

In and About Bellefonte

—Willard Hall made a business trip to Altoona last Friday.

—C. Y. Wagner made a business trip to Watson town the forepart of the week.

—Charles Larimer, of Johnstown, Pa., spent Sunday with his wife and daughter in this place.

—Miss Mary Bradley departed Monday morning for a ten days' visit to Philadelphia and New York.

—Malcolm R. Pifer, of Altoona, was a guest over Sunday of Miss Lucille Wetzel at the latter's home on East Linn street.

—Joseph Shawyer, one of Worth township's well known farmers, was a business visitor in Bellefonte Monday and made the Democrat office a place of call.

—Mr. and Mrs. Nelson E. Robb and two children, of State College, were guests over Sunday of Mr. Robb's mother, Mrs. Alice Robb, of East Bishop street.

—Miss Laura Rumberger passed through Bellefonte Saturday on her way to her home in Unionville, after a pleasant visit with Miss Elizabeth Green at Briery.

—Mrs. Frank Montgomery and her sister, Miss Hasie, left Monday afternoon for Philadelphia and Atlantic City, where they will spend the balance of the winter.

—Mrs. Clara Iddings, of Snow Shoe Intersection, was at arrival in Bellefonte Saturday for a few days' visit at the home of Mr. William H. Garman, of East Lamb street.

—Mrs. Esther A. Hendrick and Mrs. Alice Shields returned last Friday to their homes in Sunbury, after a visit of several weeks at their sister, Mrs. W. H. Crissman, of North Thomas street.

—Mrs. Maurice Tucker of Akron, Ohio, and her son Billy, who have been visiting Mrs. Tucker's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Donachy, of Bishop street, for some time past, left Saturday for home.

—Charles McClellan spent Sunday in Tyrone with his daughter, Mrs. George James. Of course the principal attraction that drew him to Tyrone was to see that little grandson that arrived at the James home recently.

—John P. Harris last week tendered his resignation as trustee of the Wm. A. Thomas Estate and on Saturday Judge Orvis appointed J. Kennedy Johnston, Harry Keller and J. Thomas Mitchell as joint trustees to manage this estate in the future.

—Mrs. Kate Jones Mansell, the collector for the State-Centre Electric Company, has had State College added to her territory since the first of the year, and now makes regular trips to the College each week in the interest of the company.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Mallin, of Altoona, arrived in town Saturday for a visit among Bellefonte relatives. Mr. Mallin returned to Altoona Sunday afternoon but Mrs. Mallin will remain for a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hurley, of East Bishop street.

—At a meeting of the Retired Employees Association of the Pennsylvania Railroad held in Philadelphia recently at which 168 veteran railroad men over 65 years of age were in attendance, the fact was noted that of this number 89 were also veterans of the civil war.

—Arthur Stahl, of Pittsburg, a former Academy student, but of late taking an agricultural course at State College, has decided to leave school and will go to work on a truck farm near Altoona to make some practical experience, and will return to the college next year and complete his course.

—Conrad Miller returned home last week from an extended visit to his son, Martin, at Angleton, Texas. He remains until Saturday visiting friends and relatives.

—George Jakob, formerly a member of the Bellefonte police force but now in charge of a gang of carpenters in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and who resides at Altoona, was in Bellefonte last Thursday to attend the funeral of Mrs. James S. Carson. He remained until Saturday visiting friends and relatives.

—Stanley Valentine, son of Postmaster and Mrs. H. C. Valentine, who has been at home for several weeks on account of illness, left Wednesday afternoon to resume his position at Pittsburg, having fully recovered his health. He was accompanied by his sister, Miss Helen Valentine, who will attend school in Pittsburg.

—G. L. Stansbury, of Youngstown, Ohio, spent Friday and Saturday in Bellefonte at the home of his uncle, Michael Lamb of North Allegheny street. Mr. Stansbury is auditor for the Republic Rubber Company at Youngstown. This was Mr. Stansbury's first visit to Bellefonte in twenty-five years and he noted many changes in the old town.

—General John P. Taylor, of Reedsville, Pa., a distinguished civil war veteran who commanded a troop of cavalry in the Army of the Potomac, was an arrival in Bellefonte Monday to attend to some business matters, remaining over until Tuesday to attend the funeral of General Beaver. General Taylor although 87 years of age is still active and in good health and able to attend to business as usual.

—J. H. Wilson, of Clarion, Pa., was a visitor in Bellefonte Saturday and registered at the Brockerhoff house. He is a former State Senator and at present a member of assembly from Clarion county. As an evidence of his popularity it may be stated that he was elected to the assembly in 1912 on the Democratic ticket by a large majority over his Republican and Washington party opponents. He is a pleasant, affable gentleman and quite a number of our citizens had the pleasure of meeting him during his brief stay in town.

