—The handsome and commodious double brick dwelling house which the Lambert sisters are erecting on West Logan street is nearing completion and will be ready for occupancy April 1st. It has already been rented and Albert Thompson will occupy the east side and Edward Decker the west side of the house. Gehret & Lambert are the contractors who erected the building.

—W. A. Resser, of Bucyrus, Ohio, who has been spending the past seven weeks with Daniel Heckman and other Centre county friends, left Bellefonte Tuesday for Windber where he will visit friends and then proceed to his home in Ohio. This is his first visit east in thirty years and he enjoyed it very much. He wishes through the columns of this paper to thank his friends and relatives for their hospitality during his stay here.

—Miss Frances Swope, who is in charge of the state tuberculosis dispensaries here and at Lock Haven, had her watch stolen from the office of the dispensary at the latter place last week. It was learned that a boy from Mill Hill had been trying to sell a watch and that he had been in the dispensary. Upon investigation he was placed under arrest and given a hearing before Alderman J. C. Smith, at Lock Haven to whom he confessed his guilt. He was placed in jail and will be given a trial before the juvenile court in Clinton county. The lad is only nine years old.

—On last Friday afternoon the usual exercises at the Bellefonte High School were suspended while the girls of the school sang the praises of their foot ball team and gave a history of their team's achievements during the past season, which by the way was the most successful season in the history of the school. The boys were then presented with their "B" and officers for the ensuing year were elected. The members of the squad are as follows: Andrew Saylor, Samuel Rhinesmith, Max Cronmiller, Allen McClellan, Harold Hartwick, Leroy Hartwick, captain; Lew Wallace, Fred Geager, Marshall Cook, Paul Gentzel, Carl and Charles Dietrick, Joseph Kinsey, manager; James Gilligan, coach. Prof. Jones E. Wagner made a short address in which he praised the work of the team in the past season and extended the hope that they would keep the good work up in the year to come. On Wednesday evening the girls of the High School gave the foot ball squad a banquet in the High School building.

—The Lole Francis Stock Company that was to have appeared at the opera house this week cancelled their engagement at the last moment and will regret the loss of local theatre-goers. This is an excellent company and Mr. Garman is confident that he can secure it at some future date.

—The announcement was received in Bellefonte this week of the approaching marriage of Mr. Charles Harris, son of Mrs. Rachel Harris, of this place, and Miss Mary McCabe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. McCabe, of Washington, D. C., which happy event will take place in Dr. Woods' church, the Presbyterian at this place, and Miss Saturday, Feb. 14th, at 12 o'clock noon.

—Rev. W. B. Sprague, the newly installed pastor of the United Brethren church in this place, was so unfortunate as to fall on the pavement near the residence of Dr. Kirk, west High street, last Friday forenoon, and seriously injured his right leg. The Reverend was on his way to take dinner at the home of one of his parishioners, and as a consequence of the accident was compelled to forgo that pleasure and seek medical attention. He recovered sufficiently to conduct the usual church services on Sunday and on Monday morning left for his former home in Olean, N. Y., to make preparations for moving his family and household effects to Bellefonte. He was accompanied by John Ammerman, who will assist him in getting his goods shipped, and by the end of the week, Rev. and Mrs. Sprague and their daughter are expected to be comfortably located in the Bellefonte parsonage. Although having but a brief opportunity thus far in getting acquainted with our citizens, Rev. Sprague has made a pleasing impression upon all who have met him and heard his scholarly interpretation of the scriptures.

—Speaks His Gratification.

—Rev. James P. Hughes, principal emeritus of the Bellefonte Academy, speaks "right out in meeting" when he feels a public measure is right or wrong. Talking incidentally of national affairs, while in the Democrat office on Wednesday, Mr. Hughes said: "I am gratified to know although an old-line Republican, that President Woodrow Wilson and Senators Chilton, Summers and others have considered treaties and honor above politics, and principle above party, in regard to the Toils question."

—Youthful Hikers Reprimanded.

—Jimmie Jones, aged 13, and Mark Brown, aged 14, who walked across the mountains from Lewistown to Bellefonte, were locked in a room when they appeared at the home of an uncle. It is believed by the time they had a reckoning with their fathers the desire to run off will be completely eradicated from their minds.

—Williamsport Commercial College.

—Many good positions have been filled this year with banks, railroads, wholesale, manufacturing and other companies. A business education will pay anyone. We can help you. Write for catalogue. Enter any time. P. E. Healey, Proprietor.

