs. Katheric.

exhaustible quantities of the very fin-est glass sand, in addition to fire clay and large bodies of coal.

Engagement Announced. A party given at the home of ex-Sheriff Hurley on Bishop street, Tuesday evening at which his daughter, Miss Della, was hostess, developed into a pleasant surprise for the friends of Miss Hurley when in a the new landlord. Mr. Hurley expects to take charge of the hotel about April 1st.

Coming Theatre Attractions.

The following excellent attractions.

The following excellent attractions have been booked for Garman's operation house and will appear at early dates: "The Little Lost Sister," playing at the Walnut Street Theatre, Philadelphia, this week. "The Virginian," by the company playing "Mrs. Wiggs."

The Third Degreer; "The Lion and the Mouse;" the famous Louise Francis stock company for a week.

Big Saving to Farmers.

During a recent outbreak of hos cholera in eastern Allegheny county, agents of the State Livestock Sanitation of Dr. C. J. Marshall, State Veterinarian, the week and this object.

Alfred Diehl, while employed in a busing the com

GATHERING AT HARTER HOME.

In Tylersville, Aged Brother and Sis ter Remembered by Relatives. Lock Haven Democrat: A happy home coming of children and ingathering of relatives was that at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Harter at Tylersville, Friday afternoon and evening. It was suggested by ex-sher-iff Benjamin F. Shaffer of Nittany to his sister, Mrs. Harter, that during the good sleighing period that he thought it would be cheering to both of them as the only living members of a large family to have their chil-dren and near relatives together for dinner. The suggestion met a ready response in the mind of Mrs. Harter and she suggested her home as the place and Friday the date, so sled loads and sleigh loads were seen skimming the smooth surface of the road-way, all bound for the Harter home Tylersville, when old, middle aged and young were soon engaged in frat-ernal association, the centre of the interesting group being Mrs. Harter the hostess 80 years of age and her brother the genial and jovial ex-sheriff of Centre county now 84 years old. It was a happy throng and none enjoyed

Nittany; Benjamin Beck, Lettie Beck,
Lewis A. Beck, Mrs. John Beck, Mrs.
Henry Lutz, Rev. and Mrs. William Shultz and son, of Snydertown, Joseph Emerick and Mrs. L. E. Swariz, of Hublersburg; Mr. and Mrs. Pierce M.
Dornblaser, Clintondale; Mrs. T. R.
Harter and daughter, Marguerite, Loganton; C. S. Harter, Mrs. W. T.
Knecht and Mrs. S. E. Ralph, of Lock
Huven
Huven

and when the cost of insurance and collection are considered will be less than many of the parcel post rates for short distances.

As an illustration the present express rate on a five-pound package of merchandise from New York to St. Louis is 65 cents. Under the new scale the charges will be 32 cents. On a ten-pound package the rate now is the occasion more than the octogenar-ian couple in whose honor they had met. In the midst of it all a fine sup-per was served and when the time

Watkins—Daughenbaugh.

Tuesday evening at the Reformed parsonage, Mr. Claude W. Watkins, of Curtin, and Miss Mabel S. Daughenbaugh, of Howard, were married by the Rev. Dr. Ambrose M. Schmidt.

The young couple left on the avents.

Month it will be 44 cents. On a 25-pound package the comparison will be $1.20 against 80 cents.

But what is of more interest to Bellefonters' are the following figures giving the old and new rates for the transportation of packages by express from this city by the Adams Express and the American Express Comparison. The young couple left on the evening train for a wedding journey.

Leitzel-Tyler. Daniel Leitzel, of Port Matilda, and Miss Blanche E. Tyler, of Philips burg, were married in Hollidaysburg place, and a very pretty and attrac-tive young lady. Their many friends tive young lady. Their many friends here abouts will wish for them all the happiness possible in their newly wedded life.

A Chapter of Accidents.

James Rote, of Coleville, was thrown from Potter & Hoy's delivery sled last Friday evening in front of L. C. Get-tig's residence on Thomas street and fractured his right arm. Mr. Rote was on his way home and had been invited to ride by the driver of the sled as they were going in the same direction. Mr. Rote was standing up in the bed of the sled and just as they made the turn in the road at Gettig's Mr. Rote lost his balance and was thrown out with the attendant re-

Saturday morning as Mrs. Amanda Waite was coming up Thomas street, and when in front of the Shadle property, she slipped and fell breaking her right wrist. Mrs. Waite resides with her son Allen Waite and on War Drama at the Opera House. War Drama at the Opera House.

