Echoes From the Past

Items collected from The Centre Democrat Files of Twenty Years Ago and Fifty Years Ago

The State College band held a festi- | The report that Mr. Fearon Mann was ral on Saturday evening which was about to move his axe factory to Mcquite a success. A special train convey- Keesport, is false. Mr. Mann having ed many persons from this place to no intention to do so. He will continue college, where an enjoyable time to manufacture his axes, which are was had.

The new store room in Crider's place. Block which is to be occupied by J. M. L. Beck, who was a son-in-law of Kyle McFarlane & Co, hardware deal- Mr. John Derstine of this place, was ers. will be pushed to completion as killed in an accident on the Pittsburgh rapidly as possible, as this firm desires and Western Railroad on last Tuesday to vacate the rooms they now occupy morning when the engine of which he to make room for a gentleman who was fireman collided with a work train probably will establish a large furniture. The remains were brought to Bellefon'te store in that place of business.

The cornerstone of the new school Highland cemetery. house at Philipsburg was laid last! Hulbert & Hunting's show arrived in ceremonies. About 150 Masons, head- pitched their tent in the open field ed by a band, formed in line and march- at the east end of Bishop Street At 11 ed to the site, where the exercises were o'c'ock a street parade was given and conducted by Dr. E. W. Hale of this Mr. Hulbert gave an interesting explace Rev. Monroe delivered the ad- hibition driving his team of horses dress, which is highly spoken of.

Cafferty of this place has the contract, day night, after an illness of only with bridge building.

ing them. The vehicle was completely ber who walked. in contact with the hard road, she was dence of the late John Barnhart, near procured and she was brought home. at 8 o'clock, to witness the marriage of She sustained no serious injury and Miss Kate Barnhart, a handsome and was able to be outdoors the same even- accomplished young lady, to Mr. Wiling. The boy escaped injury.

land and Mr. M. I. Gardner on last ceremony was performed by Rev. D S. Wednesday afternoon was witnessed by Monroe, and after the wedding feast, and priestesses who mixed superstitions magic centuries before Christ, yet it about fifty invited guests, the capacity Mr. and Mrs. McClure boarded the 9 and a belief in magic with their art was bound up with religion. of Mr. Strickland's house not admitt- o'clock train which took them to Philing a large number. The ceremony was adelphia and other eastern cities, performed in the usual happy style by Their many friends wish them a bright Rev. William Laurie, the bridesmaid and prosperous future. the minister as the impressive words, be wholly cured before returning . . . ed and respected young gentleman and Music, however, was conspicuous by its oft-repeated phrase, "Day by day in He founded a dynasty that became exist chief bookkeeper at the Lauth Iron absence... Y. M. C. A. Secretary every way I am getting better and tinet in 30 B. C., with the death of bookkeeper at the Lauth Iron absence... Y. M. C. A. Secretary every way I am getting better and tinet in 30 B. C., with the death of the bookkeeper at the Lauth Iron absence... Y. M. C. A. Secretary every way I am getting better and tinet in 30 B. C., with the death of the control of t rears a successful teacher in the Belle- and while absent, his place is being conte schools.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

among the very best made, at the old on Friday morning and interred in the Wednesday afternoon, amid imposing Bellefonte on Wednesday morning and without bridles, using only a whip to A new county bridge is being placed guide their actions. The tent was well deross the creek just above Snow Shoe filled during the afternoon performance.

Intersection. It is a much needed im- Mrs. Elizabeth Cunningham, wife of provement, and when completed will Mert Cunningham, died at her resibe a substantial structure. James Mc- dence on Beaver Street, on last Thursand work was commenced Tuesday. He few days. Deceased was about 54 expects to complete it in about three years of age, and leaves a husband and weeks. James is thoroughly familiar eight children-six boys and two girls -to mourn her loss. The funeral took On Thursday morning as Mrs. Wm. place on Saturday afternoon, services Utz and her son were ascending Nit- being held in the Catholic church. tany Mountain on their way to the The remains were interred in the Cathpicnic, their horse became balky and olic cemetery, twenty-five vehicles being backed into a team of horses follow- in the procession, besides a large num-wrecked and Mrs. Utz and the boy were A small but select company of ladies thrown out. The lady's head coming and gentlemen assembled at the resitendered insensible. A carriage was this place, on last Wednesday evening liam McClure, one of Bellefonte's most The marriage of Miss Clara Strick- exemplary young gentlemen. The Egypt as far back as 4,400 B. C. At this be proportionate to its offensiveness.