RECENT DEATHS.

—STILES:—Holland Stiles, a native of Bald Eagle valley, this county, and a well known lumberman and civil war veteran, died on Saturday afternoon at his home in Tyrone, aged about 70 years. He is survived by his wife, three sons, three brothers and one sister.

—WASHBURN:—Winford Washburn, of Tyroneville, died in the Lock Haven hospital on Saturday afternoon from a complication of diseases, aged 70 years. He leaves to survive three sons and one daughter. Burial was made in the Tyroneville cemetery on Sunday afternoon.

—MILLER:—Francis Asbury Miller died at his home in Tyrone, Thursday evening at eleven o'clock of Bright's disease. Mr. Miller was a native of Millin county but had been a resident of Tyrone for thirty years. He was employed as a conductor in the Tyrone yards by the Pennsylvania Railroad. He leaves a wife and eight children all of Tyrone. Also the following brothers and sisters: William and Robert, of Bald Eagle and Mrs. Mary Hamler, of Phillipsburg and Miss Winnie, of Bald Eagle.

—AMMERMAN:—W. T. Ammerman died Friday, January 23, at his home in Union Furnace, aged 63 years, 4 months and 13 days. Death was due to malaria and dropsy. He leaves to survive a wife and three children, namely: Mrs. Robert Askins and Mrs. Flora Kercher, of Lock Haven, and Joseph Ammerman, of Pine Station. Also the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Mary Hamler, of Phillipsburg; Maggie Hanscom, of Centre Hall; Mrs. Bertha Gross, Mrs. Etta Hardigan, of Bellefonte; Samuel and Joseph Ammerman, of Birmingham, and Charles Ammerman, of Bellefonte. Interment was made at Union Furnace.

—KELLY:—Mrs. Sarah E. Kelly, wife of Michael D. Kelly, of Snow Shoe, passed away in the Clearfield hospital on Tuesday, February 3rd. She had been ill about two months and was taken to the hospital for an operation. The deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hagan and was born at Snow Shoe on December 2nd, 1844, hence was 49 years, 2 months and 1 day old. Her father, Mr. L. Houser, lived in and about Snow Shoe. Surviving her are her husband and ten children, namely: May, James, Patrick, Edward, Leo, Cecelia, Threna, Elmer, Robert and Mary, all at home. Mrs. James, who is married. She was a faithful member of the Catholic church and the funeral was held from the church at Snow Shoe, Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment in the Snow Shoe cemetery.

—HOUSER:—Mrs. Eliza Houser, widow of the late Jacob Houser, died at her home at Houserville, Thursday morning, February 5th, at 7 o'clock of diseases incident to old age. She was born at Oak Hill, April 6th, 1821, and was 92 years and 9 months, 9 days and 30 days. Her husband was one of the founders of the village of Houserville and there practically all her married life was spent. Surviving her are one son, Dr. M. L. Houser, of Bellefonte, and one daughter, Mrs. Herbert Altman, of Houserville. She also leaves two brothers, Abner Murray, of Boalsburg, and John E. Murray, of Lemont. Mrs. Houser was married to her late husband in 1851 and up until a short time before her death was in possession of all her faculties. She was a life long member of the Lutheran church. The funeral was held at 2 o'clock Saturday morning at the residence of Rev. J. I. Stonecypher, officiated, and interment was made at Houserville.

—BIBLE:—Jonathan Bible, a well known citizen of Centre Hill, Potter township, died at his residence in that place on Saturday morning, Feb. 7th, of Bright's disease, aged 69 years, 8 months and 7 days. Deceased was born and reared in Potter township where he followed the occupation of farming. He leaves to survive, his wife, Mrs. M. Bible, also three children, namely: Harry, of Altoona, and Bertha and Nellie at home; also four brothers and one sister: John Bible, of Centre Hill; Samuel Bible, of Oak Hill; Jacob Bible, of Phoenixville; David Bible, of Pottsville, and Mrs. Miley Miller, of Kansas. Mr. Bible was for many years past a member of the Methodist Episcopal church. Funeral services were held at his late home on Tuesday afternoon and were conducted by Rev. Foss of the Evangelical church, and Rev. Jones of the Reformed church. The body was taken to Sprucecroft for interment.

