NISSITANY.
Miss Pearl Webber and Mrs. Dan Long were the guests of Mrs. Kate Glantz one afternoon quite recently.

Wm. Treaster moved to Coleville one day the past week.

The meeting is still going on. So far there are five conversions and five still seeking, and it is not for the lack of good sermons and warnings that there are not scores more being saved.

Miss Miriam Beck visited her friend, Miss Helen Frye, of Williamsport, last week.

Miss Alice Emerick is at present visiting the Messers Mary Wilson and Grace Sigmund at Salona.

Mrs. Wm. Harter, of Tylersville, entertained a sleighing party from this place on last Friday. In the party were L. H. Beck, Miss Lily Beck, B. F. Beck, Mrs. J. H. Beck, Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Shultz and son Clarence, B. F. Shaffer, Mrs. H. K. Allison, Mrs. L. E. Swartz, of Hubersburg; Mrs. W. T. Knecht, Mrs. S. E. Rolph and C. S. Harter, of Lock Haven.

Mrs. H. K. Allison entertained the G. F. Club last Thursday. Twelve of the members were present.

C. P. McCaleb, of Tylersville, was in our burg on Monday.

T. S. Sligie and E. J. Wilde, of State College, spent the week-end at the B. F. Shaffer home.

Those who were present at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glantz and family on last Sunday were Willis Markie and lady friend, Miss Margaret Walker, of Bellefonte; Messers Marie, Ruth and Grace Fleisher, Miss Lena Ducentberry, from Lamar, Miss Florence Dorman and Miss Anna Showers, of Nittany. All came again.

Mrs. George Lannan visited a few days the past week with her sister, Mrs. Harry Tressler, who is in poor health at this writing. We hope for her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Mabel Graham spent a couple days at Hubersburg the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Shilling, of Criders, were the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Nolan and family one day recently.

Grandpa Statton, of Rote, celebrated his 88th birthday, Monday, Jan. 19th. He has three children and he wanted to be with all of them on this occasion, so he planned it in this way: He ate breakfast with his daughter, Mrs. George Lannan, of Mill Hill; then came to Huston on the Central Railroad train and took dinner with his daughter, Mrs. Harry Tressler, then returned to his home and ate supper with his son John. We join in wishing him many more happy birthdays.

Verna Tressler took supper with her friend, Lodie Swartz at Hubersburg on Friday evening and also took in the social at that place.

We are glad to note that John Williams, who has been sick for several weeks, is getting better again.

Harry Tressler is hauling paper wood and is shipping it to the Lock Haven paper mill.

Misses Florence Dorman and Sancta Showers took supper with Edna Kesinger, Sunday evening.

Ollen Winkelman spent Sunday at Palo Alto. Must be some attraction; how about it, Verna?

We are very sorry to say that Mrs. George Young is critically ill at this writing. We hope for her speedy recovery.

Dumm, of New York, was a Saturday visitor with his farmer, Harry Tressler. The work on the building of the new barn is discontinued till spring.

Clair Ohl took a sled load of friends and neighbors to Hubersburg to a social held in the W. T. H. S. building; all reported a nice time.

Mrs. Oscar Dorman, of Criders, was visiting friends here several days recently.

The sled load from here that was across the mountains to the dance one night last week, got home about 4 o'clock in the morning. All reported having had a fine time. About 75 guests were present.

Alfred Gates, of Ohio, is at present visiting his many friends and acquaintances here.

Perry McDowell spent Sunday with his father and brother, D. A. McDowell and family, at this place.

FOUNTAIN.

We had quite a snow storm here Monday.

Edward Shaffer moved from Snow Shoe to Fountain Monday.

Barnard Rupert, of Beech Creek, has returned home again after spending several days with relatives here.

Miss Lulu and Nancy McCartney, and Gertrude and Mary McCloskey spent Saturday very pleasantly at the bachelor's hall in Pleasanton. Come again, girls.

We are glad to report that Blair McCloskey, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, is better at this writing.