upon their return they will locate at Wednesday and Thursday of last week fore He quickens me'." Howard. The presents were very num- may be conceded a grand success, havcrous and also valuable. Mr. Gard- ing the largest crowd in attendance that ancient times but for all time. It etal under Alexander, became the ruler ner, the groom, is a very highly educat- ever assembled on Nittany Mountain, sounds far more effective that Coue's in 331 B C, at the death of his chief. ably filled by Mr. Albert Lucas-

TWENTY YEARS AGO

While making some repairs on a saw- | Dr. George Tibbins, Beech Creek mill near Pine Grove Mills. Samuel A. physician who had accepted service in Dunlap got too close to the saw and the Medical Reserve Corps. at Mineola. had an ugly gash cut in his left heel, N. Y., was reported to be in the Belle-Blaine Port, proprietor of a cleaning vue Hospital, New York City, suffering and pressing establishment in the Lyric from rheumatism.

building, was afflicted with a strangs Marriage licenses were issued to the malady. Suddenly and without any following couples: Willard C. Burd. warning his voice left him, and since Aaronsburg, and Florence M. Winters. then he had been unable to utter a Rebersburg; Galen Wood, Chrome, N. sound, although apparently in perfect J., and Verna M. Way, State College,

Seven men who had taken prelimin- Hayes, both of Snow Shoe. ary training in ordinance work at the Walter B. Rankin, son of William B Pennsylvania State College, received Rankin, of Bellefonte, was married to word to report for war duty by Octo- Miss Irene Rohrer, of Harrisburg, the ber 1. They were: Earl S. Orr, Fred service taking place in Stevens Mem-Witmer and Ivan Walker Belefone: orial M. E. church. At the same time Douald Strunk, Moses Hurwitz, Harold and place the bride's sister, Miss Helen Williams and Russell Foster, all of Rohrer, became the bride of Charles

Mr. and Mrs. R. Seymour Confer, of Police Harry Dukeman, and Howard Spring township, was feeding a horse Smead motored to Houtzdale to see the a handful of grass when the animal got Houtzdale team "eaten alive" by the the fingers of her right hand between its Pittsburgh Pirates. Honus Wagner, teeth. The middle finger was so badly covered first base for the Pirates and mangled that it was necessary to have was the star attraction. Admission was the first joint amputated at the Belie- one dollar, and about 4,000 persons atfonte Hospital.

frightened at a passing automobile and on the Pacific coast. named Col. Jackping the rider of most of his clothes and of the members of the committee. Col. his arm and leg. The horse also was in dealing with the differences between badly injured by the wire.

George B. Thompson, of Alto, was Neighbors of W. B. Krape, of Aarons-New York and Pennsylvania to operate usual, went to the home, and looking portable sawmills in France to furnish through a window, found him lying on other war purposes. Mr. Thompson and gave him first aid until the arrival had signified his willingness to go, and of a physician. He had suffered a

The Rev. W. M. B. Glanding, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church, Bellefonte, were he'd for his recovery. was found dead in bed at the parsonage by members of the congregation to The brickwork on the new Kelley and put in his appearance at the regular Wion garage began, and the steel frame Sunday morning service. The con- work had been completed. Vincent gregation was profoundly shocked when Taylor, a recent graduate of West Mrs. Blanding and their daughter, Miss he has been assigned to the 38th. In-Margaret, were visiting relatives at the fantiy Regiment. . Andrew Saylor. time, and when the pastor failed to appear H. J. Hartranft, H. P. Schaeffer for Portsmouth, N. H. to resume his and David Barlett, Jr., entered the service in the navy after having spent a parsonage. Death, which was believed furlough at his parental home. . . Capto have occurred in the early morning tain A. C. Mingle, of Bellefonte, was Calvin Troup, general superintendent of the Bellefonte Match Factory, had a miraculous escape from death Saturday morning when he was caught by a revolving belt and pulley and his body suspended in midair, supported mainly by his neck and head. He was applying dressing to a belt when in home manner he became entangled in the pelt and was holsted to the ceiling of the room, where his head was wedged against a board. He was unconscious stepped into water over his depth while when released by Willis Grove and wading in the Anacostia river and was other employes of the plant. Aside drowned despite the efforts of comfrom sprains, bruises and brush burns, panions to rescue him. The boy's other employes of the plant. Aside drowned despite the efforts of com sprains, bruises and brush burns. panions to rescue him. The boy's There is no medication for such a from injured, but under-lather was drowned in the same river condition. The very best treatment is are raise, but a serious epidemic of I think your mother will be wise to Proncunce mar-de-gra, both a's as in 12. No. If necessary to attract his went treatment at the Bellefonte Hos- in 1936 when he too wens beyond his strict cleanliness. pital for several days.