—Quite a large audience attended the Presbyterian church Sunday evening to hear Dr. George E. Hawes give his impressions of "Billy Sunday" the evangelist, gained from his visit to Pittsburg during the past week. His discourse was interesting throughout and gave his hearers a better insight into the methods and motives of this wonderful man who is stirring the "Smoky City" to its depths and who Dr. Hawes believes is a prophet of God. During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Russell Blair sang a beautiful duet which was greatly enjoyed by the large congregation.

—Lola Francis stock company at the opera house every night next week. New plays never before seen in Bellefonte.

—Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Gill, of Huntingdon, were arrivals in Bellefonte Saturday and spent several days visiting friends in this vicinity.

—Mrs. George E. Hawes departed on Tuesday afternoon for the east coast of Florida where she will visit her sister for the balance of the winter.

—A. A. Stevens, Esq., of Tyrone, and Thomas H. Greig, Esq., of Altoona, were among those who attended the funeral of General Beaver here on Tuesday.

—Miss Marie Heckroth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Heckroth of West Chester, Pa., is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Miles Walker of East Linn street.

—The Ladies Aid Society of the United Brethren church announce a bake sale to be held in the room adjoining the church on Saturday afternoon and evening.

—Mrs. L. M. Poon Chew, the "Mark Twain" of China, a noted statesman, orator and newspaper man, will be in Pennsylvania sometime in March and will lecture in Bellefonte at a date to be fixed later. This makes three lectures for the month of March.

—There will be an extra special feature shown at the scenic Wednesday, February 11th, 1914, matinee night, entitled "Victory." This picture, shown in five masterful parts, has been heralded as the World's Greatest Spectacular War drama and was made with the aid and permission of the United States Navy. Matinee five and ten cents. Special matinee at four o'clock for the children. Evening show ten cents to all. On several occasions recently the picture has been shown in former cities and the admission was but five. This is made necessary by the fact that special features can only be secured at double the cost. In no case do we charge a dime for a show that we are sure to be able to put on at half that price.

—The Fisher Shipp Concert Company, an added attraction to the Star House on the evening of March 20th. There are four in the company and their entirement consists of songs, readings, music, etc., and is something on the order of the Cambridge Players, who made such a hit here a few weeks ago. On March 3rd, Clifford G. Rowe, Chicago, Ill., a notable lecturer will be in Bellefonte and deliver one of his addresses in the opera house under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. In addition to the above Dr. Weston has received word that Dr. N. Poon Chew, the "Mark Twain" of China, a noted statesman, orator and newspaper man, will be in Pennsylvania sometime in March and will lecture in Bellefonte at a date to be fixed later. This makes three lectures for the month of March.

MARRIAGES.

Keller-McCoy.
Frank Keller, of Houserville, and Miss Catherine McCoy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McCoy of this place, were quietly married at the parochial residence of the Catholic church this city, Thursday evening of last week. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Father P. McArdle.

Guisewhite-Androsky.
Joseph Guisewhite and Miss Anna Androsky, of Cherrytree, were married at Spangier on Monday of last week. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Guisewhite, and Miss Androsky is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Winters, of Smultown. The groom is a graduate of the veterinary department of the University of Pennsylvania, having passed with high honors in the spring of 1912. He started the practice of his profession in Millheim for several years and is well known in this vicinity. They will likely reside in Millheim.

Saxion-Benner.
A quiet but pretty wedding ceremony was solemnized in the United Evangelical parsonage Wednesday January 28th, at 6 p. m., when the bride, Miss Ruth E. Benner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Winters, of Smultown, was united in marriage by Rev. M. D. Geesey. The groom is a graduate of the veterinary department of the University of Pennsylvania, having passed with high honors in the spring of 1912. He started the practice of his profession in Millheim for several years and is well known in this vicinity. They will likely reside in Millheim.

Feidler-Winters.
On Saturday evening, January 24, at the Aaronburg Lutheran church, age, Mr. P. E. Feidler, of Millheim, and Miss Maude Winters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Winters, of Smultown, were united in marriage by Rev. M. D. Geesey. The groom is a graduate of the veterinary department of the University of Pennsylvania, having passed with high honors in the spring of 1912. He started the practice of his profession in Millheim for several years and is well known in this vicinity. They will likely reside in Millheim.

Whiteman-Miss Margaret.
The oldest resident of Centre county, died in the Bellefonte hospital last Sunday at 6 p. m. of infirmities incident to old age. She had been confined to the hospital for the past three years and for the last year had been practically blind. She was born in Centre county and was 97 years of age on the last of May. She had been a resident of Bellefonte for many years and was a successful professional nurse. When a young girl she enlisted with the United States army and was a faithful member of that denomination for over seventy-five years. Her only surviving relatives are a nephew, John Whiteman, of Millersburg, and two nieces who reside at Snow Shoe. The remains were removed to the home of W. T. Twitmore on south Water street, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock the funeral services were held from the Methodist church conducted by Dr. E. H. Youm and Rev. C. C. Shuey. Interment in the Union cemetery.