Say, Norman, the next time you go sleigh riding alone you might call on the scribe and give him a ride.

We noticed in the Centre Democrat last week that the Plum Grove scribe is greatly interested in the Fountain items. We thank him very much for his congratulations. We would like you to pay us a visit. Dad is quite well, thank you.

Miss Lulu McCartney, Mary and Gertrude McCloskey and Ed. Blevings spent Thursday evening at the home of Reuben Erns.

Mrs. Harry Kessling entertained a number of her friends last Friday by giving a quilting. Among those present were the following: Mrs. Mitchell Watson, Mrs. Saul Lohr, Mrs. Mitchell McCloskey, Mrs. Frank McCartney, Mrs. G. A. Witherite and Miss Blanch Smoyer.

Those who spent Sunday evening at G. A. Witherite's were Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Beightol and family; Herman Beightol, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCartney and Ralph Etters and lady friend, Miss Lulu McCartney.

CENTRE MILLS.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Schaefer, of State College, visited the former's parents over Sunday.

Miss Sadie Miller, one of the obliging operators in the Bell telephone exchange at Millheim, spent several days last week with her parents at this place.

Miss Bessie Emerick departed for Hazlehurst, Pa., last week where she will help nurse her little nephew, who was seriously burned some time ago.

Mrs. Harry Miller and Mrs. Shultz attended the sale of Mr. Mensch, who is bankrupt at Aaronsburg.

Wm. Fye, of Parvin, Clinton county, and Rev. Colledge, of Millheim, visited at J. A. Kline's home last week.

Mr. McCoy, of Potters Mills, canvassed our valley in search of cows and paid a reasonable price.

MILESBERG.

Our little hamlet was once more visited by the Grim Reaper when at 5:15 Friday morning the noble spirit of Mr. William Boyd Thomas, brushed the dew from Jordan's banks and crossed death's turbulent river. Mr. Thomas was an ardent worker in the Presbyterian church, of which he was a member for over fifty years. He was a faithful worker for the cause of Jesus Christ. He also taught a class of young folks at Pleasant View, who showed their appreciation by marching to Milesburg last Sabbath afternoon to view the remains of their esteemed instructor in the scriptures.

W. B. Graffmyre, who has been duly elected justice of the peace, wishes to inform the public that he is now prepared to do business according to law. Now, that is all right William, but to be successful you will have to mix it with a little gospel.

Mrs. William Holman, of Altoona, and Mrs. Calvin Gates, of Buffalo Run, spent a few hours at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Uriah Housel last Saturday.

Two sled loads, members of the M. E. church took an old time sleigh ride to Unionville to attend the revival meeting conducted by Rev. H. K. Ash.

Charles B. Shope and sister Julia, spent Sunday with their sister, Mrs. Emma Spicer and family.

Mrs. Samuel Lucas, of Warriors Mark, spent a couple of days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Poorman, and departed for home Sunday on the evening Express.

The steam heat in the Baptist church makes the rooms very comfortable.

Our town folks who have ice houses are very busy filling them. This enterprise gives a few men who have been idle, something to do for a short time.

Last Thursday evening two sled loads of Milesburgers departed for Unionville to spend the evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Miles, where the time was passed in playing games, playing the piano, and some good singing. At twelve o'clock an oyster supper was served which was prepared in scientific style. The party was composed of the following persons: Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Wetzel, Rev. S. S. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sheckler, Mrs. Harry Austin, Rhoda Swartz, Cathryn Austin, Edna McCollough, Rose, Beth and Ophelia Haupt, Ella Zettie, Nellie Weaver, Anna Schenck, Nanette and Margaret Gray, Maud and Elsie Harshbarger, Fred Dyke, Forest Aikens, Robert and John Brady. Did they enjoy themselves? Well, I guess they did. Ask Frank.

Emanuel Summers, who recently left the Bellefonte hospital, is still very ill, at the home of A. G. Noll.

Rev. H. K. Ash slipped on the ice near Wetzel's store last Saturday evening, almost causing concussion of the brain. At this writing he is still unable to attend his revival services now in progress in Unionville.