and Frank Burns and Kathryn H.

Storey, of Harrisburg,

Geraldine Confer, granddaughter of Sheriff George H. Yarnell, Chief of tended.

Robert Hoy, young Ferguson town- President Wilson, in appointing a ship boy, was riding a horse owned by special committee to represent him per-Ross, when the horse became sonally in investigating labor troubles boited into a barbed wire fence, strip- son L. Spangler, of Bellefonte, as one efficting several severe lacerations on Spangler had many years of experience capital and labor.

offered a position as captain of one of burg, alarmed when they failed to see two engineering corps to be recruited in the venerable gentleman around as umber for the battle front and for the floor. They forced an entrance was scheduled to leave April 1, 1918. stroke during the night. Although he was more than 70 years old Mr.

announcement of his death was made. Point academy, left for Syracuse where hours, was attributed to heart failure. named as a juror for the October term of the United States Court, which was to convene at Scranton. . Hassell Montgomery and A. G. McMillan had arranged to hold a dance at the Logan House. Music was to be furnished by the Academy orchestra and a novelty feature, in which all were to take part, was to be a "Green Spider" dance.

Dies Like Father

Alan Buckingham, 11, of Baltimore

What Do You Know About Health?

By FISHER BROWN and NAT FALK

1. Sometimes Answers: called "The Desert Scientist," Alhazen is the most famous of the Arabian opticians who made important contributions to the science of optics. Alhazen's treatise gave the first comprehensive survey of this science. He is particularly known for his studies on the refraction of light.

Yes. Perspiration factor of normal physical life. The chief function of perspiration is heat regulation of the body. A person cannot live if the body surface is burned so badly as to destroy the greater portion of the sweat glands. Bread crumbs dissolved in milk. This preparation was considered a most effective skin tonic.

Health and Beauty

MEDICINE IN ANCIENT TIMES-EGYPT

early period the healers were priests While medicine became separated from Egypt that have come down to us are broken bones were very skillfully set, the Medical Papyri which date about and other surgical operations had been 1,500 B. C. The Ebers Papyrus, tran- performed. We have no record of disbeing Miss Annie Meese, and the D. F. Fortney, Esq., is in Philadel- slated from hieratic into German by sections among the Egyptians though groomsman, Mr. Will Conley, of Miles- phia, where he is receiving treatmen. Jeachum and into English by Macalist- they were very careful to preserve the burg. The quartette presented a hand- at an institution devoted to the restor- er, is preserved in the University of bodies of the dead. The art of emsome and happy picture standing before ation of the hearing. We trust he may Liepzig. Though the date on the back balming as practiced by the Egyptians us into Christ"-Jeremy Taylor united for life the trials and fortunes Chestnut parties are numerous now- dence that much of the material dates mummy of a tall, handsome Egyptian debts. "The company being insolvent, journey? It does seem well night im- However, many thoughtful persons of the principals were spoken. Con- days (Ed. Note: What is a chestnut back to 3400 B. C. Besides prescrip- that was at least 3,000 years old. The filed a schedule in bankruptcy." gratulations followed when the guests party?) It is said while Governor Curtions there are incantations to be re- skin was soft and pliable. The nails were invited to the dining room where tin was standing in the Lafayette Hotel peated by the sick man while taking and hair were perfectly preserved. This in hand. sumptuous feast had been prepared at Philadelphia on Saturday night he his prescriptions. The following is an mummy was not even in a glass case for all. The 5 o'clock train conveyed was relieved of his gold watch by a excerpt: 'Whom God loves, he quick- but was exposed to the air. the wedded couple to the western cities, pickpocket. .. The Grangers Picnic on ens; I am one whom God loves, there- | When Alexander the Great con-conditions of people who were told that Medicine had its heydey.

