Correspondents Department

Continued.

PLEASANT GAP. The protracted meeting in the M. E. church in our town is still in prog-

Mr. Mueller, of Bellefonte, is giving dancing lessons to quite a few of our young people. He is a fine teacher and deserves the patronage.

A party of young folks from our town enjoyed a chicken upper and dance at the Spring Mills hotel, kept dance at the Spring Mills hotel, kept by Mr. Krise. The party was com-posed of the following: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rothrock, Dr. and Mrs. Shelly, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Noll, the Misses Lizzie and Zella Evey, Will Keen, Rae Noll, Mr. Coble, Mr. Gar-ver, Leslie E. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kline, of Bellefonte, Mr. and Mrs. John Knarr, of Centre Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Ashbridge Thomas, of Potand Mrs. Ashbridge Thomas, of Pot-ters Bank. To say they enjoyed the time would be putting it mildly. The time would be putting it mildly. The hour of return was between 4 and 5 a. m., as was told by their merry voices ringing out in song on their return. Mr. Bitner furnished the muste for daying. Mr. Vilga is return. Mr. Bitner furnished the music for dancing. Mr. Krise is a new man at the hotel but a fine landlord and makes one feel at home. His wife, Mrs. Krise, cannot be surpassed in the art of cooking and serving a

William Irvin, our constable, and deputy Leslie E. Miller left on Tuesday for Sunbury to arrest Ernest Cardella, a Hungarian from White Rock, who is held on a charge of larceny from a countryman.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashbridge Thomas visited at J. T. Noll's on Friday and took in the show in Bellefonte in the E. Paul Keller and wife, of Altoona

E. Paul Keller and wife, of Altonia, were week-end visitors at W. H. Noll's and E. K. Keller's.
R. W. Noll contemplates building a double house in the near future, and Chas. Bilger will have two ready for occupancy by the 1st of April.

Mrs. Paul Carner is visiting at Dr

Shelley's.
Elmer Musser is all smiles since the arrival of that little daughter.
Mother and babe are doing nicely.
R. P. Barnes is seriously ill with hope of recovery. Mrs. Verna Garrett spent Monday at her father's, Frank Weaver.

PLEASANT GAP No. 2.

We are having fine sleighing—bet-ter than we have had for a long time. Farmers are busy filling their ice houses for the hot days we are going to have next summer.

The quarries at this place are run-who spent Sunday with friends at this place are as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Foster Shearer at E. E. Swartz's: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bilger at William Huffman's; Doughlas Brooks and child and Mrs. Ira Bil-ger at Juette Brook's, and Mr. and Mrs. William McClellan at J. A. Mey-We hear there is going to be a feed

For further particulars ask J. G.

Inams, Onve Straw, Joy Richards, Ruth
Roy Lego, Minnie

Myrtle Reese, Ruth Lego, Minnie

Curtin Dunklebarger, who had been Harold and Wilmer Bennett, in the hospital, is home once again.

Curtin has had hard luck but is as lively as ever.

friends at this place. Protracted meeting is going on at the M. E. church at this place. Rev. C. C. Shuey, of Bellefonte, is helping Rev. Frum this week, but up to this writing there have been no seekers. Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Meyer were to Bellefonte on last Thursday. Well, Hunt, were you in for a coal shovel? The farmers are busy hauling lime and with their heavy loads they have the roads cut so bad that it is almost impossible to drive them. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Waite, of this place drove to Bellefonte just for a sleigh ride; that's alright, Earl, go The Knoffsinger boys have put in a chop mill; anybody having chop to grind, give them a call, as they say they do good work.

William Baird, Jr., has been feeding a large flock of quails and also a flock of seven wild turkeys. The flock of seven wild turkeys. The quails have become so tame that they come and eat while he is at the feed-

Henry White and family, of Zion, were Sunday afternoon visitors at Oscar Gill's.

