WOODWARD. While Thomas E. Smith and daughter Naomi were on their way to Woodward recently their horse became frightened at several cows alongside of the road, and upset the sled. Neither Mr. Smith or his daughter was hurt, and after putting the horse and sled in shape they finished their journey.

A. B. Meyer, of Coburn, bought L. L. Weaver's chicken house and moved it to his place at Coburn. The building was 48 feet long, but Mr. Meyer cut it in two pieces, loaded it on plain bob sleds and hauled it off to his home, where he intends to raise some show birds. L. L. says there is lots of money in the chicken business but it's hard to get it out.

Elwood Inhof took a business trip to Coburn on Monday. Last Saturday night Gernie Styers and Mr. Music were out for a drive down Pine Creek road, with one horse hitched in a sleigh. For some reason the horse started kicking the runner and soon got beyond control of the boys, spilling them out of the sleigh. Gern got his face badly scratched, but Music got through without a hurt. On Sunday morning they started to look for their horse and tracked him to Woodward. Wm. H. Fultz saw the horse and sleigh coming down out of the Gap about 8:30 in the morning, but it turned towards Coburn and up the alley to the Grace United Evangelical church. There Elwood Inhof captured the animal and put it in L. D. Orndorf's barn, where it was fed by Mr. Orndorf. Mr. Music got his horse a short time later.

H. M. Goodman of Greenbush, is spending sometime at the Woodward house. On last Wednesday night Luther Weaver's entertained two sled loads of people at their home at this place. Hosterman and sons Lester and Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. A. Meyer and son Randall; Mr. and Mrs. Z. A. Weaver and daughter Mary; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller and daughter Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Harter, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Meyer, Mrs. Bertha Meyer and daughter Marion; Mrs. W. T. Corman and sons, Guy and Charles; Misses Bessie Meyer, Mary Meyer, Catherine Kahler, Adah Korman, Dolly Kerstetter and Charles Meek, all of Coburn; Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Orndorf, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Musser, and Miss Florence Jenner, of this place. The evening was spent in playing games of all kinds, and in the usual innocent amusements of such occasions. At a reasonable hour the guests were served with delicious refreshments which brought to a close a very pleasant evening. They all departed for their homes with the general feeling that each had a fine time.

Robert Vonada, of Hersey, Pa., visited his brother James at this place during this week. Miles Stover and mother transacted business at Millheim on Monday afternoon. C. E. Kreamer is spending some time in Philadelphia. Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Fiedler and son Ray left for Akron, Ohio, last Friday morning to visit their daughter, Mrs. Roy Musser.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smoyer and children spent Saturday evening at Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sampsel's. Rev. C. C. Shuey and Rev. Stover filled the pulpit on Sunday evening at the M. E. church. Rev. Shuey preached a very good sermon and every one in the house seemed to enjoy his talk very much.

A number of young people of Zion were seen at church on Sunday evening. Come again, we are always glad to see you. The quarries at this place have been working full time. The only thing that ought not to be allowed is the Sunday work. That ought to be cut out entirely. Anyone wanting some experience in perpetual motion, just call on Shorty Confer or Preacher Hill. They will try and help you out.

PLEASANT GAP, No. 2. Harry Baird took a sled load to State College to attend a surprise party given in honor of their daughter, Mrs. Andy Kerns. Those who were present were Harry Baird and family, their children, and a number of grandchildren. Nathaniel Gill, of Huntingdon, was transacting business in Pleasant Gap recently. Sammy still likes the Gap—and who wouldn't? Such a booming place. Nearly every crow that is picked up is found to be blind. The cause is said to be the cold weather we have had.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hoy and little granddaughter, Fannie Miller, were mountain-side visitors Sunday afternoon. Also Mr. and Mrs. Lester Gill, of Pleasant Gap. Freeman Baird, of this place, has purchased a lot from William Noll, upon which he intends to build a house.

Everybody very cordially invited to attend. Misses Agnes Kelly and Isabel Cowher were pleasant Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gates.

Rev. S. J. Wilson, the U. B. minister of this place is conducting a successful revival meeting at Mt. Pleasant and if nothing prevents, Mr. Wilson will commence revival services in the near future at Black Oak.

On Sunday evening, Feb. 15th, the C. E. Endeavors of South Phillipsburg, will be at Black Oak, and participate in the services at this time. Everybody should be present that possibly can and enjoy the meeting.

W. G. L. Crain, one of our most esteemed friends and neighbors, was taken from our midst on Jan. 28th, 1914. He and a sick Sunday, 25th, and went to Roaring Springs hospital where he was operated on, and died on the above date. He was a loving husband and kind father, and a lifelong member of the M. E. church, faithful to all his calls. In his death the church has lost one whose place will be hard to fill. He was in the employ of the P. R. R. Co. for fifty-two years and was a trustworthy employee.