ancients well understood. deadly diseases, and pollutions of every triumph.

ents of growing children.

tem through poor teeth.

very early age.

them himself.

sort which rush in upon me.' Many of the doses contained in the Papyri were nauseous and disagreeable-We have records of physicians in Doubtless the efficacy was supposed to

"The earliest medical writings of Many of the mummies show where quered Egypt in 336 B. C., medicine That is good psychology not only for took a forward step. Ptolemy, a gen-

Prayers and incantations were utter- experimented with them upon crim- as I do.

"One of the first requirements in the parents.

proper safeguarding of Children's "These articles will supplement the health is care of the teeth, since good work of the Department's corps of denhealth and good teeth are more closely tal hygienists who are now going into related than many people realize," de- the rural sections of the State to exclared Dr. Edith MacBride-Dexter, Sec- amine each child and determine the enough to see it your way and others retary of Health, as she discussed a sub- dentally healthy and the dentally unject that is too often neglected by par- healthy. Parents of children with poor teeth are urged to see their local dentist.

"Infected teeth provide a ready en-"Each child found with any dental trance into the body for disease germs defects is given a State Corrective Adand in the great majority of cases the vice Card to be taken home, advising germs that cause the degenerative dis- the parent or guardian to take the ease of middle age, which are largely child to visit the family dentist. The kidney and heart infections, can be reverse side of this card asks the dentraced back to having entered the sys- tist to certify that all needed corrections have been made. This results in "Having recognized the fact that such dental troubles being corrected be-germs can enter the system through the fore infections occur. teeth, we must also recognize the fact | "Always there are a certain number that this entrance often occurs at a who cannot afford such dental work. These dental hygienists then go to all "Parents that have the interest of the local social agencies asking for fin-their children at heart should watch ancial aid to pay the local dentist at over the youngs er's teeth from the day least for the material cost of such corthe first tooth appears until the child rections. They have been very successis old enough to realize the value of ful in receiving aid in their campaign good teeth, and has learned to care for to have the teeth of these unfortunate future citizens put in a healthy condi-"There is so much to learn in the tion.

proper care of teeth that the Depart- "Thus our Department of Health ment of Health is starting a series of considers it is rendering a needed serweekly articles on the subject, pre- vice when it warns its young and old pared by Dr. Milton J. Waas, head of alike to Guard Your Teeth. Here is one the Dental Division. These articles on of the finest types of health work. It the care of the teeth will begin next is Health Education. It is Health Pre- feel that the family is sacrificing so the entire panful. the Dental Division. These articles on of the finest types of health work. It week, and will be so written that they servation. And in the final analysis, will undoubtedly prove of value to all it is Sickness Prevention."

much last year?"

Mildred's mother looked searchingly in her daughter's eyes for some answer to her question. She should have looked at the girl's

For Mildred had acne vulgaris-pimples and blackheads to most folks. The girl was sensitive about her appearance as most girls are. Acne causes no physical disabality-but does look bad. It is caused, apparently, by some maladjustment of the endocrine system. Whatever it is, discarded cells pile up around the exits of sebaceous glands in the skin which block the openings and blackheads. In many cases anguish among school children. these oily glands increase their secre-

The openings being blocked, swelling was not pretty. occurs, infection by bacteria already present set in, and a pimple results. If there is no infection, there will be no "head," but a red, painful and ugly mound will appear—to gradually go away in time.

Blackheads should not be squeezed visit.

to school this fall? You liked it so devised for this purpose. Scientists are ence. What is your opinion? laboring to find some hormone preparation which may correct this functional overactivity of the sebaceous

If and when they do, there will be many grateful adolescents. This dis- expect to get out of college. Are you the winter. turbance is essentially a disease of ado- training for some special thing or are lescents. Some cases persist long be- you going because all of the other girls yond the 'teen age.

