ay, Mrs. Statton, being ill. Our sick this week are, Mrs. Homer Gentzle, Mrs. Emma Bathurst, Ellis Shultz and Mrs. John Statton; we hope for their speedy recovery. A series of meetings is being held in the M. E. church; we wish them success with a great and glorious revival. Latimer Curtin, of Graceton, was the guest of his mother, Mrs. V. E. Curtin, last week.

A party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rockey, recently, in honor of their daughter, Miss Margaret. Refreshments were served consisting of ice cream and cake.

CURTIN, No. 2.

The meeting in the M. E. church is still in progress. There have been some soul-stiring sermons by pastors Revs. Piper and Dunning and Evangelical minister, Sory. Rev. Dunning and wife sang a most touching piece Friday evening; they do soul-singing.

New Fraternity Chapter at State.

On Friday of last week the Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity installed a chapter at Pennsylvania State lege. For a number of years the Del-phi Club had been petitioning the national fraternity for a charter which was granted during the latter half of last year. The interval between midyear examinations having been deided upon as the proper time the local club was duly installed with much ceremony. This ceremony took place on Friday evening, February, 6th. On Saturday afternoon between the hours of three and six a recep-tion was tendered by the club to members of the college faculty and friends. Saturday evening a banquet was held at Nittany Inn at which function the members of the newly created chapter were more thoroughly

"Friday, the 13th" Falls This Month Our little friend, February, who came into our midst recently, is on the square, if nothing else. This little fellow, as always, excepting during Leap Year, has only 28 days, but it so happens this time that they constitute four even weeks, beginning on Sun-day and ending on Saturday.

Little February also has a punch up its sleeve for the superstitious folk. for the second Friday in it falls on the 13th, thereby unleasing a "Friday, the 13," for the calamity yelpers to work out themselves upon. If you have any little thing to perform which think might be indusive of hard luck, try it on the 12th or 14th; by all means side-step "Friday, the 13," with