PORT MATILDA, No. 2. William Bigelow surprised his many friends on Monday by getting his best girl, going to Rev. Cook's and getting the words said that made them man and wife. They have gone to house-keeping at the farm he purchased from Victor Weston. Congratulations William.

The young folks planned to have a sled ride and a good time on Friday evening, so they supplied themselves with oysters and other good things to eat and wended their way to A. B. Williams', near Sunny Side school house, where they enjoyed themselves until a late hour. By that time it was raining, so they got wet but who cares if they do get on the wrong road with their girl? How is it, B. H.?

Hilda and Mildred Williams are spending some time with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Williams. Oscar Johnson has moved back to town from Tyrone, after an absence of two years; he is in the employ of the P. R. R. Co. and is located here.

A. B. Williams was slightly hurt in the saw mill of Williams, Woodring & Co., on Monday. It was a close call for him as he might have been hauled into the saw.

Victor Weston purchased the Thomas Weston property in town and moved in it; he sold his farm to William Bigelow. Monday evening the young folks had a birthday party for Ray Osman, it being his 21st birthday. Prof. Rothrock joined with them in being Ray's teacher before Ray left the high school. He is a bright young man and is employed at Pitcairn by the P. R. R. He is another of our boys who has made good.

LYONTOWN. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Aikley and two sons spent Sunday at their uncle's E. Tierney. Mrs. Sarah Davy and son William spent Sunday with the former's sister, Mrs. Charles Schad. William Walker, of Howard, spent Sunday with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lyons.

Mrs. Elsie Morton was in Bellefonte shopping on Monday. Wm. Lyons and daughter Henrietta, and son Roy spent Sunday with the former's son, Clarence, of Curtin. Mrs. Hunter Knisely has returned to home in Bellefonte after spending a very pleasant week with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Lyons.

Gust Armer, Harry Lutz, Laird Felme and Wm. Lyons have been getting out new telephone poles. That's right, boys, keep your line in good order. Miss Lizzie Lyons attended the dance at her uncle Elsie's, of Roopsburg. Billie Sunday was seen in our town a few days last week.

Mrs. Wm. King was a Bellefonte shopper one day last week. Mrs. Ethan Tierney, who has been in poor health for the past three months, we are glad to say is able to call on her friends. Lawrence Tierney makes frequent visits to Mt. Eagle. I wonder what the attraction is. I suppose M. could tell us.

Last week one evening as Constance Tierney and his lady friend were walking out Water street they had an awful scare, but their hair should not have stood on ends, as Jacob was not after them.

WINGATE. Quite a pleasant social event occurred in our vicinity last Tuesday evening in the form of a birthday surprise party. It was in this manner that Mrs. Chas. C. Daley was innocently and in the usual manner preparing buckwheat cakes and sausage for breakfast, also doing the supper dishes when there was heard the ringing and chiming of an unusual number of bells and merry voices. The next instant the house was completely overtaken and filled with friends, filled baskets and presents, causing her an unbounded surprise. After enjoying some social chats the kind neighbors set a table consisting of almost all the dainties and refreshments on the list of edibles and in such quantities as satisfied all who were there. Mrs. Daley, whose former home was in Spring Mills, has expressed her opinion that the neighbors in this part of Bald Eagle valley excel those in Pennsylvania for kindness and good cooking. To show her appreciation of the affair and that it would never be forgotten she presented each one there with a bouquet of immortels. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. David McCloskey, Mr. and Mrs. George Flick, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wood, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Fisher and children, Mrs. Roy Alexander, Daniel Boob, Mrs. Diddings, Gertrude Boob, Grace Boob, Arthur Boob, Marie Alexander, Lillian Alexander, Fred Fisher, Joseph Flick, J. J. The moving picture show held here last week in the hall was well attended. Mrs. Irvin Shreckengast has been on the sick list. H. A. Mechtly, turnkey of the Clinton Co. Jail, spent several days at home.

Mrs. Harry S. Moser, of Ambler, Montgomery Co., Pa., is spending several weeks among friends at Coburn and State College. Miss Nora Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Irvin Clark, of near Blanchard, entered the Lock Haven hospital last week for an operation.

There is a scarcity of dwelling houses in Millheim to accommodate the people who desire to live in that thriving metropolis of lower Penns Valley. The fifty-five-foot bridge, recently abandoned by the Pennsylvania Fire Brick company near Beech Creek, is being dismantled and will be hauled to the brick plant with teams.

While hastening to aid a little boy who had fallen in the street, Dr. George H. Tibbens, of Beech Creek, slipped on the icy pavement and struck his head with such force as to cut a severe gash in his scalp. The injury is not serious. A corps of engineers, numbering about one dozen, are again at work surveying a route for what is believed to be the much-talked of new railroad between Pittsburgh and New York, going by way of Sandy Ridge. The engineers have just started work at Port Matilda.

James H. Runkle and Hugh Runkle will exchange locations next April. The latter will move to the farm owned by A. Atoney W. G. Runkle, just below Bellefonte, and the former will move from that farm to the Runkle homestead at Tusseyville now occupied by the latter.

John H. Wagner, of Potters Mills, has sold his farm in Georges Valley to Philip Leister, of Centre Hall. This farm contains a little over one hundred acres, and the price paid was $5,000. It will be tenanted by one of Mr. Leister's sons after it is vacated by the present tenant Elmer Harshbarger.

"The San Diego Union" one of the largest and most modern papers, from a typographical point of view published in Pittsburgh, and New York, is the credit and collection department, A. L. Vogt. The publication is issued at San Diego, California. Mr. Vogt is the husband of Miss Emily Alexander, the eldest daughter of the late Dr. J. F. Alexander of Centre Hall.

The Millheim Journal in their last issue says: "During the past several months W. L. Hosterman has killed several hundred hogs at his slaughter house at Coburn. The stomachs and intestines were hauled to a field east of the village and buried. Last week when four game wardens were in that section hunting evidence to incriminate elk hunters they spent considerable time and energy in digging through the accumulated offal."

Mrs. Elizabeth Erb, probably the oldest lady in the vicinity of Phillipsburg, celebrated her 86th anniversary Tuesday of last week at her home in Phillipsburg. There was a gathering of her own kindfoks, which was a happy occasion to all. This splendid old lady is as spry as many others at 30 years of age, doing all her household work, such as cooking, washing, baking, etc. She has lived in Phillipsburg for sixty years and has seen many changes there.

Sheriff Arthur B. Lee must contemplate becoming a farmer when he retires from his present office as last week he purchased the Michael Duck farm, containing 136 acres, lying along Sinking Creek, between Spring Mills and Centre Hall. The consideration was $6,000. He disposed of his house and blacksmith shop, at Tusseyville, to Emmet Jordan, of Colyer, who took possession last Monday. The price paid was $1300. The home is where Sheriff Lee lived and the shop where he did business prior to his election to office.

James Hallaway, our up-to-date farmer, and his obliging wife were invited to a surprise birthday party, given in honor of William Rishel at Farris Mills, last Tuesday evening. They came home in the small hours, in time for an early breakfast, very much pleased with their trip. Walter Orwig, who is employed in the Altoona car shops, is spending a few days with his family here.

Mrs. Harry Weaver and baby, from Centre Hall, and her brother from Zion, spent a day at the home of Z. E. Haffley. Ruth says B. C. V. is all right. If sleighing is no good, the stage is right there to bring him to the hospitable home of Hal Crouse, where every one is treated fine.

We are glad to say there is a slight improvement in Mrs. Jones' condition, but she is still very weak. Our three schools are all getting along very nicely. Teachers and scholars work together. Mrs. Polly George, of Aaronsburg, N. 2nd street, offers her stable for sale. Anyone wishing to buy a barn for its lumber, should come to see it to help a poor widow along.

E. Fehl and Earn Stover and son Ray made a business trip to Williamsport and came home on Saturday with one of the finest new Buick automobiles that we have had yet in our burg. Earn Stover, the best hunter in our township and his son Ray killed the following game the past season: 47 rabbits, 23 pheasants, 18 grey squirrels and 4 red foxes. Ray shot the big bear. After the weather is more favorable, they can give a better account of their game. They are now out after foxes.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stover and family, from Mazeppa, Union county, are visiting his parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stover.

This plan makes a pint of better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50. A few doses usually conquer an ordinary cough—relieves even whooping cough quickly. Simple as it is, no better remedy can be had at any price.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle; then add the Sugar Syrup. It has a pleasant taste and lasts a family a long time. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

You can feel this take hold of a cough in a way that means business. Has a good tonic effect, braces up the appetite, and is slightly laxative, too, which is helpful. A handy remedy for hoarseness, spasmodic croup, bronchitis, bronchial asthma and whooping cough.

The effect of pine on the membranes is well known. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of Norwegian white pine extract, and is rich in guaiacol and other natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this combination.

This Pinex and Sugar Syrup remedy has often been limited, though never successfully. It is now used in more homes than any other cough remedy.