When such a condition appears in an ndividual older than 25 years it is bother with college at all? A finishikely caused by some occupational poisoning such as tars, oils or paraffin or the taking of goiter preventives to which the individual is hypersensitive. Acne vulgaris causes much mental

Mildred had good reason for not the circumstances. wanting to appear at school. Her face them sometimes occurs after a ship's let you do as you prefer.

DO YOU KNOW

Word Study for this lesson INNUMERABLE; too many to be able minds,"-Emerson.

INGRAFT; to implant deeply; join one thing to another. "Faith ingrafts is about 1553 B. C. there is strong evi- has been lost. The writer saw the INSOLVENT; unable to pay one's had had in that long, weary wilderness in the molding of our national life.

, question.

not wrong but makes it much more heavy."-Shakespeare.

ANSWERS

they would attain what they desired if | Cleopatra was a physician; also a | I work in an office that hires many would give them the land and would walk after other gods, and serve them. they only had faith enough in the in- literary genius, and showed great people. A young man is in the same con inue to do them good if they would and worship them. I testify against you cantations to make them come true, statesmanship until she lost her head office and we are very very congenial. "keep the commandments of the Lord, this day ye shall surely perish. As the The power of the mind over the body is over Antony. She had a wide know- He asks me out as much as he can to walk in his ways, and to fear him." nations that Jehovah maketh to perish practically without limit and this the ledge of medicine. Poisons and anes- afford to do so but that is not very often | What was it that Moses feared for before you, so shall ye perish; because thetics especially interested her. She as he makes just about the same salary his people as they crossed the Jordan we would not harken unto the voice of ed by the physicians when preparing mais in order to find out the duration | I think it would be a good plan if medicine for different parts of the body, and effect. She foiled the designs of we could go Dutch on our entertain- to which they had been led by God, such a warning? There are many who "Oh. Isis, thou great enchantress, heal Octavius by ending her own life by a ment. I pay my half and he pays his, was a "good land"—a land with plenty do. In the words of Moses, let us me, deliver me from all evil, bad ty- subtle poison and so escaped being but mother is horrified at the idea and of water, with fertile valeys and lovely "Beware" lest in our love for power and phonic things, from demoniacal and taken by him to Rome to grace his says that it will hurt his feelings. What hills; a land of wheat, barley, vines, fig material possessions we forget God. Ido you think?

ANSWER:

situation

Perhaps it would be better for you to pendent on him for a good time

However if such a course, as you suglunches, etc., unless he has especially wash the hands in soapsuds, rinse and cotton and use it to pick up the shat-dry thoroughly, and rub in a good hand, tered bits. Nasty cuts can be avoided LOUISA. lotion.

to a very expensive school but if she drops of lemon juice are added. does so it will mean that all of us will have to pinch pennies all the year. tional facilities are just as good and if cornmeal before frying. If the bacon I go there I will have nicer clothes, is placed in the frying pan lattice fashmuch to send me.

However, mother thinks that the so-"Mildred, why don't you want to go out but removed with an extractor ciety college will be worth the differ-

Kentucky-

are doing so? If your primary object is to get a little polish and meet rich girls. why more and get more out of it than you and his mother. will out of the high priced one, under happy when she is trying to keep up with a crowd she is financially unable to equal. She feels cheap when she point downwards. Tristan da Cunha is the largest of cannat return favors and she hates to the three volcanic islands in the South wear the same frock over and over Atlantic—halfway between Cape Town when there is so much luxury around. and Buenos Aires. The 169 inhabitants And then the fact of the family having appropriate to the hour of the day.

English Lesson bride-to-be and her mother to prepare ner?

tipping, is it good form for him to re- ed? fuse to give tips?

Do not say, "I disremember." Say, plate with point upwards or down- the first dance? "I do not remember," or. "I forget." wards? 4. May a woman staying alone at a gift that a bridegroom can give his Do not say, "Charles had no business hotel wear full evening dress?

5. What is "Mardi gras," and how pronounced?

to say that." Say, "Charles had no right (or reason) to say that."

Do not say, "It was a great big house." Say, "It was a large (or very large) tion for a motor drive? 7. When is the coffee poured, if "George?" Do not say, "Mr and Mrs. Wilson returned back home yesterday." Omit

Our Weekly

Words Often Misused

Do not say, "The reservoir pipe burst-

Do not say, "I see Mary most every day," Say, "I see Mary almost every Disremember is colloquial.

ed" Say, "The reservoir pipe burst."