Crain-W. G. L. Crain.
W. G. L. Crain, of Port Matilda, for more than thirty years, track foreman on the Bald Eagle Valley division of the Pennsylvania Railroad, died at 3:45 o'clock Thursday morning of congestion of the lungs at the Nason Hospital, Roaring Springs, Pa. Mr. Crain was a native of Huntingdon county and was born November 22nd, 1845. He entered the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad company on November 25, 1870, as laborer of the work. He was advanced to the position of foreman on November 15, 1882, in which capacity he served most faithfully. Mr. Crain was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church in his home town and Superintendent of the Sunday school. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Cathryn Crain, and the following children: Charles W. John Scott and Harrison, of Port Matilda; Mrs. M. J. Woodring, of Philadelphia; Mrs. B. Woodring and Mrs. Wilbur Woodring, of Port Matilda. He was an inmate of the hospital only two days being in a very serious condition when taken to that institution. The funeral occurred Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment at Port Matilda.

Young-Mrs. Sarah Josephine.
Young, wife of George W. Young, of Nittany died at her residence in that place last Thursday, January 29th, following a brief illness with pneumonia. Deceased was the daughter of David and Sara Weaver, and was born at Nittany Hall, June 20th, 1827, making her age at time of passing from this life, 86 years, 7 months and 9 days. She is survived by her husband, George W. Young, and the following children: Mrs. Emma Harpster, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Mary Patterson, of Betula, and Mrs. Maria Fletcher. She also leaves to mourn, these brothers, George W. Young, of Harrisburg; Calvin Weaver of Philadelphia; Frank Weaver, of State College; Misses Mary, Ida, Bella and Carrie Weaver, of Bellefonte; together with grandchildren, children and 6 great-grandchildren. Mrs. Young will be missed not only in the home but by a large circle of friends. She was a kind wife and mother and a sympathetic neighbor. Funeral services were conducted in the Evangelical church at Nittany on Monday forenoon at 10 o'clock, by Rev. Ertel. Interment was made in the Hublersburg cemetery.

Kuhn-John Kuhn, formerly of Mansfield, this county, died Monday at Canton, Ohio, of consumption, aged 41 years, 8 months and 21 days. Deceased was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kuhn, who reside at Axemann, and had gone to Canton last summer with the hope that the change of climate would prove beneficial. While there he had been staying at the home of his brother, George Kuhn, where his death occurred. He was a painter by occupation and a most exemplary young man. Since boyhood he had been a member of the Methodist church and was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him. He leaves to survive, his parents and the following named children, his wife having preceded him in the grave about two years ago: Earnest, John, Audrey, Fred, Jennie and Ethel, all residing at State College, and Kenneth, the youngest child, living with relatives in Iowa. He is also survived by these brothers and sister: Mrs. Frank Lohr, of Iowa; Rev. Frank Kuhn, of Maplewood, Wayne county; Gardner, of California; William and Dale, of Pittsburg; George, of Canton, O.; and Clem, of Blanchard. The body was brought to the home of his parents at Axemann on Monday, where funeral services will be conducted this forenoon at 10 o'clock, by Revs. C. C. Shuey and D. J. Frum. Interment will be made at Shiloh.

"KNIGHTS" HAVE NIGHT OF IT.
Friday evening of last week a sled load of members of the Bellefonte Castle, Knights of the Golden Eagle, consisting of Harry Rosman, Christ Young, Harry Raymond, S. D. Getting, Curtis Johnson, Harry Gehret, Robert Woodring, David Barlet, Abe Long, Tom Hazlet, Jesse Dorrain and William Ott, started to Centre Hall to visit the lodge at that place. They left Bellefonte at 6 p. m. by way of the old Lewistown road, and when about a mile from Pleasant Gap they encountered a snow drift in the road in which they stuck. After considerable difficulty the party managed to extricate themselves and proceeded on their journey. When they reached Nittany mountain they found the roads so bad they could scarcely get through. Some of the men must have decided to go in training for a Marathon race, as they got out of the sled and walked up the mountain. They finally reached their destination about 9 o'clock and was given a hearty welcome. After a pleasant meeting the guests were served with a first-class lunch, which after all the strenuous exertion they had made throughout the day, was most welcome. When ready to start homeward they found it raining. Knowing it would be impossible to return in the sled they hired a hack at Boozer's livery stable. Two of the brave knights were afraid of the dark and decided to spend the night where they were. The others came back, but before starting one of the number wished "he was home with his feet at Mam's back." They reached Bellefonte safely about 3 a. m.

—Fred Davis, of Altoona, visited Bellefonte friends the latter part of last week. He is now employed as a motorman on the Altoona Street Railway and likes his position very much.