Mr. and Mrs. David Noll visited his parents at Peru, Sunday.

Robert Gill secured employment at Gatesburg Bank for the winter.

Mrs. David Noll is suffering from a severe attack of neuralgia. David Moyer is hauling manure on his strawberry patch; he is expecting a large crop of strawberries this coming season.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hoy visited their son Harry at this place Sunday afternoon.

The trees are being pealed by the rabbits around here.

Eddie Hoover and little son, who is working up at Jack Hollow, was a home visitor last Sunday.

Indeed, boys, it is hard enough to see the poor crows dying with starvation without having bad boys throw stones at and kill them. Instead of killing them throw a handful of feed. killing them throw a handful of feed

Our new doctor has been having quite a few calls since he moved here.

SPRING MILLS.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Finkle, after spending several weeks with the form-ers parents, left Tuesday morning for ers parents, left Tuesday morning for Sheibyville, Tenn

A jolly sled-load of young folks from Pleasant Gap spent last Wednesday evening at the Krise Hotel.
Adam Neese, of Hartleton, formerly a resident of this place, spent a few days here last week.
Mr.J. Warren Wood, at one time landlord of the hotel at this place, spent a short time here enroute to Hyde, Pa., at which place he is contemplating entering the hotel business.
William Diehl, of Miffinburg, was a pleasant visitor in our town.

William Diehl, of Miffinburg, was a pleasant visitor in our town.

Penn Literary Society will convene in the High School Room, Friday evening, Jan. 30th. The debate; Resolved: That fire is more destructive than water. The affirmative speakers are Harold Stover and Guyer Grove; negative speakers, Ethel Long and Cora McCormick. The evening entertainment, free to all, promises to be very interesting as recitations, compositions and remarks are being prepared for the occasion.

for the occasion.

Boyd Smith, of Potters Mills, is spending this week in our town.

OAK HALL.

James Peters, of Rock Springs, was arketing wheat in our town last Wednesday.

Elmer Lowder entertained some of his friends last Wednesday evening, serving refreshments and otherwise. William Folk and family were callers at the home of Samuel Bailey, Tuesday afternoon.

Last Wednesday evening a sled load of young people from the Branch en-joyed the hospitality of our worthy and esteemed merchant, R. J. Lowder. Last Monday evening our postmaser, W. H. Close, was very suddenly taken ill but we are glad to see him resume his duties again.

Mrs. Jacob Zong spent last Thurs-Lester Korman paid his parents a very brief but welcome call last Fri-day afternoon between trains.

A sled load from Pleasant Gap spent last Wednesday at Luther Dales, there being present, William Ross and wife, Thomas Williams and wife, Mrs. Samuel Noll, Mrs. Joe Tressler, Mrs. Wm. Flory, Mrs. Boyd Spiker, Mrs. Robt. Corl and Mrs. Wm. Hauns; also the former's father and sister, A. U. and Catherine Dale, of Boalsburg.

The mumps seem to be still going the latest victims being Robert and Anna Rishel and Anna Korman. A. C. Peters and family spent Sat-urday among friends in Pine Grove.

Luther Dale and wife were callers at Al. Grove's, of near Bellefonte on We notice two of our sports journey ing to Houserville "quite frequently." "Chippie" says Mr. Whitehill is a pretty good fellow and we suppose

Keller has some friends in that locality also. Devine, of Pine Grove Mills, visited the past week at the William Roush home. Mrs. Charles Whitehill spent last Friday in Lemont helping Mrs. Weiand to butcher.

Mrs. Wm. Bohn and daughter, Mrs. S. A. Reitz, spent last Thursday at State College. Charles Whitehill and family spent Sunday at the home of his brother at Houserville. Mrs. S. A. Beitz and Elizabeth Bohn spent Friday in Bellefonte, Miss Elizabeth being entertained by the

William Bohn is nursing a sore hand

PORT MATILDA.