Words Often Mispronounced Carnegie (Andrew). Pronounce karnagi, first a as in ah, second a as in day. i as in it. accent second syllable; or pronounce second syllable neg, e as in Gascous. Pronounce gas-e-us, a as Error. Propounce er-er, first e as in bet second e as in her. Effect (noun and verb). Pronounce both e's as in bet, and accent last syllable, not the first. Aarle (nest of a bird). Pronounce a-er-i. as as in dav. e as in her, i as in it, accent first syllable. Juliet (Shakespearean character) Pronounce joo-li-et, oo as in tool, i as in it, e as in bet, accent first syllable.

Words Often Misspelled

of); aloud (loudly). Dining; not dine- warning it is . ing nor dinning. Hazard, one z; gizzard. two z's.

"Use a word three times and it is yours" Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Words counted. "Our knowldege is the amassed though and experience of innumer-

APPREHENSION; fear or distrust. forget not the Lord thy God. "The pain of death is most in appre-

EXTENUATE; to diminish; weaken. "To persist in doing wrong, extenuates

LOUISA'S LETTER

Dear Louisa:

It would be impossible to answer our question, Eloise, without knowing the man. Some men might be sensible might, as your mother suggests, have an inferiority complex over such a do your part in another way. You could supply the home entertainment parties, etc., and let him pay for theatre ers are made out of crinkled crepe blankets for the baby, it is far more and dance tickets. The average man They are easily washed need no iron- econimical to purchase one large blanlikes to feel that he is paying for the ing, and there are a variety of attractive ket and cut it into four parts. Each entertainment and that the girl is de- colors and designs in the material to granter will make a nice sized b'anket.

Dear Louisa:

ANSWER:

It all resolves itself into what you brushed well before they are stored for to another, or shake it thoroughly in a ing school could do that for you.

Modern Etiquette

1. Is it the sole privilege of the served in the drawing room after dinand furnish the list of people to whom | 8. When the names of two or more the wedding invitations are to be sent? hostesses appear on an invitation, to 2. When a person does not believe in which one should the reply be address-

9. What does it indicate when a 3. When a meal is finished should man who has escorted a girl to a dance, the prongs of the fork be placed on the chooses another girl as his partner for 10. What is the most appropriate

|bride? 11. How long should a guest remain after a luncheon? How should one extend an invita- 12 Is it all right to address a porter on the train by the customary name of Answers at bottom of column.

Sunday School Lesson

GOLDEN TEXT: "Beware that thou forget not the Lord thy God. in not keeping his commandments. and his judgments, and his statutes, which I command thee this day."-Deut. 8:11.

Lesson Text: Deuteronomy 8:11.20.

Be sure to read the printed passage used as a basis of this lesson. If you All right: in best usage this term is have already read it, read it again carealways written as two words. Hearth fully, substituting in your mind the (pronounced harth, a as in arm) Re- thought that this was written for you hearsal; al, not el. Allowed (approved and the people of this nation. What a he may etablish his covenant which he

in the wilderness for the pleasant sur-roundings and abundance of the land Surely no thought for the ficsh-pots of Egypt. made and yet God did not forget his And let us go on, quoting the 19th se made to them. In spite of all and 20th verses, "And it shall be, if in at, e as in me, accent first syllable. GOD IN THE MAKING OF A NATION would soon forget the hardships of the wilderness, for instead of manna, there would be plenty of bread; instead of a search for water, there were springing wells; instead of tents, they would have comfortable houses. There would be nothing to remind them of their slavery in Egypt and their deliverance by God unless they chose to remember. Remember what? They should remember their dependence upon God and his goodness to them, because it was He who had not only given them this material abundance but "it is He that giveth thee power to get wealth' Why does God give this power?"-"that swore unto thy fathers, as at this day." What was that covenant-that he Realizing that his life was soon to would make of the Hebrew people a end and that his people were about to great nation as a reward for their exexchange a period of terrib'e hardship ercise of faith in him and obedience to Surely no thoughtful person can fail which God had promised them. Moses to see the similarity between the foundbecame fearful lest the people forget ing of the Hebrew nation and the the Lord their God which had brought founding of our own great nation. Our them through their difficulties and on ancestors seeking a place in which they whom they were forced to depend so could worship God without interfercompletely for such a long time ence, came over to this virgin land and. Therefore, he warns, "Beware that thou with profound faith in God and submission to his guidance, laid the foun-It is easy to ask, "How could the dations which their decendants build Israelites forget God after all that they upon. Surely, America, too, was and is had been through?" Could they for a "good land," literally flowing with get that it was God who had led them. milk and honey and surely none will fed them, given them everything they deny that God's hand can be seen possible, but, if we will recall, they for- would now cry out with Moses of old, PERTINENT; related to the matter got God and turned to the worship of "Beware lest thou forget Jehovah this "That is not pertinent to the the Golden Calf while Moses lingered God . . lest when thou hast eaten and on the Mount, talking with God; they are full, and hast build goodly houses, forgot that God was leading them and and dwelt therein, and when thy he ds refused to follow Caleb and Joshua and thy flocks multiply and all that into the P.omised Land, but instead thou hast is multiplied, then thy heart followed the ten cowardly spies who be lifted up, and thou forget Jehovah counselled retreat. Again and again, thy God, who brought thee forth out of they failed to remember and signed the land of bondage. . But they shalt remember Jehovah thy God, for it is Such a miserable record they had he that giveth the power to get weath."

> that they had done, or failed to do, he thou shalt forget Jehovah thy God, and and entered the Promised Land? It Jehovah your God." Do you believe was the peril of prosperity. This land, that our beloved country needs just ELOISE B. trees, pemegranates, olives and honey. Let us profit by the examples before us a land in which there would be no scar- and do all we can to save America from city of bread; a land which lacked the terrible fate which comes to those nothing. In it, Moses knew that they nations which have forgotten God.

> > Baby's Blankett

Broken Glass

or in any way desired.

by doing this.

The Household Scrapbook By ROBERTA LEE

Instead of buying several small Less work is required if baby's romp-The edges can be bound with ribbon, choose from. Nicotine gest, could be worked out it most cer- The yellow stains on the fingers that tainly would be a sensible one. A girl are caused by the nicotine in cigar- After most of the broken glass has who makes the same salary as a man ettes can be removed by rubbing with been swept up, but small fragments should not allow him to pay for her powdered pumice of a cut lemon. Then still remain, moisten some absorbent

The flavor of the tomato juice cock-My mother is thinking of sending me tail will be greatly improved if a few is placed under the shelf of the oven Bacon To prevent the bacon from shrinking

> ion only one motion is needed to turn Hot Water Bag

If the water bag is oiled with glycerine occasionally, the rubber will be pre- for the winter, c can each one thoroughserved and the water bag will wear ly, then rub with kerosene of with much longer. Bathing Suits The woolen bathing suits should be To jose that flat taste in boiled water, steamed over a boiling teakettle and pour it back and forth from one pitcher large bottle.

Cupboard Doors The cupboard and cabinet doors are easily soiled because they are handled so frequently, and will soon show wear, Waxing the door will remedy this and

A cake will not burn if a pan of salt on which the cake is baked.

also preserve the finish-Before putting away the garden tools grease, and store in a dry place. Boiled Water

Answers to Modern Etiquette

1. Not unless they wish to appear 6. This invitation is usually given But if you have a good mind and are extremely selfish and domineering, verbally or by telephone really anxious for an education, I think This privilege should be shared by the 7. The coffee is poured into tiny cups you will enjoy the inexpensive college bride and her mother, the bridegroom before bringing it in then served from and his mother.

2. No. We are often forced to do 8 To the one at whose home the things of which we do not approve, affair is to be given. No one can do his best work and feel but it is better to conform to custom. | 9. It indicates that he is ignorant

> 4. Not unless she has an escort Otherwise she should wear the most suitable for her to wear on her wedding modest and least conspicuous dress, day, 5. Mardi gras is Shrove Tuesday, entertainment, a guest is free to leave first and last syllables.

40 49 X 4 1 11

3. The prongs of the fork should of his duty, which is that he should always dance the first number with the girl whom he is escorting. 10. Some article of jewelry, usually ah, e as in me unstressed, accents on attention by calling him, merely say, "Porter."