Miss Zaida Derr, and Blanche Shay entertained friends from Mill Hill, on Sunday.

Uriah Housel spent a day or two in Howardsport the latter part of last week.

Samuel Hosband made a business trip to Bellefonte on Saturday.

Miss Clara Flick visited her parents near Unionville on Saturday.

Mr. Emminizer, a student of the Bellefonte high school, filled the pupil in the absence of the regular pastor, Rev. S. M. Johnston, at the U. B. church on Sunday afternoon. He took for his subject Romans 12th chapter and 1st verse, and preached a very practical sermon. The audience which was large listened very attentively. He has the best wishes of the people at this place and as he is a young man, yet, it is hoped that he will have great success in his chosen calling.

Dr. Irvin, little daughter Eliza, of Unionville and Mrs. E. P. Irvin, of Bellefonte, spent Friday at the home of Mrs. Thomas Paxson, of Boyertown, Pa., is visiting a few days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. S. Bullock.

STORMSTOWN.

We are having all kinds of weather now.

Gilbert Waite spent Sunday at the home of S. G. Burket.

Nellie Gray had a surprise party for her mother last Friday evening.

Chester Eves took a sleighing party to Loveville last Friday evening.

The stork passed over this place last week and left a bouncing baby girl at the home of Grant Fisher. Grant is all smiles now; he thinks till next summer it will be large enough to plant potatoes.

The musical which was held at the M. E. church of this place Saturday evening was well attended.

Miss Jessie Ruel, of Phillipsburg, is spending a few days at the home of John L. Gray.

Miss Elizabeth Sprall is spending a few days at the home of Emory McAfee.

The sleighing is fine; a great many of the people about here are making good use of it.

Mildred Eckley is on the sick list.

Wade Lytle lost his driving horse Saturday night.

Irvin G. Gray lost a valuable cow Saturday night.

Chester and Dailan Wellers spent Monday afternoon at the elder school.

Sara Griffin had the misfortune of falling on the ice Monday, but was not seriously hurt.

Ferry Griffin took a jolly sled load to Galesburg Sunday.

The Misses Eleanor and Virginia Coons and Mary Thomas spent Sunday at the home of C. F. Harlacher.

Roy Griffin, who is employed at Altoona, spent Sunday with his parents, J. H. Griffin, of this place.

Miss Alice Lowery, who is teaching school at this place, spent Sunday at her home in Bellefonte.

LEMONT.

The people were busy hauling ice from Oak Hill on Monday.

Last week E. C. Ross had such a run in the coal business that he had to put three teams on the road.

John, Houts spent last Sunday among friends.

The carpenters put the roof on Elmer Ross' barn last week.

Mrs. Jesse Kilinger is getting better at this writing.

William Ross and Thos. Williams had a sleighing party from Pleasant Gap to Boalsburg Wednesday, of last week.

Jan. E. Lenker and wife spent Sunday in Aaronsburg.

John Mitchell is visiting a few days among friends near Philadelphia this week.

The United Brethren evangelistic meetings are still going on at Houserville.

Otterbein Dale visited a few days among friends the latter part of last week.

FILLMORE.

Revival meeting is still going on and indications are favorable for it continuing another week. The weather has been very favorable for these meetings for there has been good sleighing. Rev. Stover delivered a very interesting sermon on Sunday evening.

We are glad to say Mr. Gummio, of Hunters Park, is able to walk by the support of crutches.

J. W. Blair and Henry Resides hauled gravel from Scotia last week for the building of a cistern on Dr. Brocknerhoff's farm, tenanted by Mr. Blair.

Quite a number of farmers were busy during the past two weeks harvesting ice.

A slight fire broke out last Friday morning about four o'clock at the home of Homer Walker. It was discovered by Mrs. Walker, who heard the roaring, and called to the rest of the family who were in bed. It started from the chimney in the kitchen, and it is thought that there was spark simmering in the soot that did not spread until that morning, for there was no fire left in the stove the night before. It burned through the doors on the chimney, also burned coats and other clothes that were hanging there. It was making good headway and in a short time the house would have been a pile of ashes. The flames were put out by several buckets of water.

Miss Beattie Green is having a sale in the spring and the Rumbarger brothers will take possession of both farms.

On Thursday evening of last week a sled load of young folks of State College, drove to the home of Joseph Tressler at this place to attend the evening. They enjoyed themselves by playing different kinds of games and at twelve o'clock lunch was served which every one enjoyed. The crowd consisted of Helen Evey, Hester Shuey, Mrs. Thompson, Clara Ripka, Adolpha Horner, Altoona; Beulah Klinefelter, Bertha Brobeck, Selma Evey, Alice Kline, Mrs. Gentzel, Alice Peterson, Carrie Strunk, Mrs. George Campbell, Robert Smith, Guy Call, Jefferson Snook, Paul Carlson, John Hampton, Dutch Evey, Wallace Kline, Harry Patton, Richard Hoy, Joseph Campbell, E. C. Lambert, Charles Tressler, R. Gentzel, chauffeur. Those present at this place were Blanch and Florence Blair, Meredith Heaton, Clark Huey, Frank and Clyde Blair. The joke on Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Thompson was, they each had a severe attack of headache and surprised all coffee drinkers present by drinking fifteen cups of the headache chaser.

JULIAN.

Mrs. Diehl and two children, of Unionville, spent the day with her sister, Mrs. E. S. Bullock, on Saturday, January 21. Ice cream and cake will be sold. Come and help a good cause along.

Miss Pearl Bryan visited at the home of John Bryan and wife over Sunday.

Mrs. Henry Shultz and Miss Bertha Prinsen visited friends in Howard on Thursday.

A jolly sled load and a couple of sleighs went to Howard on Sunday evening to hear the evangelist preach. The M. E. church will begin their protracted meeting on Sunday evening, Feb. 1. Come, you are invited to attend.

Mrs. Wm. Prince returned home on Friday after spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. John Statton, of Rote, bringing her daughter home to recuperate. We are glad to say she is somewhat improved and hope the change will bring her back to health again.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Stanley, of Milesburg, called on Sunday to visit the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Bathurst.

Joseph Leathers, of Kennedy, visited friends in town on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Leathers, of Mt. Eagle, and Mr. and Mrs. George Bryan, of near Curtin, visited the parental home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bathurst visited friends at the Rolling Mill on Sunday.

A boy of this town was sent to the store to purchase a bottle of carbolic acid to use as a disinfectant. He asked clerk No. 2 for the drug, receiving a bottle of peppermint instead. Moral—Better put your speck on the next time so you can see it. Ha, ha.

The furnace is closed for a few days for repairs.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and removing the source of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have no faith in any other cures that they offer. One Hundred Dollars for any cure that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

BLANCHARD.

A. R. Moon and O. J. Stover were Lock Haven business callers last Friday.

Quite a number of our people are attending the union meetings conducted by Rev. Campbell at Howard.

Don't forget the protracted meetings in the Baptist church. Rev. Clark is worthy of your support.

Geo. Berryhill is visiting at the Shank Summer farm. It is needless to mention when he will return, for everyone will know of his arrival by the free cologne distributed.

Mrs. Eliza J. DeLong dislocated her shoulder by falling from a sleigh last week. This is a serious affair from the fact that the lady's age is well up in the seventies.

Lemuel Clark, an old veteran of the civil war, has been sick for some time. It will be remembered he is the man who was overcome by foul air in a well at Beech Creek several years ago. Frank Kunes, son of the late S. H. Kunes, rescued him at a great risk for which he was awarded a Carnegie medal and one thousand dollars.

C. W. Slinger has a large force of men cutting out the dead and damaged timber on the Slinger estate near the station. Today is all there, at any enterprise when he gets started, but it takes considerable time to start him.

The parties that crowd about the post office every day should talk on subjects that have been long on their minds and listen to what other have to say on matters they have studied but little. Knowledge and timber should be well seasoned before used.

There are several boys here whom their parents allow to loaf about the stores instead of being at school, simply because they do not like the teacher. These boys will be home-bred, store-bred, every-bred but right-bred. Such parents use their children as a kind of spool on which to wind off their own experiences, and they will eventually break all bonds, and rush to ruin. They are the lads I see floating over a deck of cards in the stores quite often.

The turn of the news wheel stops at Mr. Brewer's this week. Withings to get up early one morning last week, he awoke, struck a match and saw the hands at 1 and 6. He hastened down stairs, turned on the draught, visited his blacksmith shop and built a fire. He returned home and sat down to breakfast when the clock struck two. Back to bed he went and needless to say over slept himself, for it was eight o'clock when he arrived at the shop.

CURTIN.

The ladies of the M. E. church will hold a chicken and noodle supper in the K. of L. hall on Saturday evening, January 31. Ice cream and cake will be sold. Come and help a good cause along.

Miss Pearl Bryan visited at the home of John Bryan and wife over Sunday.

Mrs. Henry Shultz and Miss Bertha Prinsen visited friends in Howard on Thursday.

A jolly sled load and a couple of sleighs went to Howard on Sunday evening to hear the evangelist preach. The M. E. church will begin their protracted meeting on Sunday evening, Feb. 1. Come, you are invited to attend.

Mrs. Wm. Prince returned home on Friday after spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. John Statton, of Rote, bringing her daughter home to recuperate. We are glad to say she is somewhat improved and hope the change will bring her back to health again.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Stanley, of Milesburg, called on Sunday to visit the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Bathurst.

Joseph Leathers, of Kennedy, visited friends in town on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Leathers, of Mt. Eagle, and Mr. and Mrs. George Bryan, of near Curtin, visited the parental home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bathurst visited friends at the Rolling Mill on Sunday.

A boy of this town was sent to the store to purchase a bottle of carbolic acid to use as a disinfectant. He asked clerk No. 2 for the drug, receiving a bottle of peppermint instead. Moral—Better put your speck on the next time so you can see it. Ha, ha.

HAIR CAME OUT IN HANDFULS

Eczema on Face, Back of Ears and Scalp. Also on Hands, Arms and Limbs. Itching and Burning. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

6025 St. Marie St., Pittsburg, Pa.—
"Four years ago I had a breaking out on my skin, some on my face, back of my ears and on my scalp which was the worst place, and it caused my hair to come out. It was also on my hands, arms and limbs. They said it was a form of eczema. I had that awful burning and itching and especially on my scalp. The eruption was like a rash and would get dry and scale off. It itched and burned so badly that I could not keep from scratching it. Everything that touched it irritated it. I could not rest at night and would scratch in my sleep. My hair came out in handfuls. I could not put my hands in water often, for that only made the trouble worse and made the knuckles crack open and bleed."

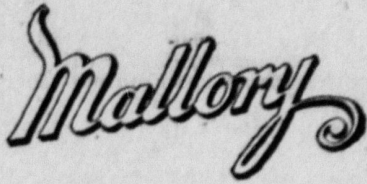

"I used a medicine for almost a year without a cure. So one day I thought I would try the Cuticura Soap and Ointment, as I had seen by the papers of cures by them. I washed the affected parts with the Cuticura Soap and then applied the Cuticura Ointment. They relieved the burning and itching almost immediately, and by using every day the eczema continued to improve and in one month I was cured and have never had a return of the trouble since and it is more than three years since that time." (Signed) Miss E. R. Johnston, Mar. 25, 1913.

Cuticura Soap 25c. and Cuticura Ointment 50c. are sold everywhere. Liberal amount of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

MOTHER should be photographed, but—Mother thinks only of her children when she thinks of photographs.

Perhaps she'll need persuading—perhaps will call it vanity, but get her picture, you will see the years have added only sweetness to her face, and mother's picture will be very dear to you—priceless in fact.