Tuesday evening four sled loads of young and old people went from this place to Wm. M. Cronister's home at Martha where they were heartily welcomed by that family. The evening was spent in playing games of all kinds, and in the usual innocent amusements of such occasions. At a seasonable hour the guests were servning full blast at present, as they are working day and night.

If you see Christ Huffer looking down-hearted, it is all on account of had a fine time. The following were ed with delicious refreshments, which present: Mr. Harshbarger and wife, Chester Pringle, wife and baby Con-rad, Blowers Woodring and wife, Harry Woodring and wife, William Shultz and wife, Mrs. D. L. Ross, Mrs. Ed-ward Eller, Mrs. George, Woodring, Budd Thompson, Mrs. Nora Thomp-son, H. L. Rothrock, Bub. Woodring, Mrs. Harry Laird, Mrs. Bulick, Misses Stella and Violet Barry, Hannah Williams, Olive Straw, Joy Richards, Ruth While January has been pretty cold it was not too cold for the stork to make its rounds, as he left a little hirl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ream.

The sick around here are improving slowly at this writing.

Myrtle Reese, Ruth Lego, Minnie Laird, Annie Patton, Ida Turner, Florence and Mable Williams, Edna Williams, Mayme and Hazel Laird, Leora Harshbarger, Messrs. Darius and Gilbert Waite, Emery and Russel Woodring, Fred Laird, Jacob Sigels, Elmer Turner, Raiph and John Williams, Harold Shope Lytle, Lytle, Linzey Ross, Harold Shope Linwood Williams, Harold Thompson Dave Stine, of the West, is visiting Thompson Henry, Bernard Williams and Clifford Chaney, John A. Williams

Protracted meeting is still in progress at Paradise. Alice Heckman, of Mifflin county, is pending a couple days here with her

L. G. Snyder on Saturday afternoon left for State College to see his lady friend, Agnes Lingle.
Frank Weaver, from Pleasant Gap, visited his brother, George Weaver, last week.

George Weaver spent Sunday evenng at John Eberts. Those who spent the Sunday

George Weaver's were: Mr. and Mrs. George Michael and Mrs. Josiah Long, Boyd Sheats, John Smith, Charles Bradford, Willie Confer and Archie Confer.

Mr. and Mrs. James Immel, from Fiedler, were up to attend protracted eeting at Paradise. William Moyer butchered nineteen hogs last week and eighteen this week; he is doing good business. George Weaver and William Smith are helping William Moyer to butcher Bill, take care of your cap or it might go through the grinder.

MOSHANNON.

Mrs. Brady Beightol spent several days last week with her daughter Alma, at Jersey Shore. Charles Gueno made to Karthaus, Saturday. A young man from our town makes frequent trips to Pine Glenn. What's the attraction, George? The obituary of Mrs. Nancy Lucas will be found in another part of the paper under the head of recent deaths.

Bigger Hatches

Eggs hatch better if the hens are in perfect condition. Pratts, Poultry Regulator pays big the year 'round. It prevents disease, sharpens the appetite, improves digestion. You'll get more "live" eggs-more and stronger chicks.

ges 25c, 50c, $1.00, 25 lb. pail, $2.50. Satisfaction Guaranteed or Money Back. Refuse substitutes; insist on Pratts. Get Pratts 160 page illustrated

For sale by Hazel Bros., The John Meese Store-3379.

ARONSBURG.
Mr. and Mrs. John Detweiler and three interesting little boys from Centre Hall, were the welcome guests of their two brother-in-laws, Warren Winklebleck and James Roush.

Thelma Weaver, from Coburn, was in town a few days taking up a soap

There was quite a few of our coasters hurt pretty badly. Harry King's face was cut, which took six stitches; Victor Stover and William Bohn were also used up quite a bit.

Mr. and Mrs. John Zerby, from Farmers Mills, and seven of their children spent part of Saturday and Saturday night with the lady's par-ents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert. Hosterman.