—TANYER:—Jesse Tanyer, a native of Pennsylvania, Centre county, but for many years past a resident of Tyrone, died at his home in that place on Monday evening, of Bright's disease, aged about 79 years. He is survived by his wife formerly Miss Susan Potter, of Pine Grove Mills, to whom he was married fifty-one years ago, and the following children: Mrs. John B. Grazier, Tyrone; Mrs. Peter Musey, Youngstown, Ohio; F. C. Tanyer, Martinsburg; Mrs. Grace Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Arthur Summers, Miss Margaret Tanyer, all of Youngstown, and Albert Tanyer, Tyrone. Deceased was a son of Joseph and Frances Tanyer, early settlers of Pennsylvania, and was born near Penn Cave, to whom he was a cooper by occupation and worked at this trade for many years. About sixty years ago he united with the Methodist Episcopal church and his life was lived in accordance to the teaching of that faith. Funeral services were held at his late home in Tyrone on Wednesday evening, and this morning the body will be taken to Julian for interment.

—CRISSMAN:—Mrs. Sara Ella Crissman, wife of W. Homer Crissman, passed away Tuesday morning at 2:40 o'clock at her home on North Thomas street. She had been in failing health for several months past and death was due to angina pectoris. The deceased, whose maiden name was Sarah Ella Bright, was the daughter of Geo. W. Bright, of Tyrone, who died at Sunbury, December 19th 1852 and was therefore aged 61 years, 1 month and 21 days. She was married February 16th 1881 to W. Homer Crissman and for several years they resided at Snow Shoe. Later they moved to Bellefonte where they have resided ever since. She was a kindly, christian woman and a faithful wife and mother. She was loved and respected not only by her family but by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. Surviving her are her husband and the following children: Mrs. Alexander E. Cromer, of Baldwinsville, N. Y.; Frank P. of Sunbury; Laura B. and Helen at home. She also leaves three sons as follows: Mrs. Esther A. Hendricks, Mrs. Eliza A. Hendricks and Mrs. Edward M. Schindel, all of Sunbury. The funeral will take place on Friday morning at 10 o'clock from the residence. The deceased was a member of the Presbyterian church and her pastor, Rev. George E. Hawes D. D. will have charge of the services. Interment in the Union cemetery.

—FLOREY:—Mrs. Rebecca Florey, of Linden Hall, widow of the late George Florey died at her home in that place Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, after a brief illness with pneumonia. She is survived by one son, William Florey, of Centre Hall, and two daughters, Mrs. Mary Snyder, of Jersey Shore, and Gertrude at home. She also leaves one brother and a sister, namely: Jacob Fultz, of Woodward, and Mrs. Matilda Neese, of Halfmoon valley. Deceased was the daughter of Jacob and Rebecca Fultz and was born January 6, 1841; her age, therefore, at time of death was 73 years and one month. Her marriage with Mr. Florey took place on March 23rd, and they lived happily together until the death of the husband in 1900. Mrs. Florey was a life-long member of the Evangelical church, and was a kind, christian woman. She was also a member of the W. C. U. of Centre county, and took an active interest in the cause of temperance. Funeral services were held on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by the Pastor of the W. C. U. of Centre county, and took an active interest in the cause of temperance. Funeral services were held on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by the Pastor of the W. C. U. of Centre county, and took an active interest in the cause of temperance. Funeral services were held on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by the Pastor of the W. C. U. of Centre county, and took an active interest in the cause of temperance.

Rev. R. S. Oyer's Good Work.

The Clearfield Progress speaks the following approval of the work of Rev. R. S. Oyer, a former Centre county pastor, who is now in the midst of a successful revival:

"A crowd that far exceeded anything that the writer's experience filled the Eleventh Street church Sunday night and under the inspiration of sermon and song the great audience witnessed men and boys take a stand for Christ. The effort was the success yet put forth, and the appeal of the pastor, R. S. Oyer, was so compelling that almost every unsaved person in the big crowd gave some evidence of leading the Christian life. During the altar service two men were happily converted. At least half a hundred persons have evidenced their desire to lead better lives during the progress of this remarkable revival."

—Ickes—Housel.

Mr. William Lester Ickes, of No. 1414, Sixth Avenue, Altoona, and Miss Miriam Olive Housel, of Milesburg, were united in holy bonds of wedlock on February 3rd, at the Simpson M. E. church at Altoona by Rev. V. T. Rhue, pastor of the church. After a wedding tour in the eastern cities they will reside in Altoona. Among those present at the wedding were Mrs. C. H. House, and daughter, Malcolm of Milesburg; Mrs. N. J. Ickes, Malcolm Housel, and Wilbur Housel, all of Altoona.