Company L's armory is the local scene of action these nights as the boys are busily engaged with the rehearsal of the famous Filipino war play, "Under the Stars and Stripes," to be presented in Garman's Opera house, Friday and Saturday, Feb. 6th and 7th, with matinee Saturday. This famous war play is entirely free from and 7th, with matinee Saturday. This famous war play is entirely free from sectionalism. It deals with the life of the boys in Kahki, on our far is land possessions and embodies a thrilling story of realistic adventure, as well as several dainty love scenes and a host of good clean comedy. Filled with the spirit of war, colored with the splendor of oriental foliage, invested with the atmosphere of the Orient, this great story of love and war and passion, must leave a lasting impression upon every person so fortunate as to see and feel its hypnotic influence. Let every citizen in Bellefonte be-come a booster and give the boys of Company L crowded houses on the nights of their appearance in the opera

NEW EXPRESS RATES WILL BE MUCH LOWER

EXPRESS COMPANIES COMBINE TOGETHER.

IN THIS COUNTRY AND CANADA

In Many Instances Their Rates Will Be Lower Than Uncle Sam's-Will Go Into Affect February 1st-Lively Rate War On.

Bellefonte in common with every own and city in the country will be involved in one of the most remark-able rate wars when on February 1st, all express companies in the United States and Canada will make a sweeping reduction in rates in competition with Uncle Sam's parcel post service. The reductions are acknowledged by the express companies to be the di-rect result of the competition of the parcel post and the rates quoted include insurance of all express packages.

Beginning February 1st, all express ompanies will use the same rates came to part much reluctance was shown and many hearty good wishes rate whether two or more companies shown and many hearty good wishes were expressed and prayers uttered that they may all meet again.

Those present were B. F. Schaeffer and daughter, Mrs. Kate Allison, of Nittany; Benjamin Beck, Lettie Beck, Lewis A. Beck, Mrs. John Beck, Mrs. Henry Lutz, Rev. and Mrs. William the considered will be less than the cost of insurance and collection are considered will be less a ten-pound package the rate now is 80 cents but after the first of the month it will be 44 cents. On a 25-

and the Am	e	erican					Express						Companies
New	R	la	t	es		(0	u	ŧ		1		T	own.
Bellefonte t	0												5	lbs	10 lbs
Philadelphia Pittsburg	L				*								. $.24	1$.2
Pittsburg .					*	*				*				.24	.2
New York				*						1				.25	.3
Williamspor	rt				*	* 1			*		*			.23	.2
Altoona		* .			*					*	*			.22	.2
014 0	832				-					p

Old Rates From Bellefonte.

Among the marriage licenses issued at Cumberland, Maryland, Saturday was that of Ogden Bailey Malin, of Altoona, and Miss Helen Josephine Hurley, of Bellefonte. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Malin, of this place, is a graduate of Pennsylvania State College and is now hold. of this place, is a graduate of Pennsylvania State College, and is now holding a good position as a clerk in the Pennsylvania Railroad offices at Altoona. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hurley of this place, and a very practive and altered of charge while the revergence. free of charge while the government compels the sender to come to the ofthat the service is faster, that packages may be expressed either pre-paid or collect while the post office always wants the charges prepaid, that insurance may be had in any amount while the government will insure only up to $50. The express companies instead of using a zone system as adopted for the parcel post, have divided their territory into what are called blocks and sub-blocks. Rates read to and from these blocks, which are square, and are numbered, while the sub-blocks are designated by letters of the alphabet.

Bob Fitzsimmons at Williamsport. Williamsport will probably witness a large gathering of admirers of the fistic art this evening to greet Bob Fitzsimmons, ex-heavyweight champ-ion of the world, who is scheduled for a 10-round bout with Terry Lamb of Pittsburg. The bout will take place before the Jess Gilbert Athletic Club in the remodeled first floor arena of while on her way to town from her home opposite the Fair grounds fell on the icy road and broke her arm.

In the remodeled first floor arena of Fourney's skating palace, and is bound to be one of the most interesting ever held in that city. This will be the famous champ's first floor arena of Fourney's skating palace, and is demonstrate his come-back qualities.
A number of Bellefonte fans will go down this afternoon and witness the > PLUM GROVE. Those who visited at D. H. Custer's on last Sunday were Miss Mable and Pearl Grey and their aunt, Miss Mammie Goheen, of Julian.

>
> Albert Welsh and sister Lulu, of Bellefonte, visited their aunt, Mrs. E.

> Wood, last week. Herbert Way has returned to his Herbert Way has returned to his home after a pleasant visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Way, and also at the home of William Brower.

Those who made a trip to Snow Shoe last week for coal were Laws Lucas and Walter Watson, of Bush Hollow, Joseph Alexander and E. G. Way, of Plum Grove.

Miss Helen Poorman, of Coleville and Calvin Tressler, of Bellefonte, were Sunday visitors at E. G. Way's; also Mrs. D. W. McCloskey, of Plum Grove.