EDITORIAL.

South Americans have found out one thing we never suspected about "T. R." They find he is diplomatic.

Democrats who wish to vote at the primaries must be registered and enrolled. The last opportunity in townships and boroughs is March 18th.

President Wilson seems determined to leave the progressive party with nothing much to do, but endorse his wise acts.

Miss Margaret Woodrow Wilson's plea for the use of the school house as social centers shows that she has inherited a fair share of Papa's brains.

Tiger skins are the latest fad in Paris. New York has one it would be willing to dispose of cheaply, but unfortunately it is still on the Tammany Tiger.

Senator Penrose says the Mexican question will be an issue in the approaching state campaign. Senator, why not the Balkan War, the earthquake in Japan, or the Panama-Pacific Exposition? They are all as near to the issue in Pennsylvania and have about the same bearing upon it. The senator cannot be blamed for wantin gto take eyes off of the Pennsylvania situation.

Those Republican Congressmen who have been turned down for endorsement by the Washington Party people of their districts have only themselves to blame for their dilemma. Either ing they were conservative or reactionary. This was clearly pointed out by their Democratic opponents at the time. If they have chosen to be Penrose followers since 1912, they have no claim upon the suffrage of Progressives, and this is what their recprimaries. ord shows.

of Harrisburg, who from the beginning has been a leader in our move-ment in Pennsylvania, will be a candidate for governor." "I have no doubt whatever, that he will receive the nomination, for he personifies, as no other man in the state, the plans, aims and purposes of the progressive Democracy of Pennsylvania. His success will sound the death-knell of the bi-partisan alliance through which the great in-terests have long dominated the state's affairs."

Mr. Palmer saw the reporters at his office later and there issued his formal statement and commented upon the issues in the Pennsylvania fight. "Will you make your issue on the tariff?" he was asked.

Senatorial Issue.

"The issue will be what President Wilson has done for the country and what Mr. Penrose has done to it," he replied. "The fight which the reorganizers made against the Old Guard will be continued in a clean-cut way. Mr. McCormick has been ever to the front in fighting for good government and for the redemption of the state from its long era of corruption and incompetency." "Do you regard Mr. Ryan as the candidate of the Old Guard?" he was asked

"He undoubtedly represents that faction. His candidacy was announced by Mr. Bonniwell, of that faction, who in a statement said the fight would be made to overthrow the reorganizers. Therefore, Mr. Ryan must be classed as of the Old Guard and is being supported by them.

McCORMICK'S STATEMENT :

a running comment on the situation, Mr. McCormick said :

"This will be a fight to determine whether or not the people are back of the reorganization movement. I believe they are, and that we will win in the primary. I welcome the fight. I believe most fully in the direct primary system; now the people will have a chance to choose for themselves.

Just look at the Ryan candidacy; it was launched with an attack on the State organization by Mr. Bonniwell, of Philadelphia. We wanted a harmonious party. Does it look like the Ryan backers wanted the same? We wanted a united party, so that the success of the party in the nation, would be followed up by success in the State. What's the alm of that attack? To disrupt the party organization. It's the old guard, that sec-tion of the bipartisan machine, trying to get back. Let the voters decide.

"The odd part of the attack which accompanied the launching of the Ryan candidacy was that it came at a time when the State organization was about to complete the redemption of the State. It was an attempt to destroy the State organization as an effective instrument for the public good.

From Editorial in the Patriot, Mr. McCormick's paper : "MR. RYAN AND HIS SPONSORS."