Mrs. George Corman, from Rebersburg, and her sister, Mrs. Sholl, from Texas, spent a day at John Haines'. Also the coal and grain dealer, Will Hosterman, from Coburn, and his brother, John Hosterman, editor from Millheim and his wife, to see their

Mr. and Mrs. James Lenker and daughter Catherine, from Lemont, spent over Sunday very pleasantly with his aged mother and sister. John Rupp and Harvey Corman and brother Noah, from Rebersburg, were seen in town on Saturday.

Mrs. James Holloway, of 2nd St., has been a great sufferer for the last with a bealing on her hand, which her many friends are glad to learn is a great deal better at this

Mrs. Herman, who has her home for the winter month with her son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Z. E. Haffley, has been in a critical condition for the last month. Mr. Haffley's little six-year-old daughter was also very sick but is some better.

Mrs. O. P. Adams has been under Frank's care for the last week and is not improving the least. She has the sympathy of her many friends.

Mrs. George McCormick and her bright little son William, from Potters Mills, are spending a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Mingle.

Mr. Hurwitz and Mr. Kyle, both from State College, were callers for a few hours at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Adams, on Saturday.

WINGATE.

Quite a few of our people have been filling their ice houses. Miss May Hoffman and cousin, Joe Fisher, spent Sunday at the latter's home, Wm. Fisher's.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown attend-ed the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Barbara Peters, at Milesburg.
George Brown and friend, Miss Clara Quigley, of Williamsport, are visiting a few days with his parents.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown.

Austin Iddings, one of Wingate's prominent men, died on Jan. 9th, at is residence. He was aged 80 years Interment was made at the Friend's emetery.

Quite a few of our people attended the local institute at Milesburg last Mrs. Edward Long and sister, Mrs. Sarah Zinc, visited a few days in Al-

Mrs. Blanche Irwin, of Mill Hall, visited Saturday at the home of J. H.

Snyder. Quite a few of our people attended the shows at Bellefonte last week. Thos. Murray visited Sunday at among his children. Martin Harnish, of Tyrone, visited Sunday with his wife and family.

Centre County Banking Co. Corner Bigh and Spring Streets

Discount Notes Receive Deposits. John M. Shugert, Cashier.

HUBLERSBURG. Preaching in the Reformed church on Sunday evening by Rev. Hoover. Cook Hubler and Mr. Showers, from Centre Hall, visited with the former's sister, Mrs. Rebecca Charles. The stork passed over our village and left a dishwasher at the home of Joe Lannen

Mrs. Wm. Minnich and son Lester made a business trip to Lock Haven on Saturday. Mr. Rishel, of Philadelphia, was in our town a couple days last week, buying up hay. Miss Verna Tressler, of Nittany, took supper at the home of Mrs. Cora Swartz on Friday evening. The literary and social on Friday was well attended.

Russell Yearick, of Nittany, spent Friday night with Orvis Swartz. There were several carloads of hay shipped from our station recently. Henry Hoy spent Sunday at Mill-heim Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Decker and son James spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. C. M. Hoy.

Mrs. L. H. McAulay and son Kenneth, after spending the last three weeks in Altoona, have returned home. Those who spent last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Allison, at Nittany were: Mrs. L. H. Yocum, Mrs. G. F. Hoy, Mrs. E. L. Markle, Mrs. L. E. Swartz, Mrs. Harry Weaver, and Mrs.

. D. Miller, of Bellefonte. Harold Hoy took in the big meeting at Nittany on Sunday evening.

Miss Madeline Spayd spent last Wednesday at Centre Hall, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Delaney breathing impaired? Does your throat get husky or clogged?

Modern science proves that these symptoms result from run down health. Snuffs and vapors are irritating and useless. You shouldbuildyourgeneral health with the oil-food in Scott's Emulsion-its nourishing powers will enrich and enliven the blood, aid nutrition and assimilation and assist nature to check the inflammation and heal the sensitive membranes which are affected. Scott's Emulsion will raise your standard of health to correct catarrh. Shun alcoholic mixtures and insist on SCOTT'S

SCOTT & BOWNE BLOOMFIELD N V

If You Have Money To Invest

Get the Mellon National Bank's Bond List. It describes a number of issues of Municipal, Public Service and Industrial Bonds, offered and recommended by the bank.

Mellon National Bank

Bond Dept.

Pittsburgh

ANNUAL STATEMENT.

The Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company, of Centre County, Penna.

In compliance with the provisions of their charter the fifty-seventh annual statement of the Company is hereby presented: ASSETS.

Balance in Treasury, January 12, 1913 Cash premiums received during year. Balance of tax No. 25 Borrowed money. Interest on money in bank $ 8494 88 George Tibbens on house

J. M. Brockerhoff on house
C. E. Fisher on house and contents.
Geo. F. Rockey, kitchen and contents.
Elmer Houtz, house damaged.
Ward and Sunday barn and contents.
Arthur S. Ellenbarger on barn and contents.
29 small losses from $1 to $45, many of them lightning FIRE LOSSES. $ 496 00 980 00 1542 25 42 67 85 96 1422 84 2075 84 656 62—$ 7002 18

RECAPITULATION. Salaries and commissions.

Postage, printing and stationery
Fire losses.

Directors pay.

Sundry expenses
Borrowed money and interest paid, $100, interest $1.25
Balance in treasury.

Amount due as cash premiums.

Due for borrowed money.

Premium notes taken the past year.

Premium notes in force.

Insurances of the year 1912.

Risks in force this day.

At an election held the same day the following were

Attest: D. F. LUSE, Secy.

At an election held the same day the following were elected as directors for the ensuing year: John H. Goheen, Robt. H. Reed, Col. W. Fred Reynolds, F. M. Fisher, H. E. Duck, Z. D. Thomas, Geo. B. Haines, John H. Beck, Geo. Mitchell, G. P. Gentzel, Frank McFarland, and E. M. Huyett. The board organized by electing: H. E. Duck, president; Col. W. Fred Reynolds, vice president; J. R. Brungart, treasurer, and D. F. Luse, secretary

USED AND REBUILT

Automobiles

Now Is the Time to Buy Them

You can buy cheaper now than in the spring; demand is greater then. A chance for the enterprising man to make a profit-buy one of these cars, use it or store it a couple of months and then sell at a profit. We are offering record bar-

STEARNS. MAXWELLS. OLDSMOBILES, CADILLACS,

And Other Well Known Makes.

We will sell these cars just as they stand-or overhaul and repair them. Some of these cars are our own; others left here on consignment by owners whose purchase of new cars is conditional upon the sale of their old ones. Offers extraordinary! Let us know your wants and we'll give you detail information

The Johnstown Automobile Co.,

101 Main Street.

Johnstown, Pa.

Pennsylvania

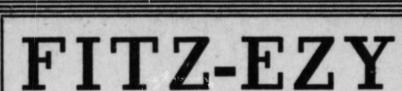

The man who begins his financial progress in a small way-who gradually increases his bank balance in a persistent manner--and shows others that he is determined to establish himself on a sub-

That man is not only respected, but receives the privileges and advantages awaiting those who succeed. If you are striving to "make good" there is no place you are more welcome than at this insti-

FIRST NATIONAL BANK,

Capital and Surplus $76,000.00 State College,

INTEREST PAID ON DEPOSITS

THE LADIES' SHOES

- THAT -

CURE CORNS

BOLD ONLY AT ---

Yeager's Shoe Store,

HIGH STREET,

BELLEFONTE, PA.

The New Year

has opened with brighter prospects for business. Let us help you to get your share of profit from the good times coming. Open an account with us. You will find that it will pay.

The First National Bank, Bellefonte, Pennsylvania