Bright, Newy Letters From the Various Sections of the County.

MILESBURO.

The Milesburg Store Company has purchased the brick building on Pike street from Lewis Bullock. The deal was closed last Friday. This company expects to remodel the place into an up-to-date department store. This block is now occupied by C. P. Essington as a swing factory.

A story is in circulation that Edward Grove is going out of the coal business, but these stories are false and he wishes to inform the public that he has no intention of selling out. Mr. Grove has been confined to his home for several weeks on account of ill health, but has managed to supply his customers with coal as usual.

Several coal bins and sheds have been visited by supposedly persons in need of fuel. Several threats of prosecution have been made and the parties are known, but as work is scarce and the winter severe, no arrests have been made. Now wouldn't it be more honorable and manly to ask for such things. Very few people would refuse to aid families who are in need. If I am not mistaken the churches of our town have a fund that is used for charitable purposes. Ask and it shall be given you, and let him that stole, steal no more.

Mrs. E. Austin returned to Tyrone after spending some time with her son H. P. and family, of Milesburg. Mrs. Israel Frieze and daughter Sarah spent a few days visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Slacker, in Juniata, last week.

Our Boys Band will hold a concert in Wetler's Hall next Saturday evening, Feb. 7th. Admission 10c.

Miss Amber Confer spent last Saturday, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Walker, of the burg.

James Bavarr, who has been employed in Snow Shoe since last September, is paying the burg a visit. Jim looks fine—the boys must have taken good care of him over there.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses Tressler spent Sunday in Mill Hall visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hardy.

Mrs. Rebecca Rager returned home Saturday after spending two weeks visiting in Tyrone.

Malachi Summers, of Potters Mills, spent a day or two visiting at A. G. Noll's, where his son is seriously ill. Rev. S. S. Clark is engaged in holding a series of meetings in Eagleville.

Samuel Baird spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel.

Mrs. Geo. Wasson, of Lock Haven, and Mrs. Philip Haines, of Beech Creek, were recent visitors of Mrs. Wilbur Lannen.

Miss Esthler, Spicer and friend, Howard Jenkins, of State College, spent the week-end visiting in Altoona and Hollidaysburg.

Miss Sue Swires departed for Williamsport last week to spend her vacation.

Chester Miles, of Altoona, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Miles.

Mrs. Enoch Hugg is spending a week's visit in Phillipsburg.

Mrs. Anna Withers returned to Tyrone last week after spending a few weeks among relatives and friends in Milesburg.

A surprise birthday party was given at the residence of Rev. C. M. Piper in honor of Mrs. Piper's sixtieth anniversary. It was well planned and was a delightful surprise. About fifty guests were present and many beautiful and useful presents were thankfully received. Refreshments were served at 10 o'clock, after spending a delightful evening and wishing Mrs. Piper many happy birthday greetings, all departed for their homes.

Oh, What a Crowd!

We are glad to see our minister able to be out again. Be careful, brother, we don't want any more accidents to happen, because we miss you in the services. Deep in our memory are you inscribed, close round our heart strings ever entwined; so we would send you wishes most true and blessings attend you all your life through. Echoes from one who did the writing. The following are the names of those who composed the sled loads enroute to Unionville last Friday evening: Rev. Ash and two little lads, Paul and Harold, Mrs. H. Whitman, Miss E. Miles and Lillian; Bettie, Rose and little Olympia Haupt, Margaret Alkey, May and Janet Hev-erly, Ben. Alkey, Earl Myers, Ethel Litterman, Margaret Miles, Harriet Baird, Madge Orris, Edna McCullough, Hannah and Anna Shroyer, Anna and Naomi Adams, Nellie Weaver, Mrs. N. Jones, Mrs. Geo. McCullough, Mrs. L. C. Smith, John Brady and Mable Austin. Thirty-three in all.

JACKSONVILLE.

On Monday, the 26th, J. P. Beightol, Mrs. C. E. Alley, Ora E. Beightol and Roy Harter attended the funeral of Tilly Kellerman which took place from the J. E. Barner home in Bellefonte.

On Thursday evening, the 29th, Roy M. Harter and Ora E. Beightol surprised their friends by driving to Howard to the Evangelical parsonage where they were made man and wife by the pastor, M. J. Snyder. On leaving the parsonage they were saluted by a band of boys who gave them a nice little serenade. May they have smooth sailing on life's voyage.

On Friday evening a merry sled load of young people of Bellefonte stopped at the home of N. H. Yearick where they spent a delightful evening and were most royally entertained. After a sumptuous repast they all returned home in the wee hours, well pleased with the trip.

Our sick: Reuben Glossner is still confined to his bed. S. R. Kling is able to be up and around in the house. Mrs. Rachael Shroyer who has been confined to her bed the past week is improving slowly. Mrs. G. M. Harter is among our sick. Many others who were sick the past week with grip and sore throat and minor complaints, are able to be around again.

Well February came in very nice and as Monday was groundhog day he could see his shadow very clearly and has returned to his place of hiding for the next six weeks of winter that are to follow.

Dwight M. Stover has secured a sawing outfit and with his gasoline engine is prepared to saw stove wood on reasonable terms. Those having wood to cut should see Mr. Stover.

The King of All Laxatives.

For constipation, use Dr. King's New Life Pills. Paul Mathulka, of Buffalo, N. Y., says they are the "king of all laxatives." They are a blessing to all my family and I always keep a box at home. Get a box and get well again. Price 25c. At druggists or by mail, H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis.—Adv. Feb.

BLANCHARD.

J. Irvin DeHaas, the section foreman at Eagleville station, is improving his new home by annexing a front porch and other buildings. Chas. White is doing the work.

C. A. Williams and wife are on an extended trip to New York and Philadelphia.

Milford Gardner says neither a borrower or a lender be. Loan often looses both self and friends, and borrowing rusts the hinges of society; "this lantern came back."

Curfew shall not ring tonight, is the popular song among the boys now, for the late school ordinance and truant officer is on the job.

The protracted meetings are well attended at the Baptist church. I believe in an effort of this kind all churches should unite. When Lazarus died he rested in Christ's bosom, so there is no reserved seats for any particular denomination. This expression may cause some to twist their noses until they resemble a free lunch pretzel, but still it is true.

Alex Heverly has charge of laying a spur of tracks for the Langus Scootac R. R. at Bear Swamp.

Frequently this neighborhood has been stirred up by petty thieving. The parties were known but left side. Now the law is based on good sense, so if the law makes stealing a felony, the penalty should be meted out to those deserving it. Small crimes left unpunished are stepping stones to greater felonies. Take for an example the robbing of Christian Robb's meat house. They left but enough to cook a kettle of sauer kraut.

A little of the right spirit manifested in our churches will do more good for the temperance cause than all the remonstrances ever filed in court. You can see it for yourself here at present.

Edgar Morrison is attending the revival meetings, the care of the Shank farm being consigned to Miss Marie Morrison, Miss Meredith Kunes and George Berryhill.

BLANCHARD, No. 2.

Norris I. Harter has been visiting W. M. Long, minister of Christian church, at Clarkburg, W. Va., for the past three weeks, and on his return will visit friends in Johnstown and Windber.

Sunday at 12 o'clock m. another boy came to stay at the home of E. T. Bechdel, of this place.

WADDLE.

William Curry lost a valuable cow last week.

George Gates has his new house almost finished; the plasterers are at work at present.

We understand that protracted meeting will start at Paradise U. B. church, Sunday evening, Feb. 8th.

The McNitt Lumber Co. moved their camp from Scotia to the Thompson track last week.

At the raising of J. Elmer Clark's barn last Wednesday while Lester Meek was climbing up a ladder and had his foot on the last rung, the rung gave way and threw him to the ground, spraining his ankle and wrist. Later in the day when they were raising one of the heavy pulleys Mr. Cramer was standing on top of one of the braces when the pulley slipped throwing him down on the hay mow and the pulley and post came tumbling down where he fell. If it would have come one foot farther it would have struck him on the head and killed him instantly, but we are glad to say it struck another brace and only hurt his limb very painfully but not seriously.

John Fisher has been housed up for a few days with tonsillitis.

The scarlet fever and the mumps patients are improving.

Some of our neighbors have been complaining about loosing chickens and the one that is taking them had better cut it out for there are some people watching for them and they have an idea who the guilty party is. We advise instead of using tacks better put buck-shot in.

We understand that the Waddle cannery will be started this month. We cannot exactly tell how large it will be, but they are putting up one of a capacity of 300 to 400 bushels of fruit per day. If that is the way it will mean about 50 employees. We feel sure that it will be a success for the managers are all good, sober, reliable men. Girls between 15 and 20 years of age, who wish employment had better send their application in to J. W. Clark, Waddle.

George Kelly shipped twelve barrels of his fine apples to Altoona last week.

BELLSGROVE.

Harman Burd, wife and three children of Dix Run, were visiting with friends at Bells Grove on Sunday.

Mark Hall and wife were out driving on Sunday.

Mrs. Aaron Hall is suffering at this writing with a bealed head.

Mrs. Hannah Hall and Miss Carrie Nyman and nephew, Master George Nyman were Friday afternoon visitors at Mrs. Aaron Hall's. The good ladies brought their thimbles along and helped Mrs. Hall to quilt.

Robert Lannen took his scholars for a sled ride last Thursday and landed at Plum Grove, surprising Mr. Everetts, who is teaching at school. Mr. Lannen and Mr. Everetts called their good spellers together and had a spelling-bee. After Bell Grove beat Plum Grove on spelling they all returned home, pleased with the trip.

Mrs. Aaron Hall was a caller at the home of Mrs. Harry Harper, last Wednesday.

Briton Hall was a Tyrone visitor last Sunday.

Aaron Hall and Harry Hall were in Unionville Saturday night attending I. O. O. F. meeting.

Mrs. John Hall and baby, one day last week, called on Mrs. Alfred Adam, who is suffering with rheumatism.

The Centre Democrat $1.50 per year when paid in advance.

ROCK FORGE.

Sleighting is about done and we are having plenty of rain.

W. B. Brees, who has been sick, is not improving much.

Mrs. Harry Fike went to Buffalo Run, to take care of her daughter, Mrs. George Rider, and her new grandson.

George Baker, of Kansas, visited at George Bhears' a couple days last week.

Leona Johnson, of Houserville, is visiting at Rock a few days.

W. B. Emmlinger, Sidney Poorman, Ira Benner and Joe Bhears took turns at hauling large sled loads of their friends and neighbors to Houserville to protracted meeting which we think was right, to help the good cause along.

Singing school at Rock Forge school house is turning out fine, as there are now forty-two scholars and some yet to come.

If you want to know how the road is to Buffalo Run, ask Sidney Poorman.

Mrs. Mary Schrock, widow of William Schrock, of Sidney, Ohio, visited with Ira Benner's, two weeks and returned to Lemont on Saturday to spend some time before leaving for home.

Some of the movings around Rock in the spring will be: Andy Breen to Buffalo Run on Col. Reynolds's farm where Miles Meckley now lives; Ira Benner on the farm bought from Henry Tressler and Tressler on the farm vacated by Breen, on the penitentiary site.

There is a great deal of gripe and tonsillitis around Rock.

Nearly every farmer is getting a chop mill and gasoline engine; after a while we'll not need grist mills as they will soon be making their own flour. Among those who have already got chop mills are D. F. Houser, Ira Benner, G. W. Bhears, Sidney Poorman and Will Emmlinger.

Say, we will ask the larger girls and women to step to one side after they pass outside of church so Ben, Paul and Ralph can see the smaller damsels. How about it, B. M. and D. ?

Meeting commenced at the Evangelical church at Lemont Sunday, Feb. 1.

Charley says he will go to Bellefonte on Saturday night, if he has to wear two pair of shoes out on his trip and walk backwards to keep from slipping the wrong way.

OAK HALL.

Anthony Knoff, a resident of Pittsburg the last few years, but formerly of this place, was brought back for burial last Tuesday, accompanied by relatives and met at the train by a host of friends. He was a veteran of the Civil war, his regiment being engaged in many a hard battle. His age was 83 years.

Miss Leah Zong and friend, Charles Freed, of Beavertown, were callers at the home of the former's brother, Edward, Monday evening.

Miss Carrie Rishel being sick several days last week, her school was taken in charge by her brother Wayne, but Wayne says he would rather be assistant at the grammar school than principal of the primary. Ha, ha.

The Twilight Club held their first annual banquet at the home of R. C. Lowder last Friday evening. Supper was served at 9:30, after which the evening was spent in games and singing. Every one enjoyed themselves to the full extent, there being thirty-four present. Happiness prevailed over all till the very end. It was 2 o'clock when the crowd began to disperse, thanking the host for their hospitality and kindness.

Geo. Lonerberger spent Sunday at the home of his uncle, Samuel Reitz. A sled load of our young people called at the home of William Houtz at the Branch, Wednesday evening where they had good things to eat and kind words to say. The only misfortune was that one of the young ladies had her hand injured by not hitting somebody's face. Ha, ha.

BENORE.

The Y. M. C. A. boys of State College held quite a successful meeting here on Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings, which were enjoyed by all.

The stork visited our town last week and left three bouncing babies: a boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stine; a girl at Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Williams; and a girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Hillard. All are enjoying good health.

Rev. Piper, with the help of a few of his parishioners, are holding revival services in the M. E. church. Our Evangelical friends are with us in the good work. We are praying for big results for good in our community.

Miss Sue Holter is improving slowly from a severe attack of grip taken early in the fall.

Our merchant, Mr. Jerry Glenn, has gotten the proper spirit for good. He closes the store at 7 o'clock, so the people will go to hear good sermons, uplifting in every way, and if heeded we will have a Godly little village.

Four of our energetic ladies became anxious to help a good cause, and fearing a lack of the proper spirit to pay our pastor promptly, they had an excellent supper at the hall last Saturday night, clearing $25 for their efforts. It was a very bad night and but few were there. Those who were there had the spirit of "helping somebody today." Ladies our hats are off to you. Come again.

We regret to learn of the death of ex-Gov. Beaver, reminding us that the good men are falling one by one. He was a valiant soldier in war, equally as energetic for christian work.

Mrs. Curtin returned from Tyrone Saturday where she attended a large party given by her niece, Mrs. H. D. Cree.

Mrs. Roy Hazard came home to see her sister, who has been quite sick; some better at this writing.

A cook is wanted in Frog Hollow, now go and ask George about it.

BABY ONE MASS OF PIMPLES

On Face, Chest and Back. Pimples Became Yellow and Started to Get Crusty-like. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment a Week. Skin Clear and Not a Scar on His Body.

Treichlers, Pa.—"When my baby boy was a week old small red pimples appeared on his forehead. A couple of days later his face, chest and back were just one mass of pimples. The pimples looked something like prickly heat. They became yellow and started to get crusty-like. He was very cross and fretful and he lost his rest at night. I also lost my rest and sat up whole nights. He acted as if they were itchy. I didn't know what to do and he was getting worse. It caused disfigurement and some people said it would leave scars.

"I used cold cream which I thought only made it worse. My neighbor advised me to get Cuticura Soap and Ointment. He was affected about two weeks before I used them. From that time on he rested just as good as any child can rest. When I had used the Cuticura Soap and Ointment a few days the dead skin came off. In a week's time his skin was as clear as anybody's and there is not a scar on his whole body." (Signed) Mrs. Wm. B. Coffin, Apr. 3, 1913

Cuticura Soap 25c. and Cuticura Ointment 50c. are sold everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address: Post-office "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston, 1."

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.