The announcement of Michael J. Ryan, City Solicitor, of Philadelphia, that he is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Pennsylvania, with its attendant and preceding circumstances bears all the ear-marks of a Penrose bi-partisan scheme to weaken and embarrass the Democratic party in the State.

the Democratic party in the State. "During the reorganization movement Bonniwell, who now appears as the sponsor of Mr. Rayn and who was recently elected a Judge in Mc-Nichol's bailiwick, did all he possibly could to prevent the success of the reorganization movement and to keep the control of the party machinery in the hands of the Hall-Donnelly-Ryan bi-partisan traders who had re-peatedly betrayed the party and sold it out to the Penrose machine. "All of Mr. Provide support so for as it has developed is confined to "All of Mr. Ryan's support, so far as it has developed, is confined to the old gang who put forth all their efforts to prevent the reorganization of the State Committee and the redemption of the party. "The sincere Democrats of Pennsylvania want harmony in the party and the enthusiastic support of its candidates and its policies by every man who believes in Democratic principles. But harmony will never be secured by a surrender to or compromise with the Penrose bi-partisan gang, which all the evidence shows is behind the candidacy of Michael J. Ryan.'

AN IMPORTANT MATTER.

Chairman Roland S. Morris, of the discussion of Democratic State Committee, in re-those who by mistake or design in the cent talks with the division commit-fall of 1913 enrolled as Republicans teemen of the state organization, and and who now wish to vote in the also by special appeal to the precinct Washington Party or Democratic committeemen through the state, has primaries, must expressly state this called attention to the very great im-portance of registration and enroll-place on either March 17th or March ment under the new primary and elec- 18th in towns and boroughs and not tion laws passed at the session of 1913. later than April 15th registration day On March 17 and March 18 in bor-in first and second class cities, and On March 17 and March 18 in boroughs and townships of the state, as-sessors will sit at the polling places

Either they deceived progressive voters in 1912 into believing that they were pro-gressive or they deceived the Repub-lican voters in that year into believ-cates of party preference or affiliations of those who have enrolled up to this time. We have yet to find a genuine Civil Service reformer who will defend, as a part of the merit system, such actions as that of President Taft in placing 40,000 Republican postmasters under a civil service blanket just before the Democratic administration entered office. It was never the intention of the civil service reformers to perpetuate a factional or a party control of all the public service. It was their intention to take the service out of the hands of politicians and give any man, of whatever party. a chance to enter the service without being barred by the interference of some petty politician. President Wilson's order requiring genuine competition and appointment on merit of the postmasters covered by President Taft's order is much more in keeping with the spirit of the civil service act than was the Taft order itself.

National Chairman Lauds Palmer. After holding a conference with President Wilson, recently Wil-liam F. McCombs, Democratic Nationof 1913. al Chairman, complimented Congress-man A. Mitchell Palmer for the clever way in which he is handling the leadership in Pennsylvania. Mr. Mc-Combs also stated, that he had dis-cussed at length the "various state chissed at length the "various state situations," preparatory to the fall Congressional campaign, "I told the President" Chairman McCombs said, "a great deal about Pennsylvania State Democracy. I have found in my visit to Philadelphia and other cities in Pennsylvania that Mr. Palmer has built up a formidable fighting organization; one that is sure to get results at the fall election. I am very hopeful that Pennsylvania will redeem itself; that it shall place Democrats in power, and then only will the people be given the laws for which they apbe given the laws for which they ap-pealed in vain to the Republican Leg-islature. In business conditions throughout the country, and I have traveled a good deal of late, I found a spirit of confidence and optimism, and trade conditions have shown decided improvement since the passage of the Currency Act." Currency Act."

Crisis Approaching. The most sensational thing that has happened in Washington for many weeks was the lifting by President Wilson of the Embargo on arms and ammunition exported into Mexico. This removes a handicap from the in-surgents or constitutionalists lead by Caranza against the Huerta defacto government. Heretofore the insur-gents have been unable to obtain arms and ammunition from this country and with the lifting of this embargo they will now be abundantly equipped and with the lifting of this embargo they will now be abundantly equipped and in a few weeks it is believed that they will smoke the usurper Huerta out. This is greatly to be desired because the patriotic people of Mexico are back of Caranza and are anxious to see him drive the bloody monster Huerta, from the presidential office.

The article in the first column is the concluding paragraph of an article bearing upon the liquor licenses in Centre county, written by a Bellefonte minister and published in a recent issue of the "Keystone Gazette." In the second column is the explanation of the first article, as found in last week's issue of the "Gazette." Both are submitted for careful perusal:
