Fifty-one sewing project heads were present and many matters of interest in behalf of all sewing rooms were discussed. Miss Detling was highly commended for the splendid work she is doing on her project at Beldefonte.

The march of civilization is hard on the natural beauties of the creek road leading to the Fisherman's Paradise. The road is being rebuilt and many of the trees that formerly shaded the road are being cut down. The destruction of the trees is also removing much shade from the creek. Local anglers still regret the destruction of the large old trees that lined the bank of Spring Creek about a quarter mile below the old Benner place. There apparently was no reason for the removal of this group of trees.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. Hoag, of Clearfield, after spending several days during the latter part of the week in Beldefonte with their respective parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Hoag and Mr. and Mrs. Harry N. Meyer, departed Tuesday for Elizabeth, N. J., to be the guest until the latter part of the week of Mrs. Hoag's brother, James Meyer, leaving their young son Robert with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Meyer. Mr. Hoag, an employee of the State Highway Department at Clearfield, is off duty on his annual vacation.

A new device for inducing the growth of hair on bald or partly bald places was installed this week in the A. Joe Favuzza barber shop under the A. & P. store on the diamond. The gadget, called a X-ray, is manufactured by the Crossley company, and was invented by Dr. Andre A. Cuetio, for the purpose of stimulating the growth of hair through a vacuum process. Wise acres might pun that maybe the process is to create two vacuums where only one was before. However, when installed upon a falling head of hair the scalp is massaged and manipulated by a vacuum created by an electric motor and there is no doubt, but what the circulation of blood is increased. It is the first machine of its kind in town and is becoming quite popular among those of us who are becoming baldish.

Among our many callers on Saturday was our good friend Frank Mackey, of Howard, R. D.

W. Albee Burpees Garden Seeds in bulk, world famous for quality. Sold only by H. P. Schaeffer Hardware, Beldefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Russell Hill and family will move, Monday, from the Dr. J. C. Rogers apartment on South Spring Street, to Altoona, where Mr. Hill has again become affiliated with the Household Paper Products Company.

While eating dinner at her home on East Howard Street, at noon Monday, Mrs. Clara Toner swallowed a small chicken bone which lodged in her throat. Upon advice of physicians Mrs. Toner that night was taken to the Gelsinger Hospital, Dcnville, where through X-ray examinations as well as examinations with a bronchoscope failed to reveal the bone which surgeons believe may have dislodged of its own accord. Mrs. Toner returned to her home here Tuesday night, and while her throat is quite sore, it is expected that her recovery will be rapid. It will be recalled that a number of months ago Mrs. D. R. Foreman, of North Spring Street, suffered a similar experience, with the exception that in her case Mrs. Foreman was compelled to undergo hospital treatment for several weeks.